

GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY: A NATIONAL DAY OF CELEBRATION

SPEECH OF

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 25, 1998

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, it is a distinct privilege and honor to congratulate the people of Greece on the 177th anniversary of their nation's independence. The Hellenic Republic has held high the torch of democracy since its inception in 1821, reflecting a love of freedom, justice, and self-government rooted both in its renowned history as well as in the exuberant spirit of its people. The ancient Greeks served as one of America's most inspiring examples during the creation of our Republic, and more recently has stood by our side as one of our closest and most loyal allies.

The governments of ancient Greece were the original laboratories of democratic government. Thousands of years ahead of their time, the leaders of these legendary city-states were powered by the then-revolutionary notion that the choices of individual voters could result in a fair, free, democratic government emboldened by the confidence of the populace and driven by the interests of its constituents. Centuries later, the lessons of their civic experiments would provide the intellectual foundation for the birth of America's own democracy. "To the ancient Greeks," Thomas Jefferson once proclaimed, "we are all indebted for the light which led ourselves, the American colonies, out of Gothic darkness."

Forty-five years after the birth of the United States, the Greek people determined to fight to end their own "darkness." Following both the examples of their forefathers and the encouragement of their American contemporaries, the Greeks rebelled against hundreds of years of domination by the Ottoman Empire. Their war of independence, which began on March 25, 1821, lasted seven years and received the full support of the young American nation. President James Monroe described the Greek struggle in 1822: "That such a country should have been overwhelmed and so long hidden under a gloomy despotism has been a cause of unceasing and deep regret. A strong hope is entertained that these people will recover their independence and resume their equal station among the nations of the Earth." Six years later this battle for freedom ended victoriously, as the Greek people overcame seemingly insuperable odds to establish a modern state with the intellectual and moral strength to match their ancient predecessors.

The record of the Hellenic Republic shows the realization of this early promise. Greece has stood on the front lines of the fight for international justice as one of only three nations in the world outside of the British Empire to serve on the side of the United States in every major international conflict of this century. One out of every nine Greeks died while defending their country against Nazi oppression during World War II. During the half-century since that brutal conflict, a strong and principled Greece has worked with the United States as member of NATO, standing firm against communism and, in more recent times, the abridgement of human rights in the Balkans and elsewhere throughout the world. Throughout all of these obstacles, Greece's dedication to democratic principles has remained steadfast and proud.

Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Hellenic Caucus and on behalf of the citizens of California's Twelfth Congressional District, I am proud to commemorate the 177th anniversary of Greek Independence Day.

IN HONOR OF THE 100TH BIRTHDAY OF THE MARIA JEFFERSON CHAPTER OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

HON. TILLIE K. FOWLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Mrs. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased today to offer my congratulations to the Maria Jefferson Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on celebrating 100 years of service to northeast Florida.

The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution was founded in Washington, DC in October of 1890 with Caroline Scott Harrison, the wife of U.S. President Benjamin Harrison, as its first president. Just eight years later, on March 26, 1898, Saint Augustine, Florida became home to the Maria Jefferson Chapter of the DAR, named for the daughter of President Thomas Jefferson. I am proud to represent Saint Augustine, the nation's oldest city of European extraction, and proud to call many of the Chapter's members my constituents and friends. The Florida State Society of the DAR boasts 106 chapters with over 8,000 members.

Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution are descendants of those who aided in achieving American Independence. The National Society accepts service, with some exceptions, for the period between April 19, 1775 (Battle of Lexington) and November 26, 1783 (withdrawal of British Troops from New York). Among those ancestors with accepted service are signers of the Declaration of Independence, those with military service and those whose ancestors gave patriotic service in the Continental Congress, State Conventions and Assemblies, committees made necessary by the war, members of the Boston Tea Party, doctors and nurses and other rendering aid to the wounded and prisoners of war or refugees from occupying forces.

Those of us who have been to the DAR Constitution Hall, here in Washington, DC, have enjoyed the building's beauty and grandeur, courtesy of the devoted members of the DAR. However, because of the selfless way in which the members perform their community service, most of us have never heard what the DAR usually does on a daily basis. Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution are dedicated to the lofty goals of honoring our nation's historic forebears, preserving our nation's heritage and promoting education.

The members of the DAR not only honor their ancestors who have served our country, they themselves serve its citizens by visiting disabled veterans at their homes, in hospitals and in nursing homes. They sold recreational activities for patients such as carnivals and picnics and participate in special programs for homeless veterans such as medical and social screening and providing buddy bags. Some chapters give special support to needy, individual women veterans and participate in special women's health care programs. This year, five chapters in Florida are raising special funds towards the purchase of a van to transport veterans between medical appointments.

The DAR works with schools to help instill historical awareness and pride in our country by presenting medals and college scholarships and provide boarding schools for underprivileged children. DAR members also present American flags to schools and other public institutions and sponsor historic plaques.

I am thrilled to be able to use this opportunity to call attention to the work of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Saint Augustine's Maria Jefferson Chapter and the Chapter's regent Jane Rhea Douglas for their selfless and important work on behalf of our nation's veterans both past and present.

Congratulations Maria Jefferson Chapter on your 100th birthday. I send to you my sincere wishes that the new millennium may hold in store many more years of commendable service to our community.

CURBING UNAPPROVED UNION SPENDING

HON. RON PACKARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, last week the AFL-CIO announced that it would launch a campaign against California Proposition 226, the June 2 referendum that suspends labor unions' incessant practice of contributing portions of dues to political campaigns that their members may oppose. This initiative and others like it in states across the country require unions to receive approval from union members before contributing dues money to political entities.

Labor organizations feel that their role in the political arena would suffer if they were forced to tell the truth about union dues. Mr. Speaker, the issue here pertains to individuals' hard-earned wages, not the unions ability to influence government. Working Americans must be assured of their right to decide where to spend their paychecks. The overbearing role that the forced-membership labor groups have played in the lives of dedicated men and women is appalling.

I find it unbelievable that, in a nation that guarantees liberty and justice for all, unions can force members to fund political campaigns that they do not support. Proposition 226 and similar initiatives in 30 other states would put an end to this injustice.

Mr. Speaker, we must do our part in this fight against ruthless labor unions and the obtrusive role that they have played in the lives of so many Americans. Curbing unsolicited political donations from union members is a good place to start.

EXTENDING THE VISA WAIVER
PILOT PROGRAM

SPEECH OF

HON. DANNY K. DAVIS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 25, 1998

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 2578) to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to extend the visa waiver pilot program, and to provide for the collection of data with respect to the number of nonimmigrants who remain in the United States after the expiration of the period of stay authorized by the Attorney General:

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Chairman, I rise today in support of HR 2578, a bill to extend the visa waiver pilot program till the year 2000. The current law is a good measure and is expected to red line this April 30, 1998.

I think it is important to allow tourists and business travelers from many Western European countries as well as Australia and Japan to come here for business and for pleasure. It boosts the economy and it allows people to see our great country first-hand. However, I also believe that the visa waiver pilot program should be extended to other countries, such as; Greece, Portugal, and South Korea. Thus, I support the Pombo-Frank-Kennedy-Pappas amendment.

Furthermore, this amendment supports an increase in the visa refusal rate from 2% to 3% in order to support other countries taking part in the tourist visa waiver program. However, I would like to mention that the refusal rate process is in need of new measures in deciding who receives a visa waiver.

I cannot tell you how many letters I write every single day to U.S. Embassies abroad, asking them to reconsider their visa denials of my constituents. In many cases, there is no solid basis for the denial, rather it is a class issue. They want to make sure that those individuals traveling abroad are leaving behind property, bank accounts, jobs, etc. If not, often times their visas are denied. Are these people not coming here to visit family and friends? Are these people not going to visit our country and spend money—will this not boost the economy? We cannot deny visas to those individuals wanting to come to this country at face value. What substantive basis does this derive from?

Mr. Speaker, for the aforementioned reasons, I rise in support of the bill coupled with the Pombo-Frank-Kennedy-Pappas Amendment.

RECOGNIZING PAUL SAUERLAND

HON. MICHAEL PAPPAS

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Mr. PAPPAS. Mr. Speaker, on Friday, March 27, 1998 the Hunterdon County YMCA will recognize Paul C. Sauerland, Jr. as its Man of the Year with its 1998 Lend-A-Hand-to-Youth-Award.

Paul's longtime and wide ranging service to the community, county and state have earned him this well deserved recognition.

Since 1991, Paul has served as a Freeholder in Hunterdon County, New Jersey. His service to the county though began a long time before his first election to the Freeholder Board. He has been actively involved in numerous county boards, councils, and committees ranging in issues from transportation, housing, planning, human services, to health care.

Beyond the service that Paul has given to his local and county government, he has also served his state and country through his service of over thirty years as a member of National Guard.

Mr. Speaker, Paul has also been dedicated to serving the youth of his area. Through the many roles and positions that he has held in the local chapters of the Boy and Girl Scouts, he has helped to educate the youth of his community and instill in them a sense of community service and awareness. He has given of his time and knowledge so that young people have a greater opportunity of learning the values and skills that are needed to succeed. The participants of these programs represent the future leaders of our communities, state and country. Paul should be commended for his valuable contribution to our future.

I would like to congratulate Paul on this award. His service to the community is one that we are able to share in.

IN HONOR OF THE STRONGSVILLE
RECREATION AND SENIOR COM-PLEXHON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 26, 1998

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to announce the opening of the Strongsville Recreation and Senior Center, a state-of-the-art facility with something for everyone in Strongsville, Ohio.

After nearly a decade of planning and construction, the 157,000 square foot facility opening this month will provide a variety of health, fitness, leisure, and cultural activities to everyone in the community. The residents of Strongsville expressed their collective need for such a complex when they approved a one-half percent increase in the city income tax in 1993 to fund construction. Now, they no longer have to leave their community to participate in fitness classes, or senior programs.

The Complex promises to be a popular place for fitness enthusiasts who will enjoy the swimming pool, gymnasium, cardio-conditioning area and strength training center. Young people from the community can entertain themselves in the game area playing pool, air hockey and video games. Parents will appreciate the child care services offered. Seniors will gather for craft classes, socializing, and the wellness clinic. In short, the health and quality of life for everyone in Strongsville will improve greatly with the opening of this Complex.

My fellow colleagues, please join me in recognizing dedication of the residents of Strongsville to building largest Recreation and Senior Complex in Ohio, and in congratulating Strongsville mayor Walter Ehrnfelt and the city council for their contributions to improving the quality of life in their fine city.

RECREATION, SENIOR COMPLEX TO BENEFIT
ENTIRE COMMUNITY

After nearly a decade of planning, discussions and actual construction, the new Strongsville Recreation and Senior Complex will open this month, providing the community with a state-of-the-art facility with 21st Century amenities for everyone who lives or works full time in the City of Strongsville.

The unique 157,000-square-foot facility, which is the largest of its kind in the State of Ohio, is dedicated to improving the quality of life in Strongsville by providing a wide variety of leisure and cultural activities, special events, facilities and services that encourage health, fitness, relaxation, enjoyment, cultural enrichment and learning, as well as providing opportunities for community involvement.

As Mayor Walter F. Ehrnfelt points out, the center is family-oriented and offers something for everyone.

"This recreation and senior complex is designed to satisfy the needs of seniors, of young people and of everyone else so that we can all enjoy a greater quality of life within the City of Strongsville," the mayor said, adding:

"We do not have to leave our home (community) for physical fitness classes, senior programs, health care services and even a food program. This facility covers the spectrum for all generations in Strongsville now and in the future."

Planning for the center actually started back in 1989 when a committee of various individuals in the community studied and identified the recreational needs of the city.

Committee members and city officials worked with numerous architects and engineering firms with extensive experience in building recreation centers and sports complexes to determine what was needed to make a great recreation/senior facility.

The project moved closer to reality in 1993 when the city's voters approved a one-half percent increase in the city income tax.

"City Council financed the complex out of the general fund with money generated from the additional income tax which was provided by businesses through jobs within the city," the mayor said.

"We now have the finest recreation/senior facility in the State of Ohio and perhaps in the country for a reasonable charge."

Membership packages are available at special rates for city residents and for anyone who works full time for a business located in the city.

Mayor Ehrnfelt said the city is asking for nominal membership fees to offset the cost of operating the facility, which is estimated at $1.8 million per year.

In a letter of invitation to the community, the mayor said, "The completion of the new Strongsville Recreation and Senior Complex brings our residents a facility that compares to no other in the State of Ohio. This facility is another great step for Strongsville's future and continues in providing the very best for all citizens."

"Please take the time to visit and become a member and use the facility to the maximum to improve and maintain your health and quality of life. Remember to use the facility. . . . Just for the 'Fun of it.'"

RECREATION CENTER

Central attraction in the recreation area is the Aquatics Center which features an eight-lane, 25-yard-long competition pool with three diving boards and a bleacher seating area for approximately 500 spectators.

Another highlight of the center is the activity pool with zero depth entry, a circular water slide and even a pirate's ship with a water cannon. The aquatics area also has steam and sauna rooms and an 18-person whirlpool.
