

GLENN has worked to ensure that the United States military remained ready and strong in the perilous aftermath of the cold war.

He has shared a concern over the dangers of chemical weapons. He has joined with others of us in attempting to ensure that our military has absorbed the lessons of the gulf war and is prepared to protect our troops from low levels of chemical weapons.

On these two committees, Senator GLENN has served as a voice of reason and common sense.

Senator GLENN is a hero for all of us to emulate as a result of his honor and dedication to his country, his family, and his own high standards.

I have asked this question in the Senate before: "Where have all the heroes gone?"

To this question I have no definitive answer, but I do know where this hero is going to go . . . again.

Senator JOHN GLENN is a steam engine in britches; he is atomic energy in the flesh.

The senior Senator from Ohio has been a daredevil virtually all of his life.

Not one to know when to slow down, Senator GLENN has risked life and limb, both on the Earth's surface and in the vastness of space which encompasses it, for one thing, and one thing only—the United States of America.

JOHN GLENN has been uniquely blessed to have had the opportunity to soar above this Earth of ours, soar like an eagle, surveying the beauty of creation that is God's Green Earth.

To quote William Shakespeare in "twelfth night,"

Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them.

Senator GLENN is one who has achieved greatness through his service to his country; he is truly a great American hero.

Not only a veteran of World War II, having served in combat in the South Pacific after he was commissioned in the Marine Corps in 1943, JOHN GLENN is also a veteran of the Korean war.

Having survived 149 combat missions as a marine, our hero—our hero, my hero, your hero—our hero wanted to move on to a more challenging career as a test pilot of fighter and attack aircraft for the Navy and Marine Corps. And then, looking for new and extreme ways to test his mortality, on February 20, 1962, Astronaut JOHN GLENN gently squeezed his body into the Friendship 7 rocket and became the first American to orbit the Earth at almost 18,000 miles per hour.

Think of that. When I was young, I read a book by Jules Verne titled, "Around the World in 80 Days." JOHN GLENN went around the world in 89 minutes.

This may well have been the pinnacle of JOHN GLENN's life and career.

On that fateful Tuesday in 1962, not only was America waiting with nervously clenched fists for news on Lt.

Col. JOHN GLENN's condition after his return to Earth, but the whole world was watching.

People from all nations prayed for the safe return of this brave man.

Mr. President, I quote from an article entitled "Man's 'Finest Hour.'" I have been saving this article, now, for almost 37 years—"Man's 'Finest Hour,'" by the late David Lawrence, which was originally published in the March 5, 1962, edition of U.S. News & World Report:

Miracles do happen when the world shows its humility in prayer.

The voices that besought Almighty God to save the life of Colonel Glenn can speak again, as even more of us petition him to save humanity from nuclear war.

For those prolonged minutes of prayer on Tuesday, Feb. 20, constituted man's "finest hour".

Now, if the Good Lord is willing, on October 29, our friend and colleague—and hero—JOHN GLENN, still brimming with vital energy, will be leaving the relative comfort of Mother Earth far behind.

It is always a melancholy time when the institution of the United States Senate has one of its finest Members move on. But it is a glad time when one of its Members moves on to something greater.

"Excelsior, ever upward." That is the motto of JOHN GLENN. He has bigger fish to fry, so he is ready to get away from Washington, DC—far, far away.

Senator GLENN's return to space aboard shuttle Discovery will add another significant page to the annals of history.

The capacity in which Senator GLENN will be operating on the Discovery is representative of the way in which he had lived the last three decades of his life, despite his global fame—modestly and without great fanfare.

I am certain that he will perform his mission on Discovery with the same diligence and sense of duty that he has shown in serving his great State of Ohio in the United States Senate.

The world in 1998 is a lot different from that world of 1962, when JOHN GLENN was first catapulted into space. Similarly, the space shuttle Discovery is about as close in design to the Friendship 7 rocket as an old Oliver typewriter—I was trying to remember the name of an old typewriter I had around the house when I was a boy—about as close in design to the Friendship 7 rocket as an old Oliver typewriter is to a home computer.

The one thing that shall remain constant in this most recent launch is that the world will once again be watching, gripping chairs, biting fingernails, and saying its prayers for the Glenn family. For JOHN GLENN, and for all the crew members of Discovery, and for Annie, that sweet little wife of JOHNS.

It is hard to relate, to those Americans who were not yet born in 1962, the thoughts and emotions of the world on Tuesday, February 20, of that year.

Technology has become so advanced that flights into space are routine.

Men and women are able to live for months at a time in floating space stations.

America tends to take for granted the risks that our Nation's astronauts take to perform scientific experiments, carefully placing communications satellites into orbit, and repairing important instruments of observation—all of which make life on Earth much more enjoyable.

In 1962, the risks were greater and there were many unknown factors that experience has now brought to light and revealed and smoothed over.

Senator GLENN's return to space brings that all back, and reminds us of the tremendous changes wrought by Americans within the career of one man.

So, this evening I take this opportunity to wish the best of luck to JOHN GLENN and to Annie and to others of his family.

I anxiously anticipate Discovery's safe return to Earth, and I extend my best wishes, and those of my wife Erma, to Senator GLENN and to Annie for many years of health and happiness after he returns to Earth and leaves the Halls of the Capitol behind.

Thank you, thank you, thank you, Senator GLENN.

Mr. President, I yield the floor and I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. SESSIONS). The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

TRIBUTE TO SENATOR DIRK KEMPTHORNE

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, it is almost kind of sad in a way to think that DIRK KEMPTHORNE will be leaving the Senate after only one term in the U.S. Senate. It has been a pleasure to work with DIRK, to be with him, to get to know him, to get to know his family, his wife Pat. But I will just say DIRK KEMPTHORNE is a Senator's Senator. He is a person who comes from the great State of Idaho.

He brought a great deal of, I must say, refreshing energy to the Senate. He served as mayor of Boise City for 7 years. He was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1992 and proved something unconventional: He could get a lot done in his first term in the Senate. Most people have the idea you have to be in the Senate a long time before you can get anything accomplished, but he proved quite the opposite.

He proved to be a very effective legislator. He proved to be a person who could work on both sides of the aisle, that he could work with Democrats and Republicans and make things happen.

He was the principal sponsor of a bill that most of us have claimed some part to, the unfunded mandates bill that President Clinton signed and it became law. It was strongly supported by States, Governors, mayors and commissioners and others who said, "Let's quit passing unfunded mandates on to the States, cities and counties."

He has been instrumental in leading the fight in needed reform in the Endangered Species Act. He has been a tireless worker on the Armed Services Committee.

He has always kept his priorities straight. His family has always been first and foremost. His love for his State is very evident.

Now he will return to the State of Idaho. He is running for Governor. I am very confident he will be elected Governor, and I am quite confident he will be one of the outstanding Governors in the country. I appreciate his service and his friendship. He has been an outstanding Senator. I hate to see him leave the U.S. Senate, but I do wish him, his wife and his family best wishes as he leaves the Senate and returns to his State and continues his public service in a different capacity, and that will be as Governor of the great State of Idaho.

TRIBUTE TO SENATOR DAN COATS

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I also wish to pay my compliments and accolades to Senator DAN COATS of Indiana. I have had the pleasure of knowing DAN COATS. He actually was elected to the House of Representatives in 1980, the same year I was elected to serve in the U.S. Senate. He had something unusual happen.

When Dan Quayle was selected as Vice President and elected in 1988, DAN COATS was appointed to take his place in 1988.

That almost sounds like it was easy, but it turned out he had to run for reelection in 1990; and he won. But that was only for a partial term, and so he also had to run for reelection in 1992. So he had the unenviable task of having really challenging races both in 1990 and in 1992 for the U.S. Senate. He won both, and deservedly so, because he has been an outstanding U.S. Senator.

I remember Dan Quayle telling me, "You're really going to like DAN COATS." Dan Quayle and I were good friends. And DAN COATS and I have become very good friends. And he was exactly right. DAN COATS and his wife, Marcia, his family, are not only good friends of our family, but I would say anybody serving in this body—anybody—whether they be on the House side or the Senate side, cannot help but like DAN and Marcia COATS. They are a couple—they are a couple—in the greatest tradition of the Senate.

His wife Marcia has been active in the Senate wives' groups and active with the prayer groups that many of our wives are involved with. They go to functions together. They are athletically involved. They both play tennis. They both play golf. They both have a good time. They keep their priorities straight. They both have a very strong belief in God and in their families, and work comes down somewhere below that.

He has done an outstanding job as a Senator for the great State of Indiana. I would say he has done an outstanding job as a Senator for all of us in America, whether it be his work on the Armed Services Committee, whether it be his tireless efforts on welfare reform in the Labor Committee, his efforts to try to reduce poverty, his efforts to alleviate suffering amongst kids.

Many of our colleagues are not aware of it, but he is national president of the Big Brothers program, which could probably be a full-time job for anybody, but he is able to do that. He has been a Big Brother. He actually was a Big Brother in a town for a youngster who did not have a dad, did not have a mentor. DAN COATS became his mentor—as a matter of fact, became his best man at his wedding.

What a great compliment for an individual who, of course, had unlimited demands on his time, was willing to take time out and serve as a Big Brother to a youngster who did not have a dad, and he did it for years. Ultimately this young man became quite a success, a success in his own right, and I think in large part because of the time and attention and love that DAN COATS gave to him. He selected DAN COATS as his best man at his wedding, which is quite a compliment.

DAN COATS was recently selected as Christian Statesman of the Year by a national organization. They had a big banquet honoring him, and it was well deserved. I have the pleasure of knowing DAN COATS in many respects. His belief in God, it is sincere, it is real. He is the embodiment of a Christian statesman. And so that award was well deserved.

He has been leader, as many of us know, of the Senate Prayer Breakfast that we have ongoing in the Senate that goes back for years and years. He has been chairman or president of that group for us for the last year or so and has done a good job—done an outstanding job in every respect.

So he is absolutely a dear friend, and I hate to see him leave the Senate. He has served now in the Senate since 1988, so only for 10 years. But he also served 8 years in the House, and before that he served a couple years in the Army. So he has given a lot of years in public service, and he deserves, I guess, a chance to do something else.

But I am confident—absolutely confident—that whatever he does will be a great service to this country. He has been a real blessing to this body. He and his wife have been a real blessing to this country. And it is with great regret that I see DAN COATS join the group of retiring Senators. But I do wish every best wish to him and his family, and I compliment them for their outstanding service to their State, to their country, to God, and to their family.

Mr. President, I yield the floor and suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

FREEDOM FROM RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION ACT OF 1998

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I believe there is still some remaining time on both sides on the international religious freedom bill. I now yield back all time remaining for tonight's debate on that bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the substitute amendment is agreed to.

The substitute amendment (No. 3789) was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading and was read the third time.

FINANCIAL SERVICES ACT OF 1998

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the clerk will report H.R. 10.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (H.R. 10) to enhance competition in the financial services industry by providing a prudential framework for the affiliation of banks, securities firms, and other financial service providers, and for other purposes.

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate is now in a period of morning business.

Mr. NICKLES addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Oklahoma.

TRIBUTE TO DOUGLASS FONTAINE

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I rise today to honor a fellow Pascagoulian and personal friend, Mr. Douglass Fontaine. Doug has devoted his life to an industry for which Mississippians are proud to be recognized—hospitality.

A third generation hotelier, Doug grew up surrounded by the hotel industry. Both Doug's parents and grandparents managed the historic Allison's Wells Spa in Way, Mississippi. He too took his turn at managing Allison's Wells after returning from Germany, where he managed an R & R hotel. He then eventually relocated to Pascagoula, and for more than 35 years has owned La Font Inn. Doug has not
