PROVIDING FOR THE ADDITION OF CERTAIN REAL PROPERTY TO THE RESERVATION OF THE SILETZ TRIBE IN THE STATE OF OREGON

MARCH 2, 2016.—Ordered to be printed
—————

Mr. BARRASSO, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany S. 817]

The Committee on Indian Affairs, to which was referred the bill (S. 817) to provide for the addition of certain real property to the reservation of the Siletz Tribe in the State of Oregon, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE

The purpose of S. 817 is to provide for the addition of certain real property to the reservation of the Siletz Tribe in the State of Oregon. The bill would facilitate fee-to-trust applications for the Siletz Tribe within the geographic area specified in the bill by amending the Siletz Tribe Indian Restoration Act¹ (Act).

NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The bill, S. 817, eases the process for the Siletz Tribe to apply for trust land within the original boundaries of the former 1855 Siletz Coast Reservation,² which encompasses parts of Benton, Douglas, Lane, Lincoln, Tillamook, and Yamhill counties in the State of Oregon.

¹25 U.S.C. § 711e.

²Executive Order Issued by Franklin Pierce (November 9, 1855).

BACKGROUND

The Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon³ is a federally recognized Indian tribe. An approximately 1.1 million-acre reservation was set aside for the Siletz Tribe in an Executive Order in 1855.⁴ However the federal trust relationship of the tribe and its members was terminated on August 13, 1954.⁵ In 1977, Congress restored federal recognition to the tribe⁶ and on March 2, 1980, a reservation was established for the tribe.⁷

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On March 19, 2015, Senators Wyden and Merkley introduced S. 817. The Committee held a legislative hearing on the bill on October 7, 2015. On November 18, 2015, the Committee held a business meeting at which the bill passed by voice vote, and the Committee reported the bill favorably without amendment.

An identical companion bill, H.R. 3211, was introduced by Representative Schrader on July 23, 2015 and was referred to the House Natural Resources Subcommittee on Indian, Insular and Alaska Native Affairs. No further action has been taken to date.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF BILL AS ORDERED REPORTED

Sec. 1. Purpose; clarification

Section 1(a) states the purpose of the bill is to facilitate fee-to-trust applications for the Siletz tribe within the specified area described in the amendments made by Section 2.

Section 1(b) clarifies that neither the bill nor any amendment made by the bill to the Act will prioritize the claims of a federally recognized Indian tribe over any other federally recognized Indian tribe.

Sec. 2. Treatment of certain property of the Siletz Tribe of the state of Oregon

Under the bill, the Secretary of the Interior will evaluate requests by the Siletz Tribe to take land into trust within the original boundaries of the 1855 Siletz Coast Reservation, as established by Executive Order dated November 9, 1855, which is located in Benton, Douglas, Lane, Lincoln, Tillamook, and Yamhill counties in the State of Oregon, as on-reservation trust acquisitions under 25 C.F.R. § 151.10. If the land is placed into trust for the tribe, this section would require such land to become part of the tribe's reservation. This section also prohibits gaming as defined under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act⁸ on land acquired into trust under this bill.

COST AND BUDGETARY CONSIDERATIONS

The following cost estimate, as provided by the Congressional Budget Office, dated December 22, 2015, was prepared for S. 817:

³The tribe did not organize under Indian Reorganization Act (25 U.S.C. 477).

⁴Executive Order. 152 (November 9, 1855).

Hon. JOHN BARRASSO,
Chairman, Committee on Indian Affairs,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for S. 817, a bill to provide for the addition of certain real property to the reservation of the Siletz Tribe in the State of Oregon.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Megan Carroll.

Sincerely,

KEITH HALL.

Enclosure.

S. 817—A bill to provide for the addition of certain real property to the reservation of the Siletz Tribe in the State of Oregon

S. 817 would modify how the Secretary of the Interior evaluates land to be taken into trust for the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon. Under current law, the Department of the Interior (DOI) has two separate processes for evaluating potential trust land depending on whether the land is located within or outside of the recognized boundaries of the reservation. If the land is located outside of the recognized boundaries, the process requires greater scrutiny. The bill would require the Secretary to consider certain property that is considered “off-reservation” under current law as “on-reservation.” Under the legislation, all property taken into trust would be considered part of the reservation.

Based on information from DOI, CBO estimates that implementing S. 817 would have no significant effect on the federal budget. We estimate that any change in the department’s administrative costs under the bill, which would be subject to appropriation, would not exceed $500,000 in any year.

Enacting S. 817 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. CBO estimates that enacting S. 817 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2026.

S. 817 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Megan Carroll. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

The Committee has received no communications from the Executive Branch regarding S. 817.

REGULATORY AND PAPERWORK IMPACT STATEMENT

Paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate requires each report accompanying a bill to evaluate the regulatory and paperwork impact that would be incurred in carrying out the bill. The Committee believes that S. 817 will have a minimal impact on regulatory or paperwork requirements.
