Canady	Herger	Moran (VA)	The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.
Cannon	Hill	Morella	PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE—EX-PRESSING DISAPPROVAL OF CONDUCT OF COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM AND OVERSIGHT'S INVESTIGATION BY REPRESENTATIVE BURTON
Capps	Hilleary	Murtha	Mr. GEPHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of the privileges of the House, and I send to the desk a privileged resolution (H. Res. 431), pursuant to clause 2 of rule IX, and ask for its immediate consideration.
Cardin	Hilliard	Nadler	The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:
Carson	Hinches	Neal	H. RES. 431
Castle	Hinojosa	Nethercutt	Whereas the Supreme Court of the United States has noted that, although the power to conduct investigations is inherent in the legislative process, that power is not unlimited, may be exercised only in aid of the legislative function, and cannot be used to expose for the sake of exposure alone;
Chabot	Hobson	Neumann	Whereas the Supreme Court of the United States has further noted that the investigative power of Congress contains "no general authority to expose the private affairs of individuals without justification in terms of the functions of Congress";
Chambliss	Hoekstra	Ney	Whereas Representative Burton is the only member in the history of the House of Rep-
Chenoweth	Holden	Northup	representatives who has had the power to unilaterally issue subpoenas and the power to disclose information obtained therefrom, and has abused these powers;
Clay	Hoooley	Nussle	Whereas the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct has determined that it is improper to alter a House document if such alteration changes the meaning or extensively modifies the document;
Clayton	Horn	Oberstar	Whereas the Speaker of the House of Representatives has correctly and steadfastly called for adherence to the Rule of Law and emphasized that no man is above the law;
Clement	Hostettler	Obey	Whereas those upon whom the House of Representatives has bestowed its Constitutional power to investigate must abide by the Rule of Law, and must exercise the investigative power fairly and judiciously and in a manner that will preserve the dignity of the House and reflect credit thereon.
Clyburn	Houghton	Olver	Whereas the Rules of the House of Representatives provide that documents and other materials obtained pursuant to a Committee subpoena are records of the Committee that may not be publicly disclosed by a chairman without authorization by the Committee;
Coble	Hulshof	Ortiz	Whereas the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight has adopted procedures governing the public disclosure of documents and other materials obtained pursuant to a Committee subpoena;
Coburn	Hunter	Owens	Whereas pursuant to a Committee subpoena, Representative Burton obtained from the Department of Justice tape recordings of the telephone conversations engaged in by Webster Hubbell while in prison;
Collins	Hutchinson	Oxley	Whereas the Department of Justice advised Representative Burton of his responsibility to pay special regard to the sensitive nature of the tape recordings, which recordings the Department of Justice could not lawfully disclose to the public;
Combest	Hyde	Packard	Whereas Representative Burton intentionally violated the Rules of the House of Representatives and the procedures of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight and displayed an utter disregard for both the privacy rights of those involved and the ability of the Bureau of Prisons to perform its functions effectively by publicly disclosing the tape recordings and transcripts of telephone conversations between Webster Hubbell and his wife, other family members, friends, and attorneys;
Condit	Inglis	Pallone	Whereas the transcripts publicly disclosed by Representative Burton in violation of the Rules of the House of Representatives and the procedures of the Committee had been altered and selectively edited so as to mislead Members of the House of Representatives and the public, distort the public record; impair the ability of the House of Representatives to perform its legislative and oversight functions, and violate the integrity of Committee proceedings.
Cook	Istook	Pappas	Whereas the materials publicly disclosed by Representative Burton in violation of the Rules of the House of Representative and the procedures of the Committee contained conversations between a husband and wife pertaining to family, personal, medical, and marital problems;
Cooksey	Jackson (IL)	Parker	Whereas, through these actions, his failure to abide by the Rule of Law, and his consistent abuse of the investigative powers of the House of Representatives, Representative Burton has brought discredit upon the House of Representatives: Now, therefore, be it
Costello	Jackson-Lee (TX)	Pascarell	Resolved , That the House of Representatives disapproves of the manner in which Representative Burton has conducted the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight's investigation of political fundraising improprieties and possible violations of law.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. NEY). The Chair will recognize five

Members from each side for the purpose of 1-minute speeches.

WHITE HOUSE WOULD RESERVE PRIVACY RIGHTS FOR CRIMINALS AND NOT THE INNOCENT

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, we have just gone through an exercise talking about the rule of law. The White House has recently become remarkably solicitous of the privacy rights of convicted felons.

While the coddling of criminals is nothing new for liberals, what is new is the idea that the White House cares about privacy rights for the law-abiding.

I ask the White House, what about the privacy rights of the 900 Republicans whose FBI files ended up in the hands of political operatives in the White House?

What about the privacy rights of Billy Dale and the other Travel Office employees? Rights which were trampled upon by the IRS and the FBI in a despicable smear campaign.

In this strange new world, privacy rights are reserved for convicted criminals and denied to the innocent.

Mr. Speaker, this entire episode is a perfect example of the liberal mindset when it comes to crime: Misplaced priorities, double standards, and always, always, always, preference for the rights of criminals over the rights of the law-abiding.

TIME IS NOW TO END U.S. SUPPORT FOR SUHARTO DICTATORSHIP

(Mr. SANDERS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SANDERS. Mr. Speaker, the time is now to end U.S. support for the Suharto dictatorship in Indonesia and to help that country move for democracy.

General Suharto is a dictator who has been in office for over 30 years and during that period has committed horrendous atrocities. Today his political opponents are in jail, they are being tortured, they are being kidnapped by the secret police.

Just the other day, six unarmed student protesters were shot down in cold blood. General Suharto is known not only for his brutality but for his corruption and greed. In a country where the average income is less than $20 a week, his family has amassed a fortune of over $30 billion.

Mr. Speaker, if the brave students of Indonesia are prepared to put their lives on the line to end the Suharto dictatorship, how can we ignore their cries for freedom? Let us end our support for Suharto now.
