

(2) violence directed at persons seeking to provide reproductive health services continues to increase in the United States, as demonstrated by the recent shootings at two reproductive health clinics in Massachusetts and another health care clinic in Virginia;

(3) organizations monitoring clinic violence have recorded over 130 incidents of violence or harassment directed at reproductive health care clinics and their personnel in 1994 such as death threats, stalking, chemical attacks, bombings and arson;

(4) there has been one attempted murder in Florida and four individuals killed at reproductive health care clinics in Florida and Massachusetts in 1994;

(5) the Congress passed and the President signed the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act of 1994, a law establishing Federal criminal penalties and civil remedies for certain violent, threatening, obstructive and destructive conduct that is intended to injure, intimidate or interfere with persons seeking to obtain or provide reproductive health services;

(6) violence is not a mode of free speech and should not be condoned as a method of expressing an opinion;

(7) persons exercising their constitutional rights and acting completely within the law are entitled to full protection from the Federal Government;

(8) the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act of 1994 imposes a mandate on the Federal Government to protect individuals seeking to obtain or provide reproductive health services; and

(9) the President has instructed the Attorney General to order—

(A) the United States Attorneys to create task forces of Federal, State and local law enforcement officials and develop plans to address security for reproductive health care clinics located within their jurisdictions; and

(B) the United States Marshals Service to ensure coordination between clinics and Federal, State and local law enforcement officials regarding potential threats of violence.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the United States Attorney General should fully enforce the law and take any further necessary measures to protect persons seeking to provide or obtain, or assist in providing or obtaining, reproductive health services from violent attack.

ORDERS FOR FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1995

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I have some unanimous consent requests here, and I would like to advise my colleagues that all of these have been approved by the Democratic leadership.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in recess until the hour of 9 a.m. on Friday, January 13, 1995; that following the prayer the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date and the time for the two leaders be reserved.

I further ask unanimous consent that there then be a period for the transaction of morning business not to extend beyond the hour of 10 a.m., with Senators permitted to speak for not more than 5 minutes each, with the following Senators to speak for the designated times: Senator THOMAS for up to 10 minutes, Senators LIEBERMAN and DODD for up to 15 minutes equally divided, and Senator BOXER for up to 15 minutes.

I further ask unanimous consent that at the hour of 10 a.m., the Senate stand in recess until the hour of 11 to allow all Members to attend a briefing.

Finally, I ask unanimous consent that at 11 o'clock a.m., the Senate resume consideration of S. 1, the unfunded mandates bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. It there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

REMOVAL OF INJUNCTION OF SECRECY

Mr. LOTT. As in executive session, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Injunction of Secrecy be removed from the Treaty with the Republic of Korea on mutual legal assistance in criminal matters (Treaty Document No. 104-1), transmitted to the Senate by the President today; and ask that the treaty be considered as having been read the first time; that it be referred with accompanying papers to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed; and that the President's message be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The message of the President is as follows:

To the Senate of the United States:

With a view to receiving the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification, I transmit herewith the Treaty Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Korea on Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters, signed at Washington on November 23, 1993, with a related exchange of notes signed the same date. Also transmitted for the information of the Senate is the report of the Department of State with respect to this Treaty.

The Treaty is one of a series of modern mutual legal assistance treaties that the United States is negotiating in order to counter criminal activities more effectively. The Treaty should be an effective tool to assist in the prosecution of a wide variety of modern criminals, including members of drug cartels, "white-collar" criminals, and terrorists. The Treaty is self-executing.

The Treaty provides for a broad range of cooperation in criminal matters. Mutual assistance available under the treaty includes: (1) taking testimony or statements of persons; (2) providing documents, records, and articles of evidence; (3) serving documents; (4) locating or identifying persons or items; (5) transferring persons in custody for testimony or other purposes; (6) executing requests for searches and seizures; (7) assisting in forfeiture proceedings; and (8) rendering any other form of assistance not prohibited by the laws of the Requested State.

I recommend that the Senate give early and favorable consideration to the Treaty and give its advice and consent to ratification.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, January 12, 1995.

CONGRESSIONAL ACCOUNTABILITY ACT

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, on behalf of Senator GRASSLEY, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now turn to the consideration of H.R. 1, the House companion bill, and all after the enacting clause be stricken; that the text of S. 2, as amended, be inserted, and that the bill be deemed to have been read a third time and passed and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

So the bill (H.R. 1), as amended, was deemed to have been read three times and passed.

(See language of S. 2 as passed January 11, 1995.)

RECESS UNTIL 9 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. LOTT. Finally, Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, and I see no other Senator seeking recognition, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in recess as previously ordered.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 10:14 p.m., recessed until Friday, January 13, 1995, at 9 a.m.
