

Mr. SMITH of Michigan. Mr. Chairman, as we conclude another football season, I say:

Move over, San Francisco. Step aside, San Diego Chargers.

The real football champion is not from California, but from Michigan—and more specifically, from Albion, MI.

Last month, Albion College captured the division III national championship by defeating Washington and Jefferson of Pennsylvania 38 to 15.

With a tradition of excellence in both academics and athletics, Albion's reputation is known throughout the Midwest. And the men who make up the Briton football team are scholar-athletes in the truest sense of the word.

So, let me take my hat off to Coach Schmidt and the Albion Britons for capping a perfect 13 and 0 season with a national championship.

On behalf of this Congress, congratulations Albion.

I enclose a report of the game as covered in the Pleiad:

Washington and Jefferson was the 2-1 favorite to win the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl. In the end, the margin of victory was more than 2-1. Only it was Albion College that became the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III National Champions.

So much for expert opinions. The Britons' 38-15 victory over the Presidents was the most lopsided Stagg Bowl since 1986.

The victory boosted Albion's record to 13-0, clinching a perfect season. The Britons are one of four NCAA football squads in the nation with a perfect record. W&J finished its season with an 11-2 record.

Despite the clearcut victory, Saturday's game in Salem, Va., was marred by a slow start and racial taunts directed at Jeffrey Robinson, Mount Clemens senior and running back.

First, the Britons lost the coin toss and had to receive in the first half. Despite a 40-yard kickoff return by Todd Morris, Highland senior and fullback, Albion was unable to capitalize on its first two drives of the game. With 4:30 left in the first quarter, W&J's Vince Botti scored the game's first touchdown.

With 35 seconds left in the first quarter, however, Robinson broke a tackle and found a hole. He ran for 70 yards, scoring the Britons' first touchdown 12 seconds later.

Seventy-four seconds after that first touchdown, the Britons scored again when Jared Wood, Frankenmuth junior and outside linebacker, intercepted a pass and ran it back 29 yards for another touchdown—the first of two in the second quarter.

Scott Castele, Vermontville senior and tight end, forced the Presidents to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. David Lefere, Jackson sophomore and free safety, then recovered the ball, leading to a 28-yard field goal by kicker Michael Zacha, Okemos sophomore.

The defense dominated, with big hits by Dennis Waclawski, Ada junior and defensive tackle; Robert Taylor, Grosse Ile senior and defensive end; and an interception by Timothy Schafer, Holt junior and cornerback.

With 1:08 left in the half, Robinson scored again, putting the Britons ahead 24-7 at the half.

The third quarter was dominated by the Briton defense, especially by James Davis, Grosse Ile senior and outside linebacker. Davis had a hand in two sacks in the quarter, both on W&J third downs.

Albion added to its score yet again with 50 seconds left in the quarter, courtesy of a 2-yard reception by Christopher Barnett, Flint sophomore and wide receiver.

The fourth quarter belonged to Raymond Henke, Warren sophomore and cornerback, who batted down three W&J passes.

With 11:18 remaining, W&J running back Jake Williams crossed the goal line for a 12-yard touchdown run. W&J chose to go for the two-point conversion, and quarterback Jason Baer connected with Botti, bringing the score to 31-15.

With 57 seconds left to play, Robinson scored his third touchdown of the game—a 29-yard run. With the successful extra point kick by Zacha, the Britons clinched the national championship by a score of 38-15.

Albion's score was not the only impressive number of the game. Robinson rushed for 166 yards and three touchdowns. The team combined to rush for 254 yards, shutting down the Presidents' first-ranked defense against the run, which only allowed an average of 35.8 rushing yards per game.

Prior to Saturday's game, W&J had not given up more than 24 points since a 47-28 loss to Ithaca (N.Y.) in 1992.

The Britons accomplished all this despite the steady rain that persisted throughout the game, making the 45-degree temperature seem even colder and making the field even muddier.

With a tradition of excellence in both academics and athletics, Albion's reputation is known throughout the Midwest. The men who make up the Briton football team are scholar athletes in the truest tradition of the word, so let me take my hat off to Coach Smith and to the Albion Britons for capturing a perfect 13-1-0 loss season with the conclusion of the national championship. On behalf of this Congress, congratulations, Albion.

THE MARION MALLEY WALSH DRUNK DRIVING ACT OF 1995

(Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce a piece of legislation that is of particular importance to me: the Marion Malley Walsh Drunk Driving Act of 1995.

Marion Malley Walsh was a professional artist—a commercial fashion illustrator and successful pastel portrait painter—a mother and grandmother, who lived in Longmeadow, MA. On June 23, 1993, while driving with her sister Loretta to a family reunion on Lake George, Marion was killed by a drunk driver who was fleeing the scene of a hit-and-run accident.

Mr. Speaker, drunk driving is a problem that plagues our Nation. In 1992, 17,699 innocent people were killed in this country by drunk drivers. That's an average of one alcohol-related fatality every 30 minutes. Drunk driving crashes cost the U.S. health care system approximately $6 billion in 1993, and American businesses and workers approximately $25 billion in lost wages.

The Marion Malley Walsh Drunk Driving Act follows the lead that was set in Massachusetts and in a few other States—setting a zero-tolerance level for drivers under the age of 21, and lowering the legal alcohol limit to .08 percent.

States that do not comply with the Marion Malley Walsh Drunk Driving Act will still receive Federal highway moneys—only some of these funds will be earmarked for specific programs related to drunk driving.

Most importantly, however, the Marion Malley Walsh Drunk Driving Act doesn't cost the tax payers an additional dime—it can be done within our current system.

Mr. Speaker, in the memory of Marion Malley Walsh, and for her family and all the other families that grieve the loss of a loved one caused by a drunk driver, I urge my colleagues to support this important legislation.

SUPERBOWL ELATION MIXED WITH DETERMINATION TO BALANCE AMERICA'S BUDGET

(Mrs. SEASTRAND asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. SEASTRAND. Mr. Speaker, this weekend I watched with joy as the San Francisco 49ers and the San Diego Chargers won their respective conference titles, and are destined for the Superbowl, but I must say that my happiness with an all-California Superbowl was overcome with amazement when I flipped the channel and saw Labor Secretary Reich say this last Sunday, and I quote, "The President is against simply balancing the budget."

Mr. Speaker, the American people demand that we cut spending and balance the budget. As a Member of this great body, that is exactly what I intend to do. I stand here today with renewed conviction in support of the balanced budget amendment. That includes a three-fifths majority to raise taxes.

There may be those who believe we can simply keep spending the American people's money. There may even be those who think that States and local governments should foot the bill through unfunded mandates.

I am not among those people. We just cannot continue to spend the money we do not have, and a tax limitation balanced budget amendment is a commitment to the American people who demand that the Federal Government get its financial house in order.

URGING SUPPORT FOR HOUSE RESOLUTION 28, A BIPARTISAN BALANCED BUDGET AMENDMENT

(Mr. DOYLE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DOYLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the only bipartisan, bicameral balanced budget amendment. I speak of House Resolution 28 which I
