

IN RECOGNITION OF THE WEDDING OF CONGRESSMAN DEAN PHILLIPS AND ANNALISE GLICK

HON. HALEY M. STEVENS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 8, 2019

Ms. STEVENS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Congressman DEAN PHILLIPS and Annalise Glick on their remarkable partnership and to wish them well on a lifetime of marriage.

Congressman PHILLIPS and Annalise were wed in a beautiful ceremony on September 14th, 2019 in Washington, DC. Surrounded by friends and family, their intimate wedding symbolizes their dedication to all who love them and the tremendous bond they share.

As Congressman PHILLIPS has gracefully navigated his first term in Congress standing up to corruption and advocating for transparency, we credit much of his success to the steady and creative hand of his wife, Annalise. Her life's work brings joy to so many, and we know it truly provides inspiration and solace to her husband.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Congressman PHILLIPS and Annalise Glick for embarking on a new chapter in their lives and wishing them well on this profound journey of companionship through all their years.

IN HONOR OF LEO J. FAHEY OF MASSACHUSETTS

HON. STEPHEN F. LYNCH

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 8, 2019

Mr. LYNCH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Leo J. Fahey, in recognition of his outstanding contribution to the American labor movement, and to his home union, Pipefitters, Local 537 in Massachusetts.

The son of Leo Fahey and Audrey York Fahey from South Boston, Massachusetts, Leo was born on August 2, 1960, in South Boston. He is the youngest brother to sisters Catherine Fahey-Fennessey and MaryBeth Fahey Moore, and a brother, Sean Fahey. Leo attended grammar school at St. Mary's in Randolph, Massachusetts and graduated from Randolph High School in 1978. He furthered his education earning an associate degree from Blue Hills Technical Institute, becoming an expert in HVAC technology and its applications.

Madam Speaker, Leo entered Pipefitters Local 537 in 1983 as an apprentice. He has served his union well serving as Superintendent at Kinetic Systems, and P.J. Riley in Weymouth. He was elected president of Local 537 in 2002 and served in that capacity until 2004. Subsequently he was elected as Business Agent (2004 to 2010), Trustee (2007 to 2016), and Business Manager (2010 to 2016). Leo also played a key in the enactment of important state legislation which allowed municipalities to save energy costs by replacing archaic systems with state of the art facilities. Additionally, Leo played a key role in the Helmets to Hardhats initiative where returning veterans from Iraq and Afghanistan could receive training in the construction and building trades as a means to gaining a secure career and enjoying the solidarity of fellow Union Members.

Leo's most enduring work on behalf of Local 537 was yet to come. He improved the Union Hall and outfitted it with modern technology. He established a scholarship fund for union members and their spouses, children and grandchildren, awarding over $700,000 to date. He along with union brothers William Gallagher, John Messina, Robert Mullin, and James Walsh created a Memorial Wall where each member of Local 537 will be remembered for his and her contribution and dedication to the Pipefitters Union, Local 537.

Leo is known for his quick sense of humor and his loyalty to his friends. He is a proud son of his South Boston roots and a fierce advocate for working families. He is the life partner and fiancé of Diane McArthur, the proud father of four sons: Justin, Ryan, Patrick, and Brendan, and the grandfather of Aiden, Mary, and Joshua.

Madam Speaker, it is my distinct honor to join with Leo J. Fahey's family, friends, and contemporaries to thank him for his remarkable service to the American labor movement and to the Pipefitters, Local 537.

RECOGNIZING HENRY BARBOSA FOR A LIFE DEDICATED TO PUBLIC SERVICE

HON. HARLEY ROUDA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 8, 2019

Mr. ROUDA. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Henry Barbosa and his lifelong service to the people of Southern California.

Mr. Barbosa has dedicated his life to serving the public as a City Attorney for several southern California cities, Deputy District Attorney for Los Angeles County, and special counsel to other public agencies. His clients included the City of Oakland, City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, the Metropolitan Transit Authority, and the Los Angeles Unified School District.

Mr. Barbosa served as the President and Director of the Three Valley Municipal Water District and went on to serve six years as a member of the Board for the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California from 1997 to 2002.

Due to his proven record as a public servant, Mr. Barbosa was designated as a member of the Log Angeles Board of Police Commission's Blue-Ribbon Panel to analyze the causes of, and response to, the Rampart area police corruption scandal.

Mr. Barbosa currently sits on the Board of the Orange County Conservation Corps, Board of Advisors to the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center, and the Board of Visitors to the University of La Verne School of Law.

Mr. Barbosa has demonstrated exemplary commitment to his community and has had an extraordinary career punctuated with selfless public service. Today I ask that all Members join me in recognizing the amazing life and works of Henry Barbosa.

MR. ANTHONY WHITE AND DETROIT YOUTH CONCERT CHOIR & PERFORMING ARTS COMPANY

HON. RASHIDA TLAIB

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 8, 2019

Ms. TLAIB. Madam Speaker, I rise today in tribute to the Detroit Youth Concert Choir & Performing Arts Company for its recent stellar run on America's Got Talent.

The Detroit Youth Concert Choir & Performing Arts Company was founded in 1996 on the premise of educating Detroit Youth about the arts through music education and dance. Under the nurturing direction and leadership of Creative Director Anthony White, the young people of Detroit Youth Choir have worked tirelessly and with great enthusiasm to perfect and hone their craft. The culmination of their hard work and dedication was proudly displayed on the nationally televised show America's Got Talent. From receiving a golden buzzer to placing second in the competition, the Detroit Youth Concert Choir and Performing Arts Company has represented metropolitan Detroit in a remarkable manner and set a wonderful example for young people everywhere. The Detroit Youth Choir continues to embody the true spirit of Detroit, which shines through in all of their performances everywhere they go.

I ask you to please join me in honoring the Detroit Youth & Performing Arts Company on its outstanding achievement as they bring pride to the City of Detroit and the State of Michigan.

IN MEMORY OF MR. JARRED ROME

HON. RICK LARSEN

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 8, 2019

Mr. LARSEN of Washington. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the life and distinguished athletic career of Mr. Jarred Rome of Marysville, Washington, who died on Saturday, September 21, 2019.

Mr. Rome attended Marysville Pilchuck High School, where he began his career as a discus thrower, graduating in 1995.

He was a six-time All-American at Boise State University, a two-time national champion and a two-time Olympian in the discus.

After finishing fourteenth at Nationals in 2003, Mr. Rome worked to improve, finishing first at the 2004 Olympic trials, qualifying for the U.S. Olympic Team.

He spent 10 years at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, California, where he trained and coached the next generation of Olympic athletes.

He was inducted into the Snohomish County Sports Hall of Fame on Wednesday, September 18, 2019.

He is survived by his spouse, former U.S. National Women's Field Hockey Team midfielder Pamela Spuehler Rome, who he met while training in Southern California, his parents and two sisters.

I would like to honor Mr. Rome for the legacy he created for his Washington state community, his lifelong commitment to athletic excellence and for his work to help others attain the same.
