FURTHER MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A further message from the Senate by Mr. Lundregan, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed bills and concurrent resolutions of the following titles, in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S. 1564. An act to provide redress for inadequate restitution of assets seized by the United States Government during World War II which belonged to victims of the Holocaust, and for other purposes.

S. 1565. An act to make technical corrections to the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act.

S. Con. Res. 69. Concurrent resolution to correct the enrollment of the bill S. 830.

FURTHER CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS, 1998

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Appropriations be discharged from further consideration of the joint resolution (H.J.Res. 106) making further continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1998, and for other purposes, and that the House immediately consider and pass the joint resolution.

The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAHOOD). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Louisiana?

Mr. OBEY. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Louisiana if he would explain what the effect of this new continuing resolution is.

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. OBEY. I yield to the gentleman from Louisiana.

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I would be happy to explain.

The continuing resolution offers a 12-day continuing resolution so that the President may act on the bills that have been passed. In the meantime, I am happy to announce that we have concluded all action on the fiscal year 1998 appropriations bills, and this is the first time in 3 years that we will present to the President 13 individual appropriations bills, and I might add that they are all within the congressional budget.

The continuing resolution again represents a 10-day extension, but 12 when we consider Sundays, of the existing CR for those remaining bills so that they can be enrolled by a clerk and presented to the President. Ten days is the time span specified by the Constitution, and although I have every indication that the President will sign the bills that are on his desk, we should pass the simple extension out of comity.

I urge the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, further reserving the right to object, let me simply say that with respect to some of the priorities in the bills that we passed, I am reminded of the question asked by Peggy Lee, "Is that all there is?" But, nonetheless, I guess at this point we cannot do anything to change those priorities. This simply extends the date, as I understand it, to the 26th of November, and we have no objection on this side of the aisle.

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, will gentleman yield for a question?

Mr. OBEY. I yield to the gentleman from Louisiana.

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Is that Peggy Lee or Pinky Lee?

Mr. OBEY. Peggy. Pinky is more the gentleman's type.
