

New York (Mr. ENGEL) and the gentleman from New York (Mr. ZELDIN) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York (Mr. ENGEL).

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H. Con. Res. 32.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself as much time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I want to start by thanking Mr. ZELDIN for authoring this resolution.

This measure is one particularly close to my heart. In my career in Congress, I have had long dealings with the Albanian community both in the Balkans and in America, so this one really hurts since I know the family of these three brothers who were murdered.

Ylli, Agron, and Mehmet Bytyqi were three brothers from New York State who were killed execution-style by Serbian officials after they mistakenly crossed the unmarked Serbia-Kosovo border. Their bodies were discovered with their hands bound behind their backs in a mass grave in 2001.

Serbian President Vucic promised me 3 years ago that his government would bring the murderers to justice, but this hasn't happened. In fact, there isn't even a serious criminal investigation underway. This is appalling.

Sadly, it is part of a pattern we see with Serbian war criminals responsible for crimes against the people of Kosovo.

The Bytyqi brothers are only the tip of the iceberg when it comes to post-conflict justice in Serbia. We had a hearing on the Foreign Affairs Committee several weeks ago about this very topic.

Approaching 3 years ago, the Belgrade-based Humanitarian Law Center released a dossier detailing the murder of nearly 1,000 Kosovars, killed by Serbs in Kosovo, then transported to Serbia, and dumped in a mass grave.

The U.S. Government has raised this atrocity with the Serbian war crimes prosecutor. But once again, no one has been held accountable, although I believe with all my heart that Serbian authorities know who is responsible for this.

Let's be clear, if Serbia wants to join the West and its institutions, they must deal with their past and prosecute those responsible for war crimes.

Mr. Speaker, I encourage our EU friends to hold Serbia to this standard when considering Serbia's candidacy.

Today's resolution makes it clear that Serbia must fully investigate the Bytyqi brothers' case and bring justice to the families of these murdered New Yorkers. Their family currently lives in New York in Mr. ZELDIN's district.

It also calls on the U.S. Government to encourage and assist a successful prosecution of this case.

Mr. Speaker, I strongly support this measure, and I again thank Mr. ZELDIN for his excellent work and partnership with me in trying to push the Serbian Government to find justice for these New Yorkers.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all Members to support this measure, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. ZELDIN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself as much time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H. Con. Res. 32. I wish to start off by thanking the House Foreign Affairs Committee Chairman ELIOT ENGEL for his long-time passion and advocacy on this very important issue for my district, as well as GRACE MENG, who also has been supportive.

This execution-style murder of Ylli, 25 years old, Agron, 23 years old, and Mehmet Bytyqi, 21 years old, has greatly impacted my own district. These were three brothers born in the United States who resided in Hampton Bays, New York.

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the Bytyqi brothers' murder. In July 1999, these three brothers went overseas toward the end of the Kosovo war and were arrested by Serbian authorities for illegally entering the country when they accidentally crossed into Serbian-controlled territory.

The brothers were kidnapped, murdered, and dumped into a mass grave in Serbia by government officials still serving today.

Since taking office, I have been committed to helping the Bytyqi family receive the justice they have long deserved.

In February, Chairman ENGEL and I traveled to Munich to meet with Serbian President Vucic, where he once again promised to resolve the case of the Bytyqi brothers.

Despite many promises by Serbian officials to resolve the case of this state-sponsored murder, there has been no justice served.

This resolution notes that progress with this investigation should remain a significant factor that determines the further developments of U.S.-Serbian relations.

The Bytyqi brothers gave their lives to fight injustice. Now, we must return this favor and deliver justice for their family.

Mr. Speaker, I again thank Chairman ENGEL and lead Republican MCCAUL for their leadership and assistance on this issue.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. ZELDIN. Mr. Speaker, I have no other speakers and am prepared to close.

Mr. Speaker, once again, I encourage all of my colleagues to support this important resolution.

For those in Serbia listening to today's floor debate, it is an important lesson that, 20 years later, we have not forgotten. We will not forget. We will continue to strongly encourage them to do the right thing. This issue is not going away if they wish it away. On a bipartisan basis, we will continue to advocate to fight this injustice.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself as much time as I may consume for the purpose of closing.

Mr. Speaker, this is a good measure to seek justice for this senseless murder of three innocent American citizens, three innocent New Yorkers. We cannot allow this horrific crime to continue to go unpunished.

As Mr. ZELDIN mentioned, and others who we have worked with, we have raised this repeatedly with the Government of Serbia to no avail. They know exactly who killed these American citizens. They know what happened and why their bodies were dumped in a mass grave. They are withholding it.

It is unconscionable that these American citizens cannot get justice, that their families cannot get justice.

We will not stop. I know Mr. ZELDIN and I won't, and other people won't, until we get justice and answers as to who killed these American citizens, the Bytyqi brothers, who were born in the United States of America.

Mr. Speaker, I hope all Members will join me in supporting this resolution, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. ENGEL) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the concurrent resolution, H. Con. Res. 32.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

CORPORATE TRANSPARENCY ACT
OF 2019

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 646 and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill, H.R. 2513.

Will the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. QUIGLEY) kindly take the chair.

□ 1743

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 2513) to ensure that persons who form corporations or limited liability companies in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations or limited liability companies, in order to prevent wrongdoers from exploiting United States corporations and limited liability companies for criminal gain, to assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, and other misconduct involving United States corporations and limited liability companies, and for other purposes, with Mr. QUIGLEY (Acting Chair) in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The Acting CHAIR. When the Committee of the Whole rose earlier today, a request for a recorded vote on amendment No. 5, printed in part B of House Report 116-247, offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. DAVIDSON) had been postponed.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR. Pursuant to clause 6 of rule XVIII, proceedings will now resume on those amendments printed in part B of House Report 116-247 on which further proceedings were postponed, in the following order:

Amendment No. 1 by Mr. BURGESS of Texas.

Amendment No. 4 by Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY of New York.

Amendment No. 5 by Mr. DAVIDSON of Ohio.

The Chair will reduce to 2 minutes the minimum time for any electronic vote after the first vote in this series.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 OFFERED BY MR. BURGESS

The Acting CHAIR. The unfinished business is the demand for a recorded vote on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. BURGESS) on which further proceedings were postponed and on which the ayes prevailed by voice vote.

The Clerk will redesignate the amendment.

The Clerk redesignated the amendment.

RECORDED VOTE

The Acting CHAIR. A recorded vote has been demanded.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 395, noes 23, not voting 19, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ACTING CHAIR

The Acting CHAIR (Ms. BLUNT ROCH-ESTER) (during the vote). There is 1 minute remaining.

□ 1824

Messrs. VEASEY and LYNCH changed their vote from “aye” to “no.”

Mr. GONZALEZ of Ohio changed his vote from “no” to “aye.”

So the amendment was rejected.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The Acting CHAIR. There being no further amendments under the rule, the Committee rises.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. ESPAILLAT) having assumed the chair, Ms. BLUNT ROCHESTER, Acting Chair of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 2513) to ensure that persons who form corporations or limited liability companies in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations or limited liability companies, in order to prevent wrongdoers from exploiting United States corporations and limited liability companies for criminal gain, to assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, and other misconduct involving United States corporations and limited liability companies, and for other purposes, and, pursuant to House Resolution 646, she reported the bill, as amended by that resolution, back to the House with sundry further amendments adopted in the Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

Is a separate vote demanded on any amendment reported from the Committee of the Whole? If not, the Chair will put them en gros.

The amendments were agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. DAVIDSON of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

Mr. DAVIDSON of Ohio. I am in its current form.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Davidson of Ohio moves to recommit the bill H.R. 2513 to the Committee on Financial Services with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 14, line 24, insert before the semicolon the following: “, but only if such request is accompanied by a court-issued subpoena”.

Page 15, line 6, insert before the semicolon the following: “, but only if such request is accompanied by a court-issued subpoena”.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Ohio is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion.

Mr. DAVIDSON of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, this motion to recommit is about defending freedom. Civil liberties have historically united this great body.

Do any of my colleagues, regardless of party affiliation, really want law enforcement to access the data of small business owners and farmers without cause and without a warrant or subpoena?

Surely, this bill’s sponsor would like to see these provisions restored to the current version of the bill so that due process and privacy rights of everyday Americans are protected.

Let’s reiterate what this bill, H.R. 2513, does. This bill subjects small business owners, the smallest, 20 or fewer employees, to criminal penalties up to $10,000 in fines or 3 years in prison.

This bill creates yet another Federal Government database containing personally identifiable information of private U.S. citizens. This one collects the addresses and driver’s license numbers of owners of legal and legitimate business operations.

A little-known Federal agency, FinCen, and law enforcement will have unbridled access to the database, which has fewer protections than any other existing Federal surveillance programs.

This motion to recommit is a commonsense proposal to require a subpoena so that Federal law enforcement officials do not query the sensitive information of American citizens without cause. The majority should not be opposed to this motion. Treasury already requires similar reporting of beneficial ownership information by banks through the Customer Due Diligence rule, and under the CDD rule, law enforcement must obtain a subpoena.

In fact, the version of the Corporate Transparency Act introduced in the 115th Congress, sponsored by the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY), only allowed disclosure to federal law enforcement agencies if it had a subpoena, but this language has now been dropped from the bill.

I question why this iteration of the bill would remove the subpoena requirement and why Democratic leadership would reject this amendment when I offered it at the Rules Committee.

On October 8, the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court published its previously classified opinion detailing systemic abuses of the FISA program. Federal law enforcement officials at the FBI have improperly queried Section 702 FISA databases to spy on innocent Americans.

This abhorrent behavior violates the privacy rights of American citizens. Collectively, we must ensure that this database is safeguarded from any bad actor, including unauthorized access by Federal employees.

In light of these existing FISA abuses, it is imperative that Congress take steps to restore privacy protections for all Americans.

Starting with more robust safeguards in this bill is a great first step. After all, this bill will require the smallest businesses to file beneficial ownership information with FinCen, creating an estimated 30 to 40 million new filings each year. That is a really big database full of valuable information.

This motion to recommit ensures due process and gives farmers and small business owners confidence that their constitutionally protected right to privacy is not violated.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MALINOWSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from New Jersey is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. MALINOWSKI. Mr. Speaker, this is a rare moment in this House. We have a bipartisan bill, a bill that we have worked together, Republicans and Democrats in the House. We have worked together in the Senate. There is a companion piece of legislation; it has been praised by the Trump administration. We have a chance to do something tremendously good here, and the bill says something very simple: No one should be able to establish in the United States a shell company with completely secret ownership, secret even from law enforcement.

We are saying that we are not Panama. We are not the Cayman Islands. We are not some little island nation tax shelter that puts out a welcome mat for drug dealers and arms dealers and dictators hiding money from their people. We are the United States of America. We are a nation of laws that does not tolerate corruption at home and that fights corruption around the world.

Mr. Speaker, when I was running the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights and Labor at the State Department, I would often speak to dissidents fighting for freedom in countries like Russia. And I would say to them, What can we do to help you?

And they would say, You know what, we don't ask you to fight all of our battles for us, but just don't be complicit in what our dictatorship does to us.

And I would say, What do you mean "complicit?"

And they would say, You know what, because of the money that people like Putin and their oligarchs steal from us all goes into banks and real estate in America and in Europe, and they do it through shell companies.

And they were right. Under our current laws, anyone can set up an anonymously owned company to hide the proceeds of corruption or crime. Fentanyl dealers do it, terrorists do it, human traffickers do it, foreign dictators do it.

The wildly corrupt son of Equatorial Guinea's former president, for example, set up a shell company in the United States to launder millions of dollars in bribes from international logging companies.

Corrupt officials in Nigeria use shell companies to steal aid we sent them to fight Boko Haram.

Next time you are in New York City, check out 650 5th Avenue. You can go shopping in the Nike store, on the ground floor; get some shoes. You probably wouldn't realize that the building was owned for 20 years by the Government of Iran, once again using a shell company.

And let's be clear: Shell companies not only allow foreign bad actors to hide dirty money in the United States, they allow them to use that dirty money to corrupt our system. Yeah, I know it is illegal for foreigners to contribute to our campaigns, but if you launder your money through a front company with anonymous ownership, there is very little we can do to stop you.

Now, I am thrilled to hear my Republican colleagues say they are concerned about privacy and civil liberties. But this bill already has extraordinarily strong privacy protections. Law enforcement can only ask for access for this data if there is already an ongoing law enforcement investigation. The whole process is overseen by civil liberties and privacy officers at FinCen, and the information is so simple.

My name: TOM MALINOWSKI.

My address: 86 Washington Street, Rocky Hill, New Jersey, 08553.

My date of birth: 9/23/65.

My driver's license number is too long to read, but you know what, the government already has it.

What the government does not have is the names of the owners of companies that are set up here by foreign kleptocrats, drug lords, and criminals. Law enforcement should have access to that information.

So let me just close by reminding this House who is for this bill:

The National Association of Attorneys General.

The National District Attorneys Association.

The Fraternal Order of Police.

The Society of Former Special Agents of the FBI.

The U.S. Marshals Service Association.

The Small Business Majority.

The Main Street Alliance.

The American Sustainable Business Council.

The bankers' association of every single State that we represent in this body.

Virtually every major human rights and anticorruption group in the United States and around the world.

Please, join them. Join me. Join the bipartisan champions of this blow we are about to strike against corruption. Reject this MTR; support the bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. DAVIDSON of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, this 5-minute vote on the motion to recommit will be followed by a 5-minute vote on passage of H.R. 2513, if ordered, and the motion to suspend the rules and pass H.R. 2426.
