

major voting campaign in Rome, after the Voting Rights Act was signed into law by President Lyndon Johnson in 1965. At that time, few African Americans were registered voters, and they had very little political power, both locally and nationally. She began working as an activist in human rights efforts with the Black Coordinating Committee during the era of integration of school systems in Rome. She became Rome's first black legal secretary in 1971 and eventually managed the firm's Rome office.

Inspired by her activism and committed to justice for all, she furthered her works in the legal system with Georgia State Legal Services. She has worked in the education system at East Rome Junior High School as school secretary. She served 9 years as a lobbyist for the Georgia Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities and she has been a board member and executive planner for the Northwest Georgia Minority Business Association. She has served on the Georgia State Board of Elections to select delegates to the National Presidential Convention.

She has been twice awarded for her works as advocate and activist by the Martin Luther King Diversity Class of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. In 2007, she was instrumental in obtaining a proclamation from the city of Rome for the dedication ceremony for a downtown garden honoring the demonstrators of the Civil Rights Movement of 1963 called "Freedom Garden."

She compiled the history of the Civil Rights Movement in Rome to become part of the permanent history of the archives of her community as well as the "Freedom on Film" series at the University of Georgia. Her works are currently on display in the Rome area history museum as part of their permanent Civil Rights exhibit. Today, her speaking engagements take her to churches, schools, group youth homes, and youth detention centers—taking the message of equality across color lines and religious sectors.

Lavada Dillard's life has been devoted to fighting for equality for all people—regardless of race or religion. She has been an advocate for the disabled and the underprivileged. She is an example for others to follow, and I am proud that she is a citizen of the 11th Congressional District of Georgia. I ask that my colleagues join me in honoring Lavada Dillard for her commitment to the betterment of her community, our great State of Georgia, and the United States of America.

PASSING ALONG CONSTITUENT CONCERNS ABOUT THE "STIMULUS"

HON. JOHN BOOZMAN

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 23, 2009

Mr. BOOZMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to bring to the floor my constituents' opposition to the Economic Stimulus Package recently signed into law.

The American people are hurting. Too many jobs have been lost, and too many hard working Americans are worried about their future. Every day I receive calls from Arkansans opposed to Congress recklessly throwing around billions of dollars in an attempt to spend our way out of this crisis by running headlong into more debt.

The American people do need action; but responsible, focused action that will create jobs and return tax dollars to working Americans immediately. This is the time-proven and fastest way to truly stimulate our economy. We cannot afford, nor can our children afford, an $800 billion mistake which gives too little attention to creating and saving jobs and securing our retirement savings. I can't say to the average Arkansan fearful of losing their job that this stimulus will save their jobs and help their lives—so it does not deserve our support.

I urge Congress to work harder and together for a focused, responsible bill that will save jobs, create jobs, and protect pensions.

TRIBUTE TO ELISABETH BRAVARD

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 23, 2009

Mr. LATHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize the goodwill of Elisabeth Bravard, a 19-year-old resident of Boone, Iowa. Elisabeth is traveling to Honduras for 6 months to work in an orphanage.

Elisabeth has been to Honduras once before with her church, Boone Open Bible Church. Seven members of the church spent one week working in an orphanage. Since the visit, Elisabeth has wanted to return to the country to continue her work as a philanthropist. Elisabeth, who graduated from The Salon Professional Academy, saved all her tips while working at the Academy and babysitting. She has also asked friends and family to help support her cause. While in Honduras, she will teach English and use her education as a hair stylist to give hair cuts to those who can't afford one.

Winston Churchill once said that "we make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give". Elisabeth shows great passion in helping those who are less fortunate. I applaud her generosity and am proud to represent her in the United States Congress. I know that my colleagues in Congress join me in thanking Elisabeth Bravard for her generous service and wish her success during her journey.

EARMARK DECLARATION

HON. JERRY LEWIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 23, 2009

Mr. LEWIS of California. Madam Speaker, pursuant to Republican earmark guidance, I am submitting the following in regards to H.R. 1105.

Project Name: Banning Family Health Center.

Account: HRSA—Health facilities and services.

Legal Name of Requesting Entity: Inland Behavioral and Health Services, Inc.

Address of Requesting Entity: 1963 North 'E' Street, San Bernardino, CA 92405.

Description of Request: This funding will be used for the construction of a comprehensive community health services center in Banning, California. The center will provide health service to low-income, uninsured adults, families and seniors in a rapidly growing area in need of health services.

Amount: $714,000.

Project Name: Village of Childhelp West, Beaumont, CA.

Account: SAMHSA.

Legal Name of Requesting Entity: Merv Griffin Village of Child Help.

Address of Requesting Entity: PO Box 247, Beaumont, CA 92223.

Description of Request: The funding will be used to expand services at one of the nation's first residential treatment facilities dedicated to the healing treatment of severely abused and neglected children. Currently, the facility is operating at or over 100% capacity and has waiting lists of children from referral sources.

Amount: $714,000.

Project Name: We Care San Jacinto.

Account: Innovation/Improvement (FIE).

Legal Name of Requesting Entity: We Care San Jacinto, USA.

Address of Requesting Entity: 300 West First Street, San Jacinto, CA 92583.

Description of Request: This funding will be used to expand an already existing program which provides tutoring, homework assistance and after-school classes for low-income families at no cost. In conjunction with the local school district, We Care is aimed at helping children who are failing or are most at risk of failing to meet California State's student academic achievement standards. With numerous street gangs that are involved in criminal activity in the area of San Jacinto, the We Care tutoring program has attempted to positively influence those who might very well be inclined to drop out of school or not seek secondary education. Expanding the center will continue to improve the quality of life for the students of San Jacinto and for the entire community.

Amount: $77,000.

Project Name: San Bernardino County Museum Hall of Geological Wonders.
