

Whereas the Wright brothers developed the world's first flying field, the world's first flying school, and the world's first airplane manufacturing company in the Dayton area;

Whereas many legacies of the Wrights' inventiveness and creativity still exists in the region, including Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, the Dayton Aviation Heritage National Historical Park, the United States Air Force Museum, the National Aviation Hall of Fame, the Wright "B" Flyers, and the Engineers Club of Dayton;

Whereas the city of Dayton, area communities, a number of civic groups, private businesses, government agencies, and military partners, are joining together to honor the Nation's aerospace achievements;

Whereas Dayton is considered the "Birthplace of Aviation" and from July 3 through July 20, 2003, the Dayton region will host "Inventing Flight: The Centennial Celebration", the largest public centennial event in Ohio celebrating the first flight and one of only 4 events nationwide endorsed as a full partner by the United States Centennial of Flight Commission; and

Whereas the celebration will feature pavilions with aviation displays, blimp and hot-air balloon races, dance and cultural performances, river shows, historical reenactments, an international air and space symposium, National Aviation Hall of Fame ceremonies, and a military and general aviation show at the Dayton International Airport: Now, therefore, be it

SEC. 815. REAFFIRMATION OF SUPPORT FOR CONVENTION ON THE PREVENTION AND PUNISHMENT OF THE CRIME OF GENOCIDE; COMMEMORATION OF ANNIVERSARY OF ENACTMENT OF GENOCIDE CONVENTION IMPLEMENTATION ACT OF 1987.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following findings:

(1) In 1948, in the shadow of the Holocaust, the international community responded to Nazi Germany's methodically orchestrated acts of genocide by approving the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, done at Paris on December 9, 1948.

(2) The Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide confirms that genocide is a crime under international law, defines genocide as certain acts committed with intent to destroy a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group, and provides that parties to the Convention undertake to enact domestic legislation providing effective penalties for persons who are guilty of genocide.

(3) The United States, under President Harry Truman, was the first nation to sign the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide.

(4) The United States Senate ratified the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide on February 19, 1986.

(5) The Genocide Convention Implementation Act of 1987 (the Proxmire Act) (Public Law 100-606), signed into law by President Ronald Reagan on November 4, 1988, enacted chapter 50A of title 18, United States Code, to criminalize genocide.

(6) The enactment of the Genocide Convention Implementation Act marked a principled stand by the United States against the crime of genocide and an important step toward ensuring that the lessons of the Holocaust, the Armenian Genocide, and genocides in Cambodia, Rwanda and elsewhere will be used to help prevent future genocides.

(7) A clear consensus exists within the international community against genocide, as evidenced by the fact that 133 nations are party to the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide.

(8) Despite this consensus, many thousands of innocent people continue to fall victim to genocide, and the denials of past instances of genocide continue.

(9) November 4, 2003, is the 15th anniversary of the enactment of the Genocide Convention Implementation Act of 1987 (Proxmire Act).

(b) REAFFIRMATION OF SUPPORT FOR GENOCIDE CONVENTION.—Congress reaffirms its support for the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide.

(c) COMMEMORATION OF ANNIVERSARY OF ENACTMENT OF GENOCIDE CONVENTION IMPLEMENTATION ACT OF 1987.—Congress acknowledges and anticipates the commemoration of the 15th anniversary of the enactment of the Genocide Convention Implementation Act of 1987 (the Proxmire Act) on November 4, 2003.

(d) DEDICATION TO END GENOCIDE.—Congress encourages the people and the Government of the United States to rededicate themselves to the cause of ending the crime of genocide.
