But her impact on her sport goes beyond trophies and honors. She has also served as a sports goodwill ambassador, and has brought the energetic promotion of freestyle skiing, or the "bumps," as they are known, to Olympians all around the world.

Carolyn and Jim Weinbrecht, her parents, had to stay home this time because of illness, but her brother and sister, Jim and Joy are there, and they are a family that has always been there for each other.

My colleagues and I now join Donna's family, the residents of West Milford, the citizens of New Jersey, and, indeed, of our whole Nation, in saluting our Olympic champion. Donna has always been a gold medal champion in our hearts, and always will be. She has carried our flag proudly.

ALLOW PUERTO RICO SELF-DETERMINATION

(Mr. ROMERO-BARCELÓ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROMERO-BARCELÓ. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 856, a bill allowing the people of Puerto Rico to exercise their right to self-determination.

After 99 years of being disenfranchised citizens, the 3.8 million U.S. Citizens of Puerto Rico have earned their right to define their relationship with the rest of the Nation. Puerto Ricans have valiantly and honorably served in the U.S. Armed Forces and have been involved in every major armed conflict, starting with World War I. Many Puerto Ricans have sacrificed their lives to preserve the goals of the United States. Currently there are 146,000 war veterans residing in Puerto Rico. The number of Puerto Rican men and women serving in the Armed Forces has exceeded the number of soldiers serving from many larger States.

The Korean War in particular highlights the noteworthy sacrifices of the people of Puerto Rico. In per capita terms, Puerto Rico ranks second in the Nation with respect to the number of men and women who died in that war. Moreover, the 65th Infantry Regiment, composed entirely of Puerto Ricans, was the most highly decorated regiment in the world, receiving the Presidential Unit Citation, the Meritorious Unit Commendation, two Republic of Korea Presidential Citations, and the Bravery Gold Medal of Greece.

Clearly, Puerto Rico has made critical contributions with the blood and sweat of its own to defend democracy and freedom throughout the world.

The Puerto Ricans have been diligent in serving the Nation when called. Should not the U.S. Congress be diligent in granting their earned right to self-determination?

I urge Members to support H.R. 856.

PRESIDENT'S BUDGET AN AFFRONT TO AMERICAN TAXPAYERS

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, there are many reasons that I oppose the President's recently submitted budget request, but none more important than the fact that it raises taxes. It raises taxes a lot.

Mr. Speaker, you would think that the White House would have learned its lesson from the last time it raised taxes on the American people in 1993. You would think that the White House would have learned its lesson from the recent race for Governor in Virginia. You would think that the White House would have learned its lesson from the outrageous level of taxation in Europe and all the economic misery that has caused. You would think the White House would have learned its lesson from its own economic report, which shows that the current level of taxation in this country is at the highest peacetime level ever.

But I guess not. The budget contains billions and billions of dollars in tax increases.

Mr. Speaker, this budget is an affront to the American taxpayer.

VERIFYING CITIZENSHIP BEFORE VOTING IN CONGRESS

(Mr. GUTIERREZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GUTIERREZ. Mr. Speaker, Republicans are proposing to disenfranchise, degrade and demonize millions of American citizens. Under their legislation, H.R. 1488, certain voters will be singled out, purged from the voting rolls, and forced to prove that they are truly citizens.

I believe Members of Congress should go through the same humiliating exercise. After all, using the Republicans' own logic, we must assume that any votes cast in this body could be tainted until we check the status of those who vote here.

Therefore, I am urging that any further congressional votes be suspended until we verify the citizenship of every single Member of the U.S. House. I ask that the Sergeant at Arms revoke the voting card of any Member of Congress who cannot immediately produce an Immigration Service or Social Security document proving that he or she is indeed a citizen of the United States.

If the Republicans want to protect the integrity of the voting process in precincts around the country, we should start with the voting process here in Congress. It does not seem to bother the GOP when the rights of millions of American voters are at stake. Maybe they will think differently if their rights are at stake, at risk, and their character under attack.

ACCURACY IN CAMPUS CRIME REPORTING ACT

(Mr. DUNCAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, 2 days ago, USA Today, in its lead editorial, strongly endorsed the Accuracy in Campus Crime Reporting Act. This bill, H.R. 715, is one that I introduced, which now has 65 cosponsors, divided almost equally between Republicans and Democrats. As USA Today said, "As long as campus courts operate in secret, students committing crimes get a privacy right denied to the rest of adults."

That is what this bill is all about. It is about opening up the records of crimes being committed at campuses. A college or university that does not have a crime problem should have no objections to this bill. But parents and students should be allowed to know if certain colleges are lax about law enforcement.

Many colleges prefer to discipline student criminals in secret campus courts. They use a warped interpretation of Federal privacy laws to treat these crimes as private academic records that may not be released to the public.

No one has any business knowing about a student's grades or financial aid records, but it is wrong, however, when the definition of privacy is used to protect rapists and murderers.

USA Today summed it up best by concluding "It is a sad state of affairs when an act of Congress is necessary for the Education Department to protect students' safety."

I encourage my colleagues to cosponsor H.R. 715, a bipartisan bill that will change the definition of privacy to exclude campus criminal activity.

USE AMERICAN TROOPS TO GUARD AMERICAN BORDER

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, the Immigration and Naturalization Service in some of their offices have error rates as high as 99 percent in reviewing applications, according to a recent study. In addition, 13,000 immigrants bought citizenship with illegal payoffs and bribes.

Now, if that is not enough to compromise your disgust, check this out: The INS says keep the military off the borders, Congress.

Unbelievable. These same bungling, incompetent nincompoops who have allowed heroin and cocaine to be easier
