

isn't the bank account that bring children home to visit with their father and share a meal with him or send him a funny yet sentimental card. The moments of a father's love made manifest—these are the pieces of gold in memory's treasure chest. Those moments of joy, of laughter, of mutual pride at being in the same family make the labors of the week drop away like a heavy winter coat in the warm rays of the summer sun.

For myself, of course, and also for all fathers, I hope that this Sunday is filled with family and with laughter and with warm feelings. Let us all look upon, think upon, and remember our fathers and our father's father, and glory in their greatest and most lasting achievement—happy families.

Let us not forget that Biblical admonition, honor thy father and thy mother. We only have one of each. That is it. That is the sum total—only one.

I close with the words of an unknown who wrote the "Little Chap Who Follows Me."

I am sure that my dad, although he never had the luxury of sitting in a schoolroom reading that poem, the "Little Chap Who Follows Me," certainly in his life typified that poet's thought as a father who thinks of the "Little Chap Who Follows Me."

Many of the poems, like these simple little poems, have a message:

A careful man I ought to be;
A little fellow follows me;
I do not dare to go astray

For fear he'll go the self-same way.
I must not madly step aside,
Where pleasure's paths are smooth and wide,
And join in wine's red revelry
A little fellow follows me.

I cannot once escape his eyes;
Whate'er he sees me do, he tries—
Like me, he says, he's going to be;
The little chap who follows me.
He thinks that I am good and fine,
Believes in every word of mine;
The base in me he must not see,
The little chap who follows me.

I must remember as I go,
Through summer's sun and winter's snow,
I'm building for the years to be,
A little fellow follows me.

Madam President, I yield the floor. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. BYRD. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent the order for the quorum call be rescinded.
