TRIBUTE TO TERRIE
ARCHAMBAULT, 1998 MERRIMACK
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUSI-NESS PERSON OF THE YEAR

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Terrie Archambault of New Hampshire for being selected by the Merrimack Chamber of Commerce as the "1998 Business Person of the Year."

Terrie began working with Citizens Bank in 1990 as a part-time teller and was quickly promoted through the ranks: first to customer service representative, then to assistant manager, and in 1996 she became manager of the Merrimack branch of Citizens Bank.

Terrie has shown an unwavering dedication to her community. She oversees a program at her branch called "Bank at School." This program allows elementary school students to open new accounts, make deposits and, most importantly, learn the basics of personal banking. She organizes the collection of food and monetary donations for the Nashua Soup Kitchen and Shelter, and frequently helps serve food at the kitchen. In addition, through Operation Santa Claus at the Merrimack Lioness Club, Terrie helps provide Christmas gifts to families in need in her community.

Furthermore, Terrie's involvement with the Merrimack Chamber of Commerce has strengthened the Chamber's ties with the community. Currently serving as Secretary on the Executive Board, Terrie has secured sponsorships for several of the Chamber's events. Along with her husband Dan of 28 years, as well as her two children and four grandchildren, Terrie is a positive influence on her community.

As a former small businessman myself, I understand the hard work and dedication required for success in business. Mr. President, I wish to congratulate Terrie Archambault for all of her accomplishments, and especially for being named the "1998 Business Person of the Year." It is an honor to represent her in the United States Senate.●

TRIBUTE TO MILDRED JAMISON

● Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I rise today in recognition of Mildred Jamison for her hard work and dedication at The Faith House in North St. Louis, Missouri. The Faith House is a Child Caring/Placement Agency that is committed to helping children with special needs. Children that have been served by the Faith House include those that have been drug exposed, have HIV/AIDS, have been emotionally or sexually abused, are medically fragile (including transplant recipients and burn victims), physically and mentally challenged children, and those that are developmentally delayed. In the six years that The Faith House has contributed to the community, over 500 young lives have been changed by Ms. Jamison's vision.

I commend Ms. Jamison for her hard work and tireless dedication. I encourage communities across the nation to look to The Faith House as a model and inspiration for similar programs. It is my sincere hope that Ms. Jamison will continue to change young lives and enrich the community of North St. Louis for many years to come.●
