

Recess: Senate convened at 12:01 p.m. and, recessed at 5:01 p.m., until 10:00 a.m., on Wednesday, December 6, 2000. (For Senate's program, see the remarks of the Acting Majority Leader in today's Record on page S11614.)

Committee Meetings

(Committees not listed did not meet)

BASEBALL REVENUE GAP

Committee on the Judiciary: On Tuesday, November 21, Subcommittee on antitrust, Business Rights, and Competition concluded hearings to examine the impact that growing payroll and revenue disparities among teams in Major League Baseball have on the competition, health, popularity, and integrity of the game, after receiving testimony from former Senator Mitchell; George Will, Washington Post, Washington, D.C.; Allan H. Selig, Major League Baseball, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Bob Costas, NBC, St. Louis, Missouri; Rodney Fort, Washington State University Department of Economics, Pullman; and Frank Stadulis, United Sports Fans of America, Boca Raton, Florida.