PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 104th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 141

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 1995

No. 9

Senate

(Legislative day of Tuesday, January 10, 1995)

The Senate met at 9:15 a.m., on the expiration of the recess, and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Our prayer this morning will be led by our guest chaplain, Dr. Mark Dever, pastor of the Capitol Hill Baptist Church.

PRAYER

The guest chaplain, the Reverend Mark E. Dever, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Great, all powerful God, we come to You this morning first in acknowledgment of Your greatness. We know that you have no need of us, that you are in no way dependent on our actions, that Your existence awaits no vote of this Chamber, nor our own personal assent.

We praise You that, being the One whom You are, out of Your love You have made us in Your image, as creatures who, like Yourself, want to know and be known.

Thank You for the way we see that in our personal lives and in our society. Thank You for those who have gone before who have taught us something of what it means to live together as one nation. We pray that You would today help this body in its deliberations. You know, Lord, the pressures of time and public expectation, the good motives, on both sides of the aisle, to help the people of this land.

We ask that in this Chamber of debate, You would help each one who speaks remember the account that she or he will give not only to their colleagues here and the voters, but to their own consciences and most of all, to You, Lord.

We know that the secrets of our hearts are entirely discovered to You, and we praise You that You do not allow us to hide ourselves completely from You.

We ask that You would give a measure of Your wisdom to these gathered here today. Help them to pass laws that ennoble rather than enervate the people. Give them wisdom to speak today with the liberty of knowing that they are about purposes, that are not only great, but that are also good.

For those who are discouraged, finding only emptiness amid all the success which the world tells them they have, show them Yourself.

For those who are swollen with pride, in Your love, break them that You might bind them up; wound them, that You might heal them again.

Thank You for the freedom of speech which we enjoy in this land. Help these Senators today to use that freedom realizing the privilege that it is, for our good and for Your glory.

In Christ's name we ask it. Amen.
