

One hundred thousand new teachers. That $1 billion, I think, buys about 40,000. But keep in mind, we had to fight the battle then to make sure that we are talking about all teachers, we are talking about special ed teachers, we are talking about teachers of special needs. We are saying it all goes down to the local level. "Washington, Mr. Secretary, you don't take any money off the top. You don't send any rules and regulations out there so they have to spend most of their money filling out application forms." And then we go one step further. We say, "State, nothing off the top, no rules and regulations from you down to the local level." They know what is best. They know what is most important, the people, the parents, the children, the teachers and the administration on the local level. That is what we are all about.

ON CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. WAMP) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. WAMP. Mr. Speaker, other than the church and the family, I believe the United States Congress is the greatest institution in the world today and has been for a long time. The American people do not really know the details of what is going on up here over the last few days. They know the Congress is staying late to try to complete its work on reaching an agreement with the administration on the important budget for the next year and how we are going to spend their hard-earned tax dollars. But this afternoon on the way over here to vote, Mr. Speaker, I stopped on the lawn of the Capitol, took a deep breath of some really clean, crisp fall air on a beautiful sunny fall afternoon, looked at the glorious dome above this magnificent building and reflected a moment on what this really is all about in my heart. It is really about patriots wrestling with other patriots over their different approaches to the many challenges that we face as a people. Domestic challenges like education and drug abuse, challenges around the world militarily, economically. But it is really about good people trying to come to an agreement over issues that we share in common and challenges that we share in common. I was reminded of Winston Churchill. To paraphrase him he said, "This is the worst form of government imaginable, except for every other." What he meant is that sometimes it is difficult, sometimes it is painful, sometimes it is even messy. But it beats the heck out of everything else. It is still the way to do it, to settle our differences peacefully, without bloodshed, by freely electing our representatives and letting them be your voice through the debate, but at the end of the process come back together for the good of the greatest nation in the world and move forward. When President Reagan was in the White House, he had a Democratic Congress, they went through the same process, regardless of what you have heard. This is nothing new really. It has been going on a long time. President Clinton is now in the White House with a Republican Congress. The same thing. You have to fight it out and at the end of the day reach a compromise, come to the middle, move the process forward.

So what is the bottom line with Congress about to adjourn for the end of the 105th? The bottom line is that the Congress is getting the job done. The bottom line is that the administration is getting the job done. In a few important days, the American people have a job to do and that is to exercise their privilege to participate and to vote and to freely elect their representatives to come here and hammer out these important decisions. This is really a great place, filled with good people. I wish each and every one of them all the best as they go back to spend some well-deserved time with the people that love them the most.

OMNIBUS SPENDING BILL CONTAINS ANTIDRUG PROVISIONS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. MCCOLLUM) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. MCCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, in the big omnibus end-of-the-year bill that was agreed upon today between the White House and the Republican-controlled Congress that will be out here for a vote tomorrow are some very significant antidrug pieces of legislation. Ninety percent of the Western Hemisphere Drug Elimination Act which I authored and which was voted on overwhelmingly by this House a few weeks ago is incorporated in this bill. That means more than $2 billion of money is being authorized for more planes, more ships, more equipment, more resources necessary to fight the war on drugs and to really have a war on drugs. In addition to that, $690 million is included in what is known as an urgent supplemental appropriations bill that is included in all of this that will give us a jump start, a downpayment in this coming fiscal year for this equipment.

What is involved? Teen drug use has doubled in the United States in the last 6 years. Cocaine and heroin are more plentiful and cheaper on the streets of the United States today than ever at any time in our history. All of the cocaine is produced in three countries that comes our way, Colombia, Bolivia and Peru and more than 60 percent of the heroin is produced in Colombia that comes to the United States. Yet in the last 6 or 7 years, we have reduced the resources going to interdict these drugs coming our way to stop the supply coming here, by more than two-thirds. There is not a single plane or ship today in the eastern Pacific patrolling the waters and patrolling the air looking for drugs that are coming up from Colombia to Mexico to the United States. That is wrong. It is very dangerous. It is very bad for our kids. There are no radar planes to speak of, or maybe one for half a day once a month gets to fly in the region looking for planes that are shipping drugs either between countries or to the United States.

This legislation that is in the bill we will vote on tomorrow will provide the planes that the Customs Service desperately needs for radar and to track those drug traffickers who are moving drugs in this hemisphere and it will provide the personnel and the fuel to do that over a 3-year period of time, very critical for this purpose. It will also provide cutters and additional patrol boats to the Coast Guard and personnel and equipment they badly need. It will provide new equipment to DEA to use in the three critical countries of Colombia, Bolivia and Peru, and perhaps as important as all, it will provide the governments of Colombia, Bolivia and Peru who do want to fight drug trafficking in their country the equipment and resources essential to fighting the traffickers and the resources for crop eradication of coca and heroin poppy crops as well as for crop substitution which in some cases has been sorely lacking. These resources are absolutely essential. If we provide them and do the right thing that this legislation sets out, we have a real chance to cut the flow of drugs coming into this country by a very significant percentage in the very near future and give our efforts at treatment and prevention a chance to succeed.

I want to yield to the gentleman from Ohio who has authored the companion legislation that is in here on prevention and treatment to comment on that legislation.

Mr. PORTMAN. I really appreciate my friend from Florida yielding. I want to commend him for all the hard work he has done on this issue. He has really taken the lead on trying to curb the supply of drugs into this country which he has just said is so important. We have had a doubling of teenage drug use in the last 5 or 6 years. More and more kids are falling prey to this, ruining their lives and their dreams and even taking the lives of so many of our young people. What I am excited about in this final package we will vote on tomorrow is that we also have provisions to reduce the demand for drugs in this country. This problem I think ultimately has to be solved around the kitchen table in our homes and in our schools and in our streets.

There are a number of provisions that I like. One is new provisions to get the drugs out of our schools, to use the drug-free school money better in the workplace, the Drug Free Workplace Act that the gentleman supported which essentially gives small businesses the opportunity to get up and running drug free workplace programs that will keep people away from drugs
