

115TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 5273

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

NOVEMBER 28, 2018

Received; read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

AN ACT

To reduce global fragility and violence by improving the capacity of the United States to reduce and address the causes of violence, violent conflict, and fragility, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Global Fragility and 3 Violence Reduction Act of 2018”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) According to the United Nations, an un-
7 precedented 68.5 million people around the world,
8 the highest level ever recorded, are currently forcibly
9 displaced from their homes.

10 (2) According to the World Bank, violence and 11 violent conflict are now the leading causes of dis-
12 placement and food insecurity worldwide, driving 80
13 percent of humanitarian needs, with the same con-
14 flicts accounting for the majority of forcibly dis-
15 placed persons every year since 1991.

16 (3) According to the World Health Organiza-
17 tion, preventable forms of violence kill at least 1.4
18 million people each year. According to the Institute
19 for Economics and Peace, violence containment costs
20 the global economy $14.76 trillion a year, or 12.4
21 percent of the world’s GDP. If violence were to de-22 crease uniformly across the world by just 10 per-23 cent, the global economy would gain $1.48 trillion
24 each year.

25 (4) Violence and violent conflict underpin many 26 of the United States Government’s key national se-

1 curity challenges. Notably, violent conflicts allow for 2 environments in which terrorist organizations recruit
3 and thrive, while the combination of violence, cor-
4 ruption, poverty, poor governance, and underdevelop-
5 ment often enables transnational gangs and criminal
6 networks to wreak havoc and commit atrocities 7 worldwide.

8 (5) According to new research by the University
9 of Maryland and University of Pittsburgh, exposure
10 to violence increases support for violence and violent 11 extremism. Research increasingly finds exposure to 12 violence as a predictor of future participation in vio-
13 lence, including violent extremism.

14 (6) United States foreign policy and assistance
15 efforts in highly violent and fragile states remain
16 governed by an outdated patchwork of authorities 17 that prioritize responding to immediate needs rather 18 than solving the problems that cause them.

19 (7) Lessons learned over the past 20 years, doc-20 umented by the 2013 Special Inspector General for 21 Iraq Reconstruction Lessons Learned Study, the 22 2016 Fragility Study Group report, and the 2018
23 Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Lessons
24 Learned Study on Stabilization, show that effective,
25 sustained United States efforts to reduce violence

1 and stabilize fragile and violence-affected states re-
2 quire clearly defined goals and strategies, adequate
3 long-term funding, rigorous and iterative conflict
4 analysis, coordination across the United States Gov-
5 ernment, including strong civil-military coordination,
6 and integration with national and sub-national part-7 ners, including local civil society organizations, local 8 justice systems, and local governance structures.

9 (8) The “Stabilization Assistance Review” re-
10 leased in 2018 by the Departments of State and De-
11 fense and the United States Agency for Inter-
12 national Development states, “The United States
13 has strong national security and economic interests
14 in reducing levels of violence and promoting stability
15 in areas affected by armed conflict.” The Review 16 further states, “Stabilization is an inherently polit-
17 ical endeavor that requires aligning U.S. Govern-18 ment efforts – diplomatic engagement, foreign as-19 sistance, and defense – toward supporting locally le-
20 gitimate authorities and systems to peaceably man-21 age conflict and prevent violence.”.

22 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

23 It is the policy of the United States to—

24 (1) ensure that all relevant Federal depart-
25 ments and agencies coordinate to achieve coherent,

1 long-term goals for programs designed to prevent vi-
2 olence, stabilize conflict-affected areas, and address
3 the long-term causes of violence and fragility, includ-
4 ing when implementing the Global Fragility and Vi-
5 olence Reduction Initiative described in section 5(a);

6 (2) seek to improve global, regional, and local 7 coordination of relevant international and multilat-8 eral development and donor organizations regarding 9 efforts to prevent violence, stabilize conflict-affected
10 areas, and address the long-term causes of violence
11 and fragility in fragile and violence-affected coun-12 tries, and, where practicable and appropriate, align 13 such efforts with multilateral goals and indicators;

14 (3) expand and enhance the effectiveness of 15 United States foreign assistance programs and ac-
16 tivities to prevent violence, stabilize conflict-affected
17 areas, and address the long-term causes of violence
18 and fragility, including programs intended to im-
19 prove the indicators described in section 5(d)(1);

20 (4) support the research and development of ef-
21 fective approaches to prevent violence, stabilize con-
22 flict-affected areas, and address the long-term 23 causes of violence and fragility; and

24 (5) improve the monitoring, evaluation, learn-
25 ing, and adaptation tools and authorities for relevant

1 Federal departments and agencies working to pre-2 vent violence, stabilize conflict-affected areas, and 3 address the long-term causes of violence and fra-
4 gility.

5 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING ASSISTANCE FOR 6 THE GLOBAL FRAGILITY AND VIOLENCE RE-
7 DUCTION INITIATIVE.

8 It is the sense of Congress that the President, the 9 Secretary of State, the Administrator of USAID, the Sec-
10 retary of Defense, and the heads of other relevant Federal 11 departments and agencies, should work with Congress to 12 provide sufficient types and levels of funding to—

13 (1) allow for more adaptive program planning
14 and implementation under the initiative and priority
15 country or regional plans required under section 5, 16 including through exemptions from specific and min-17 imum funding levels when such exemptions would 18 make programs better able to respond to monitoring
19 and evaluation or changed circumstances in relevant 20 countries;

21 (2) better integrate conflict and violence reduc-
22 tion activities into other program areas where appro-23 priate; and

24 (3) contribute to the creation of transparent 25 and accountable multilateral funds, initiatives, and

1 strategies to enhance and better coordinate both pri-
2 vate and public efforts to prevent violence, stabilize
3 conflict-affected areas, and address the long-term
4 causes of violence and fragility.
