Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to the order of the House of today, I call up the conference report on the bill (H.R. 4059) making appropriations for military construction, family housing, and base realignment and closure for the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1999, and for other purposes, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the order of the House of today, the conference report is considered read.

(For conference report and statement, see proceedings of the House of July 24, 1998 at page H6427.)

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from California (Mr. PACKARD) and the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. HEFNER) each will control 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. PACKARD).

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I would advise the Members of the House that we do not expect this to take more than just a few moments.

Less than a month ago, we voted on the floor of the House on this bill, H.R. 4059, and it passed 396 to 10. No controversy came out of the conference. It was a very amicable and successful conference.

Mr. Speaker, this conference report calls for an 8 percent decrease in funding from last year's appropriated level. It was a successful conference. We came to an agreeable compromise between the Senate version of the bill and the House version.

Mr. Speaker, I simply want to thank the members of my subcommittee and the staff that has helped craft this conference report.

Mr. Speaker, I submit the following for inclusion in the RECORD:

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. HEFNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, first of all I would like to congratulate the gentleman from California (Chairman PACKARD) for his work, as well as the work of the staff on the committee, which I think is one of the staffs that is most responsive to the needs of the members on the Committee on Appropriations.

This is a good bill. We did the very best that we could with very limited funds, and we targeted it toward quality of life for our men and women in the Armed Forces. I would urge everyone to support this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the conference agreement for the FY 1999 Military Construction bill.

I also want to thank the Subcommittee Chairman, Mr. PACKARD, for his hard work as well as the bipartisan spirit he has encouraged among the members of this committee.

The bill provides $8.4 billion for military construction, family housing, and the last two rounds of base closings.

Although members recognize the importance of this bill in meeting the needs of the men and women that serve us in the military, this bill is $734 million dollars below last years level. I can't say that I am happy to see funding for this important bill drop like this.

Within the allocations, though, this is a good agreement that responds to the highest priority needs of our service men and women.

Of course, I am very proud of the years of service that I have given this subcommittee. It used to be easy to forget the folks that serve us in the military, and we have changed that.

The past few years, though, the numbers keep getting lower and lower. It worries me.

Giving our men and women in the military a decent place to live and work is not just one of the keys to military readiness and retention, it is also a basic responsibility we all shoulder.

I urge all members to support the conference agreement.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, let me conclude by simply saying this is the last conference report for the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. HEFNER) and we want to thank him with a round of applause.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. HEFNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY).

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, I will not take the 2 minutes. I simply want to, on this side of the aisle, express our congratulations to the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. HEFNER) for the wonderful service he has provided this institution.

He has worked for as long as he has been here for decent working conditions and decent living conditions for our American servicemen and service-women, and I think this institution owes him a debt of gratitude for the work he has done on behalf of all of them.

Mr. HEFNER. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, we have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the conference report.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the conference report.
