PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 108th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 149

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 2003

No. 44

Senate

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore (Mr. STEVENS).

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Today's prayer will be offered by our guest Chaplain, Rev. Charles V. Antonicelli, St. Joseph's Church on Capitol Hill, Washington, DC.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain offered the following prayer:

Lord of all hopefulness, we come before You this day to praise You and to thank You for Your countless blessings.

With heavy hearts, dear Lord, we pray for Your peace and Your justice in our world. Help us to be the instruments of Your will. In Isaiah we read, "Put away your misdeeds from before My eyes; cease doing evil; learn to do good. Make justice your aim: redress the wronged."

God Almighty, bless and protect the men and women in this Senate who seek to do Your will. Give them right judgment. Help them to know Your loving presence always.

We ask this in Your holy name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable TED STEVENS led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. BROWNBACK). The majority leader is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, this morning the Senate will resume consideration of S. Con. Res. 23, the concurrent budget resolution, with 30 hours left for debate on the resolution. Fifteen hours remain under the control of the chairman of the Budget Committee and the ranking member respectively. Pending is the Boxer amendment No. 272 striking the reconciliation instruction to the Energy Committee relating to ANWR. While Senators on both sides of the aisle participated in the debate last night, there are still several Senators wishing to speak on this amendment this morning.

The consideration of other amendments is expected during today's session and rollcall votes will occur throughout the day. The Senate will finish the budget resolution this week. Therefore, Members should expect late nights and rollcall votes for the remainder of the week. I do want to stress to my colleagues that we will finish the budget resolution this week. We have 30 hours for debate and then the voting on the amendments, which is not a part of those hours. Therefore, we really have a challenge over the next 3 days but one that we will step up to and meet.

There is a lot of indecision in terms of potential military action abroad. As we all know, the clock is ticking for a deadline tonight and we will take that into consideration, but we will be focused on the budget over the course of today. It is the Nation's business. The American people expect us to pass a budget. We have certain statutory deadlines that we will meet in this Congress and therefore will finish the budget resolution this week.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Democratic whip.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, through the Chair to the leader, on the ANWR amendment, we have 40 minutes remaining on this side. The time on the other side is gone. Of course, other time can be yielded, as it will be, to speak on the amendment.

We have a couple of amendments lined up. I spoke to Senator NICKLES last night. The majority leader was present during most of those conversations. We hope to offer another amendment forthwith.

The one question that a number of Members have asked is what is the leader's—I think we all contemplate something happening in the next 24 hours in regard to the situation in Iraq. What is the leader's desire as to a resolution, which I am sure will be forthcoming at that time, as far as Members being able to speak on the resolution?

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, not knowing what will happen tonight with the President's statement, as the deadline is reached for Saddam Hussein—and I have been working with the Democratic leader—we have a resolution of support and are working through the language that is most appropriate. We will do that over the course of today. Again, I want to be very careful not to anticipate an outcome which is not quite there, but if military action is begun, we would very soon introduce that resolution and give Senators the opportunity to speak. I think we all recognize that if military action is undertaken, although we hope and pray that things will be very shortlived, we do want to make sure Senators have the opportunity to express their support for our troops and for this President, if this engagement begins. So that is underway. We will address that over the course of the day. I do want to make it clear to our colleagues that we will be here this week until we finish the budget.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the leadership time is reserved.
