

Since that time, the Parks Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church has played an active role in initiating and expanding a wide range of charitable and community-building activities. In addition to ministering and counseling countless members of the ministry, the church regularly hosts a variety of community gospel events. Furthermore, Parks Chapel sponsors numerous outreach activities that serve to facilitate endeavors such as the education and development of local youth, and the social reintegration of former prison inmates.

On September 5, 2004, the Parks Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church will be celebrating its eighty-five-year anniversary in Oakland, California. I would like to mark this occasion by commending the church for the exceptional service it has provided to the community not only in its capacity as an institution of faith and worship, but also as a leader in working to provide invaluable social and charitable services to the people of Oakland. By remaining committed to the areas of leadership and service throughout its eighty-five years of ministry, the Parks Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church has contributed enormously not only to the Oakland community, but also to our shared goal of world peace.

TRIBUTE TO THE LIFE OF JOSEPH A. JABAILY

HON. MARILYN N. MUSGRAVE

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Mrs. MUSGRAVE. Mr. Speaker, it is with a sadness that I rise today to remember and honor the life of Joe Jabaily, a thoughtful and dedicated community servant who will be greatly missed by his community of Loveland, Colorado. As his family and friends grieve for the passing of Joe Jabaily, I want to take a few moments to remember his service and commitment to the town and citizens of Loveland.

He began his work by opening the first neurology center in Loveland in 1983. However, the walls of Joe's neurology center could not contain his enthusiasm, love for people, and desire to make a difference for them and their community. In the 20 years that Joe lived in Loveland, he accomplished much.

Beginning in 1984 Joe served on the McKee Medical Center Continuing Education Committee, the McKee Medical Center Credentials Committee; he joined the Loveland Chamber of Commerce; and coached basketball for the Loveland Midget Athletic Association. Joe served as a Loveland Museum Commissioner as well as two terms on the Thompson School District Board of Education. He taught as a Clinical Assistant Professor of Neurology at the University of Colorado, and volunteered as a facilitator for People Offering People Support at Loveland High School. Joe served as Commissioner for the Loveland Open Space Commission. In 1997 the Jabailys were named the Volunteer Family of the Year. Joe's service continued as he volunteered for the United Way Campaign. Joe ran for the Colorado State House District 51 in 2002, and was running again for the same seat when he was involved in a tragic accident during a charity triathlon.

Joe Jabaily was known to always be there to listen, laugh, and contribute in a positive way. He enjoyed meeting people and hearing their concerns. He was known to occasionally cancel a patient's debt if they could not pay. Joe had courage, and did not hesitate to speak out for the citizens of the community. His premature death has affected the community of Loveland, Colorado, in a major way. He will be missed tremendously. I will always remember him as a man full of life, living it to the fullest.

Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to pay tribute to the life of this outstanding gentleman. I ask my fellow colleagues to join me in celebrating the life and legacy of Joe Jabaily. May God bless his family and many friends in this time of mourning.

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF HELEN K. COPLEY

HON. DARRELL E. ISSA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Mr. ISSA. Mr. Speaker, I rise this evening to remember the life of Helen Copley. Mrs. Copley passed away August 25, 2004. Mrs. Copley had an amazing commitment to journalism and a distinguished record of service throughout her community and the Nation.

In 1953, Helen Copley answered an ad for a secretary position at the Union-Tribune Publishing Company. She was hired as a secretary to the chief executive officer, James Copley. Twelve years later, Helen and James married. After her husband's death in 1973, many expected Helen to remain in the background, but she was determined to keep the business in family hands.

Mrs. Copley published The San Diego Union-Tribune, the third-largest newspaper in California, for nearly 30 years. The Copley Press also owns nine daily newspapers and other publications. During Mrs. Copley's tenure as publisher, her newspapers won two Pulitzer Prizes.

Helen Copley was also a model of personal involvement. She was a member of numerous local organizations, including the board of the Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation and was one of eight trustees appointed in 1984 to oversee the Howard Hughes Medical Institute. Locally, Mrs. Copley was instrumental in securing a home for the San Diego Symphony and underwriting the library at the University of San Diego. She also helped launch the San Diego Council on Literacy in 1986.

Mr. Speaker, Helen Copley will be missed by the people of San Diego and her service to the community will not be forgotten. I also want to express my condolences to the Copley family and let them know that my thoughts and prayers are with them.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JAMES L. OBERSTAR

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I participated in two important education meetings in my district yesterday, and missed two votes on legislation considered on the suspension calendar. As the new school year begins, I greatly appreciated the opportunity to visit with students, teachers and education administrators at the Nashwauk-Keewatin High School and the Crosby-Ironton High School concerning the implementation of the No Child Left Behind Act.

Had I been present, I would have voted "aye" on rollcall vote 422 to approve H.R. 4381, and I would have voted "aye" on rollcall vote 423 to approve H.R. 4556.

HONORING LIEUTENANT ROBERT DEL SOLDO

HON. JOSEPH M. HOFFFEL

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Mr. HOFFFEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Lieutenant Robert P. Del Soldo who is celebrating his retirement from the Horsham Township Police Department after 32 years of faithful and devoted service.

Lt. Del Soldo has served in many different capacities during his tenure on the Horsham Township force, working as Patrolman, Detective, Patrol Sergeant, and Sergeant of Detectives. Since 1995, he has been serving the department at the rank of Lieutenant.

His dedication to the community has never faltered, even during his toughest assignments. Lt. Del Soldo has received commendations for saving an individual from a burning vehicle and for apprehending armed bank robbery suspects. In addition to his commendations, Lt. Del Soldo has undergone professional training in order to better serve his community. He has trained under the Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Pennsylvania Chief of Police, Northwestern University and Penn State University.

In addition to his service to the Horsham Township community as a member of the Police Department, Lt. Del Soldo served his country honorably in the United States Air Force in Vietnam from 1965 to 1968. He and his wife Peggy are the proud parents of a son and daughter, Robert and Theresa Lynn.

Our community has been privileged to have such a devoted servant and it is my pleasure to congratulate Lieutenant Del Soldo on his retirement. I wish him all the best in the future.

RECOGNIZING COLONEL JOEL C.
BRADSHAW III, UNITED STATES
AIR FORCE, FOR HIS SERVICE AND DEDICATION

HON. J. RANDY FORBES

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Mr. FORBES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Colonel Joel C. Bradshaw III, United States Air Force, for his loyal service to the United States and Virginia's Fourth District.

Colonel Joel C. Bradshaw's dedication and loyalty to the advancement of our district and the Nation as a whole, after 29 years of service in the Air Force, is to be commended.

Colonel Joel C. Bradshaw's devotion to duty has reflected the highest standards of the military profession through a number of command and staff positions. He has commanded a civil engineer squadron, and served in a range of civil engineering positions at base level, major command and the Air Staff. At the start of his career, he began as Project Officer and Test Director on the Air Force Weapons Laboratory in New Mexico. Later on in his career, he went on to become Deputy Director of Environment Programs at Headquarters Tactical Air Command, at Langley AFB, VA. He also served as Base Civil Engineer (Commander) at the Sembach Air Base in Germany. He returned to Langley to become Deputy Chief of Programs Division for the Civil Engineer Directorate, Headquarters Air Combat Command. In 1997, Colonel Bradshaw became Command Engineer of the Eleventh Air Force at Elmendorf AFB in Alaska. In 1999, he earned the position of Chief of Air Force Programs, Office of Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Installations, The Pentagon. Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics at Headquarters, United States Army Forces Command. He then went on to additionally take on the responsibility of Chief of Military Construction Programs, Office of Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (Installations and Environment), The Pentagon, Washington, D.C. Colonel Bradshaw also holds a Bachelor of Sciences degree from Virginia Tech in Civil Engineering, and a Masters degree of Science in Civil Engineering from Virginia Tech. Additionally, he has a Masters degree in Business Administration from New Mexico Highlands University.

Colonel Bradshaw's awards and decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with six oak leaf clusters, and the Air Force Commendation Medal.

Colonel Bradshaw has shown tremendous commitment and devotion to his country. Today we recognize him for his unwavering patriotism and dedication to both his profession and the American people.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring Colonel Joel C. Bradshaw III, USAF.

THE PURPLE HEART

HON. BETTY McCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Ms. McCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, the Purple Heart is a decoration symbolizing true sacrifice in defense of the United States. Since the days of Gen. George Washington, the Purple Heart has decorated the uniforms of hundreds of thousands of American heroes, including those who have given the ultimate sacrifice for America's freedom.

Last week in New York, at the national convention of our president's political party, the Purple Heart was mocked and disgraced in a tasteless display. Some delegates to this convention transformed the symbol of the Purple Heart into band-aids to minimize and diminish the wounds received in battle during the Vietnam War by their political opponent.

With American men and women fighting and taking casualties in Iraq and Afghanistan today, the Purple Heart is not a band-aid or a joke, but a true symbol of sacrifice. My support for America's military's men and women and the veterans who have served this nation, given their blood and their lives for our freedom, is absolute. These heroes and the Purple Hearts which honor their sacrifice deserve our respect, never abuse or cynical displays of ridicule.

HONORING BLAINE WILSON

HON. PATRICK J. TIBERI

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Mr. TIBERI. Mr. Speaker, I would like to congratulate Blaine Wilson, member of the silver medal winning U.S. men's Olympic gymnastics team. During the Athens Olympics, Blaine, the most experienced member of the team, provided a strong leadership role to the team and helped the United States to its first men's gymnastics medal in 20 years. Blaine received the highest score on the still rings, his favorite event, to push the team from bronze to silver after falling to third for a short time.

Blaine has been a U.S. all-around champion five times and Athens was the third Olympics in which he participated. Despite his familiarity with the Olympic games and competing under pressure, Blaine had an added setback to overcome. In February of 2004 during the American Cup competition, Blaine tore his biceps muscle while competing on the still rings. His determination and skill are highlighted in the struggle he met to compete and medal in Athens.

Blaine was born and raised in Columbus, Ohio. He attended Columbus Gymnastics Academy, DeSales High School, and the Ohio State University, where he plans to complete his degree in Psychology after retiring from gymnastics.

Again, I congratulate Blaine for all of his dedication and hard work and the achievements he has met both personally and with his team while representing our country on the world stage in Athens.

A TRIBUTE TO NANCY KRAUS

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 8, 2004

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great honor and pride that I rise today to pay tribute to Mrs. Nancy Kraus who is retiring after 22 years of dedicated service to the San Mateo Union High School District.

The students, teachers, parents, administrators, and members of the community who had the honor of working with her, first at Capuchino High School, then at the San Mateo Union High School District Office, offer their highest praise and appreciation for her years of service. She exemplifies the highest ideals of loyalty, professionalism, and devotion to duty.

During 8 years at Capuchino High School, as Administrative Assistant to two Principals, Mrs. Kraus was able to involve parents in their children's education like no one had before. She designed and wrote a newspaper for parents, and created a weekly column that praised the accomplishments of students and informed the community of initiatives at the school. She developed activities for the annual Capuchino Open House that celebrated both the high school and the community and resulted in the largest parent participation ever at that event. In addition, she was the recipient of the Martin Luther King Award for Outstanding Leadership, presented by the Capuchino Black Student Union, as well as the Woman of the Year Award from the student government of the school.

At the District Office, Mrs. Kraus served as Executive Assistant to two Superintendents where her immense skills and deep commitment to education earned her the highest esteem and trust by all whose lives she touched. Mr. Speaker, Nancy Kraus was the consummate problem solver tackling issues both large and small with persistence. In recent years, she gave primary and critical leadership during four major bond campaigns that provided $137.8 million in necessary resources so that the San Mateo Union High School District could renovate and reconstruct its six comprehensive high schools to meet the demands of a 21st century education.

Mr. Speaker, Nancy's involvement went far beyond the duties of the offices in which she worked. She was a founding member of the San Bruno Community Theater and conducted all of its public relations for several years. She encouraged students to participate in the annual Millbrae Lions Club essay contest. She was a co-advisor to student government. She shared her love of opera by offering students voluntary education in opera appreciation which she taught during the lunch hour and then took full busloads on special field trips to performances of the San Francisco Opera.

Mr. Speaker, at the start of the coming school year, Nancy Kraus will be immensely missed. However, her brilliant leadership, the thoughtful, caring and constructive guidance she provided, the complex and difficult problems she helped to solve, and the skills she brought to her work all helped to make the San Mateo Union High School District the excellent educational institution that I am proud to represent. I know she deserves every extra moment that she will get to spend with her husband, daughter and two grandchildren. I urge all of my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Nancy Kraus, whose contributions to students, staff, and community will not be forgotten.

JUNK FAX PREVENTION ACT OF 2004

SPEECH OF

HON. ARTUR DAVIS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 20, 2004

Mr. DAVIS of Alabama. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 4600, the Junk Fax Prevention Act of 2004. This Bill codifies the reinstatement of an established business relationship exception permitting businesses, associations and charities to send commercial faxes without receiving written permission from the recipient. Additionally, H.R. 4600 crafts reporting requirements granting Congress the authority to regulate the FCC's enforcement activities, and includes an "opt-out provision"
