

for UNSCOM to presidential sites within Iraq. The arrangements that are made for that access, set forth principally in paragraph 4 of the memorandum of understanding, have been the subject of some understanding and, regrettably, some misrepresentation.

I want to make clear that those arrangements are entirely satisfactory to me and the organization that I lead. They will give us access to the presidential sites in Iraq, which have now been described accurately as a consequence of the work of the UN mapping team, and presented yesterday to the Security Council.

With the establishment of a special inspection group within UNSCOM, to be led by a chief inspector of UNSCOM, to which diplomatic observers will be added to insure concerns that Iraq has expressed and the council has acknowledged with respect to the particular dignity of those sites, we will be able to do our work.

I welcome very much in addition the appointment of a new commissioner of the special commission, who will have particular responsibility for the work of inspection of those sites, and who will work very closely with me.

With respect to the reporting and scientific analysis responsibilities arising out of the inspection of those sites, the analysis will be conducted by UNSCOM, and the reporting will be done from the new commissioner of UNSCOM to me, and I in the usual way to the Security Council through the secretary-general.

These lines of authority and reporting are clear, and I find them entirely satisfactory. Going beyond that, quite frankly, I find it a positive additional resource which will now be put at our disposal to enable us to do the work in those designated sites within Iraq.

So under these circumstances, I have to say to you that I am aware of some of the reports that suggest that this has weakened UNSCOM. I disagree. Some have gone further to say that it's the beginning of the end of UNSCOM. I view that much as the legendary reports of Mark Twain's death when he was still alive. He said they were somewhat exaggerated.

Now, this is a strong agreement. It's an agreement where I suggest to you you should not look so much at the fine print, although that's fine by me, but not so much at the fine print, but the thumbprint. The thumbprint—prints—on this agreement are those of the secretary-general of the United Nations and the president of Iraq, with whom he consulted personally on this agreement.

I look forward to implementing it as soon as possible, and, as many have said, to going out into the field and to testing in practice what is written on paper. I earnestly hope that Iraq will give as the full cooperation that it has pledged to give in this agreement, and under those circumstances, I hope that we would be able to complete the disarmament portion of our work in Iraq and put all of what remains under long-term monitoring in a relatively short time.

Now Fred, I must just quickly divert to a report from Baghdad in which a UN official in Baghdad made some remarks about the conduct of our Chilean staff—that is, the helicopter crews provided to us by Chile. I just want to say that I regret those remarks. They were an unauthorized statement for which—which was not in fact—which was not factual. I have, in fact, received within this house an apology for those remarks. I didn't require that it was made, and I gratefully received it.

The main point I would want to make to you in addition to saying that those remarks, which you may have seen, but I felt the need to address is that they are not factual. What is factual is that the work that is done for us by the 40 Chilean air force personnel who fly our helicopters is simply outstanding.

They are diligent and courageous young men. They're indispensable to the work we do in Iraq. And I want to reiterate my deep gratitude to the government of Chile for continuing to make those persons available to us.

Thank you.

REMARKS BY GENERAL DONALD S. DAWSON CELEBRATING THE 75TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, the United States Army Reserve is celebrating its 90th anniversary this year, and for almost the past century, this force has repeatedly made important and significant contributions to the defense of the Nation, both in times of peace and war. The men and women who comprise the citizen-soldiers of the Army Reserve, and all our reserve forces, can take great pride in the tradition of service and excellence they have established from the wooded battlefields of World War II to the sands of the Persian Gulf.

One organization that has worked tirelessly to promote not only the Reserve forces of all the services, but the security of the United States is the Reserve Officers Association. Located just across the street from the United States Capitol, this association has been one of the leading advocates for an effective and responsible national security policy for the past three-quarters of a century.

Last year, the Reserve Officers Association celebrated their 75th birthday and one of its past National Presidents, Major General Donald S. Dawson (USAF Retired), who served as the Chairman of the Chairman of the Anniversary Committee, made an address that I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the RECORD. General Dawson personifies the type of individual who chooses to serve our Nation through the military and I think my colleagues would find his remarks of interest and inspiring.

There being no objection, the remarks were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

ADDRESS OF DONALD S. DAWSON, MAJOR GENERAL USAF (RETIRED), CHAIRMAN OF THE 75TH ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE, RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION AT THE UNVEILING OF THE HISTORICAL PLAQUE COMMEMORATING ITS FOUNDING AT THE WILLARD HOTEL, OCTOBER 2, 1997

My fellow Americans, welcome! We are here today because the Congress of the USA, in its wisdom, passed the Reserve Act in 1920, establishing a two million Reserve Force, led by a 200,000 officer Reserve Corps, based on the experience of World War I and the centuries of experience before that gave us a trained, equipped, and experienced hard core military force, ready to respond and serve at a moment's notice when the need arises.

George Washington, a century and a quarter before, proclaimed, "To be prepared for war is the surest way to insure the peace," and, accompanying that policy, he said, "Every citizen of a free government owes his services, and a proportion of his property to defense of it."

Just 75 years ago today, General of the Armies, John J. Pershing hosted a luncheon for 140 Reserve officers of World War I in this very historic and beautiful Willard Hotel—at which he proposed the formation of an association of Reserve Officers that would give our country an equipped, organized, trained military force ready to insure our country's security.

General Pershing said at that meeting, "I consider this gathering one of the most important, from a military point of view, that has assembled in Washington or anywhere else within my time."

General Pershing further realized that, while he had Congressional legislation, implementation would be the key to success and he knew that the only way this civilian force could be recruited was with broad-based citizen support—since it depended entirely upon patriotism and the voluntary will of the people to participate.

Let us look at his foresight.

In December 1940, one year before our entry in World War II, General George C. Marshall commented about this Reserve Force, "In contrast with the hectic days of 1917, when the War Department, with no adequate reservoir of officers to draw upon, had hurried to select and train the great number of officers required for the vast expansion of the Army, we now have available in the Officers Reserve Corps, a great pool of trained men available for instant service."

"Today, almost 60 percent of the officers on duty with regular Army units in the field are from the Reserve Corps, and almost 90 percent of the Lieutenants are Reserve Officers."

ROA had done its job and has continued to glorify that record in every emergency since.

Yes, we have kept our contract with America, and honored it.

Just this year our Commander in Chief, President Clinton, congratulated ROA for its steadfast adherence to supporting national security and maintaining an adequate National defense since its foundation in 1922.

179,000 Reservists met the call in Korea. They were there in Viet Nam. 166,000 in the Persian Gulf and today 5,000 are on duty in Bosnia.

Let us hereby resolve that the torch of freedom that was lit 75 years ago on this spot shall burn ever more brightly in our hands for all the years to come in defense of liberty and justice for all.

URGING CONSIDERATION OF ISTEAL LEGISLATION

Mr. INOUE. Mr. President, I rise today to urge my colleagues to begin immediate consideration of the ISTEAL reauthorization legislation. The current federal funding authorization for our nation's roads and bridges expires May 1st. If we allow this funding authority to expire, the ability of our state and local agencies to plan, design, implement, and manage transportation improvements and resources will be compromised.

This lapse in new highway funding authority will jeopardize highway projects and safety programs across our country, and will have significant effects on Hawaii.

Federal highway projects support approximately 5,816 jobs in Hawaii, and without a reauthorization of the ISTEAL legislation, those 5,816 people may lose their jobs. In addition to employment effects, an expiration of ISTEAL spending authorization will place the safety of all Hawaii's citizens at risk. More than half, 51%, of Hawaii's bridges are structurally deficient or functionally obsolete. Further, 28% of Hawaii's major roads are in poor or mediocre condition, which increases the possibility of motor vehicle crashes.

A failure to reauthorize this transportation spending authority will only increase the cost Hawaii's motorists currently pay due to poor road conditions. Each Hawaii motorist pays an additional $102 each year in extra vehicle repairs and operating costs caused by driving on roads in need of repair. Furthermore, 45% of Hawaii's urban freeways are congested, which costs Hawaii's motorists in wasted time and fuel.

The effects of our failure to reauthorize the ISTEAL legislation will be felt not only in Hawaii, but also in every state in the nation by every citizen of our nation. Every single citizen benefits from our transportation infrastructure every day. Even if you do not drive you benefit from our transportation system through the products you consume that were transported via our roads and highways. The development of our transportation infrastructure helped fuel the development of our nation. We must not let it fall into disrepair.

There may be concerns that the proposed ISTEAL legislation is not the best way to meet our country's transportation needs. We must allow ourselves ample time to debate and consider all the issues surrounding ISTEAL reauthorization, so that we may pass the most effective legislation. We must bring this legislation to the floor now.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

INTERMODAL SURFACE TRANSPORTATION EFFICIENCY ACT OF 1998

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I see that the distinguished chairman of the committee that has jurisdiction over the surface transportation bill is in the Chamber. I believe that the ranking member is on his way. In fact, I see he has just arrived in the Chamber.

So, I now move to proceed to S. 1173, the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1997.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 1173) to authorize funds for construction of highways, for highway safety programs, and for mass transit programs, and for other purposes.

The Senate resumed consideration of the bill.

Pending:

Chafee/Warner amendment No. 1312, to provide for a continuing designation of a metropolitan planning organization.

Chafee/Warner amendment No. 1313 (to language proposed to be stricken by the committee amendment, as modified), of a perfecting nature.

Chafee/Warner amendment No. 1314 (to amendment No. 1313), of a perfecting nature.

Motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Environment and Public Works, with instructions.

Lott amendment No. 1317 (to instructions of the motion to recommit), to authorize funds for construction of highways, for highway safety programs, and for mass transit programs.

Lott amendment No. 1318 (to amendment No. 1317), to strike the limitation on obligations for administrative expenses.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that it not be in order to offer any amendments relative to funding or financing prior to the Senate resuming consideration of the bill on Wednesday, March 4, 1998.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I would like to state at this point that I did consult with the leaders of the committee and with the Democratic leader about this issue. There are still discussions underway with regard to funding, whether or not some additional funds would be available, and how much.

There will be meetings occurring on that, I am sure, later on this afternoon, tonight, and over the weekend. But there are a number of amendments that are pending to this bill that we can go ahead and take up that would take some time for debate and be considered and have debate and vote. It is my hope that we can get our colleagues to come on to the floor, offer amendments, and, hopefully, we could even have some amendments disposed of this afternoon.

I have indicated to the Democratic leader that we have to expect votes on Monday and Friday in March, because we have not only this very important bill but a number of other important bills. We are just going to have to start having votes in order to complete this very ambitious agenda.

Does the Senator wish me to yield?

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I thank the majority leader. I think he just clarified it. I just came from our Policy Committee luncheon. The question was asked about votes tomorrow. I assured them it was the majority leader's expectation that there would be votes, and I think he just confirmed that it is his expectation that we will see votes on Friday. At what point could we expect to see votes on Monday?

Mr. LOTT. I think we would honor our previous understanding that we would stack votes, if any were available, for 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. But, again, we will consult and have some further announcement on this after we get a better feel of how it is going to go later on today or before we go out for the week.

Mr. President, I further ask unanimous consent that it be in order for me to withdraw all amendments and the pending motion pending to S. 1173, except the pending committee amendment, and it be further modified to be in the form of a complete substitute subject to further amendments.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDMENTS NOS. 1312, 1313, 1314, 1317, 1318, AND MOTION TO RECOMMIT WITHDRAWN

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, therefore, I withdraw amendments numbered 1312, 1313, 1314, 1317, and 1318 and the motion to recommit.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, again, what we are doing here, without going back and touching on last year's history—I do not want you to recall that—we did have some amendments that had been added to the tree, so to speak. We are withdrawing all of these now. We have the substitute bill out of committee. It is ready for amendments, and Senators will be able to come and offer their amendments, and we will have debate and vote.

AMENDMENT NO. 1676.

(Purpose: To provide a substitute)

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, so, on behalf of the chairman, I further modify the committee amendment to reflect
