

care. And in addition to offering excellent health care to those in the Cincinnati area, the Medical Center has been shown to have an annual $3.05 billion economic impact on our area. These successes can be attributed to Don's vision and hard work over the years.

Don also is an entrepreneur and, among his accomplishments, he established BioStart at the Medical Center to give researchers a place to nurture their work to a point where it may become commercially viable. Throughout his career, Don also continued his work as a practicing, world renown cardiologist.

Mr. Speaker, Don has had a profound impact on the lives and economy of Greater Cincinnati, boosting the national reputation of the U.C. Medical Center and improving the health care available to people in the Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana tristate region. The medical research conducted at the Medical Center under Don's leadership also has enhanced the health care available to people across our nation and throughout the world. All of us in Southwestern Ohio are grateful to Don for his contributions to our community, and we wish him well as he steps down from his post as Senior Vice President and Provost of the U.C. Medical Center.

TRIBUTE TO LEO GREENBERG

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 12, 2002

Mr. FARR of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a dear friend, Mr. Leo Greenberg, a long-time resident of Aptos, California who passed away on July 13, 2001. Mr. Greenberg was an active member of the community who sought to make our world better place by tirelessly advocating for democratic principles, human rights, and social justice.

Mr. Greenberg was born 81 years ago in Tulsa, Oklahoma and grew up in Kansas City, Missouri, where his family moved when he was a small child. After graduating from high school, Mr. Greenberg enlisted in the Coast Guard. During World War II, the Coast Guard was militarized under the Department of the Navy, and in the Navy, Mr. Greenberg served admirably for many long years at sea. On his first mission hunting enemy submarines in the North Atlantic, his ship was caught in a "Perfect Storm" and nearly sank. Mr. Greenberg survived that ordeal and was able to participate in five invasions in the European theater, including engagements in Naples, Sicily, the South of France, and D-Day at Normandy where Mr. Greenberg was at the helm of his ship while crossing the Channel on the way to the Normandy invasion.

When Mr. Greenberg returned to the United States after WWII, his commitment to freedom and public service continued. After moving to Santa Cruz County in 1973, Mr. Greenberg and his wife, Bea Greenberg, became active in their community, engaging themselves in civic affairs and local and national politics. They were also devoted supporters and for their local Temple. Mr. Greenberg was especially proud of his role in finding the land where a new Temple now stands. He loved to hear his wife sing in the Choir and loved greeting his friends during services.

Mr. Greenberg also loved politics. He was passionate about social values and civil rights, and worked in his own community to promote these issues. He participated in the San Jose march on the day of the famous March on Washington in 1963. He believed that a strong government could help people and bring them out of suffering and poverty. Locally, he became a leader Santa Cruz County local politics and was a strong supporter of local elected officials, including Norm Mineta, Leon Panetta, and my father, Fred Farr.

In his later years, Mr. Greenberg lived with the debilitating effects of a brain tumor. For the last five years of his life, he attended classes at the Cabrillo College Stroke Center where he learned to live with his disability and where he could keep up with politics, sports, Israel, and Temple life. About a year ago, I attending a meeting at Leo Greenberg's house where he asked me what I could do to promote stroke centers around our nation. He knew what the stroke center had done for him, and he wanted others who were afflicted with similar disabilities to have the same benefits. As a result of this meeting, the Cabrillo College Stroke center has since been designated a federal demonstration project. Mr. Speaker, it is my hope that stroke centers will spring up across the nation as a lasting memorial to Mr. Greenberg. This would be the ultimate tribute to Leo's humanity and long record of community service.

Leo Greenberg's lifelong dedication to public service and democratic principles should be commended. His efforts improved the quality of life on the Central Coast and his achievements have made lasting impacts on the people with whom he has worked. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to recognize Leo Greenberg.

TRIBUTE TO THE IMANI BAPTIST CHURCH OF CHRIST, INC.

HON. DONALD M. PAYNE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 12, 2002

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise today to recognize the 10th anniversary of Imani Baptist Church of Christ, Inc. The Imani Baptist Church of Christ has played a strong unifying role in the East Orange community for the past decade, bringing together both church and community.

From its founding on November 22, 1992, in the home of Deacon and Deaconess Browne of Orange, New Jersey, the church and its community have seen amazing growth. By October of 1998, the church had found a permanent home in East Orange, setting down roots and bringing the congregation together.

Under the direction of Reverend Moses A. Knott, Jr. for the first nine years, and under the new direction of Reverend Leonard Smalls, the church congregation has brought together both friends and community to better the surrounding city and community.

Mr. Speaker, I know that my colleagues here in the United States House of Representatives join me today in recognizing the Imani Baptist Church of Christ, Inc. and recognizing their 10th anniversary celebration.

HONORING ANDY GRANATELLI

HON. LOIS CAPPS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 12, 2002

Mrs. CAPPS. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to pay tribute to a special citizen of Santa Barbara, Mr. Andy Granatelli. Mr. Granatelli is quite an accomplished man and has contributed so much to the Santa Barbara community. It is only fitting that I have the opportunity to honor him today.

Andy Granatelli has been inducted into 20 Halls of Fame, ranging from the American Academy of Achievement to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Hall of Fame. He's been the winner of two Indy 500 races and the Daytona 500 in 1972 and has appeared in hundreds of television and radio commercials in addition to making appearances on television shows such as Laugh-In and Johnny Carson's Tonight Show. But in addition to all those wonderful accomplishments, Andy Granatelli has been a very dedicated member of the Santa Barbara community, and it is for all his local accomplishments that I truly wish to honor him today.

On November 2, 2002, the United Boys and Girls Clubs of Santa Barbara County honored Mr. Granatelli at their 20th annual kids auction. Andy is on the board of the Boys and Girls Clubs of America and this important organization has greatly benefited from Mr. Granatelli's dedication to our youth. He is also the director of the Unity Shoppe, another important non-profit organization in Santa Barbara.

Founded in 1917, the Unity Shoppe has been called "the mother of all charities". It is the largest direct distributor of food and clothing in Santa Barbara County, and operates as an actual shop, where clients use scrip to purchase items of their choice. The Unity Shoppe does not receive funding other agencies; it instead relies on the generosity of community members like Mr. Granatelli.

In addition to the Boys and Girls Club and the Unity Shoppe, Andy Granatelli is involved with several other community organizations. He is a board member of the Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Summit Advisory, the Director of the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Council and is a member of the Navy League of the United States. Andy is also a Council Advisory Board Member for the Boy Scouts of America.

It always pleases me to be able to honor active community members such as Andy Granatelli. The generosity and dedication of people like Mr. Granatelli make Santa Barbara County a special and wonderful place to live, and I am truly thankful for his devotion.
