

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

HONORING BERYLE R. READ

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Beryle R. Read, a resident of my Fifth Congressional District of Florida and a man who has become something very few of us ever will. In November of this year, Mr. Read will become a centenarian and at nearly 100, he is a father to one child, and a grandfather to three grandchildren.

Mr. Read was born in Nashville, TN, but went to school in Indiana, Illinois and Washington, DC. Following school, he worked for the government for 32½ years. He describes his happiest moment as going with his father to sell peaches in Indiana as a child. His favorite activities today are helping his wife cook, reading, and doing crossword puzzles.

Mr. Read says he likes living in Hernando County because it has a small town feel but a close proximity to valuable services and stores. When asked what advice he'd give to young people today he said, "Avoid dirt, debt and the devil." He says the best thing about growing older is having 39 years of mental and physical health to enjoy retirement.

Mr. Speaker, and my colleagues, I ask that you join me in honoring Beryle Read today. I hope we all have the good fortune to live as long as he has and the ability to enjoy it as he has. He is truly a great man and someone with an appreciation for the importance of hard work.

FRENCH BAN ON TURBANS IN SCHOOLS OPPOSED

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, the government of France has recently enacted a new policy prohibiting Sikh boys from wearing their turbans in school. They also prohibited Muslim girls from wearing the traditional head scarves in school.

This policy is a threat to religious expression in France. It limits the ability of religious minorities to express their religion in the way that they are supposed to express their religion.

Sikhs fought actively in both World Wars to help keep the French people free. They fought in their turbans in Africa and the Middle East in World War I and they fought in the liberation of France in World War II. Yet the French authorities see fit to deny them their full religious expression.

Recently, Dr. Gurmit Singh Aulakh, President of the Council of Khalistan, wrote an excellent letter to French President Jacques Chirac about this unreasonable policy. I am inserting it into the RECORD with the consent of the House and I urge my colleagues to read it.

COUNCIL OF KHALISTAN,
Washington, DC, January 19, 2004.

Hon. JACQUES CHIRAC,
President of France,
Champs Elysees, Paris, France

DEAR PRESIDENT CHIRAC: I am writing to you today on behalf of the Sikh community of France and the 25 million strong Sikh Nation around the world.

Recently, France has made laws prohibiting Muslim schoolgirls from wearing head scarves and Sikh boys from wearing their turbans.

The turban is a Sikh religious symbol. Sikhs are not allowed to remove their turbans. They are a major symbol of our religion. The Sikh Gurus commanded us to wear the turban at all times over unshorn hair, which is a gift from God. The Sikh religion is a sovereign, independent, monotheistic religion like Christianity. The Sikh religion requires every Sikh to wear five symbols. Unshorn hair is one of them.

As you know, Sikh soldiers wearing their turbans fought to defend France and defend its freedom during World War II. They also helped France and Britain to win World War I by fighting in Africa and the Middle East. We were proud to do so. Sikhs are commanded to fight against injustice wherever it appears. We believe in the freedom and equality of all people.

France is a secular, democratic republic. That implies a country that protects freedom of religious expression for all people. To force Sikhs to remove the turban is to destroy Sikhs' freedom of religious expression. That is neither secular, democratic, nor republican. It is simply the kind of system that Sikhs came to France and other countries to escape.

President Chirac, I encourage you to reconsider this ill-advised ban. Sikhs must be free to express our religion as fully as any other Frenchman.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

DR. GURMIT SINGH AULAKH,
President, Council of Khalistan.

TRIBUTE TO FRANK DOMINGUEZ

HON. JOE BACA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, it is with a great sense of pride that I pay tribute today to the life of Frank Dominguez, a longtime leader in the Inland Empire. Frank passed away this month at the age of 64. He was a man of great integrity and character, and I join today with family and friends in honoring his memory and remarkable life.

To all those who knew Frank Dominguez, he was a hard-working, generous, compassionate man who was proud of his San Bernardino roots. His educational path took him through Burbank Elementary School, Colton Union High School, and San Bernardino Valley College. Following his graduation, he served our country proudly in the U.S. Army.

In 1964, Frank founded the Vanir Group of Companies, Inc. and proceeded to give back to the community that he so loved, including building the Vanir Tower, a San Bernardino landmark. His tremendous passion, pride, and selflessness led him to serve three terms on the state economic development commission and serve on the boards of the Goodwill Industries of the Inland Counties, the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund, and the Diocese of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties. He was revered and admired by friends and colleagues, leading to his selection as outstanding businessman of the year by the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.

I join today with family and friends in paying tribute to Frank Dominguez, beloved husband, father, and friend. He is survived by his wonderful wife of 42 years, Gisela, his children Dorene, Richard, and Diane, and his three grandchildren. His kind deeds and gentle soul will be deeply missed by all.

HONORING DR. JOE SABOL

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today on behalf of Representative DOOLEY, Representative NUNES and myself to honor Dr. Joe Sabol on the occasion of his being distinguished as an Honorary Alumni Member of the California Agricultural Leadership Foundation's California Agricultural Leadership Program. This designation will be bestowed upon Mr. Sabol at the annual conference of this organization.

Selection for this distinction is reserved for "special individuals who have, over a period of time, demonstrated consistent commitment and uncommon excellence in the furtherance of education and leadership in California agriculture." The mission of the California Agricultural Leadership Program is to enhance the long-term viability of California agriculture through leadership development, which in turn benefits the people and the communities that agriculture serves.

In 1963, Joe received his Bachelor of Arts degree in General Agriculture from California State University, Fresno. He obtained his M.Ed. in 1965 from University of California, Davis and his Ph.D. in 1976 from Colorado State University. Dr. Sabol came to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 1972 to teach Agricultural Education. He later became Associate Dean and the Dean of the College of Agriculture, as well as Project Director of the Costa Rica E.A.R.T.H. Project. He was named Director of Outreach Services in 1993 and currently teaches within the College. Among his special teaching projects Joe counts the Mexican Ag Education Program, the Pakistan Project, an Advisor's Workshop for Vocational Student Organizations, and the Victorian (Australia) College of Agriculture and Horticulture.
