THE LOBBYING DISCLOSURE ACT OF 1995

NOTICE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE SENATE AND THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, Public Law 104-65, was signed by the President on December 19, 1995, and takes effect on January 1, 1996. The Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act of 1946 (2 USC 261 et seq.) is repealed on January 1, and certain other laws that regulate lobbying activities are amended, including the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938 (22 USC 611 et seq.) and the 1989 Byrd Amendment (31 USC 1352).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: For further information, forms, and instructions concerning the Lobbying Disclosure Act, contact the House Legislative Resource Center, 1036 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, (202) 225-1300, or the Senate Office of Public Records, 232 Hart Senate Office Building, Washington, DC 20510, (202) 224-0758.

DESCRIPTION OF LAW

In general, the Lobbying Disclosure Act ("Act") establishes broad requirements that individuals and entities who seek to influence the Federal government register with the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, and disclose their clients, issues, fees, and interests of foreign entities. All registrations and reports filed under the Act are public records. The key provisions of the Act are summarized below; however, lobbyists, their employers, clients, and other interested persons should always consult the full text of the new law.

REGISTRATION

The Act requires registration of: 1) lobbying firms that employ lobbyists for clients; and 2) organizations that employ in-house lobbyists. Registration with both the Secretary and the Clerk is required no later than 45 days after a lobbyist first makes a lobbying contact or is employed or retained to do so, whichever is earlier (e.g., a lobbyist who has a retainer agreement with a client in effect on January 1, 1996, must register on or before February 14, 1996). Lobbying firms must file separate registrations for each client, subject to limited exceptions.

NOTE: Individuals and organizations currently registered under the Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act should file their final quarterly reports under the former law with the Clerk and the Secretary by January 10, 1996, to prevent a gap in the records. However, registrations under the former law will no longer be effective, and all lobbyists active after January 1, 1996, must register under the new Lobbying Disclosure Act.

Registration forms and instructions will be available from the House Legislative Resource Center and the Senate Office of Public Records in early January 1996.

REPORTS

Lobbying firms are required to file semiannual reports of income, and organizations employing in-house lobbyists are required to file semiannual reports of expenditures, by August 14 (covering the period January 1 thru June 30) and February 14 (covering the period July 1 thru December 31). The first reports under the new Act will be due by August 14, 1996. Lobbying firms must file separate reports for each client. Forms and instructions will be available from the House Legislative Resource Center and the Senate Office of Public Records.

MAIN DEFINITIONS

A LOBBYIST is an individual who is employed or retained for compensation to make more than one lobbying contact, and whose lobbying activities constitute at least 20 percent of his or her services performed for that client during a six month period.

A LOBBYING FIRM means a person or entity that has one or more employees who are lobbyists on behalf of a client, other than that person or entity, and also includes a self-employed individual.

A CLIENT is any person or entity that employs another person for financial or other compensation to conduct lobbying activities on behalf of that person or entity. A person or entity whose employees act as lobbyists on its own behalf is both the client and employer of such individuals. In the case of a coalition or association that employs or retains other persons to conduct lobbying activities, the client is the coalition or association, not its individual members. Under the Act, there is no requirement that coalitions or associations disclose contributions or dues from the individual membership of such groups.

A LOBBYING CONTACT means any oral or written communication (including an electronic communication) to a covered executive branch official or a covered legislative branch official that is made on behalf of a client with regard to:

- (i) the formulation, modification, or adoption of Federal legislation (including legislative proposals);
- (ii) the formulation, modification, or adoption of a Federal rule, regulation, Executive order, or any other program, policy, or position of the United States Government;
- (iii) the administration or execution of a Federal program or policy (including the negotiation, award, or administration of a Federal contract, grant, loan, permit, or license); or
- (iv) the nomination or confirmation of a person for a position subject to confirmation by the Senate.

The law provides for 19 specific exceptions from the definition of lobbying contacts (e.g. for contacts that are not considered lobbying, are routine in nature, are inherently confidential, are subject to formal procedural safeguards, or are the subject of a separate public record).

LOBBYING ACTIVITIES are lobbying contacts and efforts in support of lobbying contacts, including preparation and planning activities, research and other background work that is intended at the time it is performed for use in contacts and coordination with the lobbying activities of others.

COVERED EXECUTIVE BRANCH OFFICIALS include the President, Vice President, employees of the Executive Office of the President, Level I-V of the Executive Schedule, Members of the Uniformed Services at a pay grade above 0-7, or any officer or employee in a position of a confidential, policy-determining, policy-making, or policy-advocating character.

COVERED LEGISLATIVE BRANCH OFFICIALS include Members of the House of Representatives and Senate, their staffs, elected officers of either House of Congress, committee and leadership staff, joint committee staff, a working group or caucus organized to provide legislative services or other assistance to Members of Congress, and all legislative employees required to file Financial Disclosure Reports under the Ethics in Government Act.

IDENTIFICATION OF CLIENTS

Any lobbyist making an oral lobbying contact with a covered legislative branch official or covered executive branch official is required, on request of the official, to state whether his or her lobbying firm or organization is registered, to identify the client, and to disclose any foreign interest regulated by the Act. A lobbyist making a written lobbying contact to a covered official for foreign interests regulated by the Act must disclose that fact in the writing.

EXEMPTIONS

A LOBBYING FIRM is exempt from registration with respect to a particular client if total income from that client for lobbying activities does not exceed or is not expected to exceed $5,000 in a six month period.

An ORGANIZATION whose employees engage in lobbying activities on its own behalf is exempt from registration if total expenses in connection with lobbying activities do not exceed or are not expected to exceed $20,000 in a six month period.

PENALTIES

Whoever knowingly fails to—

- (1) correct a defective filing within 60 days after notice of such a defect by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House, or
- (2) fails to comply with any other provision of the Act, is subject to a civil fine of not more than $50,000.

KELLY D. JOHNSTON
Secretary of the Senate

ROBIN H. CARLE
Clerk of the House of Representatives
