

give him a clean CR when he sends us a budget that is certified balanced by CBO and signed off by the Speaker of the House, I know what Senator DOLE would say if he was President of the United States, and a Democrat Speaker over there—I know what he would tell him. I think you do, too.

So let us look at the budget that the Republicans gave us. If you were not using Social Security, you would be $106 billion short—$106 billion short—in the year 2002. But when you dig in and use the Social Security numbers, you get down to—I do not want to answer any questions.

Mr. CRAIG. Will the Senator yield?

Mr. FORD. Happy to yield for a question.

Mr. CRAIG. The question is, have not the Democrats used the Social Security trust fund figures in numbers just the way the Republicans are currently using them? We learned—

Mr. FORD. Not for the last 12 years.

Mr. CRAIG. Yes, you have, Senator.

Mr. FORD. The President of the United States signed—the President is responsible for that.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senators will address through the Chair.

Mr. FORD. It is awful hard to address through the Chair.

Here on December 15—Mr. President, we talk about never wanting to offer anything. What bothers me is that on December 15, the President offered some numbers based on a budget he had submitted previously. He eased toward the Republican side on December 15; the Republicans eased toward the President on December 15. They moved closer to each other on discretionary cuts, on Medicare, on Medicaid, on welfare and EITC. I thought that was negotiation. That was on December 15.

Mr. President, we have agreed to a 7-year balanced budget. We have agreed to the CBO certification. Now let us get down to trying to figure out how we help our young kids and give them an education.

They talk about increasing the Pell grants. Sure they did, but they forget to tell you they cut off the bottom half. It is the way you use the words. So you increase Pell grants by $100, but you cut off from $600 down. A lot of people get by on $600. That is all they need. That is all they should be given. But if they do not need more than that, they do not get anything. They want to get an education; just need a few dollars.

So this is the kind of budget that the President of the United States has said no to, has said no to.

So, I hope we will just leave this rhetoric behind us and look at where we need to work, and that is Medicare, that is Medicaid, that is education, that is the environment; and that we put a face on it instead of the numbers and we put a place instead of the numbers. And once we decide the faces we want to help and the places we want to secure, then we can put the numbers with them. I think then we will have a budget.

But the President, in my judgment, is trying to protect those people who are being hurt so severely by the Republicans saying "We won't give." It is not here, it is over on the other end of the Capitol Building, but "We won't give unless we get the $245 billion tax cut." In April the Speaker of the House said, "We're going to shut Government down." Lo and behold, it did. But we have had bills vetoed before under Republican Presidents and we have offered a continuing resolution, we have continued Government while we sat down and negotiated those things that were objectionable to the Republican Presidents and we finally arrived at something that could be sent to the President that we agreed upon and he could sign. That is where we ought to be now.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The distinguished President pro tempore, the Senator from South Carolina.

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, what is the pending business?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate is in morning business. There is no pending business at this time.

THE CONTINUING RESOLUTION

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, I rise today in support of H.R. 1643, which will return all Federal Government employees to the workplace, and restore their paychecks. This bill will also reopen many important Government services which were closed due to President Clinton's veto of various appropriation bills.

It is regrettable that the President has permitted the budget situation to deteriorate. Let me remind my colleagues that this Congress enacted a balanced budget plan which the President also vetoed. At that point, he assumed an obligation to provide the Congress with his budget proposal. Yet despite his many promises to do so, and the statutory requirement of November 20, 1995, President Clinton has failed to submit a real balanced budget.

Mr. President, for years I have made speeches in this great Chamber, and cast my vote in support of a balanced budget. I have introduced balanced budget amendments in numerous sessions of Congress, including the 104th Congress. On July 12, 1982, a balanced budget amendment was brought to the floor. As chairman of the Judiciary Committee, I was pleased to sponsor and guide that important measure to passage. On August 4, 1982, 69 Senators voted in favor of the resolution. While a majority supported it in the House, it failed to receive the necessary two-thirds vote. In March 1986, the Senate voted on another balanced budget amendment. It was unfortunate that the Resolution failed by one vote. Last session, the balanced budget amendment again failed by one vote. However, I am confident that we will yet pass the balanced budget amendment during the 104th Congress and call on the President to support that effort.

With or without a constitutional amendment, this Congress will enact a budget which protects the security, health and safety of our Nation, provides quality Government services, and eliminates harmful deficits.

Mr. President, this bill brings employees back to work with back pay. It also provides targeted appropriations, through the end of fiscal year 1996, for critical Government services. Enactment of this measure will remove the issue of the Federal Government shut-down and allow us to focus on the larger objective of the balanced budget agreement.

Mr. President, in closing, I commend the majority leader, Senator DOLE, and Senator DOMENICI, the chairman of the Budget Committee, for their leadership and continuing efforts to resolve this important issue. I call on the President to keep his promise, to stop the gimmicks, and do the right thing for the future of our great Nation.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Virginia.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CONSTITUENTS

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, the Senate hopefully will be hearing from the distinguished majority leader and Democratic leader, as they are now returning from the White House. I am continuing to review the actions taken by the House. I am hopeful that these actions will reach a compromise, a position whereby the Government can return to provide the services to the people of this Nation. But I am going to withhold my approval until I read each word and study every comma and period in it. I am still working through that. But I felt at this time it would be appropriate for me to have printed in the RECORD a number of communications, just a sampling of the communications that I have received throughout this day in my office, together with, I think, some very fine editorial review by the newspapers in my State.

I will first include a letter written by a Mr. Paul T. Gernhardt, who writes:

I know you and your staff are quite busy so I will keep this short and to the point. I am not at all pleased with your handling of the budget process. You are not helping anyone's cause and are directly responsible for a great deal of unnecessary harm. People are beginning to lose their businesses, homes, and financial standing as you squabble between yourselves. As a business owner I just cannot understand your actions—there is no justification whatsoever.

As "constitutional officers" you have certain privileges, benefits, and opportunities (including protecting your own pay). However, you also have obligations. These include conducting the business of government in a professional and competent manner. At this point you are not fulfilling the responsibilities you agreed to assume. One of your primary duties is to pass a budget. This is not something that came up suddenly—waiting until well past the last moment solely for political gains is undignified and unprofessional.

I have to accept my share, as a Member of this body, of such criticism. I
