

Those who perished today were all leaders in the Nation's quest for remembrance and identity.

Many were close friends of the Kresy-Siberia Foundation, and among those we have lost are:

Two of the Honorary Patrons of the Kresy-Siberia Virtual Museum; Ryszard Kaczorowski, the last Polish President-in-Exile, and Janusz Krupski, Ministry for Veterans and Repressed Persons.

Our first important backer, Maciejski, President of the "Inota Polska" (Polish Union) Association, who had the courage and vision to be the first major sponsor of our virtual museum and whose organization now hosts our office in Warsaw.

Janusz Kurtyka, President of the Institute for National Remembrance, who headed one of our Foundation's most important Partners.

Andrzej Przewonik, Secretary overseeing the Council for the Protection of Memory of Struggle and Martyrdom, an important friend and collaborator of the Kresy-Siberia Foundation.

President Kaczynski and especially Mrs. Kaczynska, who we met in Warsaw last September, who were both aware of and very supportive of Kresy-Siberia.

Scores of leaders of the Siberian Association, the Katyn Families Association, the Golgotha of the East Foundation, and all our friends and colleagues drawn to the common flame of Katyn and all lost in the flames of the presidential jet crash.

The tragic irony of this circumstance is not lost on us.

Like the cream of the Polish nation murdered 70 years ago, and who the Presidential party was en route to commemorate at Katyn, an entire leadership group of our nation has been lost to us. Literally, the entire chiefs of staff of the Army, Air Force, and Navy have all perished. Along with scores of parliamentarians, government officials, religious leaders, and historical activists like us.

We Poles will recover, for as a Nation we always have. But we have lost a strong core of our most passionate and historically aware patriots.

We are in shock and mourning.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Nation and with the families of those who lost their loved ones.

May Poland and all her children around the world rally in unity at this tragic blow.

STEFAN WISNIEWSKI,
Foundation President, Kresy-Siberia Foundation.

Dear Friends,

As we mourn the loss of President Lech and Maria Kaczynski and their talented delegation of leaders, we must make sure that these deaths were not in vain.

After a cover up of the Katyn Massacre, which lasted for decades, today the truth about Katyn was on television—and page-one news around the world!

As the anthem says, "Poland has not perished while we are alive."

President Kaczynski and his cabinet presided over a period of prosperity, and today Poland has the 18th largest economy in the world, a free press where people can speak their minds, and a stable democratic system where voters elect their leaders.

These are great strides made by our fatherland over the past 20 years and we should all be proud. So wherever you are, go visit a Polish Consulate, a Polish church, club, or cultural center and share your condolences. But remember to count your blessings as well!

All the best,

ALEX STOROZYNSKI,
President & Executive Director,
The Kosciuszko Foundation.
