Mrs. BOXER, from the Committee on Environment and Public
Works, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany S. 2018]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Environment and Public Works, to which was referred a bill (S. 2018) to amend and reauthorize certain provisions relating to Long Island Sound restoration and stewardship, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon and recommends that the bill do pass.

GENERAL STATEMENT AND BACKGROUND

The Long Island Sound Restoration and Stewardship Act reauthorizes the Long Island Sound Restoration Act (33 U.S.C. 1269) and Long Island Sound Stewardship Act (33 U.S.C. 1269 note; Public Law 109-359), including extending the Long Island Sound Grants and Long Island Sound Stewardship grants from 2012 until 2016.

The authorizations support various projects to restore and preserve the Long Island Sound and its ecosystems including: upgrades to wastewater facilities, wetland protection and restoration, non-point source pollution control and abatement projects.

Long Island Sound, which borders New York and Connecticut, is a 1,320 square mile estuary of the Atlantic Ocean. The Long Island Sound watershed stretches from Quebec, Canada through Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and parts of Connecticut on its northern end, and New York and parts of Connecticut on its western and southern ends. Nearly 9 million people call the Long Island

Sound watershed home, with 4 million living along the Sound itself.

In 1985, after decades of evidence of a decline in water quality and depleted oxygen levels, Congress created the Long Island Sound Study (Study) to identify threats to the Sound’s health and engage in planning for remediation. In 1994, the Study released a Comprehensive Conservation and Management Plan (Plan), approved under section 320 of the Clean Water Act—the National Estuary Program—to restore and protect the Sound. The cleanup plan includes actions to address hypoxia, reduce toxic substances and pathogens, and restore natural habitats. By 1998, the States of New York and Connecticut and the EPA adopted the reduction plan with a goal of 58.5% nitrogen reduction by 2014. In 2001, the Total Maximum Daily Load for the Sound was approved by the EPA. In 2006, identifying more opportunities to enhance the health of the Sound, Congress passed the Long Island Sound Stewardship Act, which targets coastal habitat and ecosystem restoration, public access, and land use projects to enhance the health of the natural and recreational resources of the Sound.

S. 2018 was introduced by Senators Gillibrand, Schumer, Lieberman, and Blumenthal on December 16, 2011 to provide continued support to the efforts of New York, Connecticut, and various other federal, state and local agencies and organizations dedicated to restoring Long Island Sound.

The bill modifies the Long Island Sound authorization to require the Study to engage in increased public education and awareness of the health and water quality of the Sound. The bill also includes a number of requirements to increase the oversight and accountability of the programs, including biennial reporting requirements and an annual budget plan from the President.μ In addition, the bill increases coordination among the numerous agencies operating in and around the Sound.

OBJECTIVES OF THE LEGISLATION

The Long Island Sound Restoration and Stewardship Act reauthorizes the Long Island Sound Restoration Act (33 U.S.C. 1269) and Long Island Stewardship Act (33 U.S.C. 1269 note; Public Law 109–359) and adds new reporting requirements and budgeting requirements to increase accountability.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

Section 1. Short Title

Section 1 notes that this act may be cited as the “Long Island Sound Restoration and Stewardship Act”

Section 2. Amendments

Section 2 amends 33 USC Sec. 1269 to direct the Long Island Sound Office (Office) to assist the Study with implementation of the Comprehensive Conservation and Management Plan (Plan) through the assessment of vulnerabilities in the watershed, development and implementation of adaptation strategies to reduce vulnerabilities, and identification and assessment of impacts of sea level rise on water quality, habitat, and infrastructure in the Long Island Sound. This section also directs the Office to support planning efforts in the Long Island Sound.

Section 2 directs the Office to assist with public awareness and education on ecological health and water quality conditions monitoring the progress toward meeting the identified goals, actions, and schedules of the Plan.

Section 2 changes the federal share for Long Island Sound grants from “50” to “60” to mirror the Stewardship grant program.

Section 2 includes new requirements that the Office submit biennial reports to Congress outlining progress in carrying out the Plan and progress to meeting the goals contained in the Plan. The report must also include modifications to the Plan, recommendations, priority actions, and outline coordination among various federal agencies and the states.

Section 2 requires the President to submit an annual crosscut budget on Long Island Sound funding.

Section 2 requires federal agencies to coordinate efforts in the Long Island Sound. Agencies that occupy lands in the Long Island Sound watershed are required to participate in watershed planning efforts, and ensure that management of the agency’s land in the watershed is consistent with any requirements set forth in the Plan.

Section 2 also amends the Long Island Sound Stewardship Act of 2006 (33 U.S.C. 1269 note; Public Law 109–359) to extend the authorization through 2016, and exempts the Advisory Committee and any board, committee, or other group established under this law from the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

Section 3. Reauthorization

Section 3 reauthorizes the Long Island Sound Grants under the Long Island Sound Restoration Act at $40 million each year through 2016.

Section 3 also reauthorizes the Long Island Sound Stewardship Grants at $25 million each year through 2016. These authorizations maintain the current authorized levels each year for an additional 5 years.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

Senator Kirsten E. Gillibrand introduced the Long Island Sound Restoration and Stewardship Act, which was co-sponsored by Senators Schumer, Lieberman, and Blumenthal, on December 16, 2011. The bill was received, read twice and referred to the Committee on Environment and Public Works.

On June 21, 2012, the Full Committee met to consider a number of bills including S. 2018. During this meeting, the Committee considered S. 2018 and the bill was ordered to be reported favorably by voice vote.

HEARINGS

In the 111th Congress, on February 24, 2010, the Full Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works and the Subcommittee on Water and Wildlife held a joint hearing on legislative approaches to protecting Great Water Bodies (i.e., Lake Tahoe, Puget Sound, Long Island Sound, Columbia River Basin, and the Great Lakes). The hearing included a discussion of efforts to restore the Long Island Sound.

ROLLCALL VOTES

The Committee on Environment and Public Works met to consider S. 2018 on June 21, 2012. The bill was ordered to be reported favorably by voice vote.

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

In compliance with section 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the committee finds that S. 2018 does not create any additional regulatory burdens, nor will it cause any adverse impact on the personal privacy of individuals.

MANDATES ASSESSMENT

In compliance with the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Public Law 104–4), the committee noted that the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) has found, “S. 2018 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.”

JUNE 28, 2012.

Hon. BARBARA BOXER,
Chairman, Committee on Environment and Public Works,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MADAM CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for S. 2018, the Long Island Sound Restoration and Stewardship Act.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Susanne S. Mehlman.

Sincerely,

DOUGLAS W. ELMENDORF.

Enclosure.

S. 2018—Long Island Sound Restoration and Stewardship Act

Summary: S. 2018 would require the Long Island Sound Office of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to study the impact of climate change on the Long Island Sound watershed and develop strategies to increase public education about that area. Assuming appropriation of the necessary amounts, CBO estimates that implementing this legislation would cost $254 million over the 2013–2017 period.

This legislation would authorize the appropriation of $40 million annually over the 2013–2016 period for EPA to implement the Long Island Sound comprehensive conservation and management plan. S. 2018 also would authorize the appropriation of $25 million annually over that same period for EPA to provide grants to states and local governments, nonprofit organizations, and private landowners to procure and enhance sites within the Long Island Sound ecosystem, and to cover administrative costs. (Such grants are referred to in the bill as Long Island Sound Stewardship grants.)

In addition, this legislation would extend the authority to appropriate funding through 2016 for EPA to operate the Office of the Management Conference of the Long Island Sound Study.

Pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply to S. 2018 because it would not affect direct spending or revenues.

S. 2018 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of S. 2018 is shown in the following table. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 300 (natural resources and environment).

	By fiscal year, in millions of dollars—
	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2013–2017
CHANGES IN SPENDING SUBJECT TO APPROPRIATION
Grants to Support Long Island Sound Comprehensive Conservation and Management Plan:

Total Changes:
Estimated Authorization Level .....	66	66	66	66	0	264
Estimated Outlays .....	30	56	66	66	36	254

Basis of estimate: For this estimate, CBO assumes that S. 2018 will be enacted near the beginning of fiscal year 2013, that the specified and necessary amounts will be appropriated in each year starting in 2013, and that outlays will follow historical spending patterns for the existing programs. In addition, CBO estimates that about $4 million would be needed over the next four years to operate the Office of the Management Conference of the Long Island Sound Study.

Pay-as-you-go considerations: None.

Intergovernmental and private-sector impact: S. 2018 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. States would benefit from grants authorized in the bill. Any costs to those governments would be incurred voluntarily as a condition of federal assistance.

Estimate prepared by: Federal Costs: Susanne S. Mehlman; Impact on State, Local, and Tribal Governments: Melissa Merrell; Impact on the Private Sector: Amy Petz.

Estimate approved by: Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
