

who he is, but I won't utter his name into this RECORD, although I have great respect for him as a patriot, as a warrior and as a servant for America.

He said, though, in that night conversation in Afghanistan, I was deployed when they served divorce papers on me from my first wife, and I started a new family. I have a girl and a boy. My little boy is 5 years old, and I have been deployed for three of his first five Christmases.

I sat there and listened to that, and it had been about a month since I had missed a very, very important family event in my own family. I listened to that officer tell me of being deployed when he received divorce papers, of being deployed for three of his son's first five Christmases. I think he is deployed right now.

I think about the men and women who put on the uniform and who are deployed in harm's way around the world in Iraq, Afghanistan and in other places around the world.

I was watching as the USS Harry Truman docked here in the last day or so. The sailors who got off of that ship were seeing babies born, their children born—babies they had never seen since they were born. Little babies were put in their arms. They'd kiss their wives quickly and pick up and marvel at a little miracle that would be 2 or 3 or 6 months old who they had never seen. Their own child. They weren't home for the birth of the child. They missed weddings. They missed funerals. They got back when they could, but they were deployed; they were at sea. They were serving America.

That's true on the USS Harry Truman. That's true in places like Afghanistan and Iraq and other places around the world where we have our men and women in uniform—our soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines—in harm's way every day, at risk of death, at risk of sacrifice, some losing their lives. While all of this is going on, sometimes we get wrapped up here, and we think ours is a sacrifice.

Well, Mr. Speaker, I would submit that ours is a duty and a service and a privilege and an honor, and sometimes it is a sacrifice; but when we think about our sacrifice here, I ask all to think about the sacrifice over there, which is far greater—far more family time lost and missed, moments that will never be recaptured again, limbs lost, and lives lost . . . never to come back again.

So, with all of that in mind and with the Christmas season upon us, I would like to close with a poem that was written by the greatest respecter of our warriors in this Capitol building—Albert Caswell—who can be seen around this Capitol, giving tours to the wounded on a daily basis with eagerness and enthusiasm and a profound respect for those who have served us so well and especially for those who have been wounded and for those who have been lost. Sometimes he sits up in the middle of the night and will write a poem.

I think he gets started, and he can't stop until he finishes it and brings it to a conclusion. This is a poem that he wrote just a few days ago. It's called "This Christmas."

"This Christmas . . .

"As the snow falls to the ground . . .

"And all the children dance, with songs of joy so all around . . .

"With stockings hung by the chimneys with care . . .

"With hopes and dreams, of Santa there . . .

"With Christmas dinners and fires all aglow, as before this family a feast lies so . . .

"O Holy Night! A Child was born, for all to know!"

"Joy to the world, let Heaven and nature sing, but remember . . . remember . . . remember all of them, and all of those . . .

"Those families! Those patriots of peace!

"The ones, who'll this Christmas . . . will not so together be!!

"Who upon battlefields of honor fight!

"So far away from our country tis of thee, this night . . .

"Men and women of such honor bright, who for all of us so carry that fight . . .

"Why there can be peace on Earth, because of their light!

"Who now so live with such heartache and death . . .

"Who upon each new day, their honor our lives so bless!

"As they so bless us one and all, with all of their gifts of most selfless sacrifice . . .

"And all of those lost loved ones, who lie in soft,

quiet, cold graves . . .

"Teaching us all the true cost, the price of freedom paid!

"Precious daughters and sons, husbands and wives . . .

"Fathers and mothers, sisters and brothers who gave their lives . . .

"That last full measure . . . as for them we cry!

"Whose loved ones' pain, will never die . . .

"Who on this Christmas morning, sit with but tears in eyes . . .

"As they listen to their children cry, 'Mommy,

Daddy . . . I wish you were by my side.'

"With one less place at the dinner table this year . . . they all so begin to cry . . .

"And all of those who have come home, without arms and legs, who did not die!

"Without eyes and faces, with burned in all places . . . in hospital beds they try!!

"Blessing us all with their fine gifts they gave!

"Making us all so see, just how magnificent and inspiring a heart can be!

"And remember all of those, whose loved ones lie far across the shores . . .

"As with each new day, brings such great worry . . . so for sure!

"But, waiting . . . but waiting for, that knock on the door . . .

"That phone call, that they now so pray not for . . .

"Quiet heroes, one and all!

"Watching them from Heaven, the angel's teardrops fall . . .

"Lord God, Lord God . . . bless them . . . bless them all!

"For these are the families, who have paid the cost!

"Bore the burden, carry that cross, that cross of war!

"This Christmas, as you hold your families tight . . .

"And all seems so fine, and all seems so very right . . .

"And you see all of those smiles upon your children's faces, so bright . . .

"Give thanks! Give praise! As upon your knees as you begin to pray . . .

"For all of those families, who have so sacrificed . . .

"And remember their blessings, their gifts of freedom . . . this night!

"This Christmas . . ."

Mr. Speaker, I wish all of us a Merry Christmas and a happy new year. May we reconvene in the 112th Congress with a new spirit—a spirit that keeps in mind the price and the sacrifice paid by our veterans and our families that support them, the legacy that they have left for us, the duty that we have to honor their sacrifice. May we come back and join together in that task in January of 2011.

May we go home and give great thanks for their sacrifice and the blessing of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

With that, I yield back the balance of my time.
