□ 1447

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

REQUIRING THE SECRETARY OF STATE TO SUBMIT AN ANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS CONCERNING DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GIBBONS). The pending business is the question of suspending the rules and passing the Senate bill, S. 759.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN) that the House suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill, S. 759.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the Senate bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. ARMEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to advise all Members of the body that we have had the last vote for today. We will continue with many items that we have under consideration, many items that are already cleared, some that we are still working on clearance for the Suspension Calendar. The negotiations continue as my colleagues know. We are optimistic that we will be able to conclude them this week.

But for now, Mr. Speaker, we will have no more recorded votes today, and Members should be advised that there will be recorded votes tomorrow after 3 o'clock. I know many Members would like to make short trips back to their district; and insofar as that is possible, we certainly do not want to discourage that. But the body should be advised there will be votes tomorrow after 3 o'clock.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ARMEY. I am happy to yield to the gentleman from Ohio.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, we have an important issue dealing with the surge of steel imports, and I had scheduled today, which is the second calendar day under House rules, to bring forth the Question of Privilege on that resolution.

I am willing to let that go if I have an understanding that the resolution that I have submitted at the desk with a number of cosponsors and coauthors from both sides, if that will be scheduled for a vote in the House tomorrow or at least before we leave here.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his inquiry. The gentleman, of course, has shown great interest in this matter, and I want to assure the gentleman, without doubt, that it will be scheduled for floor action and for a vote tomorrow before we leave.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND REPUBLIC OF ESTONIA CONCERNING FISHERIES - MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 105-323)

The Speaker pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on Resources and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

In accordance with the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976 (16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.), I transmit herewith an Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Estonia extending the Agreement of June 1, 1992, Concerning Fisheries Off the Coasts of the United States, with annex, as extended ("the 1992 Agreement"). The present Agreement, which was effected by an exchange of notes in Tallinn on March 10 and June 11, 1998, extends the 1992 Agreement to June 30, 2000.

In light of the importance of our fisheries relationship with the Republic of Estonia, I urge that the Congress give favorable consideration to this Agreement at an early date.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, October 14, 1998.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA CONCERNING FISHERIES—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 105-324)

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on Resources and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

In accordance with the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management
