TRIBUTE TO JAMES McDEVITT

Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, today I want to recognize James A. McDevitt, who has just been promoted to brigadier general in the Washington Air National Guard. I take special pleasure in offering my congratulations because Jim is a friend and former colleague; for 5 years, he worked for me in the State attorney general's office as assistant attorney general. He is also my frequent host when I go to Spokane to run in the wonderful Bloomsday race.

Jim has served this country for three decades. He was trained as a navigator and bombardier, and went on to serve as a weapons systems officer and flight examiner in the late 1960's and early 1970's. His assignments took him to Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, Spain, Germany, and England.

In January 1971, Jim joined the 116th Fighter Interceptor Squadron, Washington Air National Guard, as a radar intercept officer in the F-101. When the unit converted to KC-135 Air Refueling aircraft, he became a navigator and has maintained that qualification since.

At the time of the gulf war, Jim was the squadron commander of the 116th Air Refueling Squadron. When hostilities broke out in August 1990, Jim and a group of Washington flyers volunteered for 30-day active duty tours. As the Nation faced a new crisis in the Middle East, the Guard stepped up. At first, most of their duties involved ferrying material from one air base to another, within the United States. Our victory in the gulf was due in no small part to the magnificent logical prowess of the U.S. Armed Services, and Jim contributed to America's success.

Throughout the months leading to actual combat, Jim continued volunteering for active duty work, making 2-week rotations all through September, October, and November. Jim's active duty call up came on December 20, 1990. Along with 325 brave men and women from the Spokane area, Jim deployed to the gulf region to be absorbed in the active duty Air Force. Half of Jim's squadron went to Cairo, Egypt. The other half, including Jim, flew to Jeddah, Saudi Arabia to join with active duty components. It is important to note here the adaptability of our Guard forces. With superior training and total dedication, the Washington State Air National Guard linked with the regular Air Force to form an active duty squadron—the 1709th Air Refueling Squadron provisional. Jim not surprisingly, was second in command.

With bankers, teachers, lawyers, housewives, contractors, judges, and active duty personnel, this squadron represented 50 airplanes, 80 crews, and 320 crew members for 8 different States. Home based in Jeddah, from the December 31 to January 15, 1991, Jim and his team planned now they were going to wage a war. They planned well.

As he tells it, the morning of January 16, 1991—the start of the war—was the most difficult day in Jim's life. Commanding officers were prohibited from flying in sorties during the first missions. So Jim had to wait and pray that his comrades, men and women he had flown with for 25 years, would come back safely. Of course they all performed brilliantly, as did Jim, and this Nation is better off for their hard work and patriotism.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will resume legislative session.

ORDERS FOR THURSDAY,
SEPTEMBER 26, 1996

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that, when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 9 a.m. on Thursday, September 26; further, that immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and I further ask the Senate immediately begin the veto message to accompany H.R. 1833, the partial-birth abortion bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

SCHEDULE

Mr. GRASSLEY. For the information of all Senators, the Senate will vote on the veto message with respect to the partial-birth abortion bill, hopefully by early afternoon on Thursday. The Senate can also be expected to consider any and all of the following items: Immigration conference report, Presidio Park conference report, NIH authorization bill, the pipeline safety bill.

In addition, the Senate can also be expected to begin, if available, the omnibus appropriation bill making continuing appropriations for fiscal year 1997. Therefore, votes can be expected throughout Thursday's session of the Senate, and Senators should be prepared to be in session late each night for the remainder of the session in an effort to adjourn the 104th Congress prior to the new fiscal year, which begins Tuesday, October 1.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. GRASSLEY. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:33 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, September 26, 1996, at 9 a.m.
