

FOREIGN AID SHOULD NOT BE INCREASED

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. ISAKSON). Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. JONES) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. JONES of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, if I might ask the gentleman, because, again, I took his time and I apologize, but if he would please respond and help me explain to the people in my district.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. JONES of North Carolina. I yield to the gentleman from Georgia.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, let me say to the distinguished gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. JONES), he has a genuine problem. I represent coastal Georgia and we were scared to death. I and my family and loved ones and all of my friends participated in one of the largest peacetime evacuations in the history of the country. In fact, I think it was the largest. I know what the hurricane and the floods have done to North Carolina, and I know that the gentleman does have towns that are under water. I know that hog farms have floated away, and I know that one million chickens have been drowned and there has been a huge dent in the food supply, the personal suffering of people. I understand that that damage, although no one has a real grip on it, may be as high as $2.2 billion.

Mr. JONES of North Carolina. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. KINGSTON. Yet the President wants to increase foreign aid $2.2 billion.

Those people have not paid taxes. The good people in North Carolina have paid taxes.

What are we doing? We have a flood, a major disaster in one of our own States, and it is going to be about $2 billion; but the President has chosen, instead, to veto foreign aid and wants to spend an extra $2 billion of hard-working taxpayer monies and send it to Communist countries like North Korea.

Mr. JONES of North Carolina. Mr. Speaker, I will say that the gentleman is right on target because the people of eastern North Carolina have been devastated. They keep telling me that they want this Congress, both Republicans and Democrats, to understand that the American people, when they have a need, should come first. To try to expand this foreign aid bill by $2 billion to $3 billion is unacceptable to the people of my district and the district of the gentleman from North Carolina (Mrs. CLAYTON), I can assure the gentleman.

Mr. KINGSTON. I think that it is the intention of the House that before we increase foreign aid, we want to take care of the good people of North Carolina.

Again, I want to emphasize, Mr. Speaker, we want 100 percent of the Social Security Trust Fund protected and kept for Social Security. We do not want to increase taxes and we showed that yesterday by a vote of 419 to 0, no tax increase. The only place to get the money is to reduce spending, create some savings within the existing budget so that we can distribute it fairly and evenly and use common sense as the rule of thumb.
