

President spanning the full range of affronts from the attribution of unworthy motives to name-calling.

The gentleman may proceed in order.

Mr. DORNAN. Mr. Speaker, then let me deviate in the remaining few moments to point out the headline—these are public issues—the headline of yesterday's Washington Times: "In Jail, McDougal Plays Media Queen," is cocky. In Dayroom 212 of Pod B of the Faulker County Jail, she is the queen, she thinks she is going to get pardoned. "Clinton's Words Fuel Pardon Talk. Will Whitewater Figures Go Free?" Imagine if a Republican tried this. Today's headline: "Whitewater Log On Files Has 6-Month Gap."

These people are being charged with looting banks, and the taxpayers having to make up the difference, pirating money from banks, and if one person is immune from discussion, then let us talk about all the others. A person is known by the company he keeps.

I want to close discussing this rule XVII because people watching this House may be confused about the separation of powers. To keep order in this place, there is comity between Members and the Members in the other body, and it can be stretched when one Member criticizes on the Senate floor this Member for being a hobbyist on a gut-ripping issue like POW issues and Missing In Action, but we have to have some comity here.

But only in this Congress, the 104th Congress, was the office of the President and the office of the Vice President put under the rules, thereby damaging the separation of powers. I can assure you after I file charges of impeachment, articles of impeachment, and I can do it from zero to 1,000, after that, I will move when we reassemble, God willing I am back and you are back, I will demand in our rules from our leadership to finally show the guts to go back to the way this existed for over 200 years, and have this separation of powers so that the offices of the President and the Vice President are no longer included in our rule XVIII that demands civility between ourselves.

Let me read one line about President Samper of Colombia: A scathing assessment of the Bogota scene with its dozens of censored stories, crippling folly and indolence, intellectual shallowness, and social and mercenary corruption by the political world it is supposed to monitor, resulting in a "day of the locusts" talk-show demagoguery by liberals.

Mr. Speaker, when you read this, the reaction to a young person would be holy schnikes, how did our great country come to all this corruption and scandals?
