INDIAN HEALTH CARE IMPROVEMENT ACT AMENDMENTS OF 2007

OCTOBER 16, 2007.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. DORGAN, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany S. 1200]

The Committee on Indian Affairs, to which was referred the bill (S. 1200) to amend the Indian Health Care Improvement Act to revise and extend that Act, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments of 2007 (S. 1200) is to reauthorize the Act to maintain and improve the Indian health care delivery system. This legislation is intended to raise the health status of American Indians and Alaska Natives¹ to the highest possible level in accordance with Healthy People 2010.²

S. 1200 builds upon current law to set forth policies, programs and procedures designed to address health care deficiencies in Indian and urban Indian communities, and to streamline service delivery to those communities. In addition, S. 1200 addresses the health problems and associated socio-economic conditions in Native American communities by authorizing the Indian Health Service (IHS) and tribes to adopt current health industry “best practices.”

² Healthy People 2010 is the major health agenda for the Nation. “It is a statement of national health objectives designed to identify the most significant preventable threats to health and to establish national goals to reduce these threats.” U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, www.healthypeople.gov.

BACKGROUND

Enacted in 1976, the Act established the first comprehensive framework for the delivery of health care services for Native people, including various health programs, projects, and facilities. The Act was last reauthorized in 1992, and authorized funding for various programs through Fiscal Year 2000. Public Law 106-568 included a simple extension of the Act's authority through FY 2001. Congress has continued to fund programs under the Act through the general permanent authority under the Snyder Act (25 U.S.C. 13).

THE REAUTHORIZATION PROCESS

The work on the latest reauthorization of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act began in 1999. Bills have been introduced since the 106th Congress³ to provide numerous improvements and updates to current law, many of which are contained in S. 1200.

In June, 1999, the Director of the IHS convened a National Tribal Steering Committee on the Reauthorization of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act (NSC), which was comprised of tribal leaders and representatives from Indian health organizations to facilitate the Act's reauthorization. The NSC held a series of meetings in 1999, during which extensive discussions were held between the NSC and Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) officials. The NSC also received technical assistance from DHHS officials during these meetings.

The NSC set out to craft a comprehensive legislative proposal that would reflect a consensus of the Indian tribes. With over 560 federally-recognized Indian tribes, each with unique histories, cultures, locations and needs, the NSC faced serious challenges. Despite the many differences, they coalesced around a draft document which formed the basis of the bills introduced, S. 2526 (106th Congress) and S. 212 (107th Congress). Neither bill was enacted.

During the 108th Congress, the Committee, the NSC and the Administration engaged in extensive negotiations over reauthorization issues, but action on a final version of that Congress' bill, S. 556, did not occur before the conclusion of the 108th Congress. Several recommendations developed during these negotiations were incorporated into S. 1057, which was introduced in the 109th Congress.

In the first session of the 109th Congress, the Indian Affairs Committee favorably reported an amendment in the nature of a substitute to S. 1057. In the ensuing months, the Committee engaged in discussions with the Administration—not only DHHS, but also the Department of Justice. Changes based on these discussions were made in an amendment in the nature of a substitute to S. 1057. In addition, the Committee worked extensively with the Senate Finance Committee on provisions in the jurisdiction of that committee, which were separately reported out by the Finance Committee on June 8, 2006, as S. 3524, and incorporated in to the amendment in the nature of a substitute to S. 1057. Comments were also received from the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee, on provisions over which that Committee maintains an interest, and many were incorporated. A new bill, based on the amendment in the nature of a substitute, was introduced as S. 4122 on December 8, 2006, the last day of the second session of the 109th Congress. No further consideration of that measure occurred.

OVERVIEW OF INDIAN HEALTH CARE HISTORY

The history of the Federal responsibility for Indian health care is quite extensive and well-documented in numerous sources, including past Senate reports accompanying prior legislation, (see, e.g., Senate Report Nos. 94–133, 102–392, 108–411 and 109–222).

Based on the U.S. Constitution, treaties, statutes and the historical, political and legal relationship with the Indian tribes, the United States has assumed a trust responsibility for the provision of health care to Indian people. Those laws and relationships serve as the backdrop for the government-to-government relationship.

Extensive research indicates that the health of Indians deteriorated after contact with the European colonists, as the aboriginal inhabitants had no natural immunities to the diseases carried by the new arrivals. Decades later, when Federal policy forced the Indians to relocate from their homelands and settle on reservations and, in many cases, prohibited the conduct of traditional practices—including traditional healing—the health of Indians continued to plummet. Thus, health care became a particularly significant element of the treaties and other agreements between the Indian tribes and the United States.

During the early 1800s, the health care provided was little more than vaccinations for the Indians around federal military posts in order to protect the soldiers and non-Indians from the possibility that Indians might spread diseases. During the late 1800s, physicians and hospitals were added to the reservations and other outposts. Mention of the provision of health care was included in treaties. For example, the Treaty with the Chippewa, Red Lake and Pembina Bands, of 1864, stated in Article 4,

The United States also agree[s] to furnish said bands of Indians, for the period of fifteen years, one blacksmith, one physician, one miller, and one farmer; and will also furnish them annually, during the same period, with fifteen hundred dollars' worth of iron, steel, and other articles for blacksmithing purposes, and one thousand dollars for carpentering, and other purposes (emphasis added).⁴

With respect to federal agencies overseeing the responsibility for Indian health, the task was first assigned to the War Department in 1803, then to the Interior Department in 1849, before finally being transferred to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (DHEW), the predecessor of the DHHS, in 1955. The Division of Indian Health within DHEW had initial responsibility for Indian health before eventually being renamed the Indian Health Service.⁵

In 1921, Congress enacted the Snyder Act (25 U.S.C. 13), to provide for permanent appropriations authority for Indian health programs and services. However, the Snyder Act did not provide meaningful standards by which to measure progress in Indian health status or other improvements in services.

The lack of standards in the Snyder Act and other organized efforts led the American Indian Policy Review Commission to conclude in 1976 that there [was] no clear overall direction or policy for implementation of the various programs. As a result, the Indian Health Services operates primarily an emergency and crisis oriented service. . . . This has resulted in increased prevalence of certain health deficiencies which are virtually unknown in the general population.⁶

Shortly after the responsibility for Indian health was transferred to DHEW, Congress passed the Indian Sanitation Facilities and Services Act, 42 U.S.C. 2004, which authorized the IHS to provide sanitation facilities to Indian communities. These sanitation facilities were critical to eliminating many health maladies associated with the lack of proper sanitation, such as dysentery and infectious hepatitis.

The administration of Indian health had initially been managed in a piecemeal approach, then ultimately was placed within the IHS, an agency of the DHHS. Based on that history and in fulfillment of the special trust obligation to Indian people, Congress passed the Indian Health Care Improvement Act to provide coordinated programs and meaningful direction in Indian health care administration. The underlying responsibility to provide health care did not originate with the Act; rather, the Act was passed after Congress recognized that a sea-change in administration and management was needed to ensure improvements were achieved in Indian health status and services.

THE PRE-IHCIA INDIAN HEALTH SYSTEM

At the time of passage of the Act in 1976, the information on Indian health painted a stark portrait of existence in Indian communities. Senate Report No. 94–133 accompanying S. 522, the Indian Health Care Improvement Act of 1976, which was signed into law as Public Law 94–437, indicated that the “vast majority of Indians still live in an environment characterized by inadequate and understaffed health facilities, improper or nonexistent waste disposal and water supply systems, and continuing dangers of deadly or disabling diseases.”⁷

Health Status. These conclusions were based upon the statistics at the time. For example, the “incidence of tuberculosis for Indians and Alaska Natives [was] 7.3 times higher than the rate for all citizens of the United States. . . . [T]he suicide rate . . . [was] approximately twice as high as in the total U.S. population.”⁸ Also troubling was the infant mortality rate for Indian babies, which was significantly higher than the national average.⁹

Health Professionals. Compounding the low health status were the difficulties in recruiting and retaining qualified health professionals—Indian health professionals, in particular—to work in the Indian communities. The available information indicated that out of 500 doctors in the Indian Health Service, only 3 were Indian.¹⁰ Overall, “in 1975, there were only 72 American Indian physicians to serve the needs of 1,000,000 American Indians, most of whom lived on Reservations.”¹¹ Likewise, only half of the number of pharmacists needed was employed in these Indian communities.¹²

Health Facilities. The conditions and availability of health facilities did not fare any better. A significant number of the existing facilities were over twenty years old. Many others were “old one-story, wooden buildings with inadequate electricity, ventilation, insulation and fire protection systems, and of such insufficient size as to jeopardize the health and safety of their occupants.”¹³ The Joint Committee on Accreditation of Hospitals (JCAHO) found that “only 24 of the 51 existing IHS hospitals” met accreditation standards and “two-thirds [were] obsolete and that 22 need[ed] complete replacement.”¹⁴

Funding. The funding available for the provision of health services to Indians also revealed significant disparities. For example, “[p]er capita expenditures for Indian health purposes [were] 25 percent below per capita expenditures for health care in the average American community.”¹⁵

Accordingly, the goals of the Act held great promise for the advancement of Indian health by improving the direction in programs and access to other programs, such as Medicare and Medicaid.

CURRENT INDIAN HEALTH SYSTEM

Since 1976, significant improvements have been made in the programs and funding levels authorized for Indian health through the Act and the amendments thereto. Yet, a comparison of historic statistics with current status indicators shows that, while real progress has been made, significant disparities still persist.

Indian Health Status. The Indian Health Service report 2000–2001 Trends in Indian Health indicates the age-adjusted death rates for American Indians and Alaska Natives for 1996–1998 was five times the rate for U.S. all-races in 1997.¹⁶ Despite a decrease of 64% over a period spanning 1972 to 1999, Indian infant mortality rates still remained 24% higher than other U.S. populations.¹⁷ Other Indian mortality rates far exceeded the mortality rates of other U.S. populations for causes including alcoholism (638%), diabetes mellitus (291%), unintentional injuries (215%), pneumonia and influenza (67%), gastrointestinal disease (38–40%) and heart disease (20%).

Even during the short period of 1997 to 2004, the “prevalence of diagnosed diabetes increased by 47 percent in all major regions (all ages) served by the Indian Health Service.” The most alarming increase, however, has occurred among younger American Indians and Alaska Natives, with a 160 percent increase from 1990–2004 for young adults aged 25–34 years, and a 128 percent increase for adolescents aged 15–19 years from 1990–2004.¹⁸

Recent information also indicates that suicide rates among youth in Indian Country are predominately higher than for non-Indian youth. In 2005, the Committee held two hearings on the issue of Indian youth suicide. A field hearing was held in Bismarck, N.D. on May 2, 2005, and an oversight hearing was held in Washington, D.C. on June 15, 2005. During the second session of the 109th Congress, on May 17, 2006, the Committee held an oversight hearing on suicide prevention programs and their application in Indian Country.

According to national data for 2002, suicide was the second leading cause of death for Indians of both sexes in the 15–34 year age range, and the fourth leading cause of death for both sexes in the 10–14 year age range. On the reservations of the Northern Great Plains (States of North and South Dakota, Iowa, Minnesota and Nebraska), the rate of Indian youth suicide is up to 10 times higher than it is elsewhere in the country. At several Indian health facilities, the demand for mental health care outstripped capacity.¹⁹ In at least one facility, the mental health services were to be cut by 20% in FY 2005 because funding had been depleted.²⁰

Another alarming and growing problem arising in Indian communities is the use of methamphetamines. The Committee held an oversight hearing on the problem of methamphetamine in Indian Country on April 5, 2006. According to the National Survey on Drug Use and Health, the past-year use rate during a 2002–2004 survey period among American Indians and Alaska Natives aged 12 and older is higher than every other population except Native Hawaiians or other Pacific Islanders and youth reporting two or more races.²¹

Health Facilities. According to the Indian Health Service's FY 2008 budget request, the IHS health care facilities system is made up of 163 Service Units (63 IHS, 100 tribal); 48 Hospitals (33 IHS, 15 tribal); and 603 Ambulatory Care Centers (92 IHS and 511 tribal) (consisting of Health Centers, School Health Centers, Health Stations and Alaska Village Clinics).²²

According to the IHS Health Facilities Construction Priority System, the estimated unfunded total cost to meet the need was nearly $3.5 billion as of FY 2008.²³ In addition, the backlog for the maintenance and improvement needs of current facilities was estimated at $408,956,000.²⁴

However, on the positive side, “All IHS and Tribally-operated hospitals are accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) or certified by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS).”²⁵

In addition, since the Indian Sanitation Facilities and Services Act, Public Law 86–121, codified at 42 U.S.C. 2004, was passed in 1959, “over 270,000 Indian homes have been provided sanitation facilities” which served to reduce “[t]he gastroenteric and post-neonatal death rates among the Indian people . . . primarily because of the increased prevalence of safe drinking water supplies and sanitary waste disposal systems.”²⁶ The IHS noted that “[i]n 1955, more than 80 percent of American Indians and Alaska Natives were living in homes without essential sanitation facilities.”²⁷ The age-adjusted gastrointestinal death rate was “15.4 per 100,000 population. . . . 4.3 times higher than that for all other races in the United States.”²⁸ But by 1995, that death rate was reduced to 1.7 per 100,000, although that 1995 rate is still 40% higher than the rate for all races in the United States.²⁹

In FY 2005, approximately $132 million was appropriated for sanitation facilities construction, of which $91.7 million was appropriated to the Indian Health Service and more than $40.4 million came from other Federal agencies and non-Federal sources such as tribes and state agencies.³⁰ IHS estimated that in FY 2005, the Sanitation Construction Program provided sanitation facilities to a total of 24,072 homes.³¹ However, the total estimated costs needed to address the sanitation deficiencies in existing homes as of the end of FY 2006 totaled over $2.2 billion, with projects considered economically feasible totaling $1 billion. There were more than 155,000 Indian and Alaska Native homes in need of sanitation facilities, including more than 38,000 which are without potable water.³²

Health Professionals. The number of Indian health professionals has increased since the Act was first signed into law. According to the latest Census information, there were over 1,300 Indian physicians and surgeons and over 10,000 Indian registered nurses.³³ These numbers suggest that the incentives in the Act have assisted in increasing these numbers. However, vacancy rates for key health professionals indicate that a substantial need still exists for qualified health professionals in the Indian health system. The December, 2006, vacancy rates for health professions with the greatest Types and Level of Services. The IHS, tribal and urban Indian health programs provide an array of basic medical, dental and vision services, including inpatient care, and routine and emergency ambulatory care; and medical support services including laboratory, pharmacy, nutrition, diagnostic imaging, medical records, physical therapy, etc.,³⁵ as well as other preventive, clinical and environmental health services. When these services are not available at their facilities, IHS, tribal and urban programs purchase medical care and urgent care services through the Contract Health Services program.

Even though basic services may be available at an Indian health facility, access to these services is not assured. In its study on the availability of health services to Indians in August, 2005, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) found that Indian patients often had to wait more than 30 days—in some cases two to six months—between setting the appointment for services and receiving the services, a time frame “in excess of standards and goals identified in other federally operated health service delivery systems.”³⁶ Moreover, “[t]he most frequent gaps were for services aimed at the diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that caused discomfort, pain, or some degree of disability but that were not emergent or acutely urgent.”³⁷ For example, in some cases, adult Indian patients “could wait as long as 120 days to get approval for eyeglasses.”³⁸ According to one tribal official interviewed by the GAO, these situations create an environment in which Indian patients become demoralized and may wait until their condition becomes “an emergency that required a higher level of treatment.”³⁹

The Committee is deeply concerned with the GAO’s findings and its conclusions that the disturbing result of these gaps are “diagnosis or treatment delays that exacerbate[] the severity of a patient’s condition and create[] a need for more intensive treatment.”⁴⁰ The Committee is further concerned that these gaps increase the costs of health care and diminish the potential for prevention efforts.

The Committee appreciates the Administration’s efforts in promoting prevention as a key to reducing health care costs, but believes a much greater effort is needed to reduce gaps in health services to Indians. Improvements are needed in all areas of the Indian health care system to ameliorate problems and delays in service delivery. The improvements outlined in S. 1200 for programs and policies, provisions in S. 1200 which would be new to the Act, including services for home- and community-based care, youth suicide prevention and convenient care services, and the National Bipartisan Commission on Indian Health Care study on the delivery of federal health care services to Indians are all designed to help address these problems.

THE INDIAN HEALTH CARE IMPROVEMENT ACT

In passing the Indian Health Care Improvement Act of 1976, Congress set forth ambitious goals for improving the health of Indians, including encouraging Indian participation in “the planning and management” of health services (25 U.S.C. 1601(b)). The Act “would provide the direction and financial resources to overcome the inadequacies in the existing Federal Indian health care program.”⁴¹ These goals built upon the foundation laid in President Nixon’s 1970 “Special Message to the Congress on Indian Affairs.”⁴² In his “Special Message,” President Nixon declared that “[t]he time ha[d] come to break decisively with the past and to create the conditions for a new era in which the Indian future is determined by Indians acts and Indian decisions.”⁴³

Breaking decisively with the past meant a radical change in health care delivery, beginning with the administration of the programs and policy-making. Placing administrative and decision-making authority in the hands of Indian tribal governments, rather than solely in the agency’s hands, was both a fundamental and logical change in the approach in health care delivery. Reconfirming the tribes’ authority to administer health programs, however, took several years to achieve.⁴⁴

Today, nearly half of the IHS budget is administered through tribal contracts or compacts under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act of 1976 (ISDEAA), 25 U.S.C. 450 et seq. Title I contracts and Title V compacts total more than $1.6 billion. The IHS currently administers contracts and Annual Funding Agreements with 245 tribes or tribal organizations, and 72 compacts and 93 funding agreements with 322 tribes.⁴⁵ These numbers not only reflect congressional policy of promoting tribal self-determination, but generate a higher level of cooperation among Indian health providers.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES IN THE REAUTHORIZATION

During the reauthorization process, a critical assessment of the Act was undertaken by the Committee and the Indian health community and several basic principles emerged. The history of Indian health and the interplay between the ISDEAA and the Act are key considerations in the development of sound Indian health policy.

Self-Determination. Since self-determination was declared to be the new direction in Federal Indian policy, tribal participation has significantly contributed to improving both health and other services for Indian people.⁴⁶ Meaningful participation by tribes in administering programs through contracting or compacting has been a principal means of implementing the self-determination policy.

However, simply administering a program designed and handed down by the agency does not accomplish the vision embodied in self-determination. Indian and Alaska Native participation is critical in the development of the framework of these programs and services. Tribal self-determination involves tribes designing or modifying programs, as well as formulating new ideas, concepts and methodologies of how those programs or services should be delivered to their own communities.

Negotiated Rulemaking and Consultation. Such participation means appreciable engagement between the agency and Indian tribes, and numerous tools have successfully increased that involvement. For example, negotiated rulemaking under the Administrative Procedures Act has been found to be useful in several initiatives such as education, housing and Self-Governance.⁴⁷

The Committee has received testimony from tribal participants in negotiated rulemaking that “true understanding among tribes and with IHS is achieved”⁴⁸ through that process. That “true understanding” is consistent with the Committee’s desire to foster consensus-building and reduce obstacles that negatively impact health care service delivery, as well as to carry out the government-to-government relationship between Indian tribes and the federal government.

The Administration has expressed concerns about the time and resource constraints involved in negotiated rulemaking. The Committee strongly supports fiscal accountability and decreased bureaucracy, but believes that the long-term benefits of negotiated rulemaking more than justify the costs which may be required in the short-term.

The Committee believes that the Indian tribal and urban health providers—as first responders in the health system—should be directly involved in developing health programs and the regulations that affect their service populations. Tribal involvement in rulemaking not only leads to a more informed rule, but it fosters tribal support. In addition, negotiated rulemaking can save costs to all parties in the long run. By building a higher level of consensus in the regulations, the IHS lowers the potential for legal challenges to the rules and associated litigation costs. The Committee favors consensus-building over litigation and encourages this long-term view. The concerns are further abated by the limited number of program criteria or requirements under the Act which are subject to negotiated rulemaking. Section 802 outlines the scope for negotiated rulemaking which is limited to Titles II (except for section 202) and VII, a few sections in Title III, and section 807.

Besides negotiated rulemaking, the Committee has favored consultation with tribes as another tool to increase tribal participation, but has generally left the manner or method of consultation to the discretion of the Secretary.

For example, the ISDEAA simply requires an annual consultation on the budget. However, the Secretary has in the past implemented a rigorous regional and national schedule for budget consultation, holding the 9th Annual HHS Tribal Budget Formulation and Policy Consultation Session in Washington, DC, March 28 and 29, 2007.⁴⁹

The Committee recognizes that the Administration has made efforts to involve Indian tribes in decision-making through the consultation policy issued by the DHHS.⁵⁰ The Committee also recognizes that the Department's policy has attempted to address a wide variety of matters affecting Indian communities. However, the Committee is concerned that the scope of the Department policy may not fully encompass all critical matters for which the Committee believes consultation should be used, or that comments received are fully considered.

Such matters involve the development of program eligibility or criteria, or relate to specific tribes, Indian population groups (e.g., women) or to special tribal history, customs, or practices. Consequently, remaining committed to promoting tribal input by institutionalizing consultation, the Committee has provided for robust consultation requirements in several key areas, while leaving the manner of consultation to Secretarial discretion.

Flexibility. In addition, the Committee believes that less bureaucracy and more flexibility are needed to tailor programs or services to address local community health needs.⁵¹ The Committee is pleased that the Administration has joined in supporting flexibility and new approaches to health care, and expanding the range of options of health services.⁵²

However, in the course of negotiating this legislation, the Administration has repeatedly indicated its preference to change mandatory programs to discretionary ones to meet budgetary constraints and to give the Secretary maximum flexibility.⁵³ The Committee has accommodated these principles based on the understanding that Indian tribes would also be accorded the same flexibility under the Act and the ISDEAA.

The Committee has been informed that, in the past, the Indian tribes had been foreclosed from implementing programs that the agency did not actually implement either under the Act or the Snyder Act, 25 U.S.C. 13. Simple program authorizations under the Act and the Snyder Act were deemed insufficient to allow the Indian tribes to administer the programs even under the redesign provisions of the ISDEAA.

⁵⁰ U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Department Tribal Consultation Policy, January, 2005, available at www.hhs.gov/ofta/docs/FnlCnsltPlycwl.pdf.

⁵¹ Flexibility also eliminates the need to identify each and every program that may be administered by IHS, the tribal or urban programs (e.g., the definition of "health professions" does not identify every profession that may be authorized). Many of the decisions or priorities are left to the Indian health providers to determine to implement as needed. The Committee is aware that the IHS, Indian tribes and urban programs engage in extensive budget consultations, sometimes two years in advance of implementation, where programs and professions to emphasize for scholarships is discussed.

⁵³ Id., at 596, and S. Hrg. 110-53 at 38 (March 8, 2007) (statement of Admiral John Agwunobi).

It is the Committee's intent, however, that simple authorizations are sufficient to enable tribes to implement programs, even if the Federal agency chooses not to, provided all other applicable provisions of the Act, the Snyder Act and the ISDEAA are met. The Committee believes that this interpretation is necessary to enable Indian tribes to meet the needs of their communities and required, if the Secretary is to experience the flexibility desired.

Oversight and Reporting. In the past, the Committee has been reluctant to eliminate certain mandates, such as those requiring studies. For example, many studies and reports mandated by the 1976 Act have never been completed. These studies were intended to provide insight into the accomplishments and challenges in Indian health and to assist the Congress in seeking new approaches to service delivery. The Committee is troubled that the health status of Indians reflects many of the same problems it did in 1976, and that several mandated studies, reports and programs in current law have been disregarded.

Consequently, the Committee has included in S. 1200 provisions which will establish a National Bipartisan Commission on Indian Health Care to thoroughly review opportunities for improvement of the Indian health care system. During the 108th Congress, the bill to reauthorize the Act, S. 556, contained provisions requiring the Bipartisan Commission to study the potential of funding Indian health as an entitlement. Based on the Administration's recommendations offered during the 108th Congress, the Committee modified the Commission's objectives to what is now included in S. 1200.

In addition, the Committee has included authorization of the Native American Health and Wellness Foundation, provisions to promote the mission of IHS in improving Indian health. This Foundation is not a substitute for the federal obligation to provide health services to Indians, but is intended to complement the federal obligation in ways in which the United States has fallen short.

While much discretion and flexibility is provided to the IHS throughout S. 1200, the Committee must preserve the necessary mechanisms to fulfill its oversight function. The primary means is through active reporting requirements by the Secretary. Congress simply cannot leave unfettered the operations of these important programs without appropriate assurances that Indian people are being served consistent with Congressional intent and priorities. Moreover, Congress should be informed of how and when these programs meet—or fall short of meeting—the basic health needs of Indian people.

KEY PROVISIONS

Several key improvements to the Act contained in S. 1200 are particularly noteworthy:

Health Professions. Difficulties in recruiting and retaining qualified health professionals have long been recognized as a significant factor impairing Indians' access to health care services.⁵⁴ Noting that many Indian communities are often in remote locations and lack adequate housing and educational and recreational opportunities for employees and their families,⁵⁵ the GAO reported that some critical positions such as for pharmacists and dentists remained vacant for several years in some locations.⁵⁶

The provisions in Title I address the health professional shortage in Indian communities. Congress specifically included these provisions in 1976 because the existing programs to improve manpower capabilities were woefully inadequate or completely unsuitable for Indian health providers and communities.⁵⁷

The programs existing in 1976 did “not link the recipients [of scholarships] directly to the Indian Health Service,” were “not designed to recruit and support Indians,” and were too limited in the “category of health professionals” supported by these programs.⁵⁸

Consequently, Congress developed a new approach and the IHS scholarship program was born. Fears of duplication were quickly disproven by the obvious need for and success of these programs in filling vacancies and returning Indian health professionals to the Indian communities. Today, the program has expanded to include a wide variety of health professions as determined by the priorities set by the IHS and the Indian tribes. Besides the scholarships, the program also now includes loan repayments, a tribal scholarship program, and bonus incentive payments.

These programs specifically target the needs of the Indian health system. For example, the scholarship priorities are developed through a year-long consultation process wherein the IHS sends the program information and request for priority to each Indian tribe and the tribal education and health programs. The comprehensive list is developed based on the IHS and tribal health professional projected needs, vacancies and available positions. By focusing on the specific needs of Indian communities, the Committee believes that this approach has significantly improved Indian health.

Targeting the specific needs of the Indian health system has become the hallmark of the Indian health professional policy. Likewise, a continuous and seamless transitional approach also is a key policy component in increasing the number of Indian health professionals. The Committee strongly encourages the Secretary to evaluate all opportunities to improve the chances of success for Indian health professionals, including obtaining the licenses or certifications necessary for providing health care services. The Committee has been made aware of the need to increase the number of licensed health professionals in the Indian health system and included provisions in S. 1200 to address that need. S. 1200 provides for portability of current licenses for tribal health professionals consistent with other Federal health licensing provisions. In addition, S. 1200 authorizes programs to enhance and facilitate enrollment in and completion of courses of study in health professions.

The Committee believes that the Title I programs should fully equip the Indian student trainees with the tools needed to transition into the health profession, including successfully completing all courses of study and passing the required licensing or board examinations. In addition, the Committee expects that the IHS would also ensure that scholarship recipients are provided every opportunity to fulfill their service obligations, including technical assistance in understanding their obligations.

The remedial programs, scholarships, grants, externships, service obligations and advanced training established in Title I are all designed to provide seamless opportunities for successfully recruiting and training Indians for health professions. As part of the long-term view of Indian health professions, the Committee believes continuity is necessary in administering the Title I programs.

The incentives fostered by scholarships, loan repayments, and bonuses are multiplied when combined with professional development programs for health professionals which the Committee believes to be essential components of recruitment and retention programs in the Indian health system. S. 1200 establishes several professional development programs in Title I such as opportunities for advanced training and research, tribal cultural orientation, training in the administration and planning of tribal health programs and tribal demonstration projects for innovative recruitment, placement and retention programs, which may include professional development programs.

Such additional training for health professionals is particularly important in developing leadership and collaboration skills and ensuring that a culturally-competent workforce exists within the Indian health system. The Committee strongly encourages the Secretary and tribal and urban Indian health providers to develop innovative programs or take advantage of existing models for such professional development to increase and maintain the number of Indian health professionals in the Indian health system.

In addition, the Committee takes a long-term view of health professions in S. 1200. The most urgent placement needs are in the direct care positions, such as dentists, doctors, nurses, and pharmacists. In the long-term, Indian health professionals are also needed in educational positions to bolster recruitment levels and improve the new Indian health professionals' chances of success.

The Committee has been informed that significant need exists at the tribal colleges and universities to increase the number of Indian instructors in the nursing programs.⁵⁹ The Committee recognizes that Indian instructors often have personal knowledge of the health disparities in Indian communities and a deep commitment to serve these communities for the long-term. Indian educators increase the likelihood of success for Indian students and bring to the classroom the unique cultural competence required in the Indian health field.

With that in mind, the Committee included provisions in Title I of S. 1200 allowing a scholarship recipient to fulfill his or her service obligation (required in exchange for the scholarship) by teaching in a tribal college or university nursing or other health related program, provided the Secretary determines that health services to Indians will not be decreased. In addition, the Secretary may, prior to waiving any service obligation or repayment of a scholarship, consider placement of a scholarship recipient in a teaching capacity in a tribal college or university nursing or related health program.

⁵⁹ Joseph F. McDonald, Ed.D., President, Salish-Kootenai College, Letter to Chairman John McCain, U.S. Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, September 22, 2005.

Other provisions for nursing grants were added to extend a preference in grant awards to tribal college and university nursing programs.

Prior to including these provisions, the Committee considered the likelihood that inexperienced, new graduates might be placed in teaching positions. One tribal college president indicated that “these [instructors] are clinically seasoned, mature [Bachelor of Science—Nursing] prepared nurses returning to school for educational and career mobility.”⁶⁰ Teaching positions available for these individuals would include lab coordinators and clinical instructors. This tribal college President also indicated that “new [registered nurse] graduates of associate or generic baccalaureate programs would not be qualified to teach.”⁶¹

The Committee believes these positions should be filled by experienced faculty and expects that the Secretary and the tribal colleges or universities would coordinate these opportunities and be selective in placing these individuals to avoid compromising the quality of education and accreditation.

The Committee strongly encourages the Secretary to examine the Title I programs with targeted, holistic, long-term approaches in mind and to develop more opportunities to increase the number of Indians in the health professions. The Committee believes that in the long-run, improving health educational opportunities at every level will also contribute to improving the health of Indian communities.

Home Health Care. Current law authorizes a feasibility study to be conducted on hospice care services. However, the IHS has never conducted that study and, now, 14 years later, to conduct such a study would greatly delay what have already been demonstrated to be much needed services.

The Committee has been informed that some Indian tribes and tribal organizations, through pilot projects, have provided this type of service or other services such as home health care with great success. The Committee is concerned that not authorizing these and other long-term or home health care services through the Indian health care system—services that have been an accepted part of the national health care system and Medicare since 1983—will prevent IHS and tribes from utilizing a proven, effective health delivery vehicle.

Currently, home health care, long-term care and hospice care are not readily available to most Native communities. Many Indians must travel long distances, only to be placed in facilities that are far from home, culturally unfamiliar, and not conducive to their overall well-being. Home health care is crucial for these individuals. Having culturally-appropriate facilities close to Indian communities not only promotes the patient’s well-being, but enables family members to more easily visit the patient.

Section 213 of S. 1200 authorizes services such as home health care, long-term care and hospice care, which are a standard part of the health care industry. If the Indian health system is to advance into the 21st Century, then Indian health programs must be authorized to make these services available for their Indian patients, if circumstances warrant.

However, the Department of Justice has indicated that it has concerns regarding the provision of services for which no standards exist.⁶² To address those concerns, S. 4122 in the 109th Congress included language that required standards to be in place from either the Secretary or the state in which the Indian health program was located. This type of requirement has been a part of the Indian health system as required in the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act.⁶³

Indian tribes want to ensure that the services authorized in Section 213 are consistent with those services reimbursable by Medicaid and, in particular, those services already authorized in compacts or contracts entered into by the tribes or tribal organizations and the IHS pursuant to the ISDEAA.

To that end, S. 1200 authorizes the Secretary to promulgate standards to govern any service in the absence of state standards. It is the intent of the Committee that those services already authorized in compacts or contracts will remain so authorized and that the Secretary is authorized to issue interim standards in the absence of either state standards or final Secretarial standards. The Committee expects the Secretary to act promptly to promulgate these standards, so that services to Indian patients are not disrupted or denied.

Convenient Care Services. Section 213 also authorizes the Secretary to provide funding to meet the health status objectives of the Act for convenient care services programs pursuant to section 306(c)(2)(A). Section 213 further authorizes health care delivery demonstration projects that include a “convenient care services” program as an alternative means of delivering health care services to Indians.

In including this new provision, the Committee seeks to address the lack of access to health care services that exists in so many tribal communities, which may be due to limited hours of operation at existing health care facilities, lack of staff, or other factors. It is the Committee’s hope that these convenient care services projects may expand the availability of health care, as well as decrease the need for more-costly emergency room visits, thereby reducing the over-stressed Contract Health Services budget.

Traditional Health Care Practices. For much of America’s history, the federal government’s policy of assimilation and termination sought to destroy Indian cultures and religions, as well as tribal legal, political and economic institutions. Indian people were denied the exercise of traditional practices or punished, should those ceremonies be practiced, as well as were punished for speaking their own languages and observing other traditional ways.

However, federal policy toward Native people has run the gamut, with the policy of one period often contradicting that of another. An example of such a policy shift occurred following the 1928 Merriam Report, which generated several initiatives to improve health conditions for Native Americans.⁶⁴ One reform was the active solicitation of traditional Indian healers to participate in federal health services to Indians.

The Indian Health Care Improvement Act currently contains provisions to promote long-practiced traditional health care practices of the Indian tribes served by IHS, tribal and urban Indian health programs, consistent with the standards for the provision of health care, health promotion, and disease prevention. Authority also exists for culturally appropriate health care with respect to specific programs (the Community Health Representative Program), specific elements of the Indian population (Indian youth and Indian women), and specific services and training (mental health). These practices encourage respect for and affirmation of concepts of Indian and Alaska Native cultural values, beliefs and traditions that Indian people define for themselves as a complement to western medical practices in promoting good health and curing illness.

Former IHS Director Dr. Emery A. Johnson, in "Policy and Procedures in reference to P.L. 95-341," the American Indian Religious Freedom Act of 1978, stated the Service's views as follows:

The Indian Health Service has continued to recognize the value and efficacy to [sic] traditional beliefs, ceremonies, and practices of the healing of body, mind and spirit. . . . It is, therefore, the policy of the Indian Health Service to encourage a climate of respect and acceptance in which an individual's private traditional beliefs become a part of the healing and harmonizing force within his/her life.

More recently, in 1994, IHS Director Michael H. Trujillo issued a "Traditional Cultural Advocacy Program Policy Statement" which states:

The Indian Health Service (IHS) recognizes the value of traditional beliefs, ceremonies, and practices in the healing of body, mind, and spirit. The IHS encourages a climate of respect and acceptance in which traditional beliefs are honored as a healing and harmonizing force with individual lives, a vital support for purposeful living, and an integral component of the healing process. It is the policy of the IHS to facilitate [sic] right of American Indian and Alaska Native people to their beliefs and health practices as defined by the tribe's or village's traditional culture. This policy is meant to complement and support previously stated IHS policy for implementing the American Indian Religious Freedom Act of 1978 (Public Law 95-341, as amended).

The Department of Veterans Affairs' National Center for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder is adding traditional healing methods, such as talking circles and healing herbs, to modern medical treatments for American Indian and Alaska Native veterans and service personnel returning from active duty in the Middle East and suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder problems.⁶⁵ The American Cancer Society (Society) includes Native American healing in a section on its website concerning treatment decisions.⁶⁶ The Society, in connection with work at Montana State University, is providing funding to a group of Indian women health care workers on the Crow Reservation in Montana to help IHS providers understand traditional Crow healing practices and customs.

The Committee believes that health care treatment should be relevant to and effective for the population to be served, and thus regards traditional health care practices as an important part of culturally appropriate care for Indian people. These practices have been a part of the IHS, tribal and urban Indian health care system for years, are provided only at the request of the patient or family members, and are within the traditional culture of that individual. It is the Committee's understanding, based on Department of Justice testimony to the Committee on March 8, 2007, that no medical malpractice suit has ever been filed arising from a traditional health care practice.⁶⁷ Thus, the risk for the United States in terms of liability appears to be insignificant, compared to the benefits of allowing Indian patients to obtain this care. DOJ's concerns are unfounded in light of the fact that traditional health care practices are based in Native healing sciences. The bill has the legislative purpose of providing for the highest possible health status for Indians without intruding on Indian self-determination.

Behavioral Health. S. 1200 has a strong focus on behavioral health. Title VII takes a comprehensive and integrative approach to behavioral health, providing both prevention and treatment programs for Indian children, youth, women and elders. The bill also emphasizes the interconnectedness of services related to alcohol and substance abuse, child welfare, suicide prevention and social services. Particular programs are authorized for Indian youth, Indian women, those affected by fetal alcohol disorder in Indian communities, and both the victims and perpetrators of child sexual abuse in Indian households.

In addition to a comprehensive approach to addressing behavioral health services, the Committee recognizes and affirms the importance of providing care within the context of an individual's family, community and particular tribal culture, such as is used by the systems of care model.

Indian Youth Suicide Prevention. The alarming suicide rates among Indian youth indicate a great need for improved, comprehensive behavioral health care services.

The nation was shocked in March, 2005, when a troubled 16-year-old member of the Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians in Minnesota shot and killed his grandfather, his grandfather's partner, five fellow high school students, a high school teacher and a security guard and seriously wounded several others at Red Lake High School on the reservation before killing himself. young people from that reservation subsequently took their own lives.

The publicity around the Red Lake incident, which was then the nation's second-most deadly school shooting, brought attention to the fact that, in Indian Country, suicide impacts a younger population than in the rest of the country. The suicide rate for Indian and Alaska Native youth, aged 15–24, is two and one-half times higher than the national average. Youth suicide “clusters” have also occurred on reservations in North and South Dakota, New Mexico and Arizona and in Native communities in Alaska.

During the 109th Congress, the Committee held three hearings specifically on the issue of Indian youth suicide: one in Bismarck, North Dakota on May 2, 2005, and two oversight hearings in Washington, DC (on June 15, 2005, and on May 17, 2006), to discuss the kinds of resources and services being provided to Indian youth who have expressed suicidal thoughts or attempted suicide.

Based on the information developed through hearings, the Committee has included provisions in S. 1200 which address youth suicide as part of the behavioral health program provisions and in a culturally-appropriate manner. Section 708 authorizes the Secretary to award grants for telemental health demonstration projects to provide counseling to Indian youth and health providers, training for Indian community leaders, and the development of culturally-relevant materials. The Committee recognizes that suicide prevention for Indian youth is a long-term effort that must address many multi-factorial causes. Questions such as whether the loss of cultural identity contributes to the youth suicide problem remain unanswered. Therefore, S. 1200 also makes suicide a priority for the IHS research agenda, particularly the identification of various factors that either protect the tribal community or make that community at risk for suicides, and the role the loss of tribal identity plays in suicidal behavior. Finally, provisions included in Title I encourage more Indian people to enter into the psychology profession by increasing the number of grants for the program commonly referred to as In-Psych (Indians into the Psychology) from three to nine and by authorizing a specific level of funding.

Urban Indians. Providing health care services to urban Indians has been a part of Federal policy for nearly 40 years. Congress began funding urban Indian clinics in 1967 when $321,000 was provided for an Indian clinic in Rapid City, South Dakota.⁶⁸

Congress specifically included urban Indian health programs as part of the Indian health care system in the Act in 1976, recognizing that the Federal obligation for health care extended to these individuals. These provisions sought to correct disparities in health levels for Indians living in urban areas, first as pilot programs and later permanently in the Indian health care system.⁶⁹

The policies and status of Indians and Indian tribes under Federal laws, treaties and judicial decisions provide ample support for continuing and improving programs for urban Indians. Under this varied history, the Federal Government had dealt with Indian tribes in a variety of ways: some by treaty, others not by treaty.

⁶⁹ See Senate Report Nos. 94–133, 100–508 and 108–411.

The Federal Government had ignored some Indian tribes completely. Other Indian tribes were legislatively excluded from receiving services under some administrative programs, yet were allowed to exercise treaty rights. Some Indian tribes were “terminated,” yet later “restored” to a government-to-government relationship with the United States.

Courts have long held that Congress has the broad power to legislate for the benefit of Indians, even if located off of the reservation, and to define who is an Indian and for what purposes they may be provided services, even if they may not be an enrolled member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe.⁷⁰

For example, Congress has enacted laws which define Indians in different ways for different purposes.⁷¹ Even the criminal statutes under Title 18 of the U.S. Code regarding crimes on Indian reservations do not define who is an Indian. In other cases, Congress did not define Indians, or place geographical limitations on the service areas in which they may be served. The Snyder Act, 25 U.S.C. 13, authorizes permanent funding for health care for “the Indians throughout the United States.” This statute does not confine the services to Indians who are members of current federally-recognized tribes or to those living only on reservations. The Snyder Act has never been repealed nor otherwise limited in this respect. Under this Act, Congress has provided a more inclusive definition of urban Indian than mere membership in a federally-recognized Indian tribe, including members of “terminated” tribes, that is, groups that once had a political government relationship with the United States which was ended under the “termination” policy of Federal-Indian relations.

Termination was another failed Federal Indian policy designed to end the government-to-government relationship with Indian tribes and assimilate their members into the larger society. When that policy gave way to self-determination, however, and Congress sought to try to remedy the devastating effects of termination, Congress saw fit to continue the health services in the Act to those individuals. See Menominee Tribe v. U.S., 391 U.S. 404 (1968). Likewise, by including members of state-recognized tribes, Congress recognized that several Indian tribes had treaty relations with individual states before the Federal Government was established.

Congress did not in this Act recognize either the “terminated tribes” or the state-recognized tribes on the same basis or for the same purposes as the federally-recognized tribes under this Act. However, the U.S. Supreme Court has found that extending Federal protection for limited purposes, such as for services provided in this Act, is within Congress’ power.

Further, in adopting S. 1200, the Committee is of the opinion that the Congress was on firm constitutional footing based on long-

Holliday*, 70 U.S. 407, 417 (1865) (the broad power also includes Congress’ dealings with individual Indians). As the courts suggest, Federal policy for Indians cannot be confined to reservation boundaries. (“The overriding duty of our Federal Government to deal fairly with Indians wherever located has been recognized by this Court on many occasions.” Morton v. Ruiz, 415 U.S. 199 (1974) (citing Seminole Nation v. Raszkiewicz, 169 F.3d 459, 465 (7th Cir. 1999).)

standing precedent. Indeed, the U.S. Supreme Court has held that “it is not meant . . . that Congress may bring a community or body of people within the range of this power by arbitrarily calling them an Indian tribe, but only that in respect of distinctly Indian communities the questions, whether, to what extent and for what time they shall be recognized and dealt with as dependent tribes requiring the guardianship and protection of the United States are to be determined by Congress, and not by the courts.” U.S. v. Sandoval, 231 U.S. 28, 46 (1913) (emphasis added). Accordingly, the Act extends health benefits to members of these groups (terminated tribes and state-recognized tribes) without extending Federal recognition to them for all purposes.

In enacting this Act, the Committee has found ample justification for extending health services to the Indians who ended up in these urban areas because of several major developments:

First, Indians were provided an opportunity to work and share in the Nation’s prosperity in industries prior to and during World War II; second, thousands of Indian men and women served in the Armed Forces away from their reservation, traditional communities or Alaska Native villages; third, formal government relocation programs moved many Indian families from low employment, rural areas to urban areas where “employment opportunities” were considered more readily available; and fourth, countless numbers of Indians attempting to escape depressed conditions on their reservations voluntarily relocated.⁷²

The comprehensive approach of this Act is needed to more fully implement the Federal responsibility for Indian health care, and, even more so today, to address health disparities facing the Indians who had moved from the reservations as a result of the relocation policies. Relocating Indians from reservations to urban areas was the Federal policy and program first begun in 1931.⁷³ “Relocation complemented other termination programs designed to promote rapid assimilation. Once relocated, Indians were cut off from the special federal services that had been available to them as reservation residents.”⁷⁴

Congress has previously recognized that the establishment of urban Indian health programs was necessary to rectify the errors of failed Federal Indian policies such as relocation.⁷⁵ The Committee further found that Title V of the original Act “represent[ed] a Federal policy commitment to provide the essential authorities and financial resources to permit urban Indian organizations to develop needed health services and to strengthen relationships with existing community health and medical care programs.”⁷⁶

The justifications for this policy are still valid today. Recent statistics indicate that urban Indians suffer health disparities, as do Indians living on reservations. For example, the mortality rates are higher due to accidents (38% higher than other populations), chronic liver disease and cirrhosis (126% higher), diabetes (54% higher), alcoholism (178% higher), and sudden infant death syndrome (157% higher).⁷⁷

The Committee believes that continuation of services to urban Indians, recognized in the original Act and affirmed by S. 1200, makes sense from both policy and fiscal perspectives. The Committee has received testimony that these urban Indian health programs improve health services for Indians located in the urban centers in a highly cost-effective manner.

In addition, the Committee has received testimony that without the urban Indian health programs, urban Indians would not seek care or could delay seeking proper medical attention until their health problems erupt into emergency situations or reach advanced stages when treatment is costlier and the rate of survival is much lower.

By being located closer to the urban Indians than the tribal health programs on the reservations, urban Indian health programs reduce the number of emergency room visits by providing early disease prevention services.

For example, the South Dakota Urban Indian Health Center operates three clinics with more than 17,500 patient encounters per year under the Title V program. This center provides such services as a foot care home visit program whereby Community Health Representatives conduct home visits to assess diabetic patients (or those at risk for diabetes). These home visits are a critical part of chronic disease management, particularly in avoiding amputations due to diabetes.

The First Nations Community Health Source in Albuquerque, New Mexico provides dental, primary, and behavioral health care for approximately 45,000 urban Indians and handles approximately 12,700 patient encounters per year under the Title V program.

The Native Americans for Community Action in Flagstaff, Arizona provides immunizations, mental health and youth substance abuse prevention services among several other primary care services for urban Indians. The Committee has received testimony suggesting that the patients at this urban Indian health center would either have to travel 100 or more miles to visit an IHS clinic on the reservation or wait two or three weeks for an appointment at the local Community Health Center. Either alternative would impose significantly more burdens on the patient, and the testimony further suggests that most patients would simply avoid the care altogether.

The Tucson Indian Center in Tucson, Arizona also provides important disease prevention services such as substance abuse prevention, wellness programs and immunizations. This Center provides services for over 2,500 patient encounters under the Title V programs.

The health program operated by the Nevada Urban Indians, Inc. in Reno, Nevada provides, among other things, immunization and diabetes education programs and experienced over 9,000 patient encounters in 2005. The Native American Rehabilitation Association of the Northwest, Inc. in Portland, Oregon experiences nearly 9,300 patient encounters per year, including 1,040 for mental health care and 3,400 for alcohol and drug treatment. The N.A.T.I.V.E. Project in Spokane, Washington provides a community wellness program and community outreach services for diabetes screening and health education for a community of approximately 12,000 urban Indians.

These programs, particularly the wellness, diabetes, and behavioral health programs are critical to preventing the development of diseases which may require long-term disease management such as for diabetes and alcohol or drug addictions. In addition, the outreach, screening and home-based care programs are vital in ensuring the patients receive early intervention and care rather than waiting until they need emergency services which cost far more than intervention services.

Urban Indian health programs provide culturally-appropriate health care for Indians. The Committee has received testimony that Indians may avoid non-Indian (or “mainstream”) health providers who are unfamiliar with or insensitive to Indian culture. The urban Indians have confidence in the urban Indian health programs and are more likely to seek care when the provider recognizes and respects culturally-appropriate care.

Urban Indian health programs also address continuity of care for Indians migrating between the urban areas and reservations. Even though the disavowed policy of relocation no longer forces such migration, moving from the reservation to urban areas is not uncommon for these individuals, and neither is their return to the reservation. For example, the urban Indians may travel to the reservation for traditional ceremonies, tribal political (elections) or cultural events (such as pow-wows), clan or family events, and so on. On the other hand, Indians may move to the urban areas for job or educational opportunities—and carry with them the need for continuity of care. The Committee has received testimony that these programs recognize the migration and account for it in their patient care, particularly for quality follow-up care.

The urban Indian health programs provide services for the uninsured Indians who might not be able to obtain care elsewhere. With poverty rates of urban Indians hovering at 25% (compared to 14% for the general population), and nearly half living below 200% of the Federal poverty level (compared to 30% for the general population),⁷⁸ it is no surprise that many urban Indians are uninsured. The Committee has received testimony that in Boston, MA, 87% of the Boston Indian Center’s clients have no health insurance. In Arizona, nearly two out of three urban Indians have no insurance.

The Committee believes that the urban Indian health programs are a crucial component in the overall Federal effort to reduce the health disparities for the urban Indians. Without such services by the Title V health programs, it is quite likely that the health disparities among the urban Indians will increase. This result would contradict the Congressional policy set forth in this Act and in other statutes of increasing access to health care and of remedying health disparities that result from the past failed Federal Indian policies.

Dental Health Aide Therapists. Decades of inadequate access to dental care, along with other factors that contribute to the generally worse health condition of Indians as compared to the general population, have led to a true epidemic of dental disease in Indian communities, and in Alaska Native communities, in particular.

During the 108th and 109th Congresses, there was considerable discussion surrounding the Dental Health Aide Therapists (DHAT) Program in Alaska Native communities. The Committee received testimony regarding the crisis in oral health care in Alaska Native communities and how the DHAT program was a result of Alaska Native leaders and health providers searching for a means of addressing it. The Committee believes that the use of Alaska Natives trained through the DHAT program to serve as dental health aide therapists in Alaska is a necessary response to this access to care crisis.

The DHAT program in Alaska has been part of the Community Health Aide Program since 2002, and DHATs provide a wide range of oral health care promotion and disease prevention services. For the most part, the DHAT program is supported and applauded for its efforts in reducing the extraordinary dental crisis in Alaska Native communities. However, some activities have generated controversy because they require the performance of certain irreversible procedures, specifically, the treatment of dental caries, pulpotomies and extractions of teeth.

In January, 2006, the American Dental Association (ADA), the Alaska Dental Society (ADS) and several individual dentists filed a lawsuit in Alaska Superior Court, seeking to stop the practice of dentistry and dental surgery by non-dentists by asking the court to declare the Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium and its Dental Health Aide Therapists program in violation of state dental licensing laws. On June 27, 2007, the Alaska Superior Court dismissed the case, noting in its decision that DHAT is part of the Community Health Aide Practitioner Program and Congress clearly intended the utilization of paraprofessionals in providing care through both CHAP and DHAT.

When the House Resources Committee marked up its version of the Indian health reauthorization in the second session of the 109th Congress, the Committee agreed to an amendment offered by Representative Young (R-AK) regarding the Dental Health Aide Therapist program in Alaska. The language, which the Committee has been informed was agreed to by the American Dental Association and the Alaska Native Health Board, prohibits dental health aide therapists from performing all oral and jaw surgeries except pulpal therapy or extraction of adult teeth after consultation with a licensed dentist in a dental emergency. That agreed-upon bill language is carried forward and included in S. 1200.

National Bipartisan Commission on Indian Health Care. The Committee intends that S. 1200 will provide many much-needed improvements to the Indian health system. However, adequate funding levels remain a significant factor in achieving those improvements.

For several years, the Committee has received testimony regarding the substantial funding needs for Indian health.⁷⁹ Federal appropriations have increased over time, but, as evident in the IHS Level of Need Funded Study, have not reached optimal levels.⁸⁰ While the reimbursements from Medicaid and Medicare have been beneficial in adding additional resources, they are not a complete solution to the funding deficiencies.

The Committee has concluded that an overarching assessment of need and financing mechanisms is warranted to address the health disparities and financing for Indian health care. Accordingly, section 814 establishes the National Bipartisan Commission on Indian Health Care to study the optimal manner in which to provide and finance health care services to Indians.

This Commission will have broad authority to conduct hearings and other activities needed to provide Congress with comprehensive and thoughtful recommendations regarding the optimal means of delivering health care services to Indians. The Committee intends that this Commission will also serve as an appropriate forum for addressing outstanding questions relative to financing, including, among others, balancing concerns about overutilization and deficiencies.

Indian Health Care Facilities Construction. During the 109th Congress, much discussion between the National Steering Committee and the Committee centered around section 301, which directs the Secretary to maintain a health care facility priority system for construction.

Background: Development of the Priority System. In the early 1980's, the IHS developed a health care facilities priority system (Priority System) for construction of various types of health care facilities in Indian communities. In 1988, pursuant to Public Law 100-713 (as amended by Public Law 102-573), Congress required the IHS to provide an annual report which set forth (1) the current priority system; (2) the planning, design, construction and renovation needs of the top-10 priority inpatient and outpatient facilities (including staff quarters); (3) the justification and projected costs of these projects; and (4) the methodology for establishing the priorities.

In this Priority System, construction projects for hospitals, health centers, staff quarters and youth regional treatment centers go through three key phases, wherein the IHS solicits proposals for health facility construction and ranks the proposals according to their relative need for construction.⁸¹

The projects are selected for inclusion on a “Priority List” after completion of Phases I and II, then move up the Priority List as Phase III is completed and appropriations for the projects are provided.

Congressional Directive To Revise the Priority List. In 1999, in the conference report accompanying the FY 2000 Interior Appropriations Act (House Report 106–406), Congress directed the IHS, working closely with Indian tribes, to review and revise the Priority System. In recognizing the “extreme need for new and replacement hospitals and clinics,” Congress noted that “there should be a base funding amount, which serves as a minimum annual amount in the budget request.” Congress further noted that several issues needed to be considered in revising the Priority System and that “a more flexible and responsive program can be developed that will more readily accommodate the wide variances in tribal needs and capabilities.”⁸²

In response to this directive, the IHS Director convened a Facilities Appropriations Advisory Board (FAAB) and a Facilities Needs Assessment Workgroup to review the Priority System and make recommendations for revision. According to the IHS, the FAAB was comprised of 12 members representing Indian tribes and two members representing the IHS, and the Workgroup was established by the IHS Director to make recommendations to the FAAB. The Committee has been informed that, earlier this year, the FAAB submitted final recommendations to the IHS Director, but no final decision has been made on these recommendations.

Meanwhile, in 1999, the National Steering Committee developed language regarding the Priority System contained in section 301 of the various iterations of bills introduced for the reauthorization of the Act. The language in section 301 remained primarily the same until 2006, when the Committee refined certain provisions and included an additional protected category in section 301(c)(1)(D), referred to as the “grandfather” provision, in S. 4122, introduced at the end of the 109th Congress.

Grandfather Provision. The “grandfather” provision of section 301(c)(1)(D) protects the priority status of health care facilities (in certain categories) on the Priority List from being affected by changes to the Priority System being contemplated by the IHS, pursuant to the 1999 Interior Appropriations Conference Report instruction. These projects have been on the Priority List since at least 1991.

Under the “grandfather” provision, the protected categories include:

(1) Top 10 Projects. Projects in the FY 2008 IHS budget justification for the 10 top-priority inpatient, outpatient, staff quarters and Youth Regional Treatment Centers (YRTC) projects. Currently, those projects include:

Inpatient: Phoenix and Whiteriver, AZ; Barrow and Nome, AK.

Outpatient: Ft. Yuma, Red Mesa, Kayenta, San Carlos and Winslow-Dilkon, AZ; St. Paul, AK; Sisseton, Eagle Butte and Rapid City, SD.

YRTC: Wadsworth, NV; Central-Southern and Northern California.

(2) Phase I and II. Projects that have completed Phases I and II of the Priority System in effect on the date of enactment of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments. Currently, these projects include: Ft. Belknap, MT; Wagner, SD; Sells and Bodaway-Coppermine, AZ; Gallup, Alamo, Albuquerque, Pueblo Pintado, Crownpoint and Shiprock, NM.

During the 109th Congress, a third category was added:

(3) Secretarial Discretion. Projects not in the other two protected categories and selected on the initiative of the Secretary or at the request of an Indian tribe or tribal organization.

During the 109th Congress, the IHS, FAAB and Workgroup began finalizing their recommendations and draft revisions to the Priority System. The Committee had been informed that these drafts purported to revise what would constitute Phases I and II of the Priority System. These proposed changes could then have affected what projects would be “grandfathered” under section 301(c)(1)(D) and thus change the priority of several projects which have been waiting on the Priority List for many years.

Due to the uncertainty of when the IHS will approve the final changes (before or after the Act is reauthorized) and what those changes will consist of, the third category was added to ensure that the Secretary still has authority to prioritize projects which might no longer qualify under the other two protected categories.

Innovative Approaches. Currently, construction funding generally has been applied to the projects on the Priority List. The Committee has been informed that the total cost of the current Priority List is in excess of $200 million as of FY 2008, with other unmet needs in the billions of dollars. At the time of the congressional directive in 1999, the construction appropriations was over $41 million and even reached over $94 million in FY 2004. The amount of appropriations increased slightly until FY 2006, after which it has decreased quite significantly.

Ideally, with a continuation of the level of funding appropriated following the conference report directive in FY 2000, the current Priority List should have been nearing completion by the time revisions to the Priority System were finalized. Unfortunately, significant unforeseen national events occurred since the Appropriations Committee’s directive, which affected the amount of available appropriations for closing out the current Priority List and allowing other projects to be added to the List and built. Thus, the current Priority List has not been completed, whereas the revisions to the Priority System are nearing completion.

The Committee has been informed that while projects have been on the Priority List for a number of years, many other needed projects have never been on the Priority List. The Committee had been requested to include an alternative approach in S. 1200 to address the remaining unmet needs through the concept of an Area Distribution Fund. Under an Area Distribution Fund, a portion of construction funding could be devoted to IHS Area priorities. This localized approach would allow other smaller projects to be completed, instead of waiting until the entire current Priority List is completed.

In light of the facilities backlog, section 301(f) of S. 1200 encourages the Secretary to seek innovative approaches to address unmet needs for health care facility construction, and requires the Secretary to consult and cooperate with Indian tribes in developing these innovative approaches. The Committee recognizes that the Secretary has engaged in considerable work revising the Priority System thus far. These proposed revisions may also be useful in developing innovative approaches.

However, the Committee encourages the Secretary, prior to finalizing the revisions, to take into consideration the fiscal circumstances under which the 1999 congressional directive occurred, relative to those experienced today, and how innovative approaches to financing construction may be implemented in such a manner which is fair and equitable to those Indian tribes to be served by the projects on the current Priority List and those Indian tribes which have not had the opportunity to have their projects placed on the list.

The Committee expects the IHS to work with Indian tribes in developing the types of innovative approaches to pursue, as well as the contours of those approaches. The Secretary has used broad authority to develop and maintain the Priority System since the 1980s, and section 301(f) also provides broad authority to implement innovative approaches, such as an Area Distribution Fund, if, after consultation with the Indian tribes, it is determined that this is an appropriate system to address the health facility needs of Indian communities. The Committee also expects the IHS to work with Indian tribes and to submit a minimum budget request consistent with the congressional directive which will accommodate both the current Priority List and any innovative approaches.

Elevation of the IHS Director. Section 601 of S. 1200 elevates the Director of the IHS to the position of Assistant Secretary for Indian Health within the Department of Health and Human Services. The purpose of this elevation is to foster the government-to-government relationship between Indian tribes and the United States, facilitate advocacy for Indian health policy, and promote consultation on Indian health matters. Presently, the Director of the Indian Health Service is appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 1661(a). The Director reports to the DHHS Secretary through the Assistant Secretary for Health.

During the 109th Congress, the provisions elevating the Director to the Assistant Secretary were included in the introduced bill, S. 1057, but not in the final iteration, S. 4122, due to objections by the Administration. The Committee has continued to receive testimony in strong support of elevation from the Indian tribes.⁸³ The testimony received by the Committee and consultation with Indian tribes during the 110th Congress have counseled in favor of including the provisions in S. 1200 as part of the IHCA reauthorization.

Previous bills establishing this position in the Department have either been favorably approved by the Committee or passed the Senate: S. 558 (108th Congress, passed by the Senate), S. 214

⁸³Indian Health Care Improvement Act: Hearing of the Senate Indian Affairs Committee, 110th Cong., 1st Session, S. Hrg. 110-53 at 74 (March 8, 2007) (statement of Rachel Joseph).

(107th Congress, ordered reported by the Committee), S. 299 (106th Congress, passed by the Senate), S. 1770 (105th Congress, passed by the Senate), S. 311 (104th Congress, ordered reported by the Committee), and S. 2067 (103rd Congress, passed by the Senate).

Like these legislative predecessors, S. 1200 facilitates the government-to-government relationship between the United States and Indian tribes by providing the necessary leadership within the Administration on Indian health issues to bring focus, priority and national attention to the health care status and needs of Indians. Section 601 is intended to enhance the Federal capacity to respond to the ongoing health crisis in Indian Country and the continuing frustration of Indian tribes and patients that their needs and concerns are not adequately addressed under the current administrative policy and budgetary processes.

Previous Senate reports further elaborate upon the evolution of the IHS and the need and purposes for establishing this position. (See Senate Report Nos. 108–76, 107–170, 106–148, 105–319, and 103–327.) Nevertheless, an abbreviated discourse is necessary to inform the continuing need for elevating the Director to the Assistant Secretary for Indian Health.

Budgetary Improvement. The IHS operates a comprehensive health care delivery system nationwide through a variety of health care facilities and services and through contracts and compacts with Indian tribes under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, with Urban Indian Organizations, or with private health care providers through the contract health services program.

Efforts to address Indian health care needs have been tempered by the steady decline in purchasing power of the IHS budget. Indeed, the IHS 2004 study on Level of Need Funding indicated that the funding fell short of meeting the health care needs of Indian people and was operating at approximately a 40% deficiency.

The Committee has not seen appreciable decreases to this deficiency to convince it that elevation is not necessary. One of the principal justifications for the elevation has been past Administrations' failure to incorporate tribal recommendations in the final budget request, despite tribal participation throughout the budget process.

For example, the Committee received testimony estimating health care needs in excess of $19.7 billion to achieve parity for Indian people.⁸⁴ Past budgets have reflected marginal increases, even in the era of tight budgets, but these increases have not closed the gap on the "level of need" funding deficiency.

In addition, the Committee has also received testimony that Indian tribes requested continued funding for the Urban Indian Organizations during the annual budget formulation sessions.⁸⁵ However, the FY 2007 and FY 2008 President's Budget Requests zeroed out funding for the Urban Indian Organizations.⁸⁶ These decreases are disturbing in light of the alarming disparities that exist between the health status of the Indian population and other populations in the United States. These disparities have been well-documented in past Committee reports, legislation and testimony before the Committee.⁸⁷

Although the Committee has received testimony that the Director has access and policy input within the DHHS, the health care status of Indians remains at such levels which necessitate a modified level of leadership and advocacy. The establishment of the Assistant Secretary for Indian Health will facilitate advocacy within DHHS and the Office of Management and Budget for the funding resources and policies that are necessary to effectively and efficiently address the health care needs and concerns of the Indian people.

Regulatory and Administrative Improvement. The Indian health care system presents cross-cutting issues which involve DHHS agencies other than the IHS. The Committee recognizes the current attention given to Indian health issues as well as the revitalization of the Intra-departmental Council on Native American Affairs within the DHHS which would address matters in DHHS agencies affecting Indian health.

Despite this revitalization, concerns have been raised with the Committee that broad administrative and regulatory matters within DHHS affecting Indian health have not been addressed either properly or timely. The Committee intends that this position would create an opportunity for the Assistant Secretary for Indian Health to be involved in the formulation of policy and regulatory authority on these larger issues which affect Indian health rather than simply addressing matters which are solely Indian in nature.

As stated in previous Committee reports, the Committee continues to believe that the institutionalization of a senior policy official responsible for Indian health within the DHHS is necessary to bring parity and reduce deficiencies in the delivery of Indian health care services. This institutionalization is also important to ensure that the advocacy and the knowledge of the United States legal and moral obligations for Indian health and the mission of the IHS is carried forward in future Administrations.

Third Party Reimbursements. Funding from sources other than IHS appropriations has been identified as a factor affecting the availability of health care services for Indians.⁸⁸ Those funding sources include third-party reimbursements from Medicaid and Medicare. In some cases, these reimbursements constitute up to 50% of the medical care budget for a particular Indian health program.⁸⁹

With more resources, the Indian health care system could provide more services, and the Committee strongly encourages IHS and the Indian tribes to seek additional resources to supplement the appropriated sums provided annually.⁹⁰ The GAO noted that “[f]acilities with higher reimbursements had additional funds with

S. 1200 provides for an increase in access to Medicaid by removing barriers through waivers of premiums and cost-sharing at Indian health facilities and by codifying agency regulations or practices which recognize the unique nature of and special circumstances applying to Indian property, particularly trust and restricted property.⁹³ Likewise, S. 1200 provides other means of removing barriers to obtaining third-party reimbursements, such as the process for seeking waivers of sanctions, which promotes favorable state-tribal relations.

Waiver of Medicaid Co-Pays. One fundamental purpose of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act is to improve access to health care for Indian people. Removing barriers to such access is a critical aspect in accomplishing that purpose. To that end, section 204 of Title II of S. 1200 prohibits cost-sharing under Medicaid.⁹⁴

Indian tribes have strongly advocated that this policy waiving Medicaid co-pays reflects the federal trust obligation for Indian health wherein the health care has been “pre-paid”—for example, by the treaty agreements exchanging tribal lands for health care. As additional justification, the Indian tribes contend that this policy is not unusual to the Medicaid system, since other Medicaid policies reflect that federal obligation. An example of this is the 100% FMAP or Federal Matching Assistance Percentage, wherein the federal government provides 100% of the reimbursement to states of Medicaid reimbursements for services provided by the IHS or tribal health programs.

Moreover, Indian tribes contend that the waiver of the co-pay is necessary to create incentives to enroll in Medicaid. Recognizing the federal obligation for Indian health care, the IHS, tribal and urban health programs do not charge the Indian patients cost-sharing for participating in the Indian health system to which Medicaid provides reimbursements. Charging the Indian patient a Medicaid co-pay will create a disincentive to enroll, essentially barring that Indian patient’s access to Medicaid; as a result, the overall Indian health budget, along with the ability to provide additional services, may suffer. On the other hand, waiver of the co-pay will continue to encourage Indian patients to enroll in Medicaid programs, thus “stretching” IHS appropriated dollars.

The Committee is aware of concerns that cost sharing discourages overutilization of health care services, which should be of particular concern to a system which is overburdened already. However, this concern may be addressed in several ways.

Cost-sharing would not achieve the intended purpose of modifying behavior to avoid overutilization within the Indian health system. Overutilization assumes that there are otherwise adequate levels of services available to a population of non-overutilizers. Punitive or disincentive measures will not work if the service is not available or delayed. Services being unavailable or delayed have been documented by the GAO study,⁹⁵ and the IHS Level of Need Funded (LNF) Study. The data in the GAO study reported that many Indian people are not seeking health care services until it is too late. There was no evidence in this GAO report that overutilization of the health care services occurred at the Indian health programs.

The data in the LNF Study also suggests that many Indian patients may have to delay seeking health care because services are rationed, rather than available for every health care need. In other words, Indian patients are not running to the clinic for every snuffle, but may wait until their health care needs become emergent problems. Thus, it is unlikely that overutilization occurs, so there is no problem that the cost-sharing would obviate. Imposing cost-sharing, on the other hand, may serve to further exacerbate the problem of delaying health care by requiring a co-pay by Indian patients who can ill afford it.

Removing barriers to enrollment will enable Indian patients to enroll in Medicaid, and the ensuing Medicaid reimbursements will assist the Indian health program in providing more services, thereby diminishing the potential of overburdening the system. Cost-sharing is, in reality, cost-shifting. If Indian patients are eligible and qualify for Medicaid, then the patient should take advantage of the available program. By not enrolling, the cost that should be borne by Medicaid continues to strain the IHS budget, which has been documented to be insufficient to meet the needs of Indian communities.

Consequently, S. 1200 continues the policy and provisions regarding Medicaid co-pays that were reported favorably by the Senate Finance Committee in S. 3524 during the 109th Congress.

Non-Eligibles. Congress has recognized that “without a proper health status, the Indian people will be unable to fully avail themselves of the many economic, educational, and social programs already directed to them.”⁹⁶ Providing services to Indian people improves the health of Indians in a direct manner.

However, protecting the health of Indians requires attention to issues other than direct services to Indians. In the 1800s, services such as vaccinations were provided to Indians located near forts to protect the health of soldiers.⁹⁷ Now the tables are turned. Under certain circumstances, individuals not otherwise eligible for Indian health care may receive a limited scope of health services under the Act to protect the health of Indians.

Serving “non-eligibles” for these purposes comports with the Administration’s goals of promoting “healthy Indian . . . communities”⁹⁸ and “including new approaches to delivering care.”⁹⁹ Serving non-eligibles has been a policy of the Act for many years and it reflects a logical and reasonable approach to protect Indian health.

For example, the Act provides that services may be provided to a non-eligible pregnant woman carrying an Indian's child. 25 U.S.C. 1680c(c)(3) (Section 807(d)(3) of S. 1200). In addition, services may be provided to prevent the outbreak of communicable diseases such as tuberculosis. 25 U.S.C. 1680c(c)(2) (Section 807(d)(2) of S. 1200).

In including these “non-eligible individuals” in the service delivery system, Congress has set forth considerations for the IHS and Indian tribes to address prior to providing the services—the “two-part determination” contained at 25 U.S.C. 1680c(b)(1)(A):

- (i) the provision of such health services will not result in a denial or diminution of health services to eligible Indians; and
- (ii) there is no reasonable alternative health facility or services, within or without the service area of such service unit, available to meet the health needs of such individuals.

However, the Committee is aware that questions have arisen regarding how the two-part determination applies to Indian tribes with contracts or compacts under ISDEAA.

Where services are directly provided by the IHS, the Indian tribe(s) served by the Service Unit and the IHS jointly make the two-part determination (25 U.S.C. 1680c(b)(1)(A)). Section 807 of S. 1200 provides that, for programs administered by an Indian tribe pursuant to a contract or compact under the ISDEAA, the Indian tribe is authorized to provide services to non-eligibles, but “shall take into account” the two-part determination.

Congress has made it clear that the determination shall be made in both instances: in the case of direct services it is made by both IHS and the Indian tribes and, in the case of ISDEAA contracts or compacts, by Indian tribes. Congress did not provide in the Act express substantive or procedural provisions governing how the determinations should be made, given the innumerable variations in circumstances for the Indian communities.

However, Section 807 does provide some guidance on how the parties may determine whether there will be no diminution of services. For example, the non-eligibles receiving services “shall be liable for payment of such health services under a schedule of charges prescribed by the Secretary” (25 U.S.C. 1680c(b)(2)(A)). In other words, no diminution may be experienced if the funded used to serve these people is replaced by other funding.

In addition, health services may be provided to indigent non-eligibles if there is a reimbursement agreement with the State or local governments. These provisions, however, do not limit the ability of either the IHS or Indian tribes to include additional considerations in determining whether services would be decreased. Other budgetary factors, delays in services, and appointment waiting times,¹⁰⁰ are all other considerations that may be appropriate, depending on the particular circumstances.

Likewise, when assessing reasonable alternatives, the IHS and Indian tribes may be confronted by factors such as remote locations, distances to other health facilities and other unique difficulties, which render other health care alternatives unavailable. Questions surrounding what is available should be placed in the context of the following policy considerations. First, services under this Act are for the ultimate protection of Indian health. Second, the IHS and tribal health programs are the payors of last resort which means, in this situation, that all other avenues of obtaining health services should be exhausted by the non-eligible individual prior to seeking assistance from either IHS or the tribal health programs.

The Committee has been informed that some health providers may refuse to serve Medicaid beneficiaries, thus making any other health service alternatives unavailable. In those situations, if good faith efforts have been made to obtain services and all avenues have been exhausted, it appears that there may be an arguable case of unavailability.

When making these determinations, Indian tribal leaders are placed in a difficult situation. On the one hand, the federal obligation for Indian health—which the Indian tribe is administering—is secured for the benefit of Indians. Authorizing services for non-eligibles is a determination not made lightly by Indian tribal leaders. On the other hand, withholding services from these non-eligibles under the limited circumstances enumerated in this Act may serve to do harm to Indian people by not eliminating general health hazards.

Evaluations were left in S. 1200 to the IHS and Indian tribes based on their particular circumstances and, if appropriate, could be developed more fully through negotiated rulemaking or consultation.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

A significant portion of current law has been carried forward by S. 1200 and reorganized in the various titles according to subject matter. S. 1200 also adds several new provisions to current law which may (1) amend current law, such as turning a demonstration project into a permanent program, (2) clarify or make small additions, such as including Tribal Organizations in various sections, or (3) introduce brand new programs to the Indian health care system, such as Indian youth suicide prevention, intervention and treatment through the use of telemedicine, and convenient care services.

The following section-by-section analysis will, where relevant, identify whether current law has been changed followed by an explanation of the current law to be reauthorized by S. 1200. In addition, the codified section in current law is also noted to provide ease of reference.

Section 1. Short title; table of contents

Section 1 provides that this Act may be cited as the “Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments of 2007,” and contains the table of contents.

TITLE I—AMENDMENTS TO INDIAN LAWS

The provisions of Title I are within the jurisdiction of the Senate Indian Affairs Committee.

Section 101. Indian Health Care Improvement Act amended

This section sets forth a host of provisions which incorporate provisions of current law and make amendments to the Act.

Section 1. Short title; table of contents

This Act may be cited as the “Indian Health Care Improvement Act.” Section 1 also sets for the table of contents for Title I.

Section 2. Findings

Section 2 sets out Congressional findings for the Act, which indicate that the health levels of Indians are below that of the rest of the U.S. population and that the provision of health care is consonant with the Federal relationship and responsibility to Indian people.

Amendments: This section maintains current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1601 of current law.

Section 3. Declaration of national Indian health policy

This section declares national policy, in fulfillment of the special trust responsibilities and legal obligations to Indians, to assure the highest possible health status for and raise the health status of Indians and Urban Indians through the provision of health services.

Amendments: This section amends current law by (1) replacing the enumerated list of health level objectives with the goals contained in the Healthy People 2010 national health agenda; and (2) adding new language to (a) add trust to the responsibilities being fulfilled by the national policy, (b) allow Indians to set their priorities according to their needs, (c) increase the health profession degrees awarded to Indians so the levels of Indian health professionals in each Service Area is at least the level of the general population, (d) require consultation with Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations, consistent with the policy of Indian self-determination, and (e) provide funding to Indian tribal programs and facilities consistent with levels of IHS programs and facilities.

Current Law: This section is Section 1602 of current law.

Section 4. Definitions

Section 4 provides definitions for terms used throughout the Act.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds several new definitions. Assistant Secretary, behavioral health, tribal college or university, telehealth, contract health service, and telemedicine are examples of new definitions not now in current law.

Current Law: Section 1603 of current law provides definitions for terms used throughout the Act.

TITLE I—INDIAN HEALTH, HUMAN RESOURCES, AND DEVELOPMENT

Section 101. Purpose

This section states the purpose of this title, which is to increase the number of Indians entering health professions and providing health services, and to assure an optimum supply of health professionals to provide health services to Indians.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language indicating congressional intent to maximize the number, and assure an optimum (not merely adequate) supply, of health professionals in the Indian health system.

Current Law: Section 1611 of current law states the purpose of increasing the number of Indian health professionals and assuring an adequate supply of health professionals to provide health services to Indians.

Section 102. Health professions recruitment program for Indians

This section authorizes grants for recruitment programs, including identifying Indians with potential for entering health professions, publicizing sources of financial aid, and establishing programs to facilitate enrollment in applicable courses of study. This section also addresses funding applications and amount of funding to be provided, as well as outlining the eligibility for these programs.

Amendments: This section maintains current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1612 of current law.

Section 103. Health professions preparatory scholarship program for Indians

Section 103 authorizes scholarships to Indians for compensatory preprofessional education, as well as pregraduate education leading to a baccalaureate degree in a preparatory field for a health profession. This section specifies certain conditions on these scholarships which include costs which may be covered by the scholarships, and prohibits denial of a scholarship based solely on scholastic achievement if applicant has already been admitted or maintains good standing at an accredited institution, or if the applicant is eligible for assistance under another federal program.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds new provisions, authorizing extensions of pregraduate scholarship award terms up to 2 years, according to Secretarial regulations, and authorizing regulations for determining part-time equivalents for the compensatory preprofessional scholarships.

Current Law: This section is Section 1613 in current law.

Section 104. Indian health professions scholarships

Section 104 authorizes scholarships to Indians who are enrolled full- or part-time in accredited schools, pursuing courses of study in the health professions. Such scholarships are designated as Indian Health Scholarships. The section further sets forth how the funding for these scholarships is to be allocated and addresses all the requirements of the active duty service obligation incurred as a result of the scholarship, including breach of contract situations.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds new provisions that (1) require a year-for-year service obligation for scholarship recipients; (2) require Secretarial guidelines for fulfilling the service obligation in private practice; and (3) allow a recipient to fulfill the service obligation by teaching in a tribal college or university nursing program if health services to Indians are not diminished

Current Law: This section is Section 1613a of current law.

Section 105. American Indians into psychology program

This section authorizes grants of not more than $300,000 to each of 9 colleges and universities for developing and maintaining Indian psychology career recruitment programs, including a Quentin N. Burdick Program Grant at the University of North Dakota. This section directs the Secretary to issue regulations for competitive funding, and specifies conditions of the grants and active duty service requirements. $2.7 million is authorized for each of FY 2008 through 2017.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds new language which (1) sets the number of colleges or universities that may receive grants from at least 3 to 9, and (2) establishes a maximum grant amount of $300,000, for a total of $2.7 million for each of FY 2008 through 2017.

Current Law: The section is Section 1621p of current law.

Section 106. Scholarship programs for Indian tribes

Section 106 authorizes the Secretary to make funds available to Tribal Health Programs for the purpose of educating Indians to serve as health professionals in Indian communities. The requirements for receiving such funds; the course of study; contract requirements; specific parameters for a breach of contract; the relationship of a scholarship under this section to the Social Security Act; and conditions of continuance of funding are all specified in this section. The recipient is required to fulfill service obligations and use the scholarship for tuition and reasonable education or living expenses. The recipient cannot discriminate against patients who receive assistance under Titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds new language which (1) amends the source of funds for the scholarship costs by allowing 20% to be from any source instead of only non-federal sources; (2) requires that licensing and educational requirements be met for all health professions, not only for the doctor and nursing professions; (3) provides that the scholarship may allow the recipient to serve in another Service Area, provided the Tribal Health Program and Secretary approve and services are not diminished to Indians in the Service Area where the Tribal Health Program providing the scholarship is located; and (4) adds Title XXI of the Social Security Act to the non-discriminatory provisions.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616m of current law.

Section 107. Indian Health Service extern programs

Section 107 gives preference for employment with the Service, a Tribal Health Program, Urban Indian Organization or other agencies within the Department, to any recipient of a scholarship pursuant to section 104 or 106. The section specifies that such employment does not count toward any active duty service obligation. It specifies the timing and length of employment and exempts the program from any competitive personnel system or agency personnel limitation. The section further specifies that an individual employed under this section will receive practical experience in the health profession in which he or she is engaged in study.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds the following new provisions: (1) extends the extern program to Tribal Health Programs, Urban Indian Organizations or urban Indian health providers (on a discretionary basis) or other Department agencies, instead of only the IHS; and (2) gives the extern, including an extern in a high school program, a preference for employment with the IHS, instead of entitling them to employment.

Current Law: This section is Section 1614 of current law.

Section 108. Continuing education allowances

This section permits the Secretary to provide programs or allowances to (a) transition in to an Indian Health Program, including licensing, board or certification examination and technical assistance, in fulfilling service obligations, and (b) health professionals employed in an Indian Health Program to enable them to take leave of their duty stations for a period of time each year for professional consultation and refresher training courses.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, but also deletes the set-aside of not more than $1 million for postdoctoral training contained in current law, and adds language which extends the continuing education allowances to Tribal Health Programs and Urban Indian Organizations, in addition to the IHS, and includes all health professionals, rather than specified select health professionals.

Current Law: This section is Section 1615 of current law.

Section 109. Community Health Representative Program

Section 109 authorizes the Community Health Representative Program for training and using Indians as community health representatives. The section specifies the duties of the Service regarding this program, including providing a high standard of training for Community Health Representatives to ensure that these representatives provide quality health services to Indian communities served by this program. This program may also promote traditional health care practices consistent with IHS standards for health care.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, and adds language which formally identifies the health paraprofessionals as Community Health Representatives (CHRs) and extends the use of CHRs to Tribal Health Programs and Urban Indian Organizations as well as IHS programs.

Current Law: The section is Section 1616 of current law.

Section 110. Indian Health Service Loan Repayment Program

This section directs the Secretary to establish and administer the Service Loan Repayment Program in order to ensure an adequate supply of trained health professionals needed to maintain accreditation of, and provide health care services to Indians through, Indian Health Programs and Urban Indian Organizations. The section includes provisions addressing eligibility for the program; application information; priorities; recipient contracts; deadlines for decisions on applications; a loan repayment program; a waiver from any employment ceiling; a recruitment program; non-applicability of Section 214 of the Public Health Service Act (which concerns employees or officers being assigned to other agencies) during the period of obligated service; assignment of individuals; breach of contract; waiver or suspension of obligation; and the requirement of an annual report to Congress under Section 801.

Amendments: This section maintains current law. In addition, it (1) eliminates the set-asides during FY 1993–1995 for nursing and mental health professions; and (2) establishes priorities among applications rather than requiring the priorities be subject to the list of positions established by the Secretary, and sets a 21-day notice requirement instead of merely prompt notice.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616a of current law.

Section 111. Scholarship and Loan Repayment Recovery Fund

Section 111 establishes an Indian Health Scholarship and Loan Repayment Recovery Fund within the Treasury of the United States. The section specifies the use of these funds, the investment of the funds, and the sale of obligations by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, and adds provisions expanding the source of funds for this Recovery Fund to include funds collected from individuals for breach of contract under the scholarship or loan repayment programs and interest, in addition to appropriations. Tribal Health Programs may also use payments received to provide scholarships, in addition to the current uses of recruitment and employment of health care professionals. The Secretary of Health and Human Services may now determine what amounts are not required to meet current withdrawals from the Fund, rather than the Secretary of the Treasury, as in current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616a–1 of current law. It establishes an Indian Health Scholarship and Loan Repayment Recovery Fund within the Treasury of the United States, wherein funds collected for breaches of contractual obligations under the IHS or tribal scholarships or loan repayment programs are placed.

Section 112. Recruitment activities

Section 112 permits the Secretary to reimburse certain travel expenses to health professionals seeking positions with Indian Health Programs or Urban Indian Organizations. Potential candidates for contracts under section 110 and their spouses are all eligible for such reimbursement of travel. In addition, this section requires the Secretary to assign one individual in each Area Office to have full-time responsibility for recruitment activities.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language to allow reimbursement for health professionals seeking positions with Tribal and Urban Indian Health Programs, in addition to the IHS.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616b of current law.

Section 113. Indian recruitment and retention program

Section 113 requires the Secretary to fund innovative demonstration projects to enable Tribal Health Programs and Urban Indian Organizations to recruit, place, and retain health professionals to meet their staffing needs. The section also specifies that any Tribal Health Program or Urban Indian Organization is eligible to apply for these funds.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) sets a time limit of three years for demonstration projects funded under this section instead of an open-ended timeframe under current law; and (2) clarifies that the entities eligible to compete are Tribal Health Programs and Urban Indian Organizations.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616c of current law.

Section 114. Advanced training and research

This section establishes a demonstration project to enable health professionals who have worked in an Indian Health Program or Urban Indian Organization for a substantial period of time to pursue advanced training or research areas of study, where a need exists. Each individual who participates shall incur a service obligation. The section also specifies equal opportunity for participating in the program.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which limits the advanced training or research opportunities to health professionals who have worked for the IHS, tribal or urban Indian health programs for a substantial period of time, instead of merely being employed by one of these programs at the time of application.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616d of current law.

Section 115. Quentin N. Burdick American Indians into Nursing Program

Section 115 authorizes the Quentin N. Burdick American Indians into Nursing Program for the purpose of increasing the number of nurses, nurse midwives, and nurse practitioners who deliver health care services to Indians. The section specifies potential grant recipients; how grants may be used; information which must be included in applications for the grant; preferences for grant recipients; establishment and maintenance of a program at the University of North Dakota; and an active duty service obligation.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) includes advanced practice nurse programs in addition to nurse practitioners; (2) authorizes grants for midwife or nursing programs at tribal colleges and universities or, in their absence, other colleges and universities, instead of only at the other public or private institutions; and (3) includes tribal colleges and universities in the preferences among grant applicants.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616e of current law.

Section 116. Tribal cultural orientation

This section requires certain employees of the Service who serve Indian Tribes in each Service Area to receive instruction in the history and culture of the Indian Tribes they serve. The section requires that the program be developed in consultation with the affected Indian entities, be implemented through tribal colleges or universities, include instruction in American Indian studies, and describe the use and place of traditional health care practices of the Indian Tribes in the Service Area.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) ensures that employees in each Service Area obtain cultural orientation, rather than merely establishing a program for cultural orientation; (2) requires the program to include instruction on the relationship of the Indian Tribes with the IHS, rather than simply a history of the IHS, and a description of the traditional health care practices of the Indian tribes in the Service Area; and (3) requires consultation with affected Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616f of current law.

Section 117. INMED Program

Section 117 authorizes the Secretary to provide grants to colleges and universities to maintain and expand the Indian health careers recruitment program known as the Indians Into Medicine Program (INMED). The Quentin N. Burdick Grant at the University of North Dakota is to be one of the authorized grants. This section also specifies requirements for institutional applicants for these grants.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) authorizes grants to an unspecified number of colleges or universities instead of the previous mandate of at least 3 schools; (2) clarifies that the regulations govern the grants, including substantive provisions, such as criteria and application requirements, rather than govern only the competitive award process; and (3) eliminates an old 1988 requirement of a report to Congress on the program and recommendations for changes.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616g of current law.

Section 118. Health training programs of community colleges

This section requires the Secretary to award grants to accredited, accessible community colleges to assist in establishing health profession education leading to a degree or diploma for individuals who desire to practice such profession on or near a reservation or in an Indian Health Program. The Secretary is also required to award grants to accredited, accessible community colleges that already have these programs. The Secretary must provide technical assistance to encourage community colleges to establish and maintain such programs. Any program receiving assistance under this section is required to provide advanced training for health professionals. Grant award priority is provided to tribal colleges and universities in Service Areas where they exist.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) recognizes accredited and accessible community colleges as eligible recipients of grants; (2) requires the colleges to have a relationship with a hospital, rather than merely having access to a hospital; (3) requires Indian preference for program participants; (4) increases the ceiling amount of the grant from $100,000 to $250,000; and (5) establishes priority for tribally-controlled colleges in Service Areas where they exist, if other requirements in the section are met.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616h of current law.

Section 119. Retention bonus

Section 119 permits the Secretary to provide retention bonuses to any health professional where recruitment or retention is difficult or is needed by Indian Health Programs and Urban Indian Organizations, if the individual has completed 2 years of employment with an Indian Health Program or Urban Indian Organization or any service obligation from federal scholarships or loan repayment programs, and enters into an agreement with an Indian Health Program or Urban Indian Organization for continued employment for a period of not less than 1 year. Rates for retention bonuses may cover multiple years, but not exceed an annual rate of $25,000. Refunds shall be required if the health professional does not complete the term of service under any retention agreement, unless the default is not the fault of the individual.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language expanding the bonuses (1) to any health professional, rather than only doctors and nurses, so language specifying funding set-asides between these 2 professions has been deleted; and (2) to health professionals employed by the tribal or urban health programs, rather than employed only by the Service. Language also eliminates the current requirement that the retention bonus be paid at the beginning of the term of service.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616j in current law.

Section 120. Nursing residency program

This section establishes a program to enable Indians who are nurses working for an Indian Health Program or Urban Indian Organization to pursue advanced training. The participants are required to enter a service obligation to serve in an Indian Health Program or Urban Indian Organization. The program shall include a combination of education and work study leading to either an associate or bachelor's degree or advanced degrees or certifications.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which establishes this program for Indian nurses and includes advanced degrees or certifications in nursing or public health as eligible programs, instead of a Master's degree, as appropriate post-baccalaureate training.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616k of current law.

Section 121. Community Health Aide Program

Section 121 directs the Secretary to develop and operate a Community Health Aide Program in Alaska. Requirements are specified for the Alaska program. Dental Health Aide Therapists under the Program would be prohibited from performing all oral and jaw surgeries except pulpal therapy or extraction of adult teeth after consultation with a licensed dentist in a dental emergency. In addition, the Secretary is directed to establish a neutral panel to conduct a study of the dental health aide therapist services provided by the Community Health Aide Program. Specifications of the study, which will lead to a report to Congress, are delineated. This section also allows the Secretary to establish a national Community Health Aide Program, which shall not include dental health aide therapist services, and shall not reduce funds for the Alaska program.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds provisions which (1) require the Secretary to establish a neutral panel, whose membership is also set forth in this section, to study the dental health aide therapist program in Alaska Native communities and to submit a report on the study to appropriate Congressional Committees and (2) authorizes the expansion of the Community Health Aide Program, except for the dental health aide therapist program, to Indian communities in the lower 48 states.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616l of current law.

Section 122. Tribal Health Program administration

This section requires the Secretary to provide training for Indians in the administration and planning of Tribal Health Programs.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which specifies that the training shall be for individuals who are Indian.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616n of current law.

Section 123. Health professional chronic shortage demonstration programs

This section permits the Secretary to fund demonstration programs for Tribal Health Programs to address the chronic shortages of health professionals. Each demonstration program shall incorporate a program advisory board, which is to be composed of representatives from the Indian Tribes and Indian communities which are served by the program.

Amendments: This section amends current law by changing a single pilot program at the School of Medicine at the University of South Dakota to address health professional shortages into a national demonstration project.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616o in current law. Current law authorizes the Secretary to make a grant to the School of Medicine at the University of South Dakota to fund a pilot program on an Indian reservation at one or more Service Units in South Dakota to address the chronic manpower shortages in the Aberdeen Area of the IHS.

Section 124. National Health Service Corps

This section prohibits the Secretary from removing a member of the National Health Service Corps from an Indian Health Program or Urban Indian Organization or withdrawing funding used to support such member, unless the Secretary ensures that Indians will experience no reduction in services. The section also exempts Corps scholars qualifying for the Commissioned Corps in the United States Public Health Service from full-time equivalent limitations when serving as a commissioned corps officer in a Tribal Health Program or an Urban Indian Organization.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds Urban Indian organizations. Language which exempts National Health Service Corps scholars qualifying for the Commissioned Corps in the United States Public Health Service from full-time equivalent limitations when serving as a commissioned corps officer in a Tribal Health Program or an Urban Indian Organization is new to current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1680b of current law.

Section 125. Substance abuse counselor educational curricula demonstration programs

Section 125 allows the Secretary to enter into contracts with or make grants to accredited colleges and universities (including tribal) to establish demonstration programs developing curricula for substance abuse counseling. Duration and renewal of the grants is specified. The section also states the criteria for review and approval of the applications; requires the Secretary to provide technical and other assistance to grant recipients; requires the Secretary to submit an annual report to the President under section 801; and defines the term “educational curriculum.”

Amendments: This section maintains current law, and adds language including accredited and accessible qualifications for the community colleges eligible for these programs and extending the initial grant period from one year to three years and the renewal periods from one year to two years.

Current Law: This section is Section 1665j of current law.

Section 126. Behavioral health training and community education programs

This section requires the Secretary, with the Secretary of the Interior and in consultation with Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations, to conduct a study and compile a list of certain types of staff positions within the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the Service, Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations, which should include training in any aspect of mental illness, dysfunction, or self-destructive behavior.

The Secretary is then required to provide training criteria appropriate for each type of position and ensure that this training is provided. Upon request of the appropriate Indian entity, the Secretary is required to develop and implement a program of community education on mental illness, as well as to provide technical assistance to tribal entities to obtain and develop community education materials.

Within 90 days of enactment of this Act, the Secretary is required to develop a plan to increase behavioral health services by at least 500 staff positions within 5 years, with at least 200 of such positions being devoted to child, adolescent, and family services.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and (1) adds Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations as participants in the program; (2) clarifies that Tribal Organizations are to be part of the consultation process; (3) changes the focus from solely on mental health to behavioral health; and (4) eliminates the requirement that the staff be assigned primarily to the IHS Service Units.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621h(d) of current law.

Section 127. Authorization of appropriations

Section 127 authorizes to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this title for each fiscal year through 2017.

Amendments: The section updates the authorization period through fiscal year 2017, instead of fiscal year 2000.

Current Law: This section is Section 1616p of current law.

TITLE II—HEALTH SERVICES

Section 201. Indian Health Care Improvement Fund

This section authorizes the use of funds for the purposes of eliminating the deficiencies in health status and resources for tribes; eliminating backlogs and meeting the needs in health care services; eliminating the inequities in funding for direct care and contract health service programs; and augmenting the ability of the Indian Health Service to meet its various responsibilities. Funding authorized by this section may not be used to offset appropriated funds and must be used to improve the health status and reduce the resource deficiencies of tribes.

This section also defines “health status and resource deficiency” and requires that Tribal Health Programs be equally eligible for funds as programs administered by the Indian Health Service. A report is required to be submitted to Congress 3 years after enactment which addresses the current health status and resource deficiency for each Service Unit. Funds appropriated under this section are to be included in the base budget of the Indian Health Service for determining appropriations in subsequent years.

Nothing in this section is intended to diminish the primary responsibility of the Indian Health Service to eliminate backlogs in unmet health care, or to discourage additional efforts of the Service to achieve equity among Tribes and Tribal Organizations.

Funds appropriated under this section are to be designated as the “Indian Health Care Improvement Fund.”

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds provisions clarifying that the Secretary may expend funds either directly or through contracts or compacts under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, as well as provisions regarding the use of telehealth and telemedicine. Language has been added specifying the kinds of injury prevention programs that may be offered.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621 of current law.

Section 202. Catastrophic Health Emergency Fund

Section 202 establishes the Catastrophic Health Emergency Fund (CHEF), which is to be administered by the Secretary through the headquarters of the Indian Health Service in order to meet the extraordinary medical costs associated with the treatment of victims of disasters or catastrophic illnesses. No part of the CHEF or the administration thereof is to be subject to contract or grant, nor shall these funds be apportioned on an Area Office, Service Unit, or other similar basis. The Secretary is required to promulgate regulations for the administration of these funds. This section prohibits funds appropriated to CHEF from being used to offset or limit other appropriations made to the Indian Health Service. It also requires that all reimbursements to which the Service is entitled from any source by reason of treatment rendered to any victim of a disaster or catastrophic illness the cost of which was paid from CHEF shall be deposited into CHEF.

Amendments: This section maintains current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621a in current law.

Section 203. Health promotion and disease prevention services

This section finds that health promotion and disease prevention activities improve health and well-being and reduce the expenses for health care. It requires the Secretary to provide these services and, with input from the affected Tribal Health Programs, to report to Congress on an evaluation statement of the status, capacity and resources needed to promote health and prevent disease.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, but moves the definition of health promotion and disease prevention to the definitions section and adds Congressional findings.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621b of current law.

Section 204. Diabetes prevention, treatment, and control

Section 204 requires the Secretary to determine the incidence of diabetes and its complications among Indians and the measures needed to prevent, treat and control this disease. The Secretary is also required, when medically indicated and with informed consent, to screen Indians for diabetes and for conditions which indicate a high risk for diabetes.

The Secretary is required to continue to fund model diabetes projects and dialysis programs. To the extent that funding is available, the Secretary is required to work with each Area Office to consult with Tribes and Tribal Organizations regarding diabetes programs; establish patient registries in Area Offices; and ensure that data collected are disseminated to other Area Offices, subject to privacy laws. The Secretary is also allowed to maintain diabetes control officers, but if these positions and activities are administered by the Tribes or Tribal Organizations, then the funding and activities would not be divisible under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and (1) adds (a) Tribal Organizations as eligible participants in these programs, (b) effective ongoing monitoring of disease indicators, (c) the requirement that screening shall be to the extent medically indicated and with informed consent, and (d) funding for dialysis programs; (2) changes the model diabetes projects into permanent programs to be continued along with any new programs developed with recurring funding; and (3) still allows for diabetes control officers in each Area Office, but provides that if these positions and activities are administered by the Tribes or Tribal Organizations, then the funding and activities would not be divisible under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621c of current law.

Section 205. Shared services for long-term care

This section allows the Secretary to enter into funding agreements with Tribes and Tribal Organizations for the delivery of long-term care services to Indians. Contents of these funding agreements are specified. Any nursing facility funded under this section must meet the requirements for such facilities under section 1919 of the Social Security Act. In addition, the Secretary is required to provide necessary technical and other assistance to enable applicants to comply with the provisions of this section. The Secretary shall encourage the use of existing underused facilities or allow the use of swing beds for long-term or similar care.

Amendments: This section amends current law by changing a demonstration project into a permanent program and adding new provisions which (1) include health care services associated with long-term care provided in a facility for Indians; and (2) encourage the use of existing underused facilities or allow the use of swing beds for long-term or similar care.

Current Law: This section is Section 1680l of current law.

Section 206. Health services research

This section requires the Secretary to make funding available for both clinical and nonclinical research to further the delivery of Indian health services, and to coordinate the activities of other agencies within the Department to address this need. Tribal Health Programs are to be given equal opportunity to compete for these research funds. The Secretary shall also periodically evaluate the impact of research conducted under this section, and disseminate to Tribal Health Programs information regarding that research.

Amendments: This section amends current law by (1) eliminating the specific set-aside of $200,000 for research and replacing it with general authority to fund research for Indian health programs, instead of only the IHS; (2) requiring the Secretary to coordinate, to the extent practical, the resources and activities for Indian health research needs; (3) authorizing funding for both clinical and non-clinical research; and (4) providing for a periodic evaluation and dissemination of the research to Tribal Health Programs.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621g of current law.

Section 207. Mammography and other cancer screening

This section requires the Secretary to provide for mammography and other cancer screening, consistent with the screening recommendations of the United States Preventive Services Task Force.

Amendments: This section amends current law by authorizing other cancer screening, and eliminating the minimum age requirement of 35 for Indian women and opening the mammography screening to all Indian women, at a frequency under appropriate national standards.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621k of current law.

Section 208. Patient travel costs

Section 208 requires the Secretary to provide funds for the travel costs of patients and their qualified escorts, associated with receiving health care services. A definition of “qualified escort” for purposes of accompanying a patient who is traveling to receive health care services is provided.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which allows the use of qualified escorts and transportation by private vehicle (where no other transportation is available), specially equipped vehicle, ambulance or by other means required when air or motor vehicle transport is not available.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621l of current law.

Section 209. Epidemiology centers

This section directs the Secretary to establish an epidemiology center in each Service Area. The functions of these centers are delineated. The Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention is required to provide technical assistance to the centers. The Secretary is also authorized to make grants to Tribes, Tribal Organizations, Urban Indian Organizations and eligible intertribal consortia to conduct epidemiological studies of Indian communities. Eligibility requirements for consortia, application requirements and use of grant funds are specified. This section also authorizes the Secretary to provide access to information in the possession of the Secretary to an epidemiology center operated by a grantee pursuant to a grant awarded under this section.

Amendments: This section amends current law by (1) maintaining the centers in existence on the date of passage of this Act, but still requiring the establishment of centers in the remaining Areas; (2) allowing new centers to be operated under a grant under this section, but the funding under such a grant shall not be divisible; (3) eliminating the requirements in current law that the Secretary establish the data and formats for reporting and establish the system for monitoring progress toward the health objectives; and (4) providing that an epidemiology center operated under this section shall be treated as a public health authority for purposes of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and directing the Secretary to grant grantees access to and use of data and other protected health information in the possession of the Secretary.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621m of current law.

Section 210. Comprehensive school health education programs

Section 210 allows the Secretary to provide grants to Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations to develop comprehensive school health education programs for children from pre-school through grade 12 in schools for the benefit of Indian and Urban Indian children. The specific purposes for which grant funds may be used are delineated. Upon request, the Secretary shall provide technical assistance in the development and dissemination of comprehensive health education plans, materials and information. The Secretary, through the Service and in consultation with Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations, shall establish criteria for review and approval of applications for this funding. For Bureau of Indian Affairs-funded schools, the Secretary of the Interior shall develop a similar school health education program.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) clarifies the types of purposes for which the funds may be used, such as for both regular school and after school programs, for the benefit of Indian and urban Indian children, for oral health programs, for violence prevention and for other health issues, as appropriate; (2) expands the grants to include Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Health Organizations as eligible for funding, as well as Tribes; (3) deletes the reporting requirements of current law; and (4) requires that the application criteria be established in consultation with Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621n of current law.

Section 211. Indian youth program

This section authorizes the Secretary to establish and administer a program for innovative mental and physical disease prevention and health promotion and treatment for Indian and Urban Indian preadolescent and adolescent youths. Allowable and prohibited uses of the funds authorized by this section are delineated. The Secretary is required to disseminate information regarding models for delivery of comprehensive health care services to Indian youth; to encourage the implementation of these models; and to provide technical assistance upon request. The Secretary will establish criteria for review and approval of applications under this section in consultation with Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations as participants in the program and consultation, and includes urban Indian youth as beneficiaries of program services. The specific authorization of this program in current law is deleted.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621o of current law.

Section 212. Prevention, control, and elimination of communicable and infectious diseases

Section 212 authorizes the Secretary to make grants available to projects specifically for the purpose of preventing, controlling and eliminating communicable and infectious diseases. Funding is also authorized for public information and education programs; education, training and clinical skills improvement activities for health professionals; and demonstration projects for the screening, treatment and prevention of the hepatitis C virus. Funding under this section requires an application or proposal to be submitted. Entities which receive funding under this section are encouraged to coordinate their activities with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, as well as with state and local health agencies. Finally, in carrying out this section, the Secretary may provide technical assistance, upon request, and shall submit a biennial report to Congress on the use of the funds and the progress made toward prevention, control, and elimination of communicable and infectious diseases among Indians and Urban Indians.

Amendments: This section amends current law by (1) including Urban Indian Organizations; (2) expanding the communicable diseases from simply tuberculosis to other communicable and infectious diseases; (3) by encouraging, rather than requiring, that entities funded under this section coordinate with the Centers for Disease Control and state and local health agencies; and (4) by eliminating provisions of current law which would reduce the grant amount for expenses incurred by the federal government or for supplies or equipment furnished to the grant recipient.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621q of current law.

Section 213. Other authority for provision of services

This section authorizes the Secretary to fund other activities which meet the objectives set forth in Section 3 of this Act through health care-related services and programs not otherwise described in the Act, including hospice care, assisted living, long-term health care, and home- and community-based services. Services are to be provided in accordance with accepted and appropriate standards relating to the service, including any licensing term or condition. The Secretary is authorized to establish standards, by regulation, for a service provided under this section, provided that those standards are not more stringent than the standards required by the state in which the service is provided. If the Secretary does not establish standards by regulation, state standards shall apply. If a service under this section is provided by an Indian Tribe or Tribal Organization pursuant to the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, the verification by the Secretary that the service meets any standards required by the state in which the service is or will be provided shall be considered to meet the terms and conditions required. The individuals who are eligible to receive long-term care under this section are specified, and the terms “home- and community-based services” and “hospice care” are defined. This section also authorizes the Secretary to provide funding to meet the objectives set forth in Section 3 of this Act for convenient care services programs pursuant to section 306(c)(2)(A).

Amendments: This section amends current law by making permanent a demonstration project for home- and community-based care. New provisions also (1) add standards; (2) add several definitions and deletes the definition of “functionally disabled” found in current law; and (3) eliminates the exclusion of cash payments, room and board, construction and nursing facility services. The provision authorizing the Secretary to provide funding to meet the objectives set forth in Section 3 of this Act for convenient care services programs is new.

Current Law: Section 1680k authorizes the Secretary to establish not more than 24 demonstration projects for home-and community-based care (excluding cash payments, room and board, construction and nursing facility services), for functionally disabled Indians. Discretion is provided to the Indian Health Service, Indian Tribes, or Tribal Organizations to provide such care to persons otherwise ineligible for the health care benefits of the Indian Health Service (on a cost basis). The Secretary is required to submit to the President for inclusion in a report to Congress the findings of these projects. “Home- and community-based services” and “functionally disabled” are defined.

Current Law: Section 1621v establishes an Office of Indian Women’s Health Care to oversee efforts of the IHS to monitor and improve health care for Indian women of all ages.

Section 215. Environmental and nuclear health hazards

Section 215 requires the Secretary, in conjunction with other Federal agencies and in consultation with concerned Tribes and Tribal Organizations, to conduct studies and ongoing monitoring programs to determine trends in the health hazards to Indian miners and other Indians as a result of environmental hazards, such as nuclear resource development, petroleum contamination, and contamination of water sources and the food chain. Upon completion of such studies, the Secretary shall develop health care plans to address these health problems. The Secretary is required to submit the study to Congress 18 months after the date of enactment and a report no later than 1 year after the study which shall include recommendations for the implementation of the health care plan and evaluation activities. This section establishes an Intergovernmental Task Force to identify environmental hazards and to take corrective action. The Secretary is to chair this Task Force, which shall meet at least twice yearly. If an Indian who is employed in or around any environmental hazard suffers from a work-related condition, the Indian Health Program which treats him may be reimbursed by the Indian's employer.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) requires ongoing monitoring of trends in health hazards to Indians and other environmental hazards to Indian communities; and (2) provides additional elements of the studies conducted under this section.

Current Law: This section is Section 1677 of current law.

Section 217. California contract health services program

This section authorizes the Secretary to fund a program using the California Rural Indian Health Board (CRIHB) as a contract care intermediary to improve the accessibility of health services to California Indians. The Secretary will reimburse the CRIHB for costs incurred pursuant to this section. Not more than 5 percent of the amounts provided under this section to the CRIHB in any fiscal year may be for administrative expenses. No payment may be made for treatment under this section to the extent payment may be made under the Indian Catastrophic Health Emergency Fund or from amounts appropriated or otherwise made available to the California contract health service delivery area. This section also establishes an Advisory Board to advise the CRIHB in carrying out this section. The Advisory Board shall be comprised of representatives from not less than 8 Tribal Health Programs serving California Indians covered under this section, and at least one-half of whom are not affiliated with the CRIHB.

Section 218. California as a contract health service delivery area

This section designates the State of California, excluding certain specified counties, as a contract health service delivery area for the purpose of providing contract health care services to California Indians. The excluded counties may be included only if funding is specifically provided by the Indian Health Service for such services in those counties.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, but allows the excluded counties to become a part of the contract service delivery area if funding is specifically provided for such services in those counties.

Current Law: This section is Section 1680 of current law.

This section directs the Secretary to provide contract health services to members of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians who reside in the Trenton Service Area of Divide, McKenzie, and Williams counties in North Dakota and the counties of Richland, Roosevelt, and Sheridan in Montana. Nothing in this section is to be construed as expanding the eligibility of members of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians for health services provided by the Service beyond the scope of eligibility for these services that applied on May 1, 1986.

Amendments: This section maintains current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1680e of current law.

Section 220. Programs operated by Indian tribes and tribal organizations

This section requires the Indian Health Service to provide funds to Tribal Health Programs for health care programs and facilities on the same basis as funds are provided to these programs operated directly by the Indian Health Service.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, but eliminates language which specifies the particular use of funds for which the Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations can receive funding on the same basis as the IHS.

Current Law: Section 1680a requires the Indian Health Service to provide funds to tribes and tribal organizations health care programs and facilities to (1) maintain and repair clinics, (2) train employees, (3) provide cost-of-living expenses, and (4) provide for other expenses related to health services on the same basis as funds are provided to these programs operated directly by the Indian Health Service.

Amendments: This section maintains current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1646 of current law.

The section also provides that if the Service fails to respond within the required time, the Service shall accept the claim submitted by the provider as valid. The IHS shall pay a valid claim within 30 days after the completion of the claim.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, but changes the requirement of a completed claim to a valid claim.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621s of current law.

Section 224. Liability for payment

This section provides that a patient who receives authorized contract health care services will not be held liable for any charges or costs associated with those authorized services. The Secretary is required to notify the contract care provider and the patient who receives such services that the patient is not liable within a specified time. Following receipt of this notice or an acceptable claim under the previous section, the provider shall have no further recourse against the patient who received the health care.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which limits the recourse against the patient if the claim has been deemed accepted under Section 223.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621u of current law.

Section 225. Office of Indian Men's Health

This section provides that the Secretary may establish the Office of Indian Men's Health to coordinate and promote the health status of Indian men. Amendments: This section is new to the Act and is not contained in current law.

Section 226. Authorization of appropriations

This section authorizes to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this title for each fiscal year through fiscal year 2017.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, but extends the authorization from fiscal year 2000 to fiscal year 2017 and eliminates the references to specific sections which had a separate authorization period.

Current Law: This section is Section 1621w of current law.

TITLE III—FACILITIES

Section 301. Consultation; Construction and renovation of facilities; Reports

This section requires that prior to expending construction funds, the Secretary shall consult with impacted Indian Tribes, and ensure that facilities built pursuant to this section meet certain construction standards within one year after the date on which the construction or renovation of such facility is completed. In addition, Section 301 sets forth requirements to be met prior to closing any facility.

This section also directs the Secretary to maintain a health care facility priority system which shall be developed in consultation with Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations and meet other requirements. The priority of any project established under the construction priority system in effect on the date of enactment, if the project meets certain criteria, is protected. Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments of 2007, the Secretary shall submit to Congress a report that describes the comprehensive, national, ranked list of all health care facilities needs for the Service, Indian Tribes, and Tribal Organizations. Beginning in calendar year 2011, the Secretary shall update this report not less frequently than once every 5 years. Annual reports are also required under this section.

Not later than 1 year after the establishment of the health care facilities construction priority system under this section, the Comptroller General of the United States shall prepare and finalize a report to Congress, that reviews the methodologies applied, and the processes followed, by the Service in making each assessment of needs for the priority system. This section also directs the Secretary to consult and cooperate with Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations, and Urban Indian Organizations in developing innovative approaches to address all or part of the total unmet need for construction of health facilities.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and builds on it substantially. Language is added which (1) requires an evaluation of the impact of a proposed closure prior to closing; (2) requires the Secretary to maintain a health care facility priority system developed through consultation, which prioritizes certain facilities; (3) adds specific requirements for the initial, comprehensive report to Congress and subsequent annual reports; (4) requires the Secretary to consult and cooperate with Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations, and Urban Indian Organizations in developing innovative approaches to meet facilities needs; and (5) requires the Comptroller General to prepare a report to Congress which reviews the methodology used for the health facilities construction priority list.

Current Law: This section is Section 1631 of current law.

Section 302. Sanitation facilities

This section provides findings, certain responsibilities of the Service for sanitation, authorized uses of sanitation funding and facilities, and reporting requirements, and establishes the deficiency levels for those facilities. This section requires training or technical assistance in the operation and maintenance of sanitation facilities, and priority funding for operation and maintenance or emergency repairs.

Section 302 authorizes the Secretary to accept funds from any source, including funds appropriated under the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act, for construction of sanitation facilities. The Secretary, after consulting with the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations and tribally designated housing entities, is also required to submit a report to Congress on the sanitation facilities priority system and a 10-year plan to provide sanitation facilities to new and renovated Indian homes. Deficiency levels for sanitation facilities are defined.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) establishes priority funding for emergency repairs and operation or maintenance to avoid imminent health threats or to protect the investment in health benefits gained through the sanitation facilities; (2) prohibits the use of IHS funding to provide sanitation facilities to new homes constructed using Department of Housing and Urban Development funds; (3) allows the Secretary to accept funds from any source, including federal and state agencies, for sanitation facilities and services, and to place those funds into contracts or compacts under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act; (4) authorizes the Secretary to allow certain funding to be used to fund tribal loans or matching or cost participation requirements to construct sanitation facilities; (5) requires the Secretary enter into interagency agreements for financial assistance; (6) requires consultation in preparation of the report to Congress, and clarifies the information required to be in the annual report; and (7) establishes an Indian Tribe's primary responsibility for collecting user fees and the Secretary's responsibility in assisting tribes when the facility is threatened with imminent failure.

Compliance with certain labor standards is required.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds new language to clarify rates of pay requirements and other wage requirements similar to local rates as determined by the Indian tribes or Tribal Organizations to be served by the construction.

Current Law: This section is Section 1633 of current law.

Section 304. Expenditure of non-service funds for renovation

This section authorizes the Secretary to accept any expansion, renovation or modernization of any Service or tribal health facility funded with non-Service funds in accordance with certain criteria. The Secretary is required to maintain a separate priority list for these facilities, which shall be submitted to Congress as part of the annual report to Congress. Indian Tribes or Tribal Organizations are required to meet certain requirements for expansions, renovations or modernizations. This section also provides that if any Service facility which has been expanded, renovated, or modernized under this section ceases to be used as a Service facility during the 20-year period beginning on the date such expansion, renovation, or modernization is completed, such Indian Tribe or Tribal Organization shall be entitled to recover from the United States an amount which bears the same ratio to the value of such facility at the time of such cessation as the value of such expansion, renovation, or modernization bore to the value of such facility at the time of the completion of such expansion, renovation, or modernization.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) includes major expansion as an authorized use of funds, in addition to renovation and modernization, but requires the Indian Tribes or Tribal Organizations to provide certain information to the Secretary regarding staffing, equipment and other costs associated with the expansion; and (2) requires the methodology for determining priorities to be developed through regulations.

Current Law: This section is Section 1634 of current law.

Section 305. Funding for the construction, expansion and modernization of small ambulatory care facilities

This section authorizes the Secretary to make grants to Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations for the construction, expansion, or modernization of facilities for the provision of ambulatory care services. Use of funds, grant application requirements, priorities, and conditions for reversion of facilities are set forth.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) requires the funding to be used for the portion of costs which benefits the eligible population, but exempts from the specific eligibility requirements applicants whose principal health administration offices are located where there is no road system providing direct access to inpatient hospitals; (2) adds additional capacity requirements for a facility constructed with a grant under this section; (3) makes reduction of an outstanding debt for construction, expansion or modernization an additional allowable use of funds; and (4) authorizes peer review panels to be established to evaluate applications and proposals.

Current Law: This section is Section 1636 of current law.

Section 306. Indian health care delivery demonstration projects

This section authorizes the Secretary to establish a health care delivery demonstration project to test alternative means of delivering health care and services to Indians through facilities. There would be two kinds of demonstration projects. General projects would be authorized, with priority given to projects located in specific Service Areas, if they meet the specified criteria, such as the need for such facility, number of Indians to be served, the economic viability of the project, and the administrative and financial capability of Indian Tribes or Tribal Organizations to administer the project. Health care delivery demonstration projects would also be authorized that include a convenient care services program as an alternative means of delivering health care services to Indians. This section also requires technical assistance and use of the same criteria in evaluating tribal and IHS facilities.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language which (1) permits the use of IHS funds to match other funds; (2) authorizes the convenient care services demonstration projects; and (3) authorizes peer review panels to be established to review and evaluate applications. Language of current law authorizing reports to Congress on the findings and conclusions of the demonstration projects has been deleted.

Current Law: This section is Section 1637 of current law.

Section 307. Land transfer

This section authorizes the Secretary to accept any land and improvements transferred, at no cost, from the Bureau of Indian Affairs or other federal agencies for the provision of health care services.

Amendments: This section amends current law by changing a specific authorization into a general authorization whereby federal agencies may transfer land and improvements to the IHS for the provision of health care services.

Current Law: Section 1638 provides specific authorization for transferring 5 acres of land at the Chemawa Indian School in Salem, OR, to the IHS.

Section 308. Leases, contracts and other agreements

This section authorizes the Secretary to enter into leases, contracts and other agreements with Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations which have facilities for the delivery of health services at those facilities. The agreements may also include provisions for construction, renovation and compensation.

Amendments: This section essentially maintains current law. The provision of current law authorizing the Secretary to enter into 20-year leases with Tribes that may specify reconstruction or renovation of property has been deleted.

Current Law: This section is Section 1674 of current law.

Section 309. Study for loans, loan guarantees and loan repayment

This section directs the Secretary to conduct a study to determine the feasibility of establishing a loan fund to provide Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations direct loans or loan guarantees for health care facilities construction. A number of study requirements are delineated. The results of the study shall be reported to Congress.

Amendments: This section is new and is not now contained in current law.

Section 310. Tribal leasing

This section authorizes a tribal health program to lease permanent structures for the purpose of providing health care services without obtaining prior approval in appropriation Acts.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, and expands the program to include Tribal Organizations.

Current Law: This section is Section 1680j of current law.

Section 311. Indian Health Service/Tribal Facilities Joint Venture Program.

This section authorizes the Secretary to make arrangements with Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations to establish joint venture demonstration projects, under which an Indian Tribe or Tribal Organization would expend tribal, private, or other available funds for the acquisition or construction of a health facility for a minimum of 10 years, under a no-cost lease. In exchange, the Service will agree to provide the equipment, supplies, and staffing for the operation and maintenance of such a health facility. Certain capabilities and other requirements are set forth. There are provisions for breach of agreement by either the Tribe or Tribal Organization or the IHS.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds (1) Tribal Organizations to the eligible participants and those Tribes that have begun, but not completed the process of acquisition or construction of a health care facility; (2) requires negotiation for the continued operation of the facility at the end of the 10-year lease; (3) authorizes recovery in a proportional amount from the IHS if the IHS ceases to use the facility within the 10-year lease period; and (4) includes staff quarters in the definition of the health facilities under this section.

Current Law: This section is Section 1680h(e) of current law.

Section 312. Location of facilities

This section directs the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Service to give priority to locating health care facilities and employment projects in economically depressed areas to Indian and Alaska Native lands, if requested by the Indian owner and Indian Tribe with jurisdiction over such lands.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language to (1) include lands in Alaska owned by any Alaska Native village, or village or regional corporation under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, or any land allotted to any Alaska Native; and (2) gives top priority to Indian land owned by 1 or more Indian Tribes. The definition of "Indian lands" is modified from current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1680n of current law.

Section 313. Maintenance and improvement of health care facilities

This section requires the Secretary to report to Congress on the backlog of maintenance and repair work required at both Service and tribal health care facilities. This section also authorizes an Indian Tribe or Tribal Organization to use maintenance and improvement funds for construction of a replacement facility, as well as for renovation, modernization, and expansion of facilities, under certain circumstances.

Amendments: This section is new and is not now contained in current law.

Section 314. Tribal management of federally-owned quarters

This section authorizes Tribal Health Programs operating a health care facility and federally-owned quarters pursuant to a contract or compact under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act to establish reasonable rental rates for the federally-owned quarters, and to collect the rent directly from federal employees who occupy such quarters. These quarters shall remain eligible for improvement and repair funds as other federally-owned quarters. The Tribal Health Program operating the quarters is required to provide at least 60 days notice before changing the rental rate.

Amendments: This section is new and is not now contained in current law.

Section 315. Applicability of Buy American Act requirement

This section requires application of the Buy American Act for all procurements under this title. Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations are exempt from this requirement.

Amendments: This section maintains current law, but exempts Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations from the requirements of the Buy American Act, and eliminates the reporting requirement contained in current law.

Current Law: This section is Section 1638b of current law.

Section 316. Other funding for facilities

This section authorizes the Secretary to accept funds from other sources for the construction of health care facilities and to place such funds into a contract or compact under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act. The Secretary is also authorized to enter into interagency agreements with other federal or state agencies for the planning, design and construction of health care facilities to be administered by Indian Health Programs.

Amendments: This section is new and is not now contained in current law.

Section 317. Authorization of appropriations

This section authorizes to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for each fiscal year through fiscal year 2017 to carry out this title.

Amendments: This section maintains current law but extends the authorization for appropriations beyond fiscal year 2000 through fiscal year 2017.

Current Law: This section is Section 1638a of current law.

TITLE IV—ACCESS TO HEALTH SERVICES

Section 401. Treatment of payments under Social Security Act health care benefits programs

This section requires that any Medicare, Medicaid, or State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) payments received by an Indian Health Program or Urban Indian Organization for services provided to eligible Indians shall not be considered in determining appropriations for the provision of health care and services. Indians without Medicare, Medicaid or SCHIP coverage are to be given equal consideration as Indians who are covered by these Social Security Act health benefit programs. Payments to which a facility of the Service is entitled by reason of a provision of the Social Security Act are to be placed in a special fund to be held by the Secretary. In making payments from such fund, the Secretary is to ensure that each Service Unit receives 100% of the amount to which the facility of the Service, for which such Service Unit makes collections, is entitled. How funds collected from Medicare, Medicaid, or SCHIP are to be used is specified. This section also allows Tribal Health Programs to elect to directly bill for, and receive payment for, health care items and services provided by that Tribal Health Program for which payment is made under Medicare, Medicaid, SCHIP, or third party payors.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and (1) adds Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations, in addition to Tribes and the IHS, for whom reimbursements would not be considered in determining appropriations; (2) authorizes the 100% pass-through of payments due to Service facilities from the special fund; and (3) expands the authorized uses of the reimbursements from improvements only to hospitals or skilled facilities to also include programs and the excess used to reduce health deficiencies, subject to consultation by the Indian Tribes served. However, this provision authorizing the Secretary to determine the uses shall not apply when the Indian Tribes elect to receive reimbursements directly.

Current Law: Sections 1641 and 1642 address treatment of payments under Medicare or Medicaid. Section 1645 established a program under which tribes could elect to directly bill and be reimbursed for health care services provided under Medicare, Medicaid or other third parties.

Section 402. Grants to and contracts with the service, Indian tribes, tribal organizations, and urban Indian organizations to facilitate outreach, enrollment, and coverage of Indians under Social Security Act health benefit programs and other health benefits programs

This section directs the Secretary to make grants to or enter into contracts with Tribes and Tribal Organizations to improve enrollment and participation in Medicare, Medicaid or SCHIP programs, including paying premiums or cost sharing (which terms are defined in this section). In doing so, the Secretary shall place such conditions as are deemed necessary to affect the purpose of this section, including certain requirements of the Indian Tribe or Tribal Organization. Specifications for applying this section to Urban Indian Organizations are included. This section also directs the Secretary, acting through the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, to take such steps as are necessary to facilitate cooperation with, and agreements between, States and the Service, Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations, or Urban Indian Organizations with respect to the provision of health care items and services to Indians and to improving the enrollment of Indians under Social Security Act health benefits programs. This section also provides a cross-reference to the relevant section of the Social Security Act for provisions related to agreements between the Secretary and Indian Tribes, Tribal Organizations, and Urban Indian Organizations for the collection, preparation, and submission of applications by Indians for assistance under Medicare, Medicaid and SCHIP.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds provisions which outline the agreements between the Secretary and the Tribes, Tribal or Urban Indian Organizations to improve the enrollment of Indians in Social Security Act programs.

Current Law: This section is Section 1644 of current law.

Section 403. Reimbursement from certain third parties of costs of health services

Section 403 provides that the United States, an Indian Tribe, or Tribal Organization has the right to recover from an insurance company, health maintenance organization, employee benefit plan, or any third party the reasonable charges billed by the Secretary, an Indian Tribe, or Tribal Organization in providing health services to any individual to the same extent that such individual, or any nongovernmental provider of such services, would be eligible to receive damages, reimbursement, or indemnification. This right of recovery is extended against any state, under certain conditions. Certain state or local laws are deemed nonapplicable to prevent or hinder this right of recovery. This section has no effect on private rights of action. Enforcement measures for the right of recovery, notice, costs and attorneys' fees are all specified in this section. Section 403 limits the Indian Health Service right of recovery against a tribal self-insured plan absent written consent from the Tribe. Other items covered in this section include nonapplication of claims filing requirements; application to Urban Indian Organizations; statute of limitations; and a savings clause.

This section adds a new provision which would extend to Tribes and Tribal Organizations the same authority the U.S. has under the Federal Medical Care Recovery Act (FMCRA) to recover the costs of medical care from a tortfeasor whose action caused an injury or disease to a patient whom a federal health care provider is obliged to treat. While the Department of Justice brings such suits against tortfeasors for federal health care providers such as the IHS, it does not currently do so for Tribes which operate IHS-funded health programs.

Amendments: This section maintains current law and adds language (1) to enable Urban Indian Organizations to seek recovery from third parties; (2) to require reasonable efforts be taken to provide notice to the patient either before or during the pendency of the action; (3) to limit the IHS right of recovery against a tribal self-insured plan absent written consent; (4) to include awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of litigation; (5) to prohibit denial of reimbursement on the basis of a different format or form; and (6) to extend to Tribes and Tribal Organizations the same authority the U.S. has under the Federal Medical Care Recovery Act (FMCRA) to recover the costs of medical care from a tortfeasor.

The Secretary shall not take action which would impair priority access to or quality of care for Indians at IHS or priority of veterans to care by the VA.

Amendments: This section amends current law by (1) authorizing the Secretary to enter agreements for sharing of medical facilities with the Departments of Veterans Affairs (VA) and Defense, instead of merely examining the feasibility of entering agreements with the VA; (2) requiring consultation with the affected Indian Tribes prior to entering the agreements; (3) requiring reimbursement to the IHS, Tribes, or Tribal Organizations; and (4) eliminating the specific cross-utilization of services in Utah only (expanding it, generally).

Tribal Organization, or Urban Indian Organization as a provider eligible to receive payment under the program for health care services furnished to an Indian on the same basis as any other provider qualified to participate as a provider of health care services under the program if the entity meets generally applicable state or other requirements for participation as a provider of health care services under the program. This section also provides that state or local licensure or recognition requirements by a provider of health care services shall be deemed to have been met in the case of an entity operated by the Service, an Indian Tribe, Tribal Organization, or Urban Indian Organization, if the entity meets all the applicable standards for such licensure or recognition, regardless of whether the entity obtains a license or other documentation under such state or local law. Certain entities operated by the Service, an Indian Tribe, Tribal Organization, or Urban Indian Organization, or individuals who have been excluded from participation in any federal health care program or for which a license is under suspension or has been revoked by the state where the entity or individual is located, shall not be eligible to receive payment or reimbursement under any such program for health care services furnished to an Indian.

Title II

Title II of the bill is amendments to the Social Security Act that is under the jurisdiction of the Senate Finance Committee. These provisions include waivers of cost-sharing and premiums for Medicaid for Indians receiving services at IHS, tribal or urban Indian health programs, Medicaid managed care provisions, and safe harbor protections from the anti-kickback statutes.

Section 201. Expansion of payments under Medicare, Medicaid and SCHIP for all covered services furnished by Indian health programs

Section 201 authorizes IHS, tribal and urban Indian health programs to be reimbursed for Medicaid, if the services meet the conditions and requirements generally applicable to the delivery of such care. In addition, this section requires IHS, tribal or urban Indian health facilities to make improvements to achieve or maintain compliance. The Secretary is also authorized to enter into an agreement with a State to reimburse the State for Medicaid services provided by the IHS, tribal or urban Indian health programs. This section cross-references the special fund to which Medicaid reimbursements are placed for IHS and direct billing requirements for the IHS and tribal health programs under the Act. This section also authorizes Medicare payments to IHS, tribal and urban Indian health programs so long as they are compliant with Medicare requirements. The section cross-references the Act's provisions under which Medicare payments made are placed in a special fund for the purpose of making improvements to maintain compliance.

Section 202. Increased outreach to Indians under Medicaid and SCHIP and improved cooperation in the provision of items and services to Indians under Social Security Act health benefit programs

Section 202 authorizes the Secretary to encourage States to take steps to increase enrollment and outreach for Indian children in the State Children's Health Insurance Program and requires the Secretary to facilitate cooperation between States and the IHS, tribal and urban Indian health programs.

Section 203. Additional provisions to increase outreach to, and enrollment of, Indians in SCHIP and Medicaid for outreach

Section 203 excludes certain activities, such as outreach activities for families of Indian children likely to be eligible for SCHIP and enrollment assistance activities, from the current 10% cap on certain SCHIP payments.

Section 204. Premiums and cost sharing protections under Medicaid, eligibility determinations under Medicaid and SCHIP, and protection of certain Indian property from Medicaid estate recovery

Section 204 prohibits the imposition of enrollment fees, premiums and cost-sharing on Indians served at the IHS, tribal or urban Indian health programs or through the referrals to contract health and the reduction of the reimbursement to the IHS, tribal or urban Indian health program for the fees or cost-sharing. In addition, this section exempts certain Indian property, such as trust land, from being included in determining eligibility of an individual who is an Indian for Medicaid, and continues protections of certain Indian property from Medicaid estate recovery.

Section 205. Nondiscrimination in qualifications for payment for services under Federal health care programs

Section 205 allows the IHS, Tribal or urban Indian health programs to be accepted on the same basis as any other provider eligible for reimbursement, if the program meets generally applicable participation requirements. The provision would prohibit payments if the program was excluded from any other Federal health care program and if any State licenses were suspended or revoked.

Section 206. Consultation on Medicaid, SCHIP, and other health care programs funded under the Social Security Act involving Indian health programs and urban Indian organizations

Section 206 maintains the Tribal Technical Advisory Group established to provide technical assistance or advice to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. This section also requires the States to establish a process for consultation with the tribal or urban Indian health programs on matters relating to Medicaid which are likely to have a direct effect on Indians or Indian health programs.

Section 207. Exclusion waiver authority for affected Indian health programs and safe harbor transactions under the Social Security Act

Section 207 establishes a process whereby the administrator of an Indian Health Program may request a waiver of sanctions imposed on a health provider. This section also specifies that certain transactions not be considered remuneration under Section 1128B(b) of the Social Security Act for certain transfers between the Indian health programs or patient for the purpose of providing necessary health care services to the patient.

Section 208. Rules applicable under Medicaid and SCHIP to managed care entities with respect to Indian enrollees and Indian health care providers and Indian managed care entities

Section 208 allows Indians, enrolled in a non-Indian Medicaid managed care entity (MCE) with an Indian health program participating in the network, to choose the Indian health program as the primary care provider. It also requires MCEs with significant Indian enrollees to meet other requirements. The Indian health programs would also be required to comply with all generally applicable Medicaid requirements to the extent the requirements do not conflict with other Federal statutes applicable to the Indian health programs. This section also sets forth special rules applicable to Indian MCEs, such as the ability to restrict enrollment to Indians and other enrollment rules. In regard to a Medicaid managed care program, if a health care provider is required to have medical malpractice insurance as a condition of contracting with a Medicaid MCE, an Indian health care provider would be deemed to satisfy such a requirement if it is an FQHC covered under the Federal Tort Claims Act, a provider that delivers services pursuant to a contract under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act, or the Indian Health Service, which is covered under the Federal Tort Claims Act.

Section 209. Annual report on Indians served by Social Security Act health benefit programs

Section 209 requires annual reports to Congress regarding the enrollment and health status of Indians receiving items or services under the health benefit programs.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On April 24, 2007, Senators Dorgan, Thomas, Boxer, Reid, Cantwell, Johnson, Tester, Inouye, Domenici, Bingaman, Baucus, Klobuchar, Obama and Murkowski introduced S. 1200, the Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments of 2007. Senators Cochran and Murray were added as cosponsors on April 26, 2007; Senator Clinton on May 3, 2007; and Senators Brown and Stevens on May 21, 2007. Senator Stabenow was added as a cosponsor on September 4, 2007.

The Committee held a hearing on the Indian Health Care Improvement Act on March 8, 2007. This was the tenth hearing since the 106th Congress on the reauthorization of the Act.

On May 10, 2007, the Committee on Indian Affairs convened a business meeting to consider S. 1200 and other measures that had been referred to it, and ordered the bill favorably reported.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION AND TABULATION OF VOTE

On May 10, 2007, the Committee on Indian Affairs convened a business meeting to consider S. 1200 and other measures, and voted to have the bill favorably reported to the full Senate, without amendment, with the recommendation that the bill do pass.

REGULATORY AND PAPERWORK IMPACT STATEMENT

Paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate requires that each report accompanying a bill evaluate the regulatory and paperwork impact that would be incurred in carrying out the bill. The Committee has concluded that S. 1200 will not require the promulgation of regulations so the regulatory and paperwork impact should be minimal.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

On May 1, 2007, Chairman Dorgan sent letters to both Secretary Michael Leavitt and Attorney General Gonzales, asking the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Justice to provide the Committee with their views on S. 1200.

The Department of Justice submitted a letter of comments on June 13, 2007, which is attached, below.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS,
Washington, DC, June 13, 2007.

Hon. BYRON L. DORGAN,
*Chairman, Committee on Indian Affairs,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for the opportunity to comment upon S. 1200, the Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments of 2007. The Department of Justice fully supports the purposes of this legislation—improving access to health care for American Indians and Alaska natives. The Department has worked with the Committee on Indian Affairs on previous versions of this legislation and believes that most of its prior concerns have been addressed by S. 1200. The Department does, however, continue to have a few concerns with the legislation that we have noted in the past. As explained below, the Department believes that these concerns can be addressed with relatively modest changes to bill language that would not detract from the overall goal of improving health care for Native Americans but would, in the Department’s view, benefit both the Native American community specifically and taxpayers generally.

1. The legislation authorizes funding and encourages the use of traditional health care practices. The Department does not oppose the provision of traditional health care practices as an adjunct to “Western” medical practices. We note that on March 8, 2007, Ms. Rachel Joseph, Co-Chairperson of the National Steering Committee for the Reauthorization of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, testified that “[t]raditional health care practices are usually provided as complementary services to Western medical practices at the request of family members.” Ms. Joseph also testified that “[i]n most cases, the traditional health care practitioners are not employees of the IHS or tribes so FTCA coverage would not apply in the event that a malpractice claim was ever filed.”

A prior version of this legislation contained language clarifying that traditional health care practitioners are not covered by the Federal Tort Claims Act (“FTCA”), and we recommend that this language be added back to S. 1200. Specifically, we recommend the following provision as an addition to section 805:

(b) NO LIABILITY.—Although the Secretary may promote traditional health care practices, consistent with the Service standards for the provision of health care, health promotion, and disease prevention under this Act, the United States is not liable for the acts or omissions of any person in providing traditional health care practices under this Act that result in damage, injury, death, or any outcome to any patient.

This language is intended to confirm existing law that there is no valid cause of action under the FTCA for injuries resulting from traditional tribal healing practices provided pursuant to self determination contracts because state law generally does not make private parties liable for “malpractice” involving traditional tribal healing practices. See 28 U.S.C. § 2674. Thus, this provision would ensure that the United States would not face potential tort liability for the provision of treatment through traditional health care practices for which no state standard of care exists and would prevent costly litigation about whether the United States could be held liable under the FTCA for such practices. Moreover, it would preclude intrusive discovery regarding the nature and purpose of traditional health care practices. Such litigation would almost certainly raise questions as to the advisability of Tribal health practices and potentially create unnecessary conflict between these practices and Western medical standards. Additionally, we believe the proposed language would ameliorate any Tribal sovereignty concerns that would arise in FTCA litigation regarding inquiry into traditional health care practices. At the same time, this language would not scale back in any way the current liability protections that the Tribes enjoy in carrying out self-determination contracts.

We also have concerns regarding changes made to section 213 of the legislation. The current version of section 213(b)(1) was modified to provide:

(b) TERMS AND CONDITIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Any service provided under this section shall be in accordance with such terms and conditions as are consistent with accepted and appropriate standards relating to the service, including any licensing term or condition required under this Act.

The previous version of the legislation, unlike S. 1200, made explicit that the Secretary “shall require” that any service provided be in accordance with terms and conditions that the Secretary determined to be consistent with accepted and appropriate standards relating to the service. We think S. 1200 is unclear in this regard, as it fails to explicitly specify who is responsible for requiring that any services provided are in accordance “with such terms and conditions as are consistent with the accepted and appropriate standards relating to the service.” We suggest revising subsection 213(b)(1) to provide:

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall require that any service provided pursuant to this Act is in compliance with the accepted and appropriate standards relating to the service, including any licensing term or condition under this Act.

Relatedly, S. 1200 made changes to the prior language of subsection 213(b)(2). That subsection now reads:

(b)(2)(A) STANDARDS.—

IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may establish, by regulation, the standards for a service provided under this section, provided that such standards shall not be more stringent than the standards required by the State in which the service is provided.

We have concerns about this language. For the purposes of tort liability under the FTCA, state law provides the standards governing the conduct at issue. If the Secretary, by regulation, establishes standards that fall below the standards required by the State, there is a risk the United States could be held liable under the FTCA, even if the care complied with the standards promulgated by the Secretary. Moreover, and more likely troublesome, if the Secretary approves services for which there are no applicable state standards, subsection (b)(2), by its plain language, would appear to prevent the Secretary from establishing any appropriate standards because those standards would, by their very existence, be more stringent than what is required by the State. Where no state standards are applicable, it is in the interests of both the United States and the Tribes to whom such services might be provided to have some applicable and appropriate standards of care set by the Secretary. Thus, along with the Department of Health and Human Services, we propose working with the Committee to revise subsection (b)(2)(A) to address this concern.

Finally, S. 1200 also includes this new provision to section 213: (b)(2)(B) USE OF STATE STANDARDS.—

If the Secretary does not, by regulation, establish standards for a service provided under this section, the standards required by the State in which the service is or will be provided shall apply to such service.

We agree that state standards should be applicable, since liability under the FTCA would be measured by those standards. Again, however, if there is no applicable state standard, the Secretary should be permitted to set some meaningful and appropriate standard of care, which is arguably not possible given the limitation of subsection (b)(2)(A).

2. The Department believes that the legislation continues to raise a constitutional concern to the extent that it provides government benefits to individuals who are not members of, or closely affiliated with, a Federally recognized Indian tribe. As the Department has noted in the past, the Supreme Court has held that classifications based on affiliation with a Federally recognized tribe are “political rather than racial,” and therefore will be upheld as long as there is a rational basis for them. To the extent, however, that programs benefiting “Urban Indians” under this legislation could be viewed as authorizing the award of grants and other Government benefits on the basis of racial or ethnic criteria, rather than tribal affiliation, these programs would be subject to strict scrutiny under the equal protection component of the Due Process Clause. Both this bill and the current statute broadly define “Urban Indian” to include individuals who are not necessarily affiliated with a federally recognized Indian tribe. Under the Supreme Court’s decisions, there is a substantial likelihood that legislation providing special benefits to individuals of Indian or Alaska Native descent who do not have a clear and close affiliation with a federally recognized tribe would be regarded by the courts as creating a racial preference subject to strict constitutional scrutiny, rather than a political preference subject to rational basis review. In the event the legislation is regarded as awarding Government benefits based on a racial classification, it would be constitutional only if the bill is supported by a factual record demonstrating that its use of race-based criteria to award the benefits at issue is “narrowly tailored” to serve a “compelling” Government interest.

The bill’s extension of benefits to members of State-recognized tribes raise the same concern. As a threshold matter, it is not clear whether the courts would agree that Congress can constitutionally delegate its tribal recognition authority to the States and, even if Congress can do so as a general matter, the delegation in this bill would allow States to designate as “tribal members” eligible for Federal benefits individuals who: (i) do not belong to a “distinctly Indian community” or other group that conforms to the Supreme Court's definitions of "the Indian tribes" referenced in the Commerce Clause, but instead are considered a member of a State "tribe" solely on the basis of race or affiliation with a group that lacks the sovereign attributes the Supreme Court has identified as important to classification as an "Indian tribe" for purposes of Commerce Clause legislation; and/or (ii) are otherwise outside the class of beneficiaries that Congress intended to reach with this bill. In this regard, as you may know, the American Indian Heritage Support Center ("AIHSC"), in a March 29, 2007, letter to the Department, with copies to Members of Congress, voiced concerns about the extension of benefits under this legislation to "state recognized tribes" because, according to the AIHSC, some of these "tribes" "have no historical background past the last 10 to 20 years" and simply seek "tribal" recognition to take advantage of certain recent Government benefits such as gaming privileges.

The Department recommends that, consistent with the settled practice of avoiding unnecessary constitutional issues, Congress revise the bill to extend benefits only to individuals who, in addition to satisfying whatever other criteria Congress may wish to impose, qualify as "members of, or individuals having a clear and close affiliation with, a federally-recognized tribe." Such a revision would avoid the constitutional concerns outlined above in a way that the Department believes would not detract from the overall goal of improving health care for Native Americans, and might actually better ensure that benefits under the bill would extend only to the class of beneficiaries contemplated by Congress and the Constitution.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment upon this very important legislation. We are committed to working with the Committee to have this legislation passed. The Office of Management and Budget has advised us that there is no objection to this letter from the perspective of the Administration's program.

Sincerely,

RICHARD A. HERTLING,
Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General.

The Committee has not received any formal communication on S. 1200 from the Department of Health and Human Services other than the testimony presented to the Committee at the hearing on reauthorization of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act on March 8, 2007, which is also attached, below.

STATEMENT OF ADMIRAL JOHN O. AGWUNOBI, MD, MBA, MPH, ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR HEALTH, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

MR. CHAIRMAN AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE: My name is John Agwunobi and I am the Assistant Secretary for Health for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). As the Assistant Secretary, I serve as the Secretary's primary advisor on matters involving the nation's public health. I also oversee the U.S. Public Health Service and its Commissioned Corps for the Secretary.

This landmark legislation forms the backbone of the system through which Federal health programs serve American Indians/Alaska Natives and encourages participation of eligible American Indians/Alaska Natives in these and other programs.

The IHS has the responsibility for the delivery of health services to more than 1.8 million Federally-recognized American Indians/Alaska Natives through a system of IHS, tribal, and urban (I/T/U) health programs governed by judicial decisions and statutes. The mission of the agency is to raise the physical, mental, social, and spiritual health of American Indian/Alaska Natives to the highest level, in partnership with the population we serve. The agency goal is to assure that comprehensive, culturally acceptable personal and public health services are available and accessible to the service population. Our duty is to uphold the Federal government's responsibility to promote healthy American Indian and Alaska Native people, communities, and cultures and to honor and protect the inherent sovereign rights of Tribes.

Two major statutes are at the core of the Federal government's responsibility for meeting the health needs of American Indians/Alaska Natives: The Snyder Act of 1921, P.L. 67-85, and the Indian Health Care Improvement Act (IHCIA), P.L. 94-437, as amended. The Snyder Act authorized regular appropriations for "the relief of distress and conservation of health" of American Indians/Alaska Natives. The IHCIA was enacted "to implement the Federal responsibility for the care and education of the Indian people by improving the services and facilities of Federal Indian health programs and encouraging maximum participation of Indians in such programs." Like the Snyder Act, the IHCIA provides the authority for the Federal government programs that deliver health services to Indian people, but it also provides additional guidance in several areas. The IHCIA contains specific language addressing the recruitment and retention of health professionals serving Indian communities; the provision of health services; the construction, replacement, and repair of health care facilities; access to health services; and the provision of health services for urban Indian people.

DHHS ACTIVITIES

Since enactment of the IHCIA in 1976, Congress has substantially expanded the statutory authority for programs and activities in order to keep pace with changes in healthcare services and administration. Federal funding for the IHCIA has contributed billions of dollars to improve the health status of American Indians/Alaska Natives. And, much progress has been made particularly in the areas of infant and maternal mortality.

The Department under this Administration's leadership reactivated the Intradepartmental Council on Native American Affairs (ICNAA) to provide for a consistent HHS policy when working with the more than 560 Federally recognized Tribes. This Council's vice chairperson is the IHS Director, giving him a highly visible role within the Department on Indian policy.

In January of 2005 the Department completed work ushering through a revised HHS Tribal consultation policy and involving Tribal leaders in the process. This policy further emphasizes the unique government-to-government relationship between Indian Tribes and the Federal government and assists in improving services to the Indian community through better communications. Consultation may take place at many different levels. To ensure the active participation of Tribes in the development of the Department's budget request, an HHS-wide budget consultation session is held annually. This meeting provides Tribes with an opportunity to meet directly with leadership from all Department agencies and identify their priorities for upcoming program requests. For FY 2008, Tribes identified population growth and increases in the cost of providing health care as their top budget priorities and IHS's FY 2008 budget request included an increase of $88 million for these items.

Through the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), a Technical Tribal Advisory Group was established which provides Tribes with a vehicle for communicating concerns and comments to CMS on Medicare, Medicaid and SCHIP policies impacting their members. And the IHS has been vigilant about improving outcomes for Indian children and families with diabetes by increasing education and physical activity programs aimed at preventing and addressing the needs of those susceptible to, or struggling with, this potentially disabling disease. In addition, a Tribal Leaders Diabetes Committee continues to meet several times a year at the direction of the IHS Director to review information on the progress of the Special Diabetes Program for Indians activities and to provide general recommendations to IHS.

It is clear the Department has not been a passive observer of the health needs of eligible American Indians/Alaska Natives. Yet, we recognize that health disparities among this population do exist and are among some of the highest in the Nation for certain diseases (e.g., alcoholism, cardiovascular disease, diabetes, and injuries), and that improvements in access to IHS and other Federal and private sector programs will result in improved health status for Indian people.

The IHCIA was enacted to provide primary and preventive services in recognition of the Federal government's unique relationship with members of Federally recognized Tribes. Members of Federally recognized Tribes and their descendants are also eligible for other Federal health programs (such as Medicare, Medicaid and SCHIP) on the same basis as other Americans, and many also receive health care through employer-sponsored or other healthcare coverage.

It is within the context of current law and programs that we turn our attention to reauthorization of the "Indian Health Care Improvement Act."

REAUTHORIZATION

We are here today to discuss reauthorization of the IHCIA, and its impact on programs and services provided for in current law. In December of 2006, the Department submitted to this Committee comments on proposed legislation that the 109th Congress was considering. These comments are the basis for our testimony today, and any changes introduced by the bill under review in the 110th Congress will be considered once we have had an opportunity to review newly introduced legislation. Improving access to healthcare for all eligible American Indians and Alaska Natives is a priority for all those involved in the administration of the IHS program. We have worked closely with this Committee in the past and we have made progress in moving toward a program supportive of existing authority while maintaining the Secretary's flexibility to effectively manage the IHS program. However, in the last bill, S. 1057, there continued to be provisions which could negatively impact our ability to provide needed access to services. Such provisions established program mandates and burdensome requirements that could, or would, divert resources from important services. To the extent that those provisions are included in the new legislation, we hope to work with you to continue to address these concerns.

The Department is supportive of reauthorization of the IHCIA and supports provisions that maintain or increase the Secretary's flexibility to work with Tribes, and to increase the availability of health care. Committee leadership previously responded to some concerns raised about certain provisions and some of the changes went a long way toward improving the Secretary's ability to effectively manage the program within current budgetary resources.

I would like to note for you today our particular interest in provisions previously reported out of this Committee.

OVERARCHING CONCERNS

We have a number of general objections to previous language, including, expanded requirements for negotiated rulemaking and consultation; new requirements using "shall" instead of "may"; use of the term "funding" in place of "grant"; expansion of authorities for Urban Indian Organizations; new permissive authorities; provisions governing traditional health care practices; new reporting requirements; establishment of the Bipartisan Commission on Indian Health Care; and new provisions that contemplate the Secretary exercising authority through the Service, Tribes and Tribal Organizations which is not tied to agreements entered into under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (ISDEAA). In addition, we noted concerns in previous language about modifying current law with respect to Medicaid and the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) and, in some cases, we believe maintaining the current structure of Medicaid and the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) preserves access, delivery, efficiency, and quality of services to American Indians.

We also have some more specific comments on proposals we have previously reviewed for comment.

In the area of behavioral health, proposed title VII provisions provided for the needs of Indian women and youth and expands behavioral health services to include a much needed child sexual abuse and prevention treatment program. The Department supports this effort, but opposes language in Sections 704, 706, 711(b) and 712 that requires the establishment or expansion of specific additional services. The Department should be given the flexibility to provide for all Behavioral Health Programs in a manner that supports the local control and priorities of Tribes, and to address their specific needs within IHS overall budgetary levels.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

The last version of S. 1057 that we reviewed contained various new requirements for reporting to Congress, including requirements for specific information to be included within the President's Budget and a new annual report to Congress by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the IHS on Indians served by Social Security Act health benefit programs. The IHS, CMS, and HHS will work with Congress to provide the most complete and relevant information on IHS programs, activities, and performance and other Indian health matters. However, we recommend striking language that requires additional specificity about what should be included in the President's budget request and new requirements for annual reports.

FACILITIES

Sanitation facilities construction is conducted in 38 States with Federally recognized Tribes who take ownership of the facilities to operate and maintain them once completed. IHS and Tribes operate 49 hospitals, 247 health centers, 5 school health centers, over 2000 units of staff housing, and 309 health stations, satellite clinics, and Alaska village clinics supporting the delivery of health care to Indian people.

HEALTH CARE FACILITIES NEEDS ASSESSMENT & REPORT

One provision in last year's bill, section 301(d)(1), required Government Accountability Office (GAO) to complete a report, after consultation with Tribes, on the needs for health care facilities construction, including renovation and expansion needs. However, efforts are currently underway to develop a complete description of need similar to what would have been required by the bill. The IHS plan is to base our future facilities construction priority system methodology application on a more complete listing of tribal and Federal facilities needs for delivery of health care services funded through the IHS. We will continue to explore with the Tribes less resource intensive means for acquiring and updating the information that would be required in these reports.

We recommend the deletion of the reference to the Government Accountability Office undertaking the report because it would be redundant of and a setback for IHS's current efforts to develop an improved facilities construction methodology.

RETROACTIVE FUNDING OF JOINT VENTURE CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

In last year's bill, section 311(a)(1) would permit a tribe that has "begun or substantially completed" the process of acquisition of a facility to participate in the Joint Venture Program, regardless of government involvement or lack thereof in the facility acquisition. A Joint Venture Program agreement implies that all parties have participated in the development of a plan and have arrived at some kind of consensus regarding the actions to be taken. By permitting a tribe that has "begun or substantially completed" the process of acquisition or construction, the proposed provisions could force IHS to commit the government to support already completed actions that have not included the government in the review and approval process. We are concerned that this language could put the government in the position of accepting space that is inefficient or ineffective to operate. We, therefore, would oppose such a provision.

SANITATION FACILITIES DEFICIENCY DEFINITIONS

Another section 302(h)(4) would provide ambiguous definitions of the sanitation deficiencies used to identify and prioritize water and sewer projects in Indian country. As previously proposed "deficiency level III" could be interpreted to mean all methods of service delivery (including methods where water and sewer service is provided by hauling rather than through piping systems directly into the home) are adequate to meet the level III requirements and only the operating condition, such as frequent service interruptions, makes that facility deficient. This description assumes that water haul delivery systems and piped systems provide a similar level of service. We believe it is important to distinguish between the two.

In addition, the definition for deficiency level V and deficiency level IV, though phrased differently, have essentially the same meaning. Level IV should refer to an individual home or community lacking either water or wastewater facilities, whereas, level V should refer to an individual home or community lacking both water and wastewater facilities.

We recommend retaining current law to distinguish the various levels of deficiencies which determine the allocation of existing resources.

THRESHOLD CRITERIA FOR SMALL AMBULATORY PROGRAM

Yet another Section 305(b)(1) would amend current law to set two minimum thresholds for the Small Ambulatory Program—one for number of patient visits and another for the number of eligible Indians. In order to be eligible for the Small Ambulatory Program under the previously proposed criteria, a facility must provide at least 150 patient visits annually in a service area with no fewer than 1,500 eligible Indians. Aside from the fact that these are both minimum thresholds and so somewhat contradictory, the proposed provisions would make implementation difficult. First, the IHS cannot validate patient visits unless the applicant participates in the Resource Patient Management System (RPMS). Since some tribes do not participate in the RPMS, it is difficult to ensure a fair evaluation of all applicants. Second, the term “eligible Indians” refers to the census population figures, which cannot be verified, since they are based on the individual’s statement regarding ethnicity.

NEW NEGOTIATED RULEMAKING AND CONSULTATION
REQUIREMENTS

In addition, we are concerned about the requirements for negotiated rulemaking and increased requirements for consultation in the bill because of the high cost and staff time associated with this approach. We are committed to our on-going consultation with Tribes under current Executive Orders, as well as using the authority of Chapter V of title 5, United States Code (commonly known as the Administrative Procedures Act) to promulgate regulations where necessary to carry out IHCA.

The comments expressed today in this testimony do not represent a comprehensive list of our current concerns. And, we will be reviewing legislation introduced in this Congress for any provisions that might be addressed in the future.

I reiterate our commitment to working with you to reauthorize the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, and the strengthening of Indian health care programs. And we will continue to work with the Committee, other Committees of Congress, and representatives of Indian country to develop a bill that all stakeholders in these important programs can support. Again, I appreciate the opportunity to appear before you today to discuss reauthorization of the “Indian Health Care Improvement Act” and I will answer any questions that you may have at this time. Thank you.

COST ESTIMATES

The Congressional Budget Office prepared a cost estimate for S. 1200, dated June 8, 2007. However, an error was made in that estimate, so a revised estimate was sent to the Committee on September 11, 2007, which follows.

S. 1200—Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments of 2007

Summary: S. 1200 would authorize the appropriation of such sums as are necessary through 2017 for activities under the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, the primary authorizing legislation for the Indian Health Service (IHS). The bill also contains specific authorizations for a program to encourage Indians to pursue careers related to behavioral health, a demonstration project to provide suicide prevention services, a commission on Indian health care, and administrative costs for a new nonprofit corporation. Enacting the bill also would affect direct spending, primarily through provisions affecting the Medicaid program.

CBO estimates that implementing S. 1200 would have discretionary costs of $2.7 billion in 2008, about $16 billion over the 2008–2012 period, and about $35 billion over the 2008–2017 period, assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts. We also estimate that enacting the bill would increase direct spending by $9 million in 2008, $53 million over the 2008–2012 period, and $129 million over the 2008–2017 period.

S. 1200 would preempt state licensing laws in certain cases, and this preemption would be an intergovernmental mandate as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA); however, CBO estimates that the costs of that mandate would be small and would not approach the threshold established in UMRA ($66 million in 2007, adjusted annually for inflation). The bill also would place new requirements on Medicaid that would result in additional spending of about $80 million over the 2008–2017 period. Those requirements, however, would not be intergovernmental mandates as defined by UMRA. Other provisions of the bill would benefit tribal governments by establishing new or expanding existing programs for Indian health care. This bill contains no private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA.

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of S. 1200 is summarized in Table 1. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 550 (health).

Basis of estimate: For the purpose of this estimate, CBO assumes that S. 1200 will be enacted near the start of fiscal year 2008 and that the necessary amounts will be appropriated for each year.

Spending subject to appropriation

The estimated effects of S. 1200 on spending subject to appropriation for the next five years are detailed in Table 2. Implementing the legislation would result in discretionary costs of about $16 billion over the 2008–2012 period. Because the bill would authorize funding through 2017, such discretionary cost would continue, with an estimated cost of about $35 billion over the 2008–2017 period.

^a The 2007 level is the amount appropriated for that year for IHS.

*Note: *=less than $500,000.

Existing Indian Health Service Activities. S. 1200 would authorize the appropriation of such sums as are necessary for the Indian Health Service through 2017. The agency's responsibilities under the bill would be broadly similar to those in current law. In 2007, the agency received an appropriation of $3.2 billion. CBO's estimate of the authorized level for IHS programs is the appropriated amount for 2007 adjusted for inflation in later years. (That level would grow to nearly $4 billion by 2017.) The estimated outlays reflect historical spending patterns for IHS activities.

Recruitment Program for Behavioral Health Careers. Section 105 of the bill would authorize the appropriation of $2.7 million annually through 2017 for grants to develop and maintain programs that encourage Indians to pursue careers in a field related to behavioral health. Assuming the appropriation of the authorized amounts, CBO estimates that implementing this provision would cost $2 million in 2008, $13 million over the 2008–2012 period, and $26 million over the 2008–2017 period.

Mental Health Demonstration Project. Section 708 would authorize the appropriation of $1.5 million annually for fiscal years 2008 through 2011 for grants to examine the feasibility of using telecommunication technology to provide suicide prevention services to Indians. Assuming the appropriation of the authorized amounts, CBO estimates that implementing this provision would cost less than $500,000 in 2008 and about $6 million over the 2008–2012 period.

Commission on Indian Health Care. Section 814 would authorize the appropriation of $4 million for a commission that would examine how the federal government provides health care services to Indians. The members of the commission would have to be appointed within eight months of the bill's enactment and would be required to submit a final report to the Congress no later than 18 months after that. Assuming the appropriation of the authorized amount, CBO estimates that implementing this provision would cost $1 million in 2008, $2 million in 2009, and $1 million in 2010.

Native American Health and Wellness Foundation. S. 1200 would establish a charitable and nonprofit corporation called the Native American Health and Wellness Foundation to assist federal, state, tribal, and other entities in efforts to further health and wellness activities and opportunities for Indians. The bill would authorize the appropriation of $500,000 annually for the foundation's administrative expenses; this amount would be adjusted in later years for inflation. Assuming the appropriation of the authorized amounts, CBO estimates that implementing this provision would cost less than $500,000 in 2008 and about $2 million over the 2008–2012 period.

Direct spending

S. 1200 contains several provisions, primarily related to the Medicaid program, that would affect direct spending. The bill's estimated effects on direct spending are shown in Table 3. Overall, CBO estimates that enacting the bill would increase direct spending by $9 million in 2008 and $129 million over the 2008–2017 period.

* = costs savings of less than $500,000.

Notes: Components may not sum to totals because of rounding.

IHS-funded health programs are commonly divided into three groups: those operated directly by the Indian Health Service, those operated by tribes and tribal organizations under self-governance agreements, and those operated by urban Indian organizations. For this estimate, they are referred to collectively as Indian health programs.

Exemption from Medicaid Cost Sharing and Premiums. Section 204 would prohibit Medicaid programs from charging premiums or other cost-sharing payments to Indians for services that are provided directly or upon referral by Indian health programs. The provision also would prohibit states from reducing payments to providers for those services by the amount of cost sharing that Indians otherwise would pay.

CBO anticipates that this provision's budgetary effect would stem largely from eliminating cost sharing for referral services. Current law already prohibits Indian health programs from charging cost sharing to Indians who use their services. In addition, Medicaid pays almost all facilities operated by IHS and tribes based on an all-inclusive rate that is not reduced to account for any cost sharing that Indians would otherwise have to pay. Finally, very few states charge premiums to their Medicaid enrollees.

Using Medicaid administrative data, CBO estimates that about 280,000 Indians are Medicaid recipients who also use IHS, and that federal Medicaid spending on affected services would be about $225 per person annually in 2008. The amount of affected spending would be relatively low because Medicaid already prohibits cost sharing in many instances, such as long-term care services, emergency services, and services for many children and pregnant women. For the affected spending, CBO assumes that cost-sharing payments by individuals equal 2 percent of total spending—Medicaid law limits the extent to which states can impose cost sharing and that eliminating cost sharing would increase total spending by about 5 percent as individuals consume more services. Overall, CBO estimates that the provision would increase federal Medicaid spending by $5 million in 2008 and by $74 million over the 2008–2017 period.

Consultation with Indian Health Programs. Section 206 would encourage state Medicaid programs to consult regularly with Indian health programs on outstanding Medicaid issues by allowing states to receive federal matching funds for the cost of those consultations. Those costs would be treated as an administrative expense under Medicaid and divided equally between the federal government and the states. CBO anticipates that a small number of states would take advantage of this provision, increasing federal Medicaid spending by less than $500,000 in 2008 and by $7 million over the 2008–2017 period.

Medicaid Managed Care Provisions. Section 208 would make several changes to improve the ability of Indian health programs to receive payments for Indians who receive Medicaid benefits through managed care arrangements. Those changes include:

- Managed care organizations (MCOs) would have to pay Indian health programs at least the rates used for non-preferred providers. States also would have the option of making those payments directly to Indian health programs.

- MCOs would have to accept claims submitted by Indian health programs instead of requiring enrollees to submit claims personally.
- Some requirements that MCOs must now meet to participate in Medicaid would be waived or modified for Indian health programs that seek to operate as MCOs. (For example, MCOs run by Indian health programs would be able to limit enrollment to Indians only.)
- States would be required to offer contracts to Indian health programs seeking to operate their own MCOs.

Based on administrative data on Medicaid enrollment and spending for Indians who receive benefits via managed care, CBO estimates that those provisions would increase federal Medicaid spending by $3 million in 2008 and $45 million over the 2008–2017 period. We anticipate that the additional costs would be relatively modest because some states already use similar rules in their Medicaid managed care programs and Indian health programs would have a limited interest in participating as MCOs.

Scholarship and Loan Repayment Recovery Fund. S. 1200 would allow the Secretary of Health and Human Services to spend amounts collected for breach of contract from recipients of certain IHS scholarships. Under current law, those funds are deposited in the Treasury and not spent. Because the Secretary's ability to spend those funds would not be subject to appropriation, the provision would increase direct spending. Based on historical information from IHS, CBO estimates that the provision would increase spending by less than $500,000 a year, but would total about $4 million over the 2008–2017 period.

Estimated impact on state, local, and tribal governments:

Intergovernmental mandates

S. 1200 would preempt state licensing laws in cases where a health care professional is licensed in one state but is performing services in another state under a contract or compact with a tribal health program. This preemption would be an intergovernmental mandate as defined in the UMRA; however, CBO estimates that the loss of any licensing fees resulting from the mandate would be small and would not approach the threshold established in UMRA ($66 million in 2007, adjusted annually for inflation).

Other impacts

S. 1200 would reauthorize and expand grant and assistance programs available to Indian tribes, tribal organizations, and urban Indian organizations for a range of health care programs, including prevention, treatment, and ongoing care. The bill also would allow IHS and tribal entities to share facilities, and it would authorize joint ventures between IHS and Indian tribes or tribal organizations for the construction and operation of health facilities. The bill would authorize funding for a variety of health services including hospice care, long-term care, public health services, and home and community-based services.

The bill would prohibit states from charging cost sharing or premiums in the Medicaid program to Indians who receive services or benefits through an Indian health program. CBO estimates that the new requirements in the bill would result in additional spending by states of about $80 million over the 2008–2017 period. Those requirements, however, would not be intergovernmental mandates as defined by UMRA because Medicaid provides states with significant flexibility to make programmatic adjustments to accommodate the changes. Some tribal entities, particularly those operating managed care systems, may realize some savings as a result of these provisions.

Estimated impact on the private sector: This bill contains no private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA.

Previous CBO estimate: This estimate supersedes the cost estimate for S. 1200 that CBO transmitted on June 8, 2007. Our June 8 cost estimate erroneously indicated that section 204 of the bill (exempting Indians from paying certain types of cost sharing and premiums) would apply to both Medicaid and the State Children’s Health Insurance Program. The provision would apply only to Medicaid, and we have lowered our estimate of the bill’s impact on direct spending by $4 million over the 2008–2012 period and by $8 million over the 2008–2017 period as a result.

On September 11, 2007, CBO also issued a revised estimate for H.R. 1328, the Indian Health Care Improvement Act Amendments of 2007, as ordered reported by the House Committee on Natural Resources on April 25, 2007. There are only minor differences between the two bills, and CBO’s revised estimates for them are identical.
