

familial, and spiritual/emotional plans. Families are also given access to an interactive Website with caregiver information, and compact disks with caregiving information and additional resource material.

Mr. Speaker, we do not have the all the results yet, but Dr. Parker's project has tested these products and workshop on military careerists and spouses at midlife. This research includes the use of a control group and a post-assessment of the test and control groups. Many of these tools have the potential for assisting millions of American families prepare for unforeseen events.

It is impossible to fully prepare for the consequences of an act of terrorism like 9/11. However, military families have already taken steps through our family care plans to reduce the long term consequences of any trauma, whether it is a result of military service, auto accidents, or other health crises. The civilian population could adopt this approach. Planning for such contingencies with the addition of the intergenerational component could become one of our individual contributions to homeland security and our family's security.

Mr. Speaker, helping civilian families take the same precautions as military personnel who enter harm's way has great potential for millions of American families. I believe that this good work taking place in the great state of Alabama will lead to better preparation for those unforeseen events in our lives and to protecting the future of our aging parents. I am proud to bring this important development in the field of aging and the distinguished work of Dr Michael Parker to the attention of my colleagues in the House.

TRIBUTE TO KEVIN WAGNER

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 15, 2002

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great admiration that I recognize Kevin Wagner of Grand Junction, Colorado for his courage, optimism and generosity in the face of some of life's most disheartening circumstances. Kevin has been battling cancer for several years but remains determined to overcome his illness and refuses to let it interfere with his daily life. While Kevin continues his fight toward recovery, I would like to pay tribute to this dynamic individual and to the irreplaceable contributions he has made to the community of Grand Junction.

Kevin moved to Grand Junction in 1967, where he attended St. Joseph's Elementary School and Fruita Monument High School. He graduated from Mesa State College in 1983 and got his masters degree from Colorado State University in 1985. Throughout his childhood, Kevin always remained active in sports and, like a true Coloradan, is one of the Denver Broncos' biggest fans.

Besides being a devoted Broncos fan, Kevin also remains loyal to his fellow citizens and community through active civic participation. Kevin joined the Grand Junction Lions Club in 1997, which is a volunteer organization that raises money for local community programs. In his first year in the organization, he was named the top fundraiser among all of the club's new members. Since then, Kevin has been the leading fundraiser for the entire organization for the last five years, and has served on the club's board of directors and on many committees.

Mr. Speaker, it is with deep respect that I recognize Kevin Wagner before this body of Congress and this nation for the unrelenting commitment he has displayed toward the betterment of his fellow citizens and community. Even amid the most challenging of personal circumstances, Kevin has never been deterred from putting others before himself, and has never demanded or expected any personal rewards or recognition. Courage and generosity are Kevin's hallmark—he lives his life with unusual determination. I wish Kevin the very best of luck in his treatment and recovery.

TRIBUTE TO SISTER JOAN McKENNA, RSCJ ON BEING AWARDED THE 2002 ST. MADELEINE SOPHIE BARAT AWARD

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Sister Joan McKenna, a member of the Religious of the Sacred Heart and a distinguished educator and citizen. Sister McKenna is being honored on October 16, 2002, by the Sacred Heart Schools of Atherton, California, with the prestigious 2002 St. Madeleine Sophie Barat Award.

Sister McKenna is a truly remarkable woman who has given much to education in ways almost too numerous to recount. She was born and raised in San Francisco and educated in a parish school. As a high school student she was given a full scholarship to Sacred Heart Schools Broadway where she continued to excel and where she developed her deep respect for the Religious of the Sacred Heart and their dedication to educating the "whole child."

Sister McKenna received her B.A. and her M.A. in History from the San Francisco College for Women. She later received her M.A. in Theology and her J.D. from the University of San Francisco. From each of these institutions she received training that developed her inborn talents, and to each of them she returned what she received tenfold, or more.

After joining the Religious of the Sacred Heart, Sister McKenna taught history and religious studies at Sacred Heart Schools in El Cajon, San Francisco and Atherton. In addition to her teaching, she was Dean of Students and Assistant to the President at the San Francisco College for Women. After receiving her law degree she spent three years working as a legal assistant for the San Francisco City Attorney's Office in the Juvenile Court. She served as Principal at Sacred Heart Broadway and Director of Schools at Sacred Heart Atherton. Over the years she has served tirelessly on the Boards at each of these institutions, as well as the Oakwood retirement home for the Religious and for Catholic Charities of San Francisco. She is currently a lecturer in theology and religious studies at the University of San Francisco. Hers has been a life of learning and helping others to learn, in a tradition of values-based education that she treasures.

Mr. Speaker, it is a great privilege to honor Sister Joan McKenna as she receives the 2002 St. Madeleine Sophie Barat Award. I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting her and thanking her for her extraordinary service to our community which has made us a stronger and better nation.

TRIBUTE TO ANGELINE LOUISE SAMUELSON

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 15, 2002

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep sadness that I recognize the life and passing of Angeline Louise Samuelson of Glenwood Springs, Colorado. Mrs. Samuelson recently passed away in October and, as her family mourns their loss, I would like to pay tribute to her life and the exceptional way in which she lived it.

Angie Samuelson was born in Osage City, Kansas, where she spent her childhood days living on her family's cattle ranch. She attended Osage City High School where she was a cheerleader and a member of the drama club. In 1940, Mrs. Samuelson graduated from nursing school and began working at Children's Hospital in Kansas City and at the University of Kansas Clinic. In 1944, she enlisted into the Naval Nursing Corps, and served in Coronado Island in San Diego, California through the duration of World War II.

In 1947, Mrs. Samuelson, along with her husband John Samuelson, began publishing the Glenwood Post newspaper. Mr. and Mrs. Samuelson were co-owners of the paper until they sold it in 1970, but Angeline stayed on with the paper until her retirement in 1982. Outside of work, Angie Samuelson stayed busy participating in a variety of volunteer activities. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Valley View Hospital Auxiliary, and was a volunteer at the Frontier Historical Museum. She also liked to spend her free time in the company of friends and family, skiing, playing golf, and traveling. With a personality befitting a nurse, Mrs. Samuelson was constantly helping people and freely gave her time and energy to those she in need.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great admiration that I recognize the life and passing of Angeline Louise Samuelson before this body of Congress and this nation for the outstanding contributions she made to the Glenwood Springs community throughout her life. I extend my sincere condolences to her husband John and their children Lauraine, Chris, David, Paul, and Glen. Angie Samuelson lived her life with enormous energy and passion, and her goodwill and optimism are an inspiration to all who knew her.
