HONORING ROBERT STANTON

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2000

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great sadness that I wish to take this moment to recognize the remarkable life and achievements of one of Colorado's leading public servants, Robert Stanton, who recently passed away. As family, friends, and neighbors mourn his passing, I would like to honor this great Coloradan.

For the better half of a decade, Mr. Stanton served faithfully as the president of the Bonfils-Stanton foundation. This foundation was established in 1962 by Charles Edwin Stanton following the death of his wife, Mary Madeline Bonfils, and is devoted to the advancement of philanthropic causes. Robert has made numerous contributions to many organizations, including the University of Colorado Health and Sciences Center and the University of Denver Biological Sciences Department where he created an endowment. In honor of Ira E. Cutler.

Robert had an extremely distinguished professional career working for the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the Board of Examiners for Engineers and Land Surveyors, the National Society of Professional Surveyors Inc., the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, as well as supervising fieldwork for oil companies in Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas. Mr. Stanton's life was one of distinction both professionally and in the realm of public service.

In addition to his distinguished professional career, Mr. Stanton still found time to serve his community and state and that is why his memory will live on in the minds of many. I am confident, Mr. Speaker, that in the face of this loss, family and friends can take comfort in the knowledge that each is a better person for having known him.

He will be greatly missed.

INTRODUCTION OF THE "WORK MADE FOR HIRE AND COPYRIGHT CORRECTIONS ACT OF 2000"

HON. JOHN CONYERS, JR.

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2000

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to join with subcommittee ranking Member HOWARD BERMAN and subcommittee chairman HOWARD COBLE to introduce the "Work Made for Hire and Copyright Corrections Act of 2000," which strikes "sound recordings" from the definition of "work made for hire" in section 101 of the Copyright Act.

This bill undoes an amendment to the Copyright Act made last November, an amendment that changed the Act to treat "sound recordings" as "works made for hire." Without the benefit of Committee hearings or other debate, that change effectively terminated any future interest that artists might have in their sound recordings and turned them over permanently to the record companies.

Fortunately, all of the interested parties—the Members, the recording artists, and the recording industry—after hearing testimony at a Subcommittee hearing now agree that the provision must be struck, that we must return the law to where it was on November 28, 1999, the day before the amendment passed into law, so that artists' authorship rights are preserved.

I am pleased that the recording industry has worked diligently with the recording artists to reach agreement on how to do just that. Arrived at after several months of negotiations, this bill ensures that we return to status quo ante on "sound recordings" with respect to whether and under what circumstances they are considered "works made for hire." The bill is retroactive to the date section 1011(d) was enacted. As such, this bill will function as if section 1011(d) never existed; the artists and industry have the same rights now that they did on November 28, 1999.

I ask my colleagues to support this compromise legislation. Vote "Yes" when it comes before the full House.

A TRIBUTE TO KIRKLAND TEEN CENTER

HON. JAY INSLEE

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2000

Mr. INSLEE. Mr. Speaker, we hear so much these days about the problems plaguing today's young people that sometimes the positives are drowned out. Therefore, I rise today to publicly recognize the Kirkland Teen Center. I will be attending the center's groundbreaking ceremony this Saturday, and I want to take a moment to make my colleagues aware of this extraordinary center, created by our youth for our youth.

The center's operating partner, Friends of Youth, is a local non-profit agency with nineteen locations throughout King and Snohomish Counties. The Friends of Youth's mission is to: develop, provide and advocate services for children, youth, their families and communities that encourage individual growth and promote constructive relationships.

Mr. Speaker, that mission will be the guiding force behind this drug-free and alcohol-free youth center. The center will include a coffee shop with a teen manager, provide poetry classes, as well as provide a state of the art recording studio, a modern photography lab, and a graphic art/animation technology station. Moreover, the center is being built from the ground up and will connect with the Kirkland Senior Center, allowing for intergenerational programs and events. The center allows teens to develop positive relationships with peers and adults, and parents to have the security in knowing their child is spending time at a safe place.

I hosted three informative town meetings in my district last year about the need for after-school programs. I strongly believe that after-school programs are an excellent, well-proven way to keep teens from engaging in criminal activities. The time between school bells and dinner bells presents the most risk to our young people, and in an age when most parents are unable to stay home with their children, we must provide safe and productive activities for our youth. The Kirkland Teen Center is a perfect example of a safe, after-school center, and I believe Congress would do well to promote more centers like this one around the country.

All of the youth that volunteered their time to plan, or serve on this center's Board of Directors and Advisory Board, deserve our praise for their hard work and selfless dedication to their community as a whole. I ask all of my colleagues to join me in congratulating everyone involved in the Kirkland Teen Center for a job well done.

IN HONOR OF JIMMY SIMS, ROBERTSON COUNTY, KY FIRE-FIGHTER

HON. KEN LUCAS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2000

Mr. LUCAS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Mr. Jimmy Sims, who recently retired as Fire Chief of the Robertson County, KY Fire Department.

Mr. Sims' retirement wraps up nearly a half-century of dedicated service to his community. He is the only surviving founding member of the volunteer department, which was started in 1951. Mr. Sims served as chief from 1975–1999. Another example of his extraordinary level of dedication—his home served as the county fire dispatch center for 24 years. From 1969–1993, he took emergency calls and dispatched crews from his home.

Mr. Sims helped his neighbors countless times over the years, responding to round-the-clock calls for help, saving lives and protecting property.

I rise today to commend Chief Sims for his commitment to helping his neighbors in Robertson County. I ask all my fellow Members of Congress to join me in commending this fine public servant, and wishing him well in his retirement.

HONORING JOHNNETTE PHILLIPS

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 06, 2000

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this moment to honor the distinguished service of the Honorable Johnette Phillips of Eagle County, Colorado. Johnette is retiring as Eagle County Commissioner after serving admirably for nearly a decade. Her outstanding commitment is unparalleled and her contributions immeasurable.

For Johnette, serving her community comes naturally. Before serving as commissioner, she used her natural leadership ability as Eagle County Clerk and Recorder, serving for nearly 15 years. Beyond her efforts as Clerk and Recorder and Commissioner, Johnette has helped advance the cause of a
