

carried on. They include provisions for military and paramilitary troops, the occupied territories the Gaza Strip, and the West Bank. The United States has a responsibility to help Israel on the long journey toward peace.

Ms. DUNN of Washington. Mr. Speaker, it is with great sorrow and a heavy heart that I rise today to pay tribute to Yitzhak Rabin, Prime Minister of Israel, whose life was tragically stolen from him on Saturday. He was a man of great courage, a man whose dedication to peace ultimately cost him his life.

In an ironic and fitting twist, the brief capsule of time it took to extinguish the life of Prime Minister Rabin—intended by his assailant to destroy the hard-fought peace process—will instead solidify Prime Minister Rabin's status as a legend. The outpouring of sympathy and love for Prime Minister Rabin by the world community is matched only by the expressions of condolence by his own beloved, grief-stricken countrymen.

The work of Yitzhak Rabin was pursued not just on behalf of the Nation of Israel and her citizens. Peace accomplished between Israel and the Palestinians is to all of humanity's advantage. Peace benefits Jews and Arabs living around the globe, and the region as a whole—a region which has experienced too many troubles over a span of thousands of years.

The grief-stricken people we have all seen on the news has left me stunned, but not without hope that continued vigilance in the pursuit of peace must be maintained. The violent outbursts of the man who would become Yitzhak Rabin's assassin, the poignant pictures of earth being placed over the flag-draped coffin, the moving remarks of Rabin's own granddaughter paying homage to her cherished hero, the shocking sight of those blood-stained long lyrics—all of these images are etched in my mind and will serve as a constant reminder that Prime Minister Rabin gave his life for a truly honorable goal: the Israeli-Palestinian peace accord.

At Saturday's event celebrating peace, Yitzhak Rabin eloquently stated, "There are enemies of the peace process, and they try to hurt us. But violence undermines democracy and must be denounced and isolated." We must ensure that from him we inherit a legacy of peace, not violence.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BE-REUTER). Pursuant to the order of the House of Tuesday, November 7, 1995, the previous question is ordered.

The question is on the Senate concurrent resolution.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the yeas appeared to have it.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 416, nays 0, as follows:

□ 1335

Mr. ALLARD changed his vote from "nay" to "yea."

So the Senate concurrent resolution was concurred in.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. ABERCROMBIE. Mr. Speaker, during rollcall vote No. 769 on Senate Concurrent Resolution 31 I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present I would have voted "Aye".

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the Senate concurrent resolution just concurred in.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.
