

WELCOMING THE REVEREND J.A. PANUSKA TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

(Mr. MCDADE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCDADE. Madam Speaker and my colleagues, I am privileged to welcome to this Chamber the Reverend J.A. Panuska, and I want to thank him for his very inspirational words during this morning's opening prayer.

Father Panuska is one of the most distinguished citizens of our Nation, serving as the president of the University of Scranton in Scranton, PA, and I am proud to call him friend. We in northeastern Pennsylvania have been blessed to have him as a neighbor in our community.

Thousands of students, faculty, and local citizens' lives have been enriched both by Father Panuska's guidance and by the many deeds he has accomplished, all with great excellence. He is an extraordinary man who is well respected in the local community, the academic community, and the spiritual community.

Founded in 1888, the university he presides over, the University of Scranton, is recognized nationally for the quality of its educational programs and for the remarkable record of its graduates receiving Fulbright scholarships. Under Father Panuska's leadership, the university has been ranked consistently among the top comprehensive institutions in the Northeastern and Middle Atlantic States, and although much of his time has been spent on his favorite discipline, cryobiology, administrative duties, and many other responsibilities, Father Panuska's true interest has always been the students he presides over.

In 1998, Father Panuska will conclude his 16-year tenure as president of the University of Scranton and will celebrate the 50th year of his entrance into the Society of Jesus. With all of my colleagues, I know we want to congratulate him on his service, to thank him for his friendship, and to wish him the best of luck in his new endeavors.

MOTION TO ADJOURN

Mrs. MINK of Hawaii. Madam Speaker, I have a privileged motion at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mrs. MINK of Hawaii moves that the House do now adjourn.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to adjourn offered by the gentlewoman from Hawaii [Mrs. MINK].

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Mrs. MINK of Hawaii. Madam Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 71, nays 337, not voting 25, as follows:

WHITE HOUSE THREATENS TO KEEP CONGRESS IN SESSION

(Mr. DELAY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DELAY. Madam Speaker, the White House has threatened to keep the Congress in session until it brings up legislation to reform the current campaign laws. Well, that is fine with me. It will give both the House and Senate more time to examine in detail every campaign law that this administration broke during the last election.

There are laws on the books against soliciting campaign funds from Federal property. There are laws on the books that prohibit campaign contributions from foreign services, especially the Communist Chinese. There are laws on the books that prohibit campaign events from occurring at Buddhist temples. These are just some of the abuses that we have already found in the Clinton-Gore reelection campaign.

The President can keep us in session as long as he wants. It will give us much more time to examine in detail the emerging Clinton-Gore campaign scandal.

RALPH ELLISON'S “INVISIBLE MAN”

(Mr. SAWYER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAWYER. Madam Speaker, today is the 40th anniversary of Little Rock, AR. It is also the 45th anniversary year of the publication of a novel that changed America, Ralph Ellison's “Invisible Man.”

The central conceit in that compelling piece of literature was the invisibility of African-Americans in American society. It began, “I am an invisible man. I am invisible, understand, simply because people refuse to see me.”

Five years later, Central High School was on every television in America and millions of Americans were invisible no more. Today, it is a deep irony that if we fail to conduct the most complete census we are capable of, we will make millions of Americans of a color disappear from the public rolls of the Nation.

At the same time, in Orange County, in an attempt to change the outcome of an election, a former Member of this House is trying to manufacture people of color to suggest a fraud, manufacture people of color out of thin air.

JENNIFER DAVIS IMPRISONED IN PERU

(Mr. EWING asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. EWING. Madam Speaker, September 25, 1996, 1 year ago, Jennifer Davis was in Peru. She was arrested on drug charges. She has admitted her guilt and has cooperated with authorities. For this, she has been put in an inhumane prison, has never received her rights under Peruvian law. While she has been there for 1 year, a Russian arrested is in and out in 6 months; a policeman that she put the finger on is in and out in 6 months.

This Peruvian Government has refused to consider the sense-of-Congress resolutions passed in both Houses to extend our human rights to this young lady and 24 other Americans. It is time to do something about it.

ACT NOW ON CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM

(Mr. DOGGETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)
