

The preamble was agreed to.

The concurrent resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. CON. RES. 65

Whereas the Third Infantry Division of the United States Army was organized in 1917 for participation in World War I, and its fierce defense of positions along the Marne River in France in July 1918 blocked an enemy onslaught on approaches to Paris and earned the Division the motto "Rock of the Marne";

Whereas the soldiers of the Third Infantry Division, now mechanized, stand ready to answer the call to defeat aggression with rock solid determination;

Whereas more than 16,000 men and women from the First and Second Brigades of the Third Infantry Division (Mechanized), stationed at Fort Stewart, Georgia, and the Third Brigade of the Division, stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia, were deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom;

Whereas the families of the soldiers of the Third Infantry Division (Mechanized) deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom provided exceptional and unwavering support for their soldiers during the deployment; and

Whereas Congress and the people of the United States have the greatest pride in the men and women of the Third Infantry Division (Mechanized), and strongly support those men and women as they carry out their duties: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That Congress—

(1) honors the men and women of the Third Infantry Division (Mechanized) of the United States Army who participated in Operation Iraqi Freedom and the follow-on military operations in Iraq, for their professional excellence, dedicated patriotism, and exemplary bravery;

(2) commends the soldiers of the Third Infantry Division (Mechanized) for their role in the fall of Baghdad;

(3) expresses gratitude to the families of the soldiers of the Third Infantry Division (Mechanized) for bearing the burden of sacrifice and separation from loved ones during the operations in Iraq; and

(4) expresses deep condolences to the families of the brave soldiers of the Third Infantry Division (Mechanized) who lost their lives while fighting to liberate Iraq.

NATIONAL WORK AND FAMILY MONTH

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Judiciary Committee be discharged from further action on S. Res. 210 and the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The bill clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 210) expressing the sense of the Senate that supporting a balance between work and personal life is in the best interests of national worker productivity, and that the President should issue a proclamation designating October as "National Work and Family Month".

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent that the amendment to the resolution be agreed to and the resolution, as amended, be agreed to, the preamble be agreed to, and the amendment to the title be agreed to; further, that the motion to reconsider be laid on the table and any statements be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment (No. 1583) was agreed to, as follows:

(Purpose: To provide a complete substitute, and for other purposes)

Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That—

(1) it is the sense of the Senate that—
(A) reducing the conflict between work and family life should be a national priority; and
(B) the month of October of 2003 should be designated as "National Work and Family Month"; and

(2) the Senate requests that the President issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe "National Work and Family Month" with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

The amendment to the title (No. 1584) was agreed to, as follows:

Amend the title so as to read: "Expressing the sense of the Senate that supporting a balance between work and personal life is in the best interest of national worker productivity, and that the President should issue a proclamation designating October of 2003 as "National Work and Family Month"."

The resolution (S. Res. 210), as amended was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.
The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

(The resolution, S. Res. 210, as amended, will be printed in a future edition of the RECORD.)

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 2003

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it ad-journal until 1 p.m., Monday, September 8. I further ask unanimous consent, following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then resume consideration of H.R. 2660, the Labor-HHS-Education appropriations bill.

The Presiding Officer. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. For the information of all Senators, on Monday the Senate will resume consideration of H.R. 2660, the Labor-HHS-Education appropriations bill. The chairman and ranking member will be here Monday to continue working through amendments, and it is my hope that additional amendments will be offered and debated during Monday's session.

Any votes ordered with respect to amendments to the Labor-HHS-Education appropriations bill will be stacked to occur late Monday afternoon. If we are unable to reach an agreement for votes on the pending appropriations bill, we may schedule a vote or votes on nominations that are available from the Executive Calendar. We will notify Members during Monday's session as votes are scheduled.

It is still our hope to complete the Labor-HHS-Education appropriations bill early next week, and we will continue our discussions on Monday as how best to make that happen.

As we enter the final weeks of this fiscal year, I do ask for all Senators' assistance as we try to schedule these appropriations bills and amendments.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 1 P.M. MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 2003

Mr. FRIST. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 3:39 p.m., adjourned until Monday, September 8, 2003, at 1 p.m.
