SUPPORT LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

(Mr. ETHERIDGE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise on behalf of the people of North Carolina to call for aggressive action to crack down on juvenile violence.

Just 2 weeks ago two teenage brothers, in a stolen vehicle on I-95 outside Fayetteville shot and killed two North Carolina law enforcement officers with a military style AK-47 assault rifle. The victims were a state trooper, Ed Lowry, and Cumberland County sheriff's deputy David Hathcock, gunned down in the line of duty. The authorities in Harnett County arrested these culprits after an extensive chase.

Like my North Carolina neighbors, I was shocked and appalled by this senseless tragedy that has shattered the community and taken these two heroes' lives. Trooper Lowry was a 23-year veteran of the patrol, and Deputy Hathcock had been on the force for 17 years. More than 3,000 mourners attended the memorial services to express sympathy to the victims' families.

Mr. Speaker, law enforcement officers put their lives on the line day in and day out to keep our streets and neighborhoods and communities safe from these types of juveniles and thugs. Police officers need our help and support as they do their increasingly difficult job.

In the name of Ed Lowry and David Hathcock, I call on this Congress to pass tough and smart legislation to help these brave men and women fight juvenile crime.

LOCAL JUDGE'S RULING VETOES SCHOOL CLEAN-UP

(Mr. ROGAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROGAN. Mr. Speaker, last weekend the city of Washington witnessed a wonderful phenomenon on the mall. A million men came from all over the country for the "Promise Keepers" rally to pray for their wives, their children and for their nation's leaders. But even more remarkable was the fact that thousands of these men—carpenters, painters, and electricians—decided to leave something more tangible behind.

According to the Washington Times, 2,000 Promise Keepers went to Taft Jr. High School—the most dilapidated school in Washington, and turned it into the cleanest. The incredible thing is that thousands more men wanted to go into every single dilapidated school in Washington, D.C., paint them, clean them, and repair them so they would be fit for our children to occupy. Unbelievably, a local superior court judge in Washington named Kaye Christian prevented them from doing it.

Today, Mr. Speaker, children all over the District of Columbia are going into some of the most substandard schools in our country, and the parents of those children have a right to know from that judge why she did not heed President Clinton and Colin Powell's call for volunteerism. She should have let those children be educated today in schools that are clean, safe and fit for occupation. Because of her order, a great opportunity to do something for needy children was lost.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS HAVE MADE THIS NATION STRONG

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, with nine out of every ten children in America attending public schools, Democrats understand that we need to rebuild and reform our public schools, not destroy them. Yes, our public schools have problems, some serious problems, but we should not dismantle public education in this country.

Public education has been the great equalizer allowing youngsters from every social stratum, from every economic background, whatever gender, to be able to realize their potential and their God given talents.

My colleagues on the other side of the aisle have a plan that would drain funds from America's public schools, put that money into private schools and private education. Speaker GINGRICH wants to impose this experimental voucher program on school districts all across this country.

We have a message for the Speaker: Our children are not his guinea pigs. Democrats will not allow this experiment to go forward.

It is our public schools that have made this Nation strong. It has put the American dream within reach of all of our children and Democrats want to improve and not destroy America's public school system.

VICE PRESIDENT GORE WARNS OF OVERPOPULATION

(Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, Vice President AL GORE warned the other day that overpopulation fosters global warming. He suggested expanding birth control and abortion programs in developing countries would help reduce the environmental threat. Noting that Third World nations are producing too many children too fast, in addition to too much pollution, Mr. GORE said it is time to ignore the controversy over family planning and cut out-of-control population growth.

This is the man that says there is not enough spotted owls, there is not enough trees on the planet, but we have too many children being born. What is wrong with this picture? Too many children being born in the Third World nations.

He said one way that we can cut the child mortality rate in this speech was by aborting them before they could be born. Again, what is wrong with this picture? Kill them before they are born so we can cut child mortality rates?

I think Mr. GORE is in real trouble with that kind of argument.

INVEST IN PUBLIC EDUCATION; NOT A PRIVILEGED FEW

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing more important than our children's education. That is why Democrats want to invest in our classrooms, our teachers, our crumbling school buildings and in our children's future.

Since they came to power, Republicans have vowed to cut education. Now they propose taking millions out of public education and putting it into vouchers, allowing a privileged few to attend private schools. We should not punish the many to help a privileged few. That is not right, it is not fair, it is not just. That is why Democrats will continue to stand. We will continue to fight for quality education for every child.

Abolish the Department of Education, end the school lunch program, cut funding for education, and now divert money to private schools. That is the Republican education plan. Is it any wonder the American people do not trust their children's education in the hands of Speaker GINGRICH?

PRESIDENT'S ACTION REPRESENTS ABUSE OF LINE ITEM VETO AUTHORITY

(Mrs. FOWLER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to condemn the President's decision yesterday to line item veto 38 military construction projects.

The President's action represents a blatant violation of the budget agreement reached earlier this year between the executive and the legislative branches. Funding for the projects included in this year's military construction appropriations bill was entirely within the cap set forth by that agreement.

The President's action represents a clear abuse of the line item veto authority. In the case of the projects for Naval Station Mayport in my district the pier improvements in question are necessary to meet near-term home porting requirements set forth by the Navy. These improvements will be built at a later date but at a higher cost to the taxpayers.

The President acted based on false information provided by the Office of Management and Budget. According to OMB and the President, the Mayport project did not begin construction until fiscal year 1998. This is patently untrue and I advised OMB of that last week. This project would have begun construction in June of 1998.

The President's action was an abuse of his power and authority. Every Member needs to be on notice we need to remind the President that the Founding Fathers did not intend this body to be a rubber stamp.

CONGRESS SHOULD DO REAL EDUCATION REFORM

(Mr. WYNN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WYNN. Mr. Speaker, today Democrats are very concerned about education in America. We want to rebuild our schools. We want to upgrade our schools. We want to repair our schools. We believe that is the way to help local communities. The Republicans, on the other hand, believe the way to do it is to take money out of public schools and put it into vouchers.

The fact of the matter is that the majority of American students, nine out of ten, will go to public schools. Under their voucher program, a few people, under an experimental program, will get money to go to vouchers, the very poor. That will leave the middle class and the working class in public schools and classrooms that are sub par.

A third of our Nation's schools need extensive repair or replacement. One-half of our schools have major environmental problems, such as poor ventilation, asbestos, poor heating or lighting. We have overcrowding in many of our Nation's schools. We need to help local communities rebuild America's education infrastructure. We need to put money in public education where it really counts, and that is rebuilding and upgrading American schools. I urge Congress to do real education reform.

CAMPAIGN REFORM SHOULD FREE THE PAYCHECKS OF AMERICAN WORKERS

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, imagine the outcry if your utility company added to your bill money that you would have to pay to support their political agenda, and each year you would have to give the utility company hundreds of dollars so they could push for their political agenda, support their political candidates and protect their monopoly.

Well, it happens every month here in America. Working men and women are forced to pay compulsory dues used for political ploys which they do not support. Forced to fund campaigns. Forced to fund candidates. And they do not have a voice in how the money is spent.

The Supreme Court said it was illegal to do it in the Beck decision, but the administration through Executive order deliberately chose not to uphold the Court's decision. Thomas Jefferson said it was tyranny and a sin to force our citizens to financially support political agendas with which they disagreed.

Americans know it is wrong. Campaign reform should not and must not occur without freeing the paychecks of American workers.

EDUCATION INFRASTRUCTURE IS IN A CRISIS

(Mr. STRICKLAND asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STRICKLAND. Mr. Speaker, we need to do more for the education of our children. In my home State of Ohio education is in a crisis, and yet we make decisions to take tax dollars from working moms and dads and give those tax dollars to wealthy urban areas so that they can build sports stadiums.

I received a letter from a local school superintendent who said, "Dear Ted, I want to thank you for your article in the Portsmouth Daily Times about putting the education of our children above the building of sports stadiums. It is going to take tough decisions to solve the school funding problem."

Then he says, "It is so unfair for our students to have academic classes in an old remodeled tiny locker room, and yet a new stadium is the priority."

"Last week," he said, "I had to move a kindergarten class out into the hallway because of sewer gas fumes. There were no empty spare rooms to hold the children for such an emergency."

Mr. Speaker, we need to support public education in order to educate our children in the way they deserve to be educated.

HERE WE GO AGAIN

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, here we go again. First it was Whitewater, then Travelgate, then Filegate, then White House phone calls. And if that was not enough, now we have a thing called Laundrygate.

Three of Ron Carey's political consultants pled guilt to a money-laundering scheme which has caused the 1996 Teamsters election to be overturned. Their cooperation with Federal prosecutors has shed new light on how to raise laundered money. And to no one's surprise, it seems the White House and DNC and several lobbying groups have been implicated.

Mr. Carey claims he was a victim. The Clinton/Gore campaign and DNC say they know nothing about it. Yet, when you follow the money, the money trail points right to them, in their direction.

Frankly, Mr. Speaker, I am beginning to wonder who exactly is in control. Maybe it is the guy next door, perhaps even more than they care to admit. I really wonder.

LUPUS AWARENESS MONTH

(Mrs. MEEK of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Mr. Speaker, this is October, Lupus Awareness Month.

Many people have not heard of lupus. It is a disease that is extremely widespread but not well-known. We have an immune system which protects our bodies against viruses, bacteria, and other foreign materials. However, a person who has lupus, their immune system, which is supposed to be their protector, becomes the attacker.

Perhaps the most discouraging aspect of lupus is the fact that there is no cure. I know this from firsthand experience, having lost a sister and very close friend to lupus.

I have introduced a bill (H.R. 1111), the Lupus Research and Care Amendment Act of 1997, which would increase research and deliver essential services to individuals with lupus and their families.

Think about it; many of my colleagues have people in their family who suffer from lupus. It is a young woman's disease. It usually attacks women in their childbearing years. It is
