

than in November. So we still await recent pictures and statements from Martin and Gracia.

The tape is noteworthy, however, because for the first time the Abu Sayyaf Group, or the ASG, indicates that it regards itself as part of Osama bin Laden's al Qaeda network, something we have long suspected. This admission should give the Philippine government and their military added incentive to quickly track down and capture the ASG. It should also embolden our government to do as much as they can to free our fellow Americans.

As always, I ask you to join me in prayer for Martin and Gracia and their loved ones, so that this nightmare may soon be over.

RAIDING THE SOCIAL SECURITY TRUST FUND

(Ms. KILPATRICK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KILPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to oppose the President's budget and the Republicans' budget.

Some months ago, this House stood almost unanimously and said we would put the Social Security monies in a lockbox. The lockbox is smashed. We are spending Social Security, $1.6 trillion of it, in this budget resolution that is before us today. In addition, Medicare is being cut billions of dollars.

Our seniors, who have built this country, have no medical insurance. Our health care industry is about to crash. This budget resolution is a sham.

Come on, Republicans, we can do a lot better. Let us take care of America's people and America's seniors.

KEEPING FISCAL DISCIPLINE DURING DIFFICULT TIMES

(Mr. TANCREDO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TANCREDO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to praise the work of the chairman of the Committee on the Budget, the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. NUSSLE), and the Republican members of that Committee on the Budget. As we all know, this year has been very challenging as the results of the attacks of September 11 and the downturn in our economy.

Mr. Speaker, we will hear a lot of people talking about this budget today. As always, a great deal of rhetoric will emanate from this House. There is one thing that seems to frighten the members of the Democratic minority here more than anything else.

There are a couple of words that absolutely petrify them, apparently; it is called "balanced budget." They do not know what it is, they had never had one during the time they were in charge of this body, but we are presenting them with one today. It is a scary thing for them, unfortunately.

Mr. Speaker, it is important to note that if we accepted all of the 17 amendments offered in the Committee on the Budget this year by members of the minority, we would increase spending over the next 5 years by $205 billion and require $175 billion in additional taxes. That is the old way of doing business. There is a better way. It is called a balanced budget. It is called defending America, and that is what this budget does.

CESAR CHAVEZ, A GREAT AMERICAN HERO

(Mrs. DAVIS of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. DAVIS of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an historic event in San Diego, the renaming of Crosby Street in Barrio Logan to Caesar E. Chavez Parkway.

Guided by local leaders Councilman Ralph Inzunza, Rachel Ortiz, Luis Natividad, Sam Duran, Carlos and Linda Legerrette, and pushed along by the San Diego Cesar Chavez Commemoration Committee, the Parkway paves the way for the renaissance of Barrio Logan.

Chavez's commitment to fair wages, better working conditions, decent housing and quality education is still alive and well in San Diego. I am proud of my constituents and the efforts of local leaders to honor this humble yet great man.

Cesar Chavez deserves to be honored as a great American hero. His dedication to human rights and justice warrants his birthday being seriously considered a national holiday.

I hope my colleagues will join me in giving Chavez his rightful place in American history.

CELEBRATING 90TH BIRTHDAY OF DOROTHY HEIGHT, PRESIDENT AND CEO OF NATIONAL COUNCIL OF NEGRO WOMEN

(Mrs. JONES of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. JONES of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in celebration of the 90th birthday of Dorothy Height. We will be celebrating this wonderful event tonight. She is the President and CEO of the National Council of Negro Women. She grew up under the tutelage of Mary McCleod Bethune and is a member of my great sorority, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, and I am so pleased to stand up.

But, see, Dorothy Height would want me to stand on the floor today and talk about a what? He said a balanced budget? This is not a balanced budget. I cannot believe the man even had the nerve to stand there and say that. Balanced budget on the back of seniors who need Social Security, and Dorothy Height, a 90-year-old woman, needs Social Security. Balanced on the backs of seniors who need Medicare. Dorothy Height needs Medicare. Balanced on the back of seniors who need housing. Fortunately, Dorothy Height has housing.

Mr. Speaker, give me a break. Balanced budget? I do not even believe he had the nerve to let those words come out of his mouth. We are balancing it on the back of the senior citizens who need it most.

SEEKING INFORMATION ON WHEREABOUTS OF MIRANDA GADDIS AND ASHLEY POND

(Ms. HOOLEY of Oregon asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. HOOLEY of Oregon. Mr. Speaker, I come before the House today to once again alert those who may be watching in Oregon and across the Nation to the disappearance of two young girls from my district. Miranda Gaddis and Ashley Pond, both 13 years of age, students of Gardiner Middle School in Oregon City and teammates on the school dance team, have been reported missing.

Ashley disappeared January 9, and Miranda vanished March 8. Both were last seen by their mothers early in the morning as they left their homes at the Newell Village Creek apartments to catch the bus to school on South Beaver Creek Road.

Investigators continue to hold out hope that the girls will come home. They believe that the girls may have been abducted by a person or persons that they knew.

If Members have any information regarding Ashley and Miranda's whereabouts, I ask them to please contact the FBI office or the Oregon City Police Department at 503-657-4964.

REPUBLICAN "BALANCED BUDGET" WILL RAID SOCIAL SECURITY TRUST FUND AND CUT FUNDS FOR EDUCATION AND SENIOR HEALTH

(Mr. WYNN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WYNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to sound the alarm, particularly for our baby boomers. This budget breaks into the Social Security trust fund, breaks into the lockbox, and raids the trust fund to the tune of $1.6 trillion. Members remember the lockbox. It was our solemn promise not to touch Social Security trust fund money. Well, that has been obliterated.

My friends on the Republican side of the aisle would be quick to say, well, you have to understand, the deficit is caused by the war. Not so. Only 10 percent of our deficit is caused by the war.
