I further ask unanimous consent that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then resume executive session for the consideration of the nomination of Miguel Estrada.

I further ask unanimous consent that when the Senate proceeds to the consideration of Calendar No. 19, S. 3, the partial-birth abortion bill, under the order entered into yesterday, the time from 5 to 6 p.m. be equally divided between Senator SANTORUM or his designee and the minority leader or his designee.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. For the information of all Senators, on Monday, the Senate will once again resume consideration of the Estrada nomination. We will continue to pursue an agreement to allow for an up-or-down vote which is the end point for this nomination. At 5 o'clock on Monday, the Senate will begin consideration of S. 3, the partial-birth abortion bill. A number of Senators have indicated they will be available to make their opening statements on that bill during Monday's session. As a reminder, the first rollcall vote of Monday's session will occur at 6 p.m. on the nomination of Gregory Frost to be a U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of Ohio.

I thank all Members for their attention.

Mr. REID. Mr. Leader, Monday afternoon from 2 until 5 we will be on the Estrada nomination again. We have had a long, thorough debate on this matter. There has been some difficult dialog, but it has all been for the advocacy that should be present in the Senate. What this is leading up to is everything has gone so well at this point, we would hope—and I will be here virtually all the time that afternoon—that there would be no effort to try to sneak in a vote when somebody is not on the floor or anything like that. I think it would really take away from what has happened here. I continue to ask that question.

I am not sure that there will be people from the Judiciary Committee available all that afternoon. That means I will have to cover that. There are times when I am indisposed for various reasons.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, we can assure the other side that we will be engaged just in discussion on the Estrada nomination and have no intention to be voting during that period. We will be continuing the very important discussion on the nomination itself.

My goal in that discussion next week is to begin to talk, not to extend what has been a very good debate, but have a discussion on this nomination in terms of the constitutional significance of advice and consent. Monday, hopefully in the afternoon, some of that discussion will begin, and then also continue that through Tuesday.

I do thank the assistant minority leader and really the whole other side of the aisle. We have had a productive week. We made real progress to complete the treaty yesterday, a very important initiative. I look forward to next week being a productive week.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, if the Senator will yield, the other question I have is, I learned yesterday that there may be an effort on Tuesday morning from 11 to 12:30 to get back on Estrada, talking about some constitutional issues people think are there. That is fine. I was just wondering if that, in fact, is the case because the Judiciary Committee members want to plan their schedules if in fact that were the case.

Mr. FRIST. That is the time that has been set aside, similar to today. There had been a request from both sides of the aisle today to spend time talking about the issue that has been discussed; that is, Iraq and the events there. Similarly, people have asked, well, we have been on Estrada, but why don't we take a period of time to give focus to the big issues that affect the institution in terms of advice and consent and balance of power. In response to that, we have set aside this period between 11 o'clock and 12:30 on Tuesday. It is my hope that we have many Senators here to participate in that debate because I look forward to it. The whole purpose is to set that period aside. We will discuss the best way to construct that between both sides.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, through you to the leader, I extend my appreciation for his courtesy, as usual.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 2 P.M.,
MONDAY, MARCH 10, 2003

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 1:47 p.m., adjourned until Monday, March 10, 2003, at 2 p.m.
