

Resolved, That—

(1) when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn as a further mark of admiration and respect to the memory of our departed friend and colleague, who left his mark on Texas and our Nation; and

(2) the Senate extends to his family our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Senate shall communicate this resolution to the House of Representatives, and shall transmit an enrolled copy to the family of Representative Frank Tejeda.

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY,
FEBRUARY 5, 1997

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the joint session is completed this evening, the Senate stand in adjournment until the hour of 11 a.m. on Wednesday, February 5.

I further ask unanimous consent that on Wednesday, immediately following the prayer, the routine requests through the morning hour be granted.

I further ask unanimous consent that there then be a period of morning business until 3 p.m. with Senators permitted to speak for up to 5 minutes each, except for the following: Senator COLLINS for 30 minutes; Senator THOMAS, or his designee, 60 minutes; Senator DASCHLE, or his designee, 60 minutes; and Senator ROTH, or his designee, 45 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, the Senate will automatically adjourn following the conclusion of the joint session this evening. Tomorrow, following the morning business, at 3 p.m., the Senate will begin consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 1, the constitutional amendment for a balanced budget. By a previous agreement, only opening remarks will be in order to Senate Joint Resolution 1 on Wednesday, and I would not anticipate a late night session.

Also, I remind my colleagues that the Senate may consider any additional nominations that become available this week. I understand there is still a possibility that we would have one or two that could be available on Thursday. We are hoping that is true.

Finally, I ask that all Members be present in the Senate Chamber tonight promptly at 8:30 p.m. so that we can proceed over as a group at 8:40 to the House of Representatives for the President's State of the Union Address.

ORDER FOR ADJOURNMENT

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent, pursuant to Senate Resolution 49, as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Honorable FRANK TEJEDA, late a Representative from the State of Texas, that the Senate stand in adjournment until 11 a.m. tomorrow.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

RECESS

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask that the Senate stand in recess until the hour of 8:30 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:19 p.m. recessed until 8:29 p.m.; whereupon the Senate reconvened when called to order by the Presiding Officer (Mr. SANTORUM).

JOINT SESSION OF THE TWO HOUSES—ADDRESS BY THE
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 105-1)

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate will proceed to the Hall of the House of Representatives to hear the address by the President of the United States.

Thereupon, the Senate, preceded by the Assistant Sergeant at Arms, Loretta Symms; the Secretary of the Senate, Gary Sisco; and the Vice President of the United States, ALBERT GORE, Jr., proceeded to the Hall of the House of Representatives to hear the address by the President of the United States, William J. Clinton.

(The address delivered by the President of the United States to the joint session of the two Houses of Congress appears in the proceedings of the House of Representatives in today's RECORD.)

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 11 A.M.
TOMORROW

At the conclusion of the joint session of the two Houses, and in accordance with the order previously entered, at 10:28 p.m., the Senate adjourned until Wednesday, February 5, 1997, at 11 a.m.

NOMINATIONS

Executive nominations received by the Senate February 4, 1997:
