

occasion of his retirement from the Coventry Police Department following nearly 31½ years of dedicated service.

Lieutenant Wilmot joined the Coventry Police Department on January 9, 1969. Over the next three decades, he rose through the ranks and served in a number of important leadership positions. He attained the rank of Lieutenant in 1986. He served as the senior supervisor for many years and as the liaison between the Department and a correctional institute in nearby Mansfield. Throughout his tenure, he was a very active member of the Coventry Police Benevolent Association. As a police officer, Lieutenant Wilmot provided an extraordinary level of service and commitment to the community. His involvement in the Benevolent Association demonstrated his commitment to his fellow officers and their families. Lieutenant Wilmot also played an important role on behalf of his colleagues as a leading union member.

During his career, Lieutenant Wilmot participated in a number of important investigations and took countless actions to protect public safety and property. He took a leading role in investigating an extremely rare homicide in Coventry several years ago. His retirement offers the Department and the community the opportunity to reflect on the totality of his service on a daily basis.

Lieutenant Wilmot is known to residents as much more than a police officer. According to his close friend and colleague, Lt. Walter Sotenski, he is an ardent bass fisherman and an active member of the Coventry Historical Society. As a life-long resident of Coventry, his roots run very deep in the region.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to join residents of Coventry in wishing Lt. Lyndon Wilmot the very best in the years ahead.

IN SPECIAL RECOGNITION OF
BRIAN J. DYER ON HIS APPOINTMENT TO ATTEND THE UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY AT WEST POINT

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 24, 2000

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay special tribute to an outstanding young man from Ohio's Fifth Congressional District. I am happy to announce that Brian J. Dyer of Sandusky, Ohio, has been offered an appointment to attend the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York.

Mr. Speaker, Brian's offer of appointment poises him to attend the United States Military Academy this fall with the incoming cadet class of 2004. Attending one of our nation's military academies is an invaluable experience that offers a world-class education and demands the very best that these young men and women have to offer. Truly, it is one of the most challenging and rewarding undertakings of their lives.

Without question, Brian brings a special mix of leadership, service, and dedication to the incoming class of West Point cadets. While attending Perkins High School in Sandusky, Brian's academic diligence has helped him to attain a grade point average of 3.66. Additionally, Brian is a member of the National Honor Society.

Outside the classroom, Brian has distinguished himself as an excellent student-athlete. On the fields of competition, Brian is a three-year letterman on the Perkins Swimming team and a two-year letterman on the Cross Country team. His efforts on the field and in the classroom helped Brian to receive the Scholastic Award in each year he has participated in both sports. Brian has also been active in the Pep Band, Jazz Band, and Brass Choir. To further demonstrate his commitment to our nation's military, in the summer of 1999, Brian enlisted in the Ohio Army National Guard and is a private in Troop 2C/107th Cavalry.

Mr. Speaker, I would ask my colleagues to stand and join me in paying special tribute to Brian J. Dyer. Our service academies offer the finest education and military training available anywhere in the world. I am sure that Brian will do very well during his career at West Point and I wish him the very best in all of his future endeavors.

IN HONOR OF KATHLEEN McMAHON

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 24, 2000

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Mr. Speaker, in a special message to the Congress in 1965, President Lyndon B. Johnson wrote, "Every child must be encouraged to get as much education as he has the ability to take. We want this not only for his sake—but for the nation's sake." Kathleen McMahon took that message to heart and dedicated her life to the noble profession of teaching.

As a Chicago Public Schools teacher for 34 years, she enriched the lives of countless students and "encouraged" them in the classroom. She knew from the start that a life of teaching is well worth the rewards. Her time and energy were the building blocks that helped many students thrive and grow.

On behalf of all her students, their parents, and her colleagues, I wish to commend Kathleen McMahon for her years of dedication and her immeasurable contribution to our community and wish her well in retirement. We are thankful for all her hard work teaching our nation's future leaders. I am sure that she will be missed by all at Norwood Park School.

HONORING NEW MEXICO'S
ANCHORMAN, DICK KNIPFING

HON. HEATHER WILSON

OF NEW MEXICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 24, 2000

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to bring to your attention Dick Knipfing, a man who has faithfully served New Mexicans for 36 years. He has served our state as a news anchor on all three of our largest local channels and has dedicated his life to informing his viewers on issues important to New Mexico. He is known and respected in New Mexico as a real "pro" who knows more about New Mexico history, politics and policy than most of the people he covers every day.

In 1996, he was inducted into the Silver Circle Society, which is one of the more prestigious honors in his field. In the late eighties, he was elected by his peers as one of the "Best in the Business" and listed in the "Washington Journal Review."

To many New Mexicans, Dick is the one they rely on to give them the straight story, every night. "Dick always believed that news is a service, not a product," said former co-worker and reporter Janet Blair. Indeed, Mr. Knipfing's dedication to serving the public will be solely missed.

We wish him the best in all future endeavors. He will always have a place in the hearts of New Mexicans for his integrity, his commitment to children and families, and his love of New Mexico.

Mr. Speaker, television news has changed a lot in the last 36 years. It's a 24-hour a day, multi-channel business where, in some places, form is more important than substance. Dick Knipfing has always been a man of substance giving New Mexicans the truth with integrity. He will be missed.

Please join me in honoring and thanking Mr. Dick Knipfing, New Mexico's anchorman, for all he has done.

HONORING JAMES V. KIMSEY,
FOUNDING CEO AND CHAIRMAN
EMERITUS OF AMERICA ONLINE
INC., ON THE COMPANY'S 15TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. THOMAS M. DAVIS

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 24, 2000

Mr. DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a man who personifies America's pioneer spirit, exemplifies its entrepreneurial vision, and, most importantly, stands as a sterling example of the uniquely American practice of philanthropy.

A son of the Nation's Capital, James V. Kimsey is the Founding CEO and Chairman Emeritus of America Online, Inc., as well as the Chairman of the AL Foundation and the Kimsey Foundation. He studied at Georgetown University on an honors scholarship and graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point before serving in the United States Army as an airborne ranger, rising to the rank of Major. He received numerous awards for service and valor during one term in the Dominican Republic and two in Vietnam.

The list of honors bestowed upon this great American literally goes on and on. Mr. Speaker, allow me to mention just a few: 1994 Business Leader of the Year, Washingtonian Magazine, KPMG Peat Marwick High Tech Entrepreneur of the Year, American Academy of Achievement Golden Plate Award. The first annual "I Have a Dream Award." Presidential appointments to the Kennedy Center Board of Trustees and the West Point Board of Visitors. Chairman of the Washington Millennium and Bicentennial Commission. Chairman of the Board of The Washington Opera and member of the National Symphony Orchestra's executive committee.

But the accomplishment for which I rise today, Mr. Speaker, is that for which Jim Kimsey is best known—his visionary leadership in founding the company now called AOL
