

Mr. BOOZMAN. I would also like to thank my colleagues on the Health Subcommittee, Chairman MIKE MICHAUD and Ranking Member HENRY BROWN of South Carolina, for their hard work on this bill. I would also like to thank Chairman BOB FILNER, Ranking Member STEVE BUYER, for working together to move this bill quickly and get it on this floor.

I would also like to acknowledge and thank Ms. HERSETH SANDLIN for her leadership and recognizing the problem and then moving forward with legislation that hopefully will be of great help to women veterans.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all of my colleagues to support H.R. 1211, as amended.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentlelady from Illinois (Mrs. HALVORSON).

Mrs. HALVORSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1211, the Women Veterans Health Care Improvement Act.

I want to thank Ms. HERSETH SANDLIN for her dedication on this issue. As more women serve in the military, they are quickly becoming an important segment of VA users. Their numbers will double over the next 2 to 4 years, and many are under the age of 40.

This presents new challenges to the VA system, which historically was designed to serve male veterans. Significant changes to the VA need to occur to properly serve all veterans.

As we heard at the VA committee roundtable on women veteran issues, women veterans arrive at the VA with a variety of unique challenges. Many women veterans do not identify themselves as veterans and seek care outside of the system. Some feel stigmatized and are hesitant to speak out. Women who have sought care at VA facilities have complained that staff lacks understanding of the role of women in combat.

The most pressing of these challenges relate to mental health, including PTSD, depression, anxiety, and behavioral issues. A 2008 VA study reported that 15 percent of women in Iraq and Afghanistan experience sexual assault or harassment, and 59 percent of these women were at a higher risk for mental health problems.

These are tragic numbers and we need to act immediately to address them. The difficulty women face in accessing the VA system and the lack of women-focused health care is unacceptable.

These women have sacrificed so much for our country. This bill takes the first step to meet these challenges and follows up on recommendations provided by Veterans Service Organizations by requiring the Secretary of the VA to study the barriers women face as they seek VA services.

Similarly, H.R. 1211 improves training and education for VA professionals to help treat women veterans. This education will help to address the concerns that many women veterans have that the VA doesn't understand their needs.

This is why I support H.R. 1211 and strongly urge my colleagues to vote "yes" on this important bill.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 1211, as amended.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. FILNER. In closing, Mr. Speaker, I was listening to Ms. HERSETH SANDLIN talk about the need for pilot programs for child care. We've had testimony that if a woman veteran showed up with her child or children, they would be denied their appointment and sent home. I mean this is a way that the culture just must change, which this bill is the first step toward that change.

So I would urge my colleagues to support H.R. 1211, as amended.

Mr. FALOMAVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of House Resolution 1211. This piece of legislation will assist our women veterans in obtaining better health care.

First, I'd like to commend the chief sponsor of this resolution, Ms. STEPHANIE HERSETH SANDLIN. I would also like to recognize my other colleagues for their strong support and co-sponsorship of this piece of legislation.

Currently, there are an approximated 200,000 female troops in our Armed Forces serving to help protect our Nation. It is not only an important issue but a matter of responsibility that we ensure the fair and first-rate treatment of our brave female troops when they return and/or retire from the Armed Forces.

This resolution will benefit our women veterans by providing graduate education for them. I believe education is a keystone for every U.S. citizen and our government should provide the right to an education for our valiant troops returning home. This gives the opportunity for women veterans who enlisted right after high school to continue on with their education at higher levels.

This legislation will also train and certify mental health professionals so we can aid any of our veterans who are in need of help. It is imperative that we service our veterans in the best way we can. On a day-to-day basis, thousands of veterans suffer from conditions such as sexual trauma and post-traumatic stress disorder. The number of female veterans that tested positive for military sexual trauma was 8,705 and this was a climb in number. It is crucial that we take care of our female troops especially because around 20 percent of female veterans test positive for sexual trauma while only 1.8 percent of male veterans test positive.

The resolution is also beneficial to our veterans due to the fact that this piece of legislation provides for the study and analysis of any current problems that our women veterans face in the current state of our system. It will help us make amends and additions to the structure of health care for our female veterans.

Another important piece of this legislation that will help Veterans Affairs greatly is including recently discharged women veterans in the Advisory Committee on Women Veterans and the Advisory Committee on Minority Veterans. This will only add more experience to the current committee because having recently discharged troops is important in knowing what health care issues recently discharged female military personal need.

Mr. Speaker, it is important that we take care of our veterans. These veterans put their life on the line to help protect all of us that live in this great Nation. It is of the essence to provide easy access to health care and to a better current health care system for our women veterans.

Again, I would like to thank my colleague Congresswoman STEPHANIE HERSETH SANDLIN for being the chief sponsor of this key resolution in aiding our women veterans. I strongly urge my other colleagues to support this resolution as well.

Mr. MICHAUD. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of the Women Veterans Health Care Improvement Act.

This legislation will improve and expand health care for women veterans.

I would like to thank Congresswoman HERSETH SANDLIN for all of her hard work. She is a champion of our nation's veterans. I am honored to be a cosponsor of this legislation.

Women now make up approximately fourteen percent of the active military, and in the past recruiting class, they made up twenty percent.

Data released by the VA shows that the amount of women who are expected to use the VA health care system is expected to double within the next four years.

As a country, we must ensure that women veterans have a voice and that their needs are addressed.

Passing this bill into law will help identify and break down barriers faced by women veterans in accessing VA health care.

I urge all of my colleagues to support this crucial bill.

Mr. FILNER. I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. FILNER) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1211, as amended.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. BOOZMAN. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

HIGHER EDUCATION TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. HINOJOSA) and the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. THOMPSON) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, I request 5 legislative days during which Members may revise and extend and insert extraneous material on H.R. 1777 into the RECORD.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

Mr. HINOJOSA. I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 1777, a bill to make technical corrections to H.R. 4137, which is the Higher Education Act.

Mr. Speaker, the House originally passed this legislation on March 30, 2009. This is a revised version from the Senate. The Senate made additional conforming and technical changes, including a scholarship program for students whose parent or guardian was a member of the Armed Forces of the United States and died as a result of performing military service in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001, clarifying the “experimental site” authority at the Department of Education. Let me explain some of these changes.

Currently, borrowers may rehabilitate their defaulted Federal student loans by making nine on-time payments. Once they meet this threshold, the guaranty agency may sell the loan to a lender, which results in the default being removed from the borrowers’ credit reports.

Mr. Speaker, because of the current credit crunch, guaranty agencies have been unable to find lenders for these loans. The bill amends the loan to allow those loans qualified for rehabilitation to be assigned to the Department of Education for this purpose.

The bill makes three changes to the exemption of veterans’ assistance in the calculation of the Federal financial aid. The first is to clarify that assistance under the Montgomery GI Bill is included in exempted veterans’ benefits, and the second is to move the date of the exemption of veterans’ benefits from the calculation of the estimated financial assistance from July 1, 2010, to July 1, 2009.

The third change is to provide scholarships in the amount of the maximum Pell Grant award to students whose parent or guardian was a member of the Armed Forces of the United States and died as a result of performing military service in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001.

The bill ensures the continuation of the Department of Education’s “experimental site” program on existing campuses for another year and defines a successful program as one that reduces administrative cost and increases student services, without additional cost to the government.

In closing, Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank our committee chairman, Representative GEORGE MILLER from California, and our ranking member, JOHN KLINE, along with our ranking member on the subcommittee, Representative BRETT GUTHRIE of Kentucky, for expediting this legislation and helping us make these needed corrections in a bipartisan manner.

I urge all my colleagues to vote "yes" on H.R. 1777.

I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. I rise in support of this legislation, and I yield myself such time as I may consume.

The House easily passed this bill under suspension at the end of March and, as often happens with the legislative process, when it went to the Senate, a few changes were made. Therefore, we are here again today simply to give final approval to a bill we have already supported, and rightfully so.

The primary purpose of this legislation is to make technical changes to ensure smooth implementation of the bipartisan higher education reforms enacted last year. Second, it addresses a pressing issue facing the Federal student loan programs. And third, the legislation includes a provision to assist students who have lost a parent to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

The technical corrections are just that, clarifications needed to ensure that the first comprehensive renewal of higher education programs in a decade can be put into place as Congress intended. The legislation will also help student loan borrowers who have fallen behind to rebuild their damaged credit by making these loans eligible for emergency liquidity measures enacted last fall. It's a simple change that will make a real difference for borrowers who are just trying to do the right thing by restarting regular payments on their Federal student loans.

The other change we are making in this bill is also important for a different set of students, students who have suffered a terrible loss but who have continued to move forward to achieve a postsecondary education. And I'm talking about the students who have lost a parent due to the military action taking place in Iraq and Afghanistan.

The Higher Education Act reauthorization bill that was passed by this body last Congress included a provision that would allow Pell-eligible students to automatically receive the maximum Pell Grant if one of their parents died as a result of their military service in Iraq or Afghanistan. The legislation before us today extends a similar benefit to students who may fall outside of the income limits placed on the Pell Grant program but who have also suffered the same type of loss.

Under this legislation, all students who have lost a soldier-parent as a direct result of fighting in the war in Iraq and Afghanistan will be eligible for a grant. The parents of these students have given their lives in service to our country.

A college student who loses a parent in the war loses so much more than we can fathom. These students will not have their parent around to move into their first dorm room or hear complaints about cafeteria food. They will not have their parent's consolation and encouragement to continue even after a poor test grade or a difficult professor. Of course, these students who lose a parent in Iraq or Afghanistan will not have the financial support of their parent in this time of rising college costs and economic uncertainty.

While this legislation does not provide students with the same type of support a parent could provide, I hope it will ease the financial burden of paying for college just a little bit.

The legislation before us easily passed the House once. I hope for a similar result again, and I urge my colleagues to join me in voting "yes" on this legislation.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, I have no other speakers, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. HINOJOSA) that the House suspend the rules and concur in the Senate amendment to the bill, H.R. 1777.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.

PERMISSION FOR COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES TO FILE SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT ON H.R. 2647, NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2010

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Armed Services be authorized to file a supplemental report on the bill, H.R. 2647.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Missouri?

There was no objection.
