

University System and with the United Way of Greater Los Angeles, Herb serves on the board of directors of Pacific Enterprises, Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Co., the National Advisory Council of the Hughes Aircraft Co. public education project, the board of regents for Loyola Marymount University, and the University of Southern California's School of Public Administration board of counselors. And that is only a partial listing of his affiliations.

Mr. Speaker, most individuals view retirement as a well-earned reward, an occasion to rest and enjoy the fruits of his/her labors, and the culmination of a lifetime of contributions made to a noble purpose. Herb Carter, however, is several cuts above most individuals. He is a man of vision and of enormous energy and focus, a man who possesses a passionate commitment to helping society become more Utopian. Those of us privileged to know him have long since dispensed with the notion that he has any intention of retiring and enjoying the fruits of his labors, and we are all the better for that decision.

Mr. Speaker, the late, celebrated, and distinguished Supreme Court Chief Justice John Marshall once noted that, "A great man represents a great ganglion in the nerves of society, or to, vary the figure, a strategic point in the campaign of history, and part of his greatness consists in his being there."

Dr. Herbert L. Carter is such a man and I am proud to recognize him and commend him on his outstanding contributions to the citizens of Los Angeles. Well done, my friend.

DALE A. DUNCAN HONORED

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 22, 1995

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of Mr. Dale A. Duncan, the Boy Scout's 1995 Distinguished Citizen. A dinner in Mr. Duncan's honor is being held on February 23 in Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Duncan has served as the president and publisher of the Times Leader, one of Wilkes-Barre's daily papers. He began with the Times Leader in 1980 as the city editor, worked as executive editor in 1984, until his ascension to publisher in 1986.

Through his work at the paper, Dale has been active in the community, including organizing the annual Times Leader/Boy Scout gold tournament and the paper's "Book of Dreams" community service drive. He also serves on the boards of the F.M. Kirby Center for Performing Arts, the Salvation Army, the United Ways of Wyoming Valley, the Greater Wilkes-Barre Partnership, and he serves as the chairman of the Diversity Committee for the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association.

hard to keep me on my toes in the United tradition of a free press, and I will miss his thought-provoking critiques. Dale and I have not always agreed politically and philosophically, but I have always enjoyed having the opportunity to discuss our views with one another openly and with mutual respect.

Mr. Speaker, the Boy Scouts honor someone each year who has exemplified the scouting ideal of participating citizenship. As one can see from his long list of accomplishments and various memberships, Dale Duncan is certainly an appropriate honoree for the 1995 award. I am pleased to join the Boy Scouts in recognizing him for his community and civic work.

CORSICANA DAILY SUN, 100 YEARS OF PUBLISHING

HON. MARTIN FROST

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 22, 1995

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the 100 years that the Corsicana Daily Sun in Corsicana, TX has been publishing.

The first edition of the Corsicana Daily Sun was published on March 2, 1985 as a morning edition. The Daily Sun was prosperous, and in 1906 the owners purchased the Semi-Weekly Light and continued to publish both newspapers.

In 1984 the semiweekly publication was converted into a weekly called the Navarro County Sun Extra. And in 1986, the Daily Sun began publishing a Saturday edition for the first time, making it a 7 day a week publication.

Mr. Speaker, the Corsicana Daily Sun has been an invaluable addition to life and the arts in Corsicana. Although a fire displaced operations for 5 months in 1992, the Daily Sun continued to publish without missing one edition.

Mr. Speaker, the Corsicana Daily Sun has documented local events and happenings for the past 100 years, and will continue to do so, we hope, for 100 more.

AGENDA FOR CHANGE

HON. RON PACKARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 22, 1995

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, today marks day 50 of our Republican Contract With America. The Republican-controlled House has accomplished more in 50 days than any Democrat-controlled Congress ever did. Republicans continue to prove that hard work produces real results.

fense measures to guarantee security at home and to protect our national interests abroad.

In the next 50 days, House Republicans will continue to work hard, make change, and keep their promises. Although the House has already passed a full political agenda, there is still more to consider. We will work to roll back overzealous Government regulation, reform a backlogged legal system, to promote personal responsibility, and to restore fairness in our Tax Code.

Mr. Speaker, America voted for change last November. This Republican-controlled Congress is committed to working for the results the people want. The Republican agenda for change moves forward.

UPDATE ON THE PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. GENE GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 21, 1995

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. GREEN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I take the floor to continue the discussion about the Personal Responsibility Act. The Goodling substitute of the Personal Responsibility Act which will be taken up in the Economic and Educational Opportunities Committee tomorrow will cut funding for child care in the State of Texas from fiscal year 1996 through 2000 over $485 million.

The Personal Responsibility Act will repeal all Federal programs that deal with nutrition, including the school breakfast and lunch programs, and restrict nutrition programs under the Older Americans Act.

I am happy that the Republicans realized that being "penny wise and pound foolish" with the cuts in senior nutrition programs was not good policy and were simply unworkable. However, senior nutrition programs are not the only programs which should be taken out of the Personal Responsibility Act.

I suggest that all nutrition programs be withdrawn from the Personal Responsibility Act and discussed in the context of the people participating in the programs. For example, school breakfast and lunch programs should be discussed in education or health reform along with nutrition programs for women, infants, and children. Not simply in terms of reforming welfare.

School nutrition programs provide food assistance in a school setting, such as the Port Houston Elementary School with Principal Maria Sierra,
