

Whereas as the Chief of Naval Operations, Admiral Boorda commanded the foremost Navy in the World;

Whereas Admiral Boorda's career in the Navy reflected his lifelong dedication to the United States and to the principles he held dear—duty, honor, and commitment;

Whereas Admiral Boorda is the only member of the Navy ever to rise from the lowest enlisted grade to the position of Chief of Naval Operations, and his rise gave him a full and unique perspective on the opportunities and obligations of command;

Whereas this perspective instilled in Admiral Boorda an unwavering concern for the members of the Navy and their families;

Whereas as Commander-in-Chief of NATO forces in Southern Europe, Admiral Boorda ordered the first offensive use of deadly force in the history of NATO, an air strike in February 1994 against four Bosnian Serb aircraft flying in violation of a United Nations ban on such flights;

Whereas Admiral Boorda was a visionary in naval strategy who recognized that circumstances in the post-Cold War era made necessary a strategy that retained a forward presence for the Navy even as it recognized that future Navy operations would most likely occur in the littoral zones of the world;

Whereas this strategy, which Admiral Boorda called "Forward . . . From the Sea", will serve as the basis for Navy strategy well into the 21st century;

Whereas Admiral Boorda was a visionary in naval technology who spearheaded programs for the development of the arsenal ship, the new attack submarine, theater ballistic missile defense, and cooperative engagement capabilities;

Whereas these programs, and many others spearheaded by Admiral Boorda, put the Navy on the cutting edge of technology and did so in an efficient, affordable, flexible manner;

Whereas Admiral Boorda recognized the need for the Navy to develop a strategy for utilizing emerging technology effectively and developed in response to that need the plan known as "20/20 Vision", a long-range plan for the acquisition and utilization of technology in the future in order to achieve the strategic objectives of the United States; and

Whereas it is fitting that Admiral Boorda be remembered as he described Admiral Arleigh Burke when saying that ". . . he defined what it means to be a naval officer: relentless in combat, resourceful in command, and revered by his crews . . . He was, indeed, a sailor's sailor." Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate honors Admiral Jeremy M. "Mike" Boorda for a career that included extraordinary contributions to the defense of the United States and a singular commitment to the members of the Navy and thereby exemplified all the best qualities in an officer in the United States Navy.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

UNANIMOUS-CONSENT AGREE-
MENT—SENATE CONCURRENT
RESOLUTION 57

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I understand that in a minute or so we are going to go in recess. We will be in recess until 2:15 this afternoon. We would have been functioning on the floor here until 12:30 but for the Boorda funeral, and then been in recess from 12:30 to 2:15. So what we are going to do is go in recess now. I ask unanimous consent that when we go in recess at 10:30, that we reconvene at 2:15 p.m. this afternoon.

We had already had unanimous consent that the time we would be in recess to go to policy meetings would be charged against the resolution. I ask that 1 additional hour be added to that time, charged against the resolution. That means that half of the time we are out for the Boorda funeral will be charged to Senate business, half will be left on the resolution, and that will be equally divided.

Mr. EXON. Mr. President, we have agreed to this on this side. I have checked with our leader. I think this is the proper way to proceed.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate stands in recess until 2:15 p.m.

Thereupon, at 10:29 a.m., the Senate recessed until 2:15 p.m.; whereupon, the Senate reassembled when called to order by the Presiding Officer (Ms. SNOWE).

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ON THE BUDGET

The Senate continued with the consideration of the concurrent resolution. The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nebraska is recognized.

Mr. EXON. I thank the Chair.

Madam President, suffice it to say, we are now ready for business. If there is any Senator who wishes to offer an amendment, this is an opportune time to do it.

The basic situation is this: We have approximately 4 hours left under the agreement. That is 2 hours on each side. We have a large number of amendments still outstanding and Senators have not indicated to either manager of the bill whether the amendments are actually going to be offered or not.

I suppose the question is being asked, "Well, when are we going to start voting?" As of now, the time will run out on the resolution sometime between 6 o'clock and 6:30. I suggest we could not start voting before that time, unless time is yielded back. But my experience has been that normally time is not yielded back. At the end, we have Senators clamoring for time and, yet, the time will have run.

So it appears now, unless time is yielded back, that we could not possibly start voting any earlier than 6, probably sometime after that. There is an event scheduled tonight that is absolutely going to prevent us from being here and holding rollcall votes, I would think, much after 6 o'clock. So I think it is safe to say we should get over here and get our work done. Maybe we can get one or two rollcall votes in before we adjourn for the day, but certainly that is not assured.

It appears to me now, that we are looking at not more than one or two rollcall votes—if that, and a whole series of individual rollcall votes, maybe 20 to 40, somewhere in that neighborhood, are a possibility for tomorrow and the days and hours that follow. When Senator DOMENICI comes to the floor—and I think he will be here shortly—he may have some additional information because he will be calling the shots.

So, once again, in the absence of anyone offering an amendment or seeking recognition at this time, I suggest the absence of a quorum, with the time to be charged equally to each side.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The bill clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. KYL. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. KYL. Thank you, Madam President.
