

founded with the purpose of helping to give young men a sense of self worth and satisfaction from knowing they can accomplish the goals they set and a sense that they are part of a winning team. Today, this organization continues to provide young men with values and experiences that cultivate discipline and a sense of responsibility; traits that they carry with them throughout their lives.

The Boy Scouts of America teaches values of community and service to our Nation. In the wake of such tragedies as Columbine and an increase in the number of reports of alienation of youngsters at school, we need only to turn to the Scout Oath as a fine example for what is right with our youth. Do my best, to do my duty, to God and my country, to obey the Scout Law, and to help other people at all times. These are solid values that youth should use to build a foundation for their lives. The Boy Scouts instill values that make our community much stronger: public service, volunteerism and good citizenship. Scouting develops both self reliance and teamwork.

From its beginning in 1911, the Boy Scouts have grown in size to more than 5 million active members in 1999. In the 90 years since their incorporation, the Boy Scouts have influenced more than 100 million boys, young men and women.

While much has changed in the past 90 years, the Boy Scouts remain committed to their founding principles. The Boy Scouts have strengthened efforts to provide value-based curriculum and character building youth programs. By providing youth with the tools to make good decisions and providing the clues to their own inner strength the Boy Scouts have imbued in their members a commitment to improving the world around them.

Recently, I was honored by the Central New Jersey Council of the Boy Scouts of America as their Good Scout Honoree of 1999. I am honored and inspired by their commitment to pursuing the best for the youth of our Country. As a former Scout and Assistant Scoutmaster, I share the values set forth in the Scout Law and Scout Oath. I see them demonstrated regularly when I attend Eagle Scout Courts of Honor in my district.

I thank the Scouters, volunteers and parents who contribute their time and energy to making the Boy Scouts of America a place that young men, and now young women, can turn for guidance, leadership and worthy life experiences.

The impact of Scouting on youth is truly a life changing experience. On this 90th Anniversary of Scouting, I wish the Boy Scouts of America continued success in the future as they strive to help build character and strengthen the communities around the country for the next generations of Americans.

THE FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY BUY AMERICAN COMPLIANCE ACT

HON. MAC COLLINS

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 8, 2000

Mr. COLLINS. Mr. Speaker, after a strong earthquake shook Northridge, CA, the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) made funds available to the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power to improve the power system's resistance to earthquakes. A $2 million contract for open air disconnect switches went to a foreign firm. That is not right. FEMA is subject to Buy American provisions, but there is a loophole once a grant is made. That loophole needs to be closed.

I have introduced legislation today which will apply the requirements of the Buy American Act to non-emergency Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) assistance payments.

As you know, the Buy American Act was designed to provide a preference to American businesses in federal procurement. Each year FEMA awards a number of grants for non-emergency projects. Currently, the Agency adheres to the requirements of the Buy American Act. However, once the Agency awards taxpayer funds to a state or local entity in the form of a grant, that entity is not required to comply with Buy American when spending those funds. I believe this needs to be changed. Mr. Speaker, the Buy American requirements should be applied whether the federal government is directly spending the money, or whether it is passing the funds down to a state or municipality to be spent.

The Buy American Act is necessary to protect American firms from the dumping of cheap foreign-made products. Many of the nations we trade with have significantly lower labor costs than the U.S. Without the safeguard provided by the Buy American Act, foreign companies are able to underbid American companies on U.S. government contracts.

It is important to understand the Buy American Act's criteria for determining whether a product is foreign or domestic. The nation where the corporation is headquartered is irrelevant, Buy American is focused upon the origin of the materials used in the construction project. In order to be considered an American product, the product in question has to fulfill these two criteria: (1) the product must be manufactured in the United States, and (2) the cost of the components manufactured in the United States must constitute over 50% of the cost of all the components used in the item.

My proposed legislation would stipulate that taxpayer funds distributed by FEMA as financial assistance could only be used for projects in which the manufactured products are American made, according to the criteria established by the Buy American Act.

Mr. Speaker, it does not make sense that FEMA should have to comply with the Buy American Act when making an expenditure, while these same funds are somehow exempt once passed down from FEMA to another government agency. If FEMA gives a grant for a project, those taxpayer funds should still be managed according to the terms of the Buy American Act.

Mr. Speaker, I introduce this legislation in order to ensure there is consistency in the law, with regard to FEMA and the provisions of the Buy American Act. I hope the members of this House will join me in support of this pro-American measure.

HON. CURT WELDON

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 8, 2000

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the efforts of Richard Hoffner-McCall. Richard is being named as one of our country's top student volunteers in the fifth annual Prudential Spirit of Community Awards for the year 2000.

The awards are presented through a partnership between The Prudential Insurance Company of America and the National Association of Secondary School Principals with the goal to honor and recognize outstanding community service by young people. All recipients receive a bronze Distinguished Finalist medallion from the Prudential Company at a ceremony in his/her hometown.

Richard Hoffner-McCall is among the winners from my home state of Pennsylvania. Richard is a junior at Cardinal O'Hara High School and will be given his award in his hometown of Media, PA. Richard organized a program which collected over an astounding 5,000 items to be donated to the non-for-profit organization Operation Smile that provides free facial surgeries to underprivileged children around the globe.

Mr. Hoffner-McCall should be proud to be a part of such an extraordinary group of dedicated volunteers. Richard is a stand-out citizen whose actions have made our community a better place. His generous and selfless attitude has made a positive impact on the lives of others. I applaud Richard's initiative to seek out aid for those less fortunate. He is a credit to his family, his community and our Congressional District.

INTRODUCING THE INSTALLMENT TAX CORRECTION ACT OF 2000

HON. WALLY HERGER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 8, 2000

Mr. HERGER. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased today to join with my good friends and colleagues, Mr. SWEENEY and Mr. TANNER, to announce the introduction of our bipartisan legislation—the Installment Tax Correction Act of 2000.

It is no secret that small business is the engine driving our current economic success. America's small businesses provide the entrepreneurship and innovation to keep our economy moving forward. Unfortunately, many small business owners now face a tax burden which threatens to erode the value of their business and which has erected an unnecessary barrier to small business ownership. The legislation we are introducing today is necessary to correct a provision of the tax code which is imposing a serious burden on thousands of small businesses across America.

Mr. Speaker, most small business owners have chosen to use the installment sales method when selling their business because
