ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). Members are advised 2 minutes remain in this vote.

□ 1259

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GERLACH. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall Nos. 39 and 40, I was inadvertently detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. HOYER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise for the purpose of inquiring of the majority leader the schedule for the week to come.

Mr. DELAY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. HOYER. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. DELAY. Mr. Speaker, the House will convene on Tuesday at 12:30 for morning hour debates and 2 p.m. for legislative business. We will consider several measures under suspension of the rules, and a final list of those bills will be sent to Members' offices by the end of the week. Any votes called on these measures will be rolled until 6:30 p.m.

On Wednesday, the House will convene at 10 a.m. We plan to consider H.R. 339, the Personal Responsibility in Food Consumption Act. In addition, we plan to consider H.R. 3717, the Broadcast Decency Enforcement Act.

Finally, I would like to remind all Members that we do not plan to have votes next Friday, March 12. I will be happy to answer any questions that the gentleman from Maryland has.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for that information, and also for planning purposes that assurance for March 12.

We talked last week and we know that the highway reauthorization extension for 2 months was worked out. When can we expect the committees to mark up the reauthorization bill, and when do you expect to see it on the floor.

Mr. DELAY. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will continue to yield, I believe the gentleman from Alaska (Mr. YOUNG) is in the process of working with the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. OBERSTAR), the ranking member, and members of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure to develop a product that can move through this House before the Easter recess and be signed into law as quickly as possible. So if we back away from our Easter recess, I would hope that the committee would, within the next couple of weeks, be marking up a bill so we can get it to the floor before the Easter recess.

□ 1300

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman for that answer. Can the leader tell me whether or not there is an expectation that this will be, as we have had in the past, a 6-year reauthorization, or is it possible that there would be a shorter reauthorization, say, of 2 years, obviously focused on trying to build jobs and create jobs in the country?

Mr. DELAY. It is a jobs bill, a very important jobs bill to all of us here in the House. We want to do what we can to create these jobs and get them going as fast as possible. To answer the gentleman's question about whether it is a 2-year bill, a 6-year bill, what is the amount here or there, I am not advised, quite frankly. There are discussions about all of that. I do not think any decision has been made along those lines. The gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. OBERSTAR) and the gentleman from Alaska (Mr. YOUNG) are still discussing that, but I am sure they soon will come to some sort of understanding as to how we will proceed.

Mr. HOYER. I thank the gentleman. As we, as well, also discussed last week, can the leader bring us up to date on the progress of the budget resolution and when he expects it to be marked up in committee and when we can expect to have that bill on the floor?

Mr. DELAY. It is my understanding after a lot of discussion that Chairman NUSSLE and his Budget Committee members are working furiously to complete all their hearings and be prepared to mark it up possibly as early as next week. I would imagine moving the budget resolution to the floor the week after the committee reports its resolution out of the committee.

Mr. HOYER. I know this is preliminary and it is early, but my presumption would be that as we did in years past, that the minority would have its rights to submit such substitutes as it deemed appropriate?

Mr. DELAY. I am encouraging the minority to present substitutes so that we can have a very healthy debate about the future of this country and how we would as a House decide that the importance of the budget is such that we can come to some sort of agreement as a House to move a budget along.

Mr. HOYER. Reclaiming my time, if I may say, somewhat, I know, facetiously, but we are pleased that the leader is encouraging us to do so. As a matter of fact, we are as pleased about that as we were last year when the gentleman from Texas urged everybody to support our motion to instruct, that we follow the House Democratic substitute as opposed to the one that we actually passed. So we are encouraged by the gentleman's encouragement.

Last, if I can, the FSC bill. We talked about this last week. Obviously, the Europeans have started to impose some penalties. Can the gentleman tell us the status of legislation to deal with the FSC issue?

Mr. DELAY. As the gentleman knows, the Committee on Ways and Means has reported a bill out, H.R. 2896, the American Jobs Creation Act. This was reported last year. But we continue to work with the committee and the other body and the administration to bring that bill to the floor in a form that not only meets our obligations to the WTO but also ensures the
