

stand in adjournment until the hour of 11 a.m. on Monday, September 8; I further ask unanimous consent that on Monday, immediately following the prayer, the routine requests through the morning hour be granted and the Senate immediately resume consideration of the motion to proceed to S. 830, the FDA reform bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I also ask unanimous consent that following the expiration or yielding back of time on the motion to proceed to S. 830, the Senate resume consideration of S. 1061, the Labor, Health and Human Services appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, for the information of all Members, on Monday, the Senate will resume debate on the motion to proceed to S. 830, the FDA reform bill. Under the previous order, there are 4 hours of debate remaining on the motion to proceed, equally divided between Senators JEFFORDS and Senator KENNEDY. Following the expiration or yielding back of that time, the Senate will resume consideration of S. 1061, the Labor-HHS appropriations bill. Also under the order, a vote on an amendment relating to S. 1061 is expected at 5 p.m. on Monday. In addition, under the consent agreement, all amendments remaining in order to the Labor, Health and Human Services appropriations bill must be offered during Monday's session of the Senate. Also, all votes ordered on those amendments will be stacked to occur at a time to be determined on Tuesday. In addition, under the previous order, the Senate will begin consideration of S. 830 following the disposition of S. 1061, but not before 4 p.m. on Tuesday. As a reminder to all Members, the next roll-call vote is expected on Monday at 5 p.m. on an amendment relating to the Labor, Health and Human Services appropriations bill.
